

COACH BIBLE SENDS SQUAD THRU DRILL ON FUNDAMENTALS

Mentors Are Pleased With Men Showing Plenty Of Polish.

Feeling that a little brushing up on individual play was necessary, Coach Bible sent his men thru their first drill on fundamentals during spring football practice period Wednesday afternoon.

In the two previous outdoor workouts the squad has been divided up into eleven groups which worked on the new formations which were depicted last week in the chalk talks.

In the individual practice Coach Bible took charge of the backfield men, Coach Browne drilled the ends, and the linemen were supervised and coached by Coaches Schulte and Weir.

After spending an hour or so on fundamentals the group of sixty-five reporting was divided into teams, which worked on the plays. Again the showing was pleasing to the mentors with the various outfits showing plenty of polish for this early in proceedings.

Promising men reporting for various positions are as follows:

Ends—Lee Penney, Bruce Kilbourne, Bob Joy, John Roby, Virgil Yelkin, Sears, Scott, Jim Milne, Leland Copple, Armstrong, and Dave Fowler.

Tackles—Gail O'Brien, Walt Pfum, Forrest McPherson, Russell Thompson, Jim McFarland, and John Kerikades.

Guards—Clair Bishop, Warren DeBus, Neal Mehring, Elmer Hubka.

Centers—Franklin Meier, Glenn Jones, Horchem, Hulac.

Backs—Henry Bauer, George Sauer, Jerry LaNoue, Bud Parsons, Ralph Eldridge, Ken White, Johnny Williams, Hub Boswell, Bernie Masterson, Jack Miller, Mead, Bailor.

CONFERENCE CATCHES

BY BURT MARVIN.

Labertew of Iowa State is, I believe, the only Big Six athlete to have rated Ripley's "Believe It Or Not." Fans here in Lincoln will remember him as the man who ran a lap in a cross country race with a broken ankle here at Memorial stadium between the halves of a football game in 1931. Everybody noticed that he was limping but not a person thought he had a busted limb, not even he himself. Anyway he is still competing in a big way on Big Six tracks and is one of the leading half-milers of the league. He has negotiated the distance of a half mile in 1:55 or thereabouts and always stands as a threat for first honors in the conference meet. He ran second to Moody of Oklahoma in the recent indoor meet at Missouri, Moody finishing in the time of 2:00.1.

There is still some basketball whiff on the breeze, Kansas University cagers, who again this winter assumed their habitual pose at the top of Big Six standings, have selected as their honorary captain, Bill Johnson. Johnson was star in the Jay lineup for three years and ranked second in the point column among Big Six athletes for the past season, scoring 109 points to 114 for Wagner of Missouri. He also rated a position on Big Six all-conference teams as he did last year.

Another stray splinter from the court is seen in the Oklahoma Daily wherein the sports scrivener, Frank Culwell, states that Walt Henrion, the Huskers' best basketballer, was the smoothest performer to play on the Sooner court all season. I've a feeling that Henrion would be as good a basketballer as there is if he was playing on a unified team, which chance he didn't get here.

The University of Kansas reports that basketball there was a paying proposition with a net profit of $2,668 being realized from a total attendance of 19,272 at the ten home games. The attendance wasn't quite as high as previously, but there were more cash customers and fewer student tickets.

Experience means a lot in inter-collegiate athletic competition as well as any place else. Whitley Cox, Oklahoma's star sophomore sprinter, was doped to give Heye Lambertus a tough struggle in the 60 yard dash in the Big Six meet last Saturday, but the best he did was fourth place. In previous trials he has checked off the time of 6.2, one of the best ever. It seems peculiar that no alibi for this sad result have been forthcoming from Frank Culwell's column "Skull Practice." Recently he has reeled off some good ones, laudable as far as such things may be.

He wants all Oklahoma's basketball games at home it seems, because they never lose there and have that annoying habit on other courts. He says the other floors are rotten, and that's why his Sooners dropped three games on the road this winter.

In the Oklahoma daily it was stated that Kansas, by defeating the Sooners, took their Big Six basketball championship away from them. It's funny, but we didn't realize they had such an article.

COACHES THINK TOO MANY FOULS CALLED

Nationwide Poll Shows Officiating Is Not Satisfactory.

BOULDER, Colo. (CNS). Too many fouls are called by officials in the average basketball game, in the opinion of numerous coaches and players who have expressed their opinions in a nationwide poll conducted by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, it was announced this week by Howard C. Beresford of the University of Colorado.

Beresford, as secretary-treasurer of the association, announced that 700 players and coaches who answered the questionnaire were generally of the opinion that present basketball rules should stand, but that officials should "call them the same way everywhere."

"Replies," Beresford said, indicated a dissatisfaction with too much "whistle blowing" by officials.

FIFTY-FOUR GRIDDERS REPORT AT KANSAS U

Coach Lindsay Has Largest Squad Out in History Of School.

LAWRENCE, Kas.—A squad of fifty-four men has been reporting for spring football practice in answer to Coach Ad Lindsey's call for candidates recently. This is the largest group to ever turn out for the sport at Kansas university.

Instead of dealing for a while with fundamentals Coach Lindsey has started in immediately with plays, and plenty of polish has already become evident.

Lettermen who have reported for drill are Ormand Beach, Ray Dumm, Dick Weaver, Ray Brinkman, Kenneth Kell, Ollie Nesmith, Warren Plasket, Ernest Casini, Elwyn Dees, and Pete Mehninger. About half of the squad is made up of members of last year's freshman outfit, and is fitting in as well as varsity men of last fall.

ANSWER IS FILED TO COPYRIGHT SUIT

Prof. Grumann States No Rights Were Violated.

An answer to the copyright suit brought against the Lincoln Supply Co., and Prof. Paul Grumann, former head of the fine arts school and now director of the Joslyn Memorial, by the University Publishing company was filed Wednesday in federal court.

Grumann denies that any copyright was violated in the publication of a series of "Picture Studies for School and Home," between 1925 and 1928 on which grounds suit has been filed.

He declares that the University Publishing company is stopped from suing on that ground, because it bought and circulated these books, and his own connection with the publication was that he read and corrected the manuscript and added some comment of his own, not taken from "Picture Studies" published in 1917.

Baron Munchausen, or someone with the same name, was a contributor to the editorial pages of The Californian ten years ago. His column was "Things Every Girl Should Know."
