FACULTY EXTENDS DANCING DEADLINE FOR ANNUAL PARTY

Students May Dance Until Midnight at Mortar Board Affair.

The faculty committee on student affairs has extended the deadline on dancing to 12 o'clock for the second annual Mortar Board party to be held in the Coliseum, Friday night, according to an announcement by Helen Baldwin who is in charge of general arrangements for the affair. However, no extension of the 12:30 limit for dates has been granted, and girls must take their dates home and be back at their own houses by that time.

In an effort to establish the Mortar Board party as a tradition, members of the society urge all girl students to give it their full support. Tickets may still be purchased from Tassels, members of Alpha Lambda Delta, and Mortar Board, or may be obtained at the Coliseum Friday night. Advance ticket sales indicate that a large crowd will be in attendance.

Mortar Board members wish to stress the fact that the affair will

AG SHOW TICKETS ARE PUT ON SALE

Final Dress Rehearsal To Be Staged Next Thursday.

Tickets for Ag student's Collagri-fun show Friday evening, March 3rd, were placed on sale this morning. Ticket sales manager Elmer Parli announced last night that a large force of students would begin ticket distribution Friday morning.

Admission to the show, according to the committee's report, will be twenty-five cents, ten cents for children, and thirty-five cents for reserved seats. The committee voted to charge the talent a ten cent admission this year. They pointed out that there will be twelve or fourteen acts in the show, and that students having parts get to see every act but their own.

Next Thursday night was announced as the final dress rehearsal. Chairman Mark Hackman instructed every group to be there in complete costume prepared to give their skit in finished form.

ORCHESIS ELECTS ELEVEN MEMBERS

Initiation for New Girls Will Be Held March 1.

Eleven new members were chosen at the Orchesis tryouts held Tuesday evening in the dancing studio of the women's gymnasium. The new members are: Alice Beckman, Louise Perry, Dorothy Davis, Josephine Davis, Helen Ledford, Doris Vrisko, Tyle O'Connor, Corrina Veal, Joan Crawford. These girls are to be members of the senior group. Newly chosen junior orchesis members are Grace Craddock and Nannette Hedgecock.

Initiation for these girls and for the members chosen in the first tryouts will be held Wednesday, March 1, at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Edythe Vail, instructor of physical education, is in charge of orchesis.

Pi Sigma Alpha to Hear Talk By Marion Cushing

Senator Marion Cushing of Ord will speak on the state income tax at a dinner meeting of Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary political science fraternity, Friday evening, Feb. 24, in the Y. M. C. A. A short business meeting will be held following the dinner meeting.

Registrations Must Be In to Graduate Office

Graduates must have their registration in to the graduate office by noon on Saturday. The graduate office will not accept registrations after that time.

FEBRUARY AWGWAN TO APPEAR MONDAY

Magazine Will Have Special Four Color Valentine Cover Design.

Originally scheduled to make its appearance on the campus today, the Awgwan will not go on sale until Monday, due to an error made during its printing, according to a statement made yesterday by H. Francis Cunningham, jr., editor of the humor publication.

With a special four color cover of an old fashioned valentine, by Morris Gordon, the February issue will have as its theme the valentine motif. Reflecting this feature will be the girl-of-the-month, who has been selected from the standpoint of all around beauty, according to the editor of the Awgwan.

Another feature of this issue will be the pictures of six girls, irrespective of affiliation, who were chosen by a mixed committee, and were judged by the beauty of the individual photographs.

The results of the election of the twelve most prominent men and women who have the best face, figure, hair, voice and personality, will be recorded in the February issue as a novelty.

Neil McFarland's third story in a series concerning the trials and tribulations of Chuck and Phyllis, two freshmen who believe that they are in love will also appear in the magazine.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH TO HOLD CONCERT

Lucille Ambrose Will Be Soloist at First Of Series.

The first of a series of free monthly concerts will be given next Sunday evening, Feb. 26, at 7:30 o'clock at the First-Plymouth Congregational church, 20th and D sts.

Lucille Ambrose, pianist, is the soloist of the first concert. She will play the concerto in B flat by Tschaiikowsky. Wilbur Chenoweth will play the orchestral parts on the four manual Kimball organ.

Sidney Pepple will sing the tenor air, "If With All Your Hearts" from Mendelsshon's Elijah.

The Carillon choir of the First-Plymouth church, Vera Upton, soprano soloist, will sing the church scene from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni.

The Secluded church choir in this work will be under the direction of Mrs. Lenore Burkett VanKirk. The public is invited to attend. An offering will be taken.

Students May Call For Semester Grades

The grades for the first semester are recorded and ready for distribution. Instead of being mailed they may be secured by calling at the Registrar's office, Administration 103, between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. (Saturday's 8 to 12.)

The grades for the College of Agriculture students will be in the Finance Office at the College of Agriculture until March 1.

Law grades will not be available.

Bring your identification card and come to one of the three windows marked with the initial letter of you last name.

The grade cards will be retained only until May 1. After that date credit books may be used.

FLORENCE I. MCGAHEY,
Registrar.

KLUB WANTS MUSIC FOR SPRING SHOW, 'THE BAR-O RANCH'

Deadline for Submitting Scores Is Set for March 2.

A call for music for "The Bar-O Ranch," Kosmet Klub's show scheduled for production this spring, was issued yesterday afternoon by Jack Thompson, president of the organization.

Several students and local musicians have already indicated their intentions of writing tunes for the show, Thompson said. The deadline for submitting music was set for next Thursday, March 2. Manuscripts will be taken any time at the Klub office in U hall.

Thompson urged all students planning to write tunes or lyrics for the show to turn their material in as soon as possible. Work on the musical end of the show will start as soon as music is selected and chuses chosen, he said.

Final tryouts for parts in the cast of the show will be held on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 26, at 2 o'clock in room 203 of the Temple building. Initial tryouts were held last Tuesday night, but so many others have indicated their desire to apply for parts that another tryout will be held, Thompson declared.

An attempt will be made to complete the cast and select the choruses Sunday afternoon. A special appeal for a number of small men for female impersonations and for eight persons to take part in a Spanish dance was issued after the tryouts Tuesday night by Co-director Herb Yenne.

ACTIVITY INCREASES AT YEARBOOK OFFICE

Spencer Wishes to See Editorial Staff Members.

Starting Monday the Cornhusker office will show increased activity according to Ralph Spencer, editor, who issued a request for every member of the editorial staff to report to him the first day of next week. All available help will be needed to take care of the extra work that will have to be done during next week.

The finishing up of the junior and senior sections and preparations for letting the printing contract for the 1933 book make it necessary for every staff member to keep the work in his department up to date, Spencer declared.

The junior and senior sections which are to be closed when the number deadline is reached will probably be filled some time next week, he said. Fraternity and sorority sections, which have been closed for some time will be completed.

The regular staff meeting of the entire editorial staff will be held Monday afternoon at four o'clock. "It is imperative that every member be present for this meeting," Spencer concluded.

NEEDS GUARDS FOR BOOKS

University Faculty Favor Searching of Students Leaving Library.

MADISON, Wis. (CNS). To put an end to the stealing of books from the University of Wisconsin library, the university faculty were on record this week in favor of a guard system whereby all students would be searched upon leaving the library shelves.

Owing to a budget shortage, however, the faculty faced some difficulty in obtaining authority to employ necessary guards, necessitating a delay in the "right of search" plan for at least a month. It was stated that the library loses some 750 books per year.

Kosmet Klub Tryouts Will Be Held Sunday

Tryouts for parts in the Kosmet Klub spring show will be held Sunday afternoon, February 26, at two o'clock in room 203 of the Temple building.

O'FUREY SPEAKS AT JOURNALISM MEETING

Senator Tells About Fields Of Journalistic Work Open to Beginner.

In an informal talk at the monthly dinner meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, Thursday night Senator J. P. O'Furey spoke of the two main fields of work open to beginning newspapermen.

Senator O'Furey, editor of the Cedar County News, stated that beginners may take up either metropolitan journalism or the country weekly newspaper. "Young journalists are apt to have an inclination towards the city paper because they think there are more thrills connected with it," he declared.

Country Paper Has Thrills.

The senator asserted that there are, however, many thrills in the country weekly field, and also, of greater importance, there is a better chance to render service. "I have had many years of work in both fields," he said, "and I much prefer the community weekly."

O'Furey also spoke briefly of the different types of country editors. According to him there are those who have risen from the print shop and no clear cut ideas on how to run a paper. They fear to follow out any strong editorial policy and render no service. Contrasted with these are the editors who take decided stands on what they think is right and in many cases render great service.

SEVERAL GROUPS HAVE PICTURES YET TO BE TAKEN

The following student organizations have not yet had their pictures taken for the 1933 Cornhusker. Sigma Lambda, Pi Lambda Theta, Mu Phi Epsilon, judging teams, dairy products, University 4-H club, engineers week committee, freshman auxiliary, Theta Nu, Council of Religious Welfare, Vesper choir, student publication board, Sigma Delta Chi, N. club, clubs, W. A. A. program, varsity basketball squad, varsity swimming squad, Phi Chi Theta, army staff, and Bizad News.

Joe Shramek, organization editor, urged that officials of the above named groups get in touch with him as soon as possible and arrange for the pictures.

Former Husker Football Captain Is Named to Post in Roosevelt Cabinet

By Howard G. Allaway.

A cabinet post for one of its former students who was captain of its football team in 1894 was President-elect Roosevelt's recognition of the University of Nebraska whose students last fall voted almost two-to-one for his opponent in a straw poll!

George H. Dern, former governor of Utah, who was officially announced in Washington yesterday as Mr. Roosevelt's choice to head the Department of War after March 4, was a student at Nebraska intermittently from 1893 to 1897. He was two years a member of the Nebraska varsity football team and as captain in 1894 led the Huskers to a conference championship. That was, as he puts it in a recent letter to the alumni office, "back in the days of the flying wedge and other mass plays in which muscle counted."

While in school here, Mr. Dern, along with former Governor Adam McMullen and Arthur J. Weaver of Nebraska, helped found the Nebraska chapter of Delta Tau Delta, fifth fraternity on the campus.

Dern Leaves School in 1897. He left school in 1897 without

MISS JANE STEEL IS PRESENTED AS BEST DRESSED GIRL

Identity Kept Secret Until End of Coed Follies Program.

Jane Steel, Pi Beta Phi, from Omaha, was presented as Nebraska's Best-dressed girl to a large audience of university women who attended the annual Coed Follies Thursday evening at the Temple theater.

Four year old Mary Healy opened the cover of an improvised Vogue magazine revealing Miss Steel whose identity had been kept a secret until the end of the evening's program. Jane Axtell, A. W. S. president, gave her a bouquet, a gift of the A. W. S. board.

Sororities Present Skits.

The prelude was given by Delta Gamma following which the Chi Omega sorority presented a stunt "Hairbreadth Harry." When Millie Comes to College, fashion promenade, had the following characters in addition to the models: Sales Lady, Clara Christianson; Milly, Barbara Spoery; Milly's Mother, Mrs. Wanta B. Right, Dorothy Zimmer.

NEBRASKA DEBATERS MEET PERU NORMAL

Discuss Cancellation of World War Debts and Reparations.

Cancellation of the World war debt and reparations is the question to be debated upon by the Nebraska affirmative debate team, composed of Harvey H. Williams and Charles W. Steadman, against Peru Normal in Social Science auditorium at 4 p. m. this afternoon.

The debaters will hold an open forum immediately following the debate in which the audience are free to ask questions or discuss the subject further.

An affirmative debate team including H. Vincent Broady and Howard L. Holtzendorff left for Denver Wednesday for a debate tournament which was arranged by colleges of Colorado. They will take the affirmative side of the debt cancellation subject in six debates, three on Thursday and three on Friday.

Thursday they will engage the Teachers college of Greeley, Colo., and the Colorado Agricultural college of Denver. On Friday they will meet Western State Teachers college of Gunnison's team, Colorado Agricultural college for the second time, and the University of Colorado.

waiting for a degree. Two years later he married Miss Lottie Brown of Fremont, his own home town. About 1900 the young couple accompanied his father to Utah where the older Dern bought into a gold mine which later made him a millionaire.

Starting as a bookkeeper, Mr. Dern worked rapidly to the top in the mining business and to the head of his own company. He later became a banker, head of a power company, head of a canning factory and in 1920 turned to politics.

Running on the democratic ticket in the traditionally republican state of Utah, he was elected governor by a margin of 10 thousand votes the same year Coolidge carried the state on the national republican ticket with a 30 thousand majority. In 1928 he was re-elected, this time increasing his vote to a 31 thousand majority. Hoover again carried the national race in the state.
