

The Daily Nebraskan

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXII—NO. 113.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1933.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

WORLD FAIR TO BE SUBJECT OF HAEIN TALK NEXT TUESDAY

Famous Speaker Is Brought Here by Convocation Committee.

Scientific progress during the last century which will be depicted in various exhibits at the Chicago world fair, will be the subject of the talk given by Mr. John Haein, at the Temple theater March 14, at 11 o'clock under the supervision of the convocation committee.

Mr. Haein, who is the official representative of the exposition committee, will confine his talk to the scientific and educational aspects of the exhibits, emphasizing the social and natural sciences on display and featuring the aspects that will interest the student and faculty members, according to J. O. Hertzler, chairman of the committee.

More than 100 outstanding commercial, scientific, and educational organizations will present developments of modern science and the effects of modern changes on mankind in their exhibits at the exposition.

The speaker is brought to the students and faculty of the university highly recommended. For many years he was connected with the Roger Babson Institute, Wellesley Hills, Mass. where he was engaged in vocational guidance service in business. In this work Mr. Haein gained invaluable knowledge in dealing with students and their problems. Immediately after leaving the institute, Mr. Haein was engaged by the board of lecturers of the Chicago exposition.

BOTANY DEPARTMENT PLANS SUMMER CAMP

Professor R. J. Pool Will Be Director of Project.

The department of botany has arranged to conduct certain courses in the Rocky mountains during the first six weeks of the 1933 summer session. The program will be under the immediate direction of Prof. Raymond J. Pool, chairman of the botany department at the university.

Camp Olympus in Estes Park will be used as the headquarters for those taking the course. Meals and lodging at the camp and auto transportation thru the park as well as fees for the course are included in the estimated total cost of $161 for the six weeks. This does not include transportation from the student's home to the park.

The courses which will be given are intended to be of particular value to teachers of botany, biology, and nature study, as well as to college students who wish to supplement their training and to broaden their acquaintance with the field.

The principle course will utilize the natural resources of the mountain environment to present a broad view of modern biology with particular reference to flowering plants, forests, etc.

An advanced course will also be available for those with considerable training in plant taxonomy or ecology and who will be able to work independently with minimum guidance.

Enrollment is limited. The possible enrollment for the camp is limited to forty. Bulletins containing complete details may be obtained at the university extension division offices in the former museum.

The university has sponsored this camp-class project for the past seven years with notable success. The scholastic endeavors of the campers are interspersed with two overnight camping trips, and class will begin on Monday, June 12, and will close on Thursday, July 20.

Y. W. C. A. STAFFS MEET

Miss Mildred Overholser Discusses Period Furniture.

The family development relations staff and the publicity staff of the Y. W. C. A. held a joint meeting Wednesday, March 8, at 5 o'clock. Miss Mildred Overholser gave a review on "Period Furniture."

She discussed the peculiarities of various styles of furniture and demonstrated, by pictures, the position of such furniture in the home. Gothic, Tudor, Stuart, Sheraton, Chippendale and Hepplewhite were the types discussed.

PRINCIPALS CHOSEN FOR KOSMET SHOW

Rehearsals of Cast Will Begin Early Next Week.

Principals tentatively selected to play leading roles in the "Bar-O Ranch," Kosmet Klub's spring production, met yesterday afternoon with Herb Yenne, author and casting director of the show, for the initial reading of the lines for each character.

Regular rehearsals of the cast will start early next week and continue every day during the afternoons, Yenne said. Final and definite selection of all characters will be made as soon as possible after regular rehearsals have started, he indicated.

Work on the selection and arrangement of costumes for parts was begun yesterday, according to Byron Goulding, member of Kosmet Klub in charge of costumes for the production. All costumes will be completed as soon as the cast is announced, he declared.

Members of the pony chorus continue to hold regular rehearsals every evening in Morrill hall under the co-direction of Dr. Ralph Ireland and John Zeilinger. The first of a number of dances has been mastered by the group, and work on several others has begun, Zeilinger announced.

FIFTY TRY OUT FOR MILITARY SOCIETY

Pershing Rifles to Fill Twenty Vacancies in Company.

Approximately fifty students taking basic military training tried out for Pershing Rifles, honorary group, Thursday afternoon at Nebraska hall. Twenty vacancies in the company will be filled from the applicants.

Those applicants passing the tests given yesterday will be voted upon by the members of the company and the desired number will be eliminated to fill the company.

Applicants for membership to the honorary military organization were tested on bearing, dress, appearance, close order drill movements, knowledge of sanitation and hygiene, first aid, manual of arms, courtesy, organization, and general data.

Captain Connor gave tests to the students on courtesy, dress and appearance and bearing; Captain Crissy tested the applicants on close order drill movements and bearing; Captain Sperry, sanitation, hygiene, first aid, and bearing; Major Speer, marksmanship and bearing; Captain Scott, manual of arms, bearing and courtesy; and Major Bishop, organization, general data, courtesy, and bearing.

Ag. Y. W. Commission To Entertain at Tea

The upperclass commission of the Ag Y. W. C. A. will serve tea Thursday from 4 to 5 o'clock in the Home Economic parlors to all women students interested in home economics. Katherine Jones is in charge of the committee.

FACULTY WOMEN'S CLUB WILL AWARD TWO SCHOLARSHIPS

Offer Is Open to All Girls Who Are at Present Of Junior Rank.

The Faculty Women's club announced Thursday that it would offer two senior scholarships, a first scholarship of $75, and a second of $50. The scholarships are open to all girls who are at present of junior rank and expect to graduate June, 1934 or at the end of the summer term of 1934.

The candidates must be wholly or partially self-supporting. These scholarships are not loans, but gifts of money, and are granted as awards of merit for efforts in school life as well as for scholarship attainments.

Application blanks maybe acquired at the Registrar's office, Miss Fedde's office, and Dean Heppner's office in Ellen Smith hall. The scholarship committee will meet each girl at Ellen Smith hall on Wednesday, March 29, between 1 and 4 o'clock. Each candidate is requested to bring her completed application to this meeting. If any applicant is unable to present her application at that time she may arrange with the chairman, Mrs. Norman L. Hill, F2430, for an earlier appointment.

Three recommendations, two of which should be from members of the faculty of the university, will be required from each applicant. These recommendations should be mailed directly to Mrs. Hill, 1735 So. 20, before March 28.

The scholarships will be presented in September, 1933, in time for use at registration. The successful candidates will be announced at Honors convocation on May 3.

APPLICANTS TO GO BEFORE COMMITTEE

Aspirants for A. A. U. W. Awards Will Appear Before March 15.

Wednesday, March 15, has been set as the date for university women applying for one of the American Association of University Women scholarships to appear before the chairman of the scholarship committee in Ellen Smith Hall. Applications and transcripts of grades or credit books must be delivered at that time.

Women applying for one of these scholarship awards must be registered for at least 12 hours of work and must have a high average. In addition to this, she must be wholly or in part self supporting. She must be either a sophomore or a junior in school at the present time.

Mrs. H. Channing Collins is the chairman of the Lincoln Branch of this association and is in charge of the awarding of these scholarships. According to a report received from her recently, these awards will be paid in two installments of $25 each, after the first and second semester registration.

Application blanks may be obtained from the Dean of Women in Ellen Smith Hall. The names of four persons, two of which must be members of the university faculty, the others not connected with the school must be given as references. Th recommendations must be sent directly to Mrs. Collins.

Prof. Weaver Speaks at Knife and Fork Meeting

"Prairies and Forests of Nebraska" was the topic of an illustrated lecture by Prof. J. E. Weaver of the botany department at a luncheon meeting of the Knife and Fork club at the Cornhusker yesterday noon.

PROF. BELL TO GIVE TALK

Members of Psi Chi Will Hear Discussion of Child Attitudes.

"The Ethnological Approach to the Study of Changing Child Attitudes" is the title of the speech to be given by Prof. E. R. Bell of the anthropology department at the regular meeting of Psi Chi, honorary psychological fraternity. The meeting will be held in the psychological laboratory on Monday, March 13, at 4 p. m.

'CAMILLE' CONCLUDES RUN SATURDAY NIGHT

Latest Production Has Been Received Favorably By Critics.

The University Players production, "Camille," which opened at the Temple theater last Monday, will conclude a successful week's run this Saturday night.

Received favorably by critics, Miss Alice Howell's latest production has been well attended the entire week by university theater goers.

"At the request of many 'Camille' was produced by the Players, and represents a most difficult portrayal," said Zolley Lerner, member of Fine Arts faculty, yesterday.

Leading roles in the production have been capably handled by Miss Augusta French, as Camille; Herbert Yenne cast as Armand, and Theodore Diers playing the part of Monsieur Duval. Other members of the cast who have done especially admirable work are Lee Young, as the Comte de Varville, and Armand Hunter and Rhoana Smith in their subordinate parts.

University theater goers will enjoy new cushion seats which are being installed to replace the old wooden seats.

METHODISTS SPONSOR BARN PARTY TONIGHT

Rev. W. C. Fowler and Glen Heady Have Charge Of Affair.

Taking the form of a barn frolic, the third all-Methodist party of the year will be held at 8 o'clock Friday night at Grace Methodist church, 27th and R streets.

The program will be under the direction of Mr. Glen Heady, president of the M. E. Student Council, and Rev. W. C. Fowler, pastor of Grace church.

Following are committees for the party: decorations, Frank Grey, Robert McCandless, Bruce Reed, Henry Gebala, Mary Fralley, Ruth Woodstruck, and Mildred Bohrer; refreshments, Hattie Lenke, Carroll Wilson, Mildred Williams, Francis Kingsley; entertainment, Jim Toole and Marvin Edminson.

In addition to games, a quartet composed of Marian Thayer, Lloyd Watt, Howard Gray and Donald Gray will furnish entertainment.

Silence of Morrill Hall Is Broken By Chattering of Children's Voices

By Bruce Nicoll. The sedate silence of Morrill hall is broken every day by the loud pattering of hundreds of feet and the excited chattering of children's voices as they gaze open-mouthed at the "pitchers."

Such is the occurrence when hundreds of children from the Lincoln public schools visit daily the forty-third annual painting exhibition, being sponsored by the Nebraska Art association on the second floor of Morrill Hall.

"The children get a great thrill out of many of the pictures," said Miss Charlotte Kizer, supervisor of art for the Lincoln schools, who is in charge of the programs. Twice a day, Miss Kizer meets groups from the various Lincoln grade schools and high schools,

KAY AND HIS BAND WILL FURNISH OWN AMPLIFYING SYSTEM

Committee Declares That Music May Be Heard Plainly.

With Herbie Kay and his orchestra furnishing their own amplification equipment when they play for the Junior-Senior prom in the coliseum Friday night, dancers and spectators are assured of hearing the music plainly in all parts of the hall, according to Woodrow Magee and Virgene McBride, committee in charge of music.

Early ticket sales had picked up considerably Thursday. Lloyd Loomis and Lucille Reilly, committee on tickets, announced. Priced at $1.50, tickets may be purchased from any special salesman on the campus, or at Magee's. They will also be on sale at the coliseum Friday night.

Spectators, for whom a special section has been reserved in the west balcony, will purchase their tickets at the coliseum entrance for twenty-five cents.

John Gepson and Ruth Cherney, committee in charge of decorations, stated that original decoration plans will be carried out with a lattice work from balcony to floor extending around the hall. Lights will be lowered to within a few feet of the dancers.

The presentation of the prom girl will occur at 11 o'clock, when juniors and seniors will form two lines facing each other, and extending from the south to the north side. The prom girl will appear on the steps of the south balcony where she will be met by the junior and senior class presidents, and escorted between the lines to her throne on the north side of the hall.

The orchestra will then play a number dedicated especially to juniors and seniors.

"With final preparations for the 1933 prom nearly completed," Vernon Filley, co-chairman of the prom committee said, "we feel that this year's party will prove to be the auspicious occasion it should be as the final formal event of the season."

SCHRAMM SPEAKS ABOUT HELL WEEK

States That Many Groups Have Abandoned Idea Altogether.

No "hell week" activities have taken place outside of fraternity houses this year, according to E. F. Schramm of the geology department and faculty advisor of the interfraternity council.

"Approximately 50 percent of the fraternities have abandoned 'hell week' altogether since the rule barring all outside activities was made," he stated.

"There is no pronounced evidence of 'hell week' in any form on the campus this year," he asserted. The interfraternity council has no jurisdiction over such matters within the fraternities, however, but the idea is gradually dying out, he indicated.

and conducts them thru the galleries, explaining the significance of the pictures, as well as interesting events in the lives of the painters.

"The children have taken a great interest in the pictures, and one especially has never failed to attract their attention," said Miss Kizer, laughingly. "The name of it is 'Bather with Cigarette,' and represents a Japanese girl in a bathing costume smoking a cigaret." The picture was painted by Yosua, noted Japanese artist.

As part of an extensive art appreciation program being conducted in the Lincoln schools, over 200 children view the pictures daily. This practice has been conducted annually during the Art association's annual exhibit.