

TIGER CAGE TEAM INVADES NEBRASKA TERRITORY FRIDAY

Missourians Need Win to Keep in Running For Title.

Tomorrow night the Missouri Tigers invade the Nebraska cage court in another endeavor to win a Big Six game on the road, and also in an attempt to keep in the title picture.

If the Missourians succeed in defeating the Brownmen they will have won five games and lost three in this year's conference competition thus far, and it would also be the second win for the Columbia five over Nebraska this winter. On January 7 the Edwards team played host to the Huskers on the Missouri floor and set back the Nebraska quint 37 to 33.

Although the Browne team has only won two tilts from league opponents this year and lost five, the game tomorrow night is rated a tossup. General opinion doesn't give the Tigers the edge which it seems might be theirs, because of the fact that they have yet to win a conference game on a foreign court, and also it must be kept in mind that the visitors had a narrow squeak when they played the Nebraskans on the Columbia floor. In fact the Scarlet ties for the honor of holding them to the closest margin to which they have been held on their home floor this season by a Big Six enemy, Kansas also having lost by only a four point margin, 21 to 17.

Browne Announces Starters.

Coach W. Harold Browne announced Thursday afternoon that he probably would start Bud Parsons and Hub Boswell at forwards, Walt Henrion, center, and George Sauer and Steve Hokuf at guards. Last week against South Dakota Parsons went on a scoring spree and tallied 13 points for his evening's work, and he is starting Saturday evening with the hope that he can continue his top-notch game. Boswell, Henrion, Hokuf, and Sauer have also been on the floor with their basket eyes several times of late, and considerable time has been spent in the past week on offensive work.

In the Tiger lineup there probably will be seen Johnny Cooper, and George Stuber, forwards, Wagner, center, and Miller and Jorgenson, guards. Cooper was all-conference forward last season and tied Bill Johnson of Kansas for high scoring honors of the league with 112 points in ten games.

Wagner Ranks High.

Wagner ranked next to Johnson among the centers of the Big Six, while Miller was the man who led the Missouri attack against the Jays when the Kansans fell before the Edwards attack 21 to 17, two weeks ago. Last week the Missouri five set back the conference-leading Sooners by a 40 to 30 count.

George Stuber is the man who played for St. Joseph Central in his high school days, and when he and George Sauer meet they will be able to keep memories of old times in mind.

Bernard Passer, substitute forward for the Missourians, is only 5 feet 2 inches tall, but notwithstanding this handicap he sees plenty of action in all of the games.

The probable lineups:

CONFERENCE CATCHES

BY BURT MARVIN.

The spring in the air Thursday reminds one that the basketball season has just about spent itself, and thus it is about time to begin discussing prospects for next winter's team. Since the new fellows are due to come from among the freshman ranks it is sort of interesting to see just who is on the yearling five.

There's three boys from Waverly on the first year squad in the persons of Everett Martin and Everett Munn, forwards, and Dwight Loder, center. These three cagers have been performing together for a number of years, in fact they started to team together back in the grades, so there is plenty of co-operation among the trio. Munn is the man who scored twenty-two points in one of the games during the state high school basketball tourney last winter. Loder made All-state, and Martin received honorable mention. The five from Waverly, which is a town of about 300, went to the semi-finals of the meet only to lose to Crete, eventual champs, in that round.

John Parilek is the only representative of last years state championship Crete five who is playing on the yearling quint. This diminutive forward was all-state in both football and basketball for two years, and is about the fastest floor man among the Frosh.

Virgil Yelkin, who hails from Lincoln high, appears to be about the best of the freshman prospects for the varsity squad next year. Yelkin plays at either guard or center, and all season has been the yearling ace in scrimmages with the first team. His one-handed speciality shot has been responsible for a good number of tallies in the Frosh cause.

Two other fellows who appear to be likely prospects are Merrill Morris, forward, and Don North, guard, who come from Jackson and Lincoln, respectively. North plays a good floor game and is one of the best defensive men on the squad. Morris was last year's outstanding star on the Jackson high five, being good for ten points in most any game. Bernie Scherer is another center prospect, who has the size and ability, but lacks the experience some of the other men have had.

Nebraska has had the good luck of having possessed some fine pole vaulters in its time, and now Coach Schulte has under his wing the best prospect in this event the Husker has ever seen. Carl Nichols is the freshman who is expected to set up some records during his college days. He holds the Nebraska high school record in this event having cleared 12 feet 5 3/8 inches, which is usually plenty good for college meets.

HUSKER SWIMMERS TO MEET GRINNELL

Vogeler Expects Plenty of Competition from Pioneers.

Saturday morning Coach Rudy Vogeler and the Husker swimming team are slated to leave for the third dual meet of the season with the Grinnell college tanksters at Grinnell.

Two weeks ago the Huskers lost 44 to 40 to the Iowa State mermen and since then the Amesmen have gone down before the Grinnell crew, so Vogeler is expecting plenty of competition with the Pioneers Saturday evening.

Men who are making the trip are Bernie Masterson, Dan Easterday, Howard Church, Ray Gavin, Jack Gavin, Bill Kelley, Don Fleishbach, Jack Minor, and Palmer Gallup.

LITERARY GROUP TO MEET

Palladian Society Will Stage Annual Boys Program Saturday.

The annual boys' program of the Palladian Literary society is to be held Saturday evening at 8:30 at Palladian hall in the Temple building.

The program is to be made up of three comedy skits and two serious numbers. Billy Donahue and John McLean are scheduled to present a vaudeville act and the group as a whole will put on "The Podunk Conflagration" and "Our Girls" to complete the humorous selections.

Ross Bauman and Kenneth Millett will play a clarinet duet, and then there is to be an Oriental dance act called "The Death of Tsan" presented by Andre Durrant. The meeting is to be open to the public.

FINALS TO BE PLAYED

Interfraternity Volley Ball Tourney Will Be Finished Next Wednesday.

Finals of the interfraternity volleyball tourney will be held next Wednesday evening in the Coliseum between winners of the four league championships.

Alpha Tau Omega won the championship of League I, Phi Sigma Kappa captured the crown in the League II race, Beta Theta Pi is champ among the league III teams, and the title match in league IV is yet to be played between Delta Sigma Phi and Farm House.

Iowa State Home Ec Majors Make Toys

AMES, Ia.—Painted spool-and-cork dolls, stocking-stuffed toys, colored sponge animals, rolypolies that jump, jig saw puzzles—these are some of the inexpensive toys Iowa State college home economics girls, "majors" in applied art, are making in their toy shop.

The girls are designing these unusual toys to cheer children at the Children's hospital, Iowa City. Most of the toys have been made from scraps and left overs; the cost has been next to nothing.

the highest target record. The contestants for this week's matches are: Beth Taylor, Elizabeth Gilley, Margaret Mordant, Margaret Hill, Adela Tombrink, Esther Scott, Carolyn Van Anda, Rosemary Needham, Irene Nabity, Esther Iadenburg, Francis Hinkle, Jean Irwin, Emily Spangaar, Elizabeth Bochar and Helen Kent.

Groups Fail to Pay Yearbook Contracts

There are, according to Charles Skade, business manager of the Cornhusker, a few organizations that have not paid for their contracts. These must be paid for before the pictures and panel can be sent to the engravers to be included in the annual, he stated.

WHICH ONE IS YOU?

As far as your folks are concerned there's a g-r-e-a-t difference seeing what you write and hearing what you say!

Letters written to Dads and Mothers in that restrained, what-shall-I-talk-about manner don't sound to them like the boys and girls they used to know. But your voice does.

You'll both find lots to talk about once you begin talking over the telephone. That's why we say, if you want to be natural, don't write — telephone Mother and Dad. Your voice is Y-O-U.

A badly strained purse is no detriment; just say to the operator, "I want to reverse the charges!"
