FOUR WOMEN SEEK PROM GIRL HONOR FILINGS INDICATE

Student Council Will Meet Monday to Decide Manner Of Ensuing Elections.

Since only four women have filed for prom girl, the Student Council will meet Monday night to decide whether or not the candidates will be voted on at the general election Tuesday. The girls who filed for Prom Girl are: Jane Youngson, Kappa Alpha Theta, of Minden; Betty Everett, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Lincoln; Marjorie Quivey, Alpha Phi, Omaha; and Lucille Hitchcock, Lincoln, Alpha Omicron Pi, Lincoln.

The other position to be filled at the student election is that of Ivy Day orator. Ralph Rodgers, Sigma Chi, Lincoln, is the Yellowjacket faction candidate for the position while George Mickel, Delta Tau Delta, Omaha, is the Blueshirt applicant.

More Girls Usually Apply.

Always before at the election for Prom Girls there have been more than four applicants. The four girls receiving the greatest number of votes in the student election became candidates to be voted on by those attending the prom.

This year, according to Phil Brownell, Student Council president, if the council decides that it is not necessary to vote on the applicants at the general election Tuesday, the four candidates will be voted on at the prom. However, if the council deems it desirable, two girls will be eliminated at the student election and the other two will be voted on at the prom.

Announcement of the council's decision concerning the selection of the Prom Girl will appear in the Daily Nebraskan Tuesday morning.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLANS ANNUAL PLAY CONTEST

Dramatic Club President Says Stage Is Set for Original Plays.

With plans for the University Dramatic club's annual play contest completed, and ticket sales, according to Lee Young, president of the club, getting under way, the stage is all set for the presentation of three original one-act plays, Wednesday, March 1.

The three plays chosen by the contest committee were all written by University of Nebraska students and are to be publicly presented for the first time on this campus. "Wise Guy," by Hal Eaton; "The Winning of Harry Jones" by Margaret Deming and Dorothy Cook, and "Kaddish" by Zolley Lerner are the three plays. "Wise Guy" is cast.

"Wise Guy" has been cast and is being directed by its author. Joe di Natalie will take the part of Bud Weiser (of the Bud Weiser Brewery). The rest of the cast, John Chapman, Leila Irwin, Charles Steadman, Ruth Homes, and Art Bailey will play their own characterizations.

The plot takes place about twenty-five years in the future, with two of the characters, a boy and a girl, working together on a blackmail scheme. The girl goes to the office of Bud Weiser, makes love to him and is caught in his arms by an accomplice, who blackmails the wealthy brewer. The resulting situation gives an exciting story to this feature on the program. And there are two other excellent plays, Young said.

INFORMALITY TO BE KEYNOTE AT ANNUAL HONORARY'S PARTY

Girls Will Be Hosts to Boy Friends at Affair This Friday Night.

Informality will be the keynote of the Mortar Board party to be held in the coliseum, Friday night, Feb. 24, at which university girls will be hosts to their boy friends.

Chaperones announced for the party are Miss Mable Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson, and Miss Polly Gellatly. Guests invited to attend are Miss Florence I McGahey, Dean and Mrs. T. J. Thompson, Miss Amanda Heppner, Miss Margaret S. Fedde, Miss Elsie F. Piper, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ramsey.

Tickets are now on sale by members of Mortar Board, the Tassels and members of Alpha Lambda Delta. Coeds are urged to arrange for dates and purchase their tickets early, before the supply of available males is depleted.

The organization has decided to use no decorations in the coliseum. The money will be used to enlarge its educational fund.

Dr. Patterson Will Speak on Religion

Under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A., Dr. C. H. Patterson, member of the University Philosophy department, will give a talk upon "What Religion Means to Me," Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. The meeting will be held in the "Y" rooms of the Temple. Dr. Patterson's talk will be followed by a brief discussion.

Eager Children View Presentation Of Fourth Children's Theater Plays

"Racketty Packetty House," the fourth of the Children's Theater plays to be presented by the University Players and sponsored by the Lincoln Junior League, was received by a large audience of children Friday evening and Saturday afternoon in the Temple theater. The play was directed by Miss Alice H. Howell and Miss Pauline Galletly, assisted by Lucille Cypreansen. The cast included thirty little children from Miss Galletly's Saturday morning dramatics class who performed with naturalness.

Racketty Pax is a doll house in the nursery of Cynthia, the spoiled little girl of a wealthy family, who has grown tired of the doll family and house that once were played with by her grandmother and Queen Victoria and treats them with most shameful neglect. When Tidy Castle, a splendid new doll house full of upish lords and ladies, is brought to the nursery, it

EIGHTY-NINE RECEIVE TUITIONARY AWARDS FOR THIS SEMESTER

Honored Students Chosen on Basis of Scholarship, Financial Need.

Eighty-one University of Nebraska students, mostly seniors, have been granted tuition scholarships for the current semester, according to announcement Saturday. These scholarships are granted on a basis of scholarships and financial need. The scholarships themselves are prorated among the several colleges of the University on a basis of enrollment. More than twice as many students as ever before applied for these scholarships, according to university officials.

Lincoln, with twenty-four students receiving these scholarships, led the list of cities represented. North Platte was second with three students. Omaha was one of the several cities represented by two students.

Following are those holding scholarships for the current semester.

HERB YENNE WINS KOSMET CONTEST

Y. W. INSTALLS CABINET Jean Alden, New President, Reports Entire Ceremony Most Emphressive.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet installation Wednesday Feb. 15 was most impressive and symbolic, according to Joan Alden, the newly-installed president. Candelabras containing white candles lighted the table where a triangle of ferns was laid. As each new cabinet member received her commission, she placed a white rose on the triangle.

Jane Robertson, retiring president, presented Jean Alden with the triangle symbolic of the Y. W. C. A. organization.

A dinner followed the installation at which both members of the old and new cabinets were present, also members of the advisory board.

TASSELS COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR NATIONAL PEP CLUB

Constitution Reaches Three University Groups Which Originated Plan.

The constitution of the girls national pep organizations is now in the hands of the girls pep clubs at Kansas and Nebraska Universities and Kansas State, to be ratified. Upon being approved by these three schools, the organization will be eligible to become national, having abided by the constitution for one year, according to Anne Bunting, president of the association.

The association was organized at a convention last April which was held by members of the three schools in order to found a national girls pep club. At the convention Miss Bunting of Nebraska was elected first president while a girl from Kansas university, vice-president and from Kansas State, secretary-treasurer.

The clubs are planning to hold another convention in April at either Lawrence or Manhattan, Kas. The club, according to the president, plans to enlist the girls pep organizations of the Big Six schools and then spread east and west.

A name for the organization has not yet been selected although two have been submitted. They are Lambda Chi Sigma and Phi Chi Sigma. An emblem for the club will be also chosen.

The purpose of the organization according to the constitution is to create fellowship and cooperation among girls pep organizations of colleges and universities.

LIBRARIAN GIVES HUMOROUS SKITS AT DELIAN-UNION

At the meeting of the Delian-Union Literary society, Feb. 17, Mr. Gilbert H. Doane, University of Nebraska librarian, gave a group of humorous readings. The program also included a skit presented by Wilma Bute, Lorine Ericson, and Milo Price, solos by Francis Johnson and Miss Misner, and a characterization by Dorothy Kepner. Hubert Heigle was in charge of the meeting.

University Graduate Will Present Paper

At the meeting of the American Concrete Institute, in Chicago, Feb. 23, LeRoy J. Snyder, '31, will present a paper on "Thermal Properties of Mass Concrete." Snyder has done research in calorimetric methods, rooms, controls and adiabatic curing. His present position is junior engineer, division of dams, U. S. bureau of reclamation, Denver, Col.

'Bar Nothing Ranch' Named Prize-Winning Play for Spring Production.

For the second time in as many years, Kosmet Klub will present as its annual spring production a prize winning play by Herb Yenne of the dramatics department. This year the organization has selected what is considered to be his best work, "The O'Ranch," ("Bar Nothing Ranch.")

Announcement of the selection of Yenne's manuscript from those submitted to the Klub for consideration was made yesterday by Jack Thompson, president of the organization. The author of the play will receive a cash prize of fifty dollars.

"The Bar Nothing Ranch" will use an all male cast, as has been the custom in the past. The Klub had seriously considered the possibility of a mixed cast, according to Thompson, but a canvass of student opinion on the matter favored an all male cast.

Play Has Possibilities.

"Undoubtedly 'The Bar-O Ranch' is one of the best plays ever selected by Kosmet Klub to be presented in its annual spring show," Prof. E. F. Schramm, faculty adviser to the group and member of the committee which judged the plays submitted, declared yesterday. "It contains wonderful entertainment possibilities and a very general interest."

"The Bar-Nothing Ranch" is the nineteenth play to be presented by Kosmet Klub since 1911. It is also the fourth play by Herb Yenne to be produced. Previous plays by Yenne which the Klub has presented are "Jingle Belles," last year, "The Love Hater," in 1928, and "The Dream Pirate" in 1927. Yenne is a former member of Kosmet Klub.

Tryouts for parts in "The Bar-O Ranch" will be held Tuesday night, Feb. 21, in room 203 of the Temple building at seven o'clock. All men interested in trying out for parts, should be there promptly at seven, Thompson said. A maximum of forty-nine parts is called for in the cast.

REMAINING VACANCIES DETERMINE DEADLINE

Lee Young Announces Junior Section to Close When Spaces Are Filled.

Emphasizing the point that there are only forty-nine spaces left for pictures in the junior section of the 1933 Cornhusker, Junior Editor Lee Young yesterday explained that this means an early closing of that section. "No more than this number of pictures can possibly be accommodated," he said, "because the expense involved in changing the layout of the junior section is prohibitive."

This means that the deadline will be determined by number rather than date and that the deadline may be reached within the next few days. Young pointed out. Pictures may be taken at either Hauck's or Townsend's studios until the remaining forty-nine spaces are filled, which will automatically complete the section.

He urged that juniors who have not had their pictures taken for the year book do so at once, since the first forty-nine will be the ones who get in. "By the way junior pictures are coming in," he stated, "indications are that the deadline will be reached within the next few days."

Two Engineer Alums Visit Here Recently

Recent alumni visitors at the college of engineering offices include Stanley Miller, '32, Omaha, and Oliver C. Reedy, '32, who has been on highway location work for the Colorado bureau of public roads.
