Student Meeting Adopts Resolution

SIGMA XI, PHI BETA KAPPA NAME HONOR STUDENTS THURSDAY

Fifty-Five Recognized for Scholastic Ability at Joint Convocation.

Thirty-seven seniors were named as new members of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society, and eighteen others were announced as associate members of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, at a joint convocation held Thursday morning in the Temple theater.

Dr. Joseph E. A. Alexis, professor of romance languages at Nebraska, was announced as an honorary member of Phi Beta Kappa by Clifford M. Hicks, secretary of the Nebraska Alpha chapter, who then announced the new student members. Mr. M. M. Anderson, secretary of the Nebraska chapter of Sigma Xi, announced that society's new members.

Dr. Judd Speaks.

Dr. Charles Judd, director of the school of education at the University of Chicago, addressed the convocation, stating that modern scientific methods of teaching education are still hampered by the lack of a full understanding of human nature.

Pointing out the swift and rapid progress man has made in the fields of science and invention, Dr. Judd stated that on the other hand, progress in the study of new human nature works has been comparatively slow and is but little beyond ideas conceived in the dark ages.

Problems Would be Reduced.

Dr. Judd asserted that if man applied scientific theories and methods to the study of human behavior as he does to science, he might one day understand the forces which govern man's nature. If that day were to come, Dr. Judd declared that problems of education would be reduced to insignificance.

The convocation marked the thirty-sixth regular announcement of new Phi Beta Kappa members on the Nebraska campus.

Hubert Arnold, arts and science senior of Lincoln, was credited with the highest average of incoming Phi Beta Kappas with 95.23 percent for the four year period. 89.31 percent was the lowest average among new members of the society. Arnold's average has been surpassed but once in the last six years.

Arnold Gets Double Honors.

Arnold has the additional honor of being elected to membership in Sigma Xi, he being the only student.

Mid Semester Reports Are Due on Saturday

Mid-semester reports are due on or before Saturday, March 25 according to the announcement recently made from the office of the dean of student affairs. Reports are to be made on all students who are making unsatisfactory scholarship records. Scholarship irregularities and absences will also be reported. These reports are necessary in order that the cases of those students making unsatisfactory records may be given attention by the scholarship committee before spring vacation.

SORORITY PLEDGES SIX

Theta Sigma Phi to Initiate Newly Elected Girls Early in May.

Theta Sigma Phi, woman's journalistic honorary society, held pledging yesterday at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. The following girls were pledged: Miram Huse, Lucille Lindgren, Jeannette Lowery, Violet Cross, Ruth McNally and Mary Frances McReynolds.

Initiation will be held in the early part of May and will be followed by a banquet for active and alumnae members.

Students Sympathize With Efforts of Legislators to Meet Nebraska Needs

BE IT RESOLVED:

That the students of the University of Nebraska take full recognition of the efforts of the Nebraska legislature to reduce expenditures to conform to the incomes of the citizens of our state.

Our sentiment upon the subject of tax reduction must necessarily be tempered by our regard for the high educational institution of Nebraska. We appreciate the efforts of those who have gone before us, in building a university worthy of Nebraska. Because we fear the virtual nullification of these efforts, we ask that we be heard in our plea for the maintenance of present standards insofar as it may be compatible with state resources.

We ask only that the viewpoint of undergraduates and friends of this institution be given sympathetic consideration; and that this resolution be regarded in the true spirit of constructive loyalty in which it is presented.

SPECIAL EDITION OF NEBRASKA ALUMNUS RELEASED THURSDAY

Protests Against Proposed Appropriations Cut Is Made.

"What are you going to do about this—" asks a special edition of the Nebraska Alumnus distributed Thursday, March 23, in reference to the committee report read in the house March 22, as a substitute for Governor Bryan appropriation bill, listed as H. R. 5.

Stressing the fact that the proposed slash in the university appropriations of $385,000 below Governor Bryan's budget would mean an additional saving of only thirty-four cents in every hundred dollars of a taxpayer's bill, the edition appeals to Nebraska alumni to write, wire or telephone their representative to oppose the proposed cut.

Declaring that the university is facing the gravest crisis in the history of the institution, the

MEMBERS OF HOUSE VOTE ON UNIVERSITY FUNDS BILL TODAY

Democratic Caucus Pledges Unanimous Support of Proposed Slash.

Little hope remains for salvaging the university appropriations fund as the house members prepare to vote upon the measure sometime today. The democratic house organization, which met in caucus last Monday, pledged itself to unanimous support of the general appropriation bill, introduced by the finance committee.

The university measure, as recommended by the special investigating committee, will be brought before the legislature this afternoon, according to house leaders. Unanimous approval of the additional $400,000 cut is expected.

O'Malley Expresses Opinion.

Speaker O'Malley, in commenting upon the appropriations bill, stated that: "The entire bill, while it is not as perfect as might be drafted, should be sent to the senate Saturday, and not later than Monday."

General opinion in the house yesterday indicated that many of the members were highly incensed over the "attitude of the university and its officials" concerning the recent legislative investigation. Especially disturbed with the opinion of the Daily Nebraskan, and, as one member of the house stated: "What supporters the university may have had, are now in support of the measure, due to the disgraceful conduct of the student daily. The students are merely cutting their own throats." Strong opposition to the university was almost certain.

Rep. Frank Wells, chairman of the house finance committee, refused to comment upon the chances of the university measure being modified, but added that, "the entire appropriation measure should pass without any opposition whatever."

University students and Lincoln business men made concerted efforts yesterday to gain recognition.

TEMPLE ECHOES WITH PROTESTS

James E. Lawrence, Editor of Star, Declared There Were Thousands Who Had Not Been Heard from Concerning Wage Cutting Program.

Senator Frank McCarter when approached after the mass meeting by Jack Thompson, chairman, said that he would be glad to co-operate with the student body and felt sure that other senators would also be glad to meet with a committee from the student body to give full consideration and views regarding the special investigation report with regard to the state university.

Senator McCarter is president pro tempore of the senate. Copies of the resolution adopted at the mass meeting will be presented to presiding officers in each house Friday.

EDITOR ISSUES FINAL APPEAL FOR PICTURE

Saturday Deadline Will Not Be Extended Says Spencer.

Issuing his last appeal to the juniors and seniors who have not yet had their pictures taken for the 1933 Cornhusker, R. W. Spencer yesterday stated again that the deadline which has been set for Saturday, March 25, at 6 p. m. was final.

A number of students, he said, seem to feel that this section will be reopened later. "All of the material must be sent to the printers the first week in April, which means that pictures cannot be accepted after the deadline."

Pictures taken for the fraternity or sorority sections may be used in the junior or senior divisions, he pointed out, for an additional payment of $2.25 instead of $3.75 for a new picture.

The group decided at its meeting Thursday afternoon, to invite all football men who made letters last fall to the dance following the dinner in addition to the Innocents and all senior letter men.

NEBRASKA DEBATERS ARGUE REPARATIONS

Clash With Cotner Team on Debts Wednesday; More Listed Next Week.

A Nebraska affirmative team met a team from Cotner Wednesday in a debate at Cotner on the question of the cancellation of the inter-governmental World war debts and reparations. Next week two Nebraska teams will meet the University of Wyoming and the University of South Dakota.

Debaters for Nebraska against Cotner were Charles W. Steadman and Harvey H. Hillman and men representing Cotner were Chester Hunt and Christenson. There was no decision.

The same team of Steadman and Hillman will meet Wyoming in a radio debate over station KFOR at 3 o'clock on Monday. The question will again be the cancellation of the war debts.

Nebraska debaters in the debate against the University of South Dakota before Plattsmouth high school next Wednesday will be Harold Soderlund and Harry L. West. They will have the negative side of the question of the cancellation of war debts.

Omaha Bishop to Preside At Confirmation Service

Bishop Shayler of Omaha will visit the University Episcopal church, 13th and R sts., next Sunday for the purpose of confirmation. The bishop will officiate at the first morning service and at 11 o'clock will confirm the class and deliver the sermon. All are invited to attend the services.

More than one thousand students jammed the Temple theater last night to voice their protests against the slashing policies of the state legislature, by adopting a resolution which echoed student rebellion against the destruction of their institution of learning.

"There are thousands who have not been heard from concerning this rash program. There are thousands of you students who have been ruthlessly forgotten. That is why, my friends, we seek to make clear our determined stand against the destruction of our great institution," thundered James E. Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star, in expressing university sentiment against actions of the legislature.

The mass meeting, called to—

LUCILLE REILLY TO HEAD BIG SISTERS

Arlene Bors and Ann Pickett Chosen Other Officers Of Organization.

Lucille Reilly, Delta Gamma, will head the Big Sister Board for the next year results of Thursday's election show. Ruth Cherney, Alpha Xi Delta and defeated candidate for president, will also be a member of the board and with Virgene McBride, Phi Mu, will comprise the senior sorority members of the group.

Donna Davis, Alice Geddes, Lorraine Brake are the senior non-sorority women who will have posts on the board.

By polling the largest number of votes of any junior nominee Arlene Bors, Alpha Chi Omega, gained the position of vice president. Breta Petersen, Delta Delta Delta, is the other junior sorority member of the board. Unaffiliated juniors are Marjorie Smith and Marjorie Filley.

Ann Pickett, Gamma Phi Beta, received more votes than any other sophomore candidate and will be secretary-treasurer of the board. Gretchen Bender is the unaffiliated sophomore.

According to Delores Deadman, present head of the Big Sister Board, over 400 votes were cast. She also announced that the election was very close in each case.

Monday, March 27, new members of the board will be installed by Delores Deadman. Immediately after spring vacation the group will select new Big Sisters who will help with Big Sister activities during the next school year.

An equal number of sorority and unaffiliated women are chosen each spring to comprise the personnel of the board which has as its purpose to create a friendly feeling among university women. It especially desires to have a good attitude between upperclassmen and freshmen.

During registration week the Big Sisters assist with registration and helping new women become acquainted with the campus.

Senning Will Continue Series of Political Talks This Afternoon

FRESHMEN GIVE PROGRAM

Second Departmental Night Is Held Wednesday In Temple.

The second departmental night presented by freshmen in the dramatic department was held Wednesday, March 22, at 7 o'clock in the Temple theater.

The greater part of the program was in the form of humorous, original skits by members of the various freshmen classes, climaxed with a one-act play, "The Mayor and the Manicure," directed by Miss Dorothy Zimmer, in which the following took part:

Burt Lown..... Mayor Milford
Harlie Allen..... Wallie Milford
Alyce Widman..... Genivie Le Clair
Mary Dean..... Ruth Foster

Professor to Lecture on Subject of Executives In Present Crisis.

Continuing his weekly series of political talks this afternoon at 5:45 p. m., Prof. J. P. Senning, chairman of the department of political science, will speak from KFAB on the topic, "Executives, National and State, in the Present Crisis."

Doctor Senning has been presenting these talks from the radio station every Friday afternoon for the past five weeks. His discussions usually concern questions of national and local political and administrative interest.

These talks were broadcast for the first time a year ago by radio station KFAB and continued this year because of popular demand. The topic of Doctor Senning's radio address a week ago was "The Reorganization of County Government."
