JUDGING MEET WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

Two Divisions for Competing Judges Have Been Arranged.

The Block and Bridle livestock judging contest will be held Saturday, April 8 in the Animal Husbandry pavilion on the Ag campus, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning, according to Glenn LeDioyt, president of the club.

Two divisions for competing judges have been arranged, the junior division, for freshmen, and the senior division for all other entrants. The committee in charge of the contest is composed of Floyd Hedlund, chairman, assisted by Laverne Gingrich and Vernon Miller. Prof. M. A. Alexander will be in charge for the animal husbandry department. He will also present the awards at the close of the judging Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

In the senior division the J. Kennedy loving cup will be presented by the Anchor Serum company to the high man. Second high will be awarded a gold medal by the Block and Bridle club. Ribbons will be presented to the five high men in each class.

Junior division awards consist of a wool blanket, presented by the Midwest Wool Producers association to the high man and wool scarfs to the five high in each class in the competition, also presented by the Midwest Wool Producers association.

Any student in the university, according to LeDioyt, is eligible to enter the contest.

HARDWICK'S TALK CONCLUDES SERIES

Y Leader Discusses His Ideas of Religion at Meeting.

Jim Hardwick, a member of the Y. M. C. A. students' division national staff who has been one of the leaders in Religious Emphasis week on the University of Nebraska campus, spoke at the meeting of the University "Y" Wednesday evening. His topic of discussion was "What Religion Means to Me," and his was the final of seven talks on the subject, which have been presented at meetings during the past seven weeks.

During Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday Mr. Hardwick has been discussing various problems connected with the general topic of religion, and Wednesday met with groups at several fraternity houses. Tuesday evening he spoke at the meeting of the ag college Y. M. C. A., and last week end was one of the leaders at a joint meeting of the ag and city campus Y. M. C. A. groups.

Mr. Hardwick plans to remain in the city over Thursday and Friday, during which time he will talk with individual students at the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the Temple building.

Saturday there is to be a meeting of representatives from all of the college "Y" clubs of the state at York, at which Mr. Hardwick is to be the leader.

INTERFRAT DEBATE PAIRINGS ARE MADE

First Round of Tournament To Be Staged Monday, April 10.

Pairings were made in a recent drawing for the interfraternity debates to start Monday evening, April 10, with the eight first round contests. The pairings are as follows:

- Delta Sigma Lambda (Neg.) vs. Chi Phi (Aff.)
- Delta Upsilon (Aff.) vs. Pi Kappa Alpha (Neg.)
- Delta Theta Phi (Neg.) vs. Kappa Sigma (Aff.)
- Phi Kappa Psi (Aff.) vs. Alpha Gamma Rho (Neg.)
- Phi Alpha Delta (Neg.) vs. Beta Theta Pi (Aff.)
- Phi Sigma Kappa (Aff.) vs. Sigma Alpha Mu (Neg.)
- Sigma Phi Epsilon (Neg.) vs. Alpha Sigma Phi (Aff.)
- Zeta Beta Tau (Aff.) vs. Alpha Tau Omega (Neg.)

Sixteen teams have entered the contests, and debates throughout the tournament are to be held at the house of the affirmative team. Each team is to be made up of two men, and no varsity debaters will be allowed to compete.

The question to be debated is: Resolved: That colleges and universities of the Big Six conference should permit subsidizing of athletes. Due to the fact that fraternity meetings will precede debates next Monday evening, the teams competing should make arrangements for the time of the contest.

GREEK MEN HEAR HARDWICK

Speaker Attempts to Make Religious Problem Week Far Reaching Affair.

In an effort to make the religious problem week a far reaching affair, speeches have been made at several of the fraternity houses by Mr. Jim Hardwick, religious problem leader.

During the past few days, Mr. Hardwick has made talks and discussions of an informal nature at the following houses: Farm House, Alpha Gamma Rho, Delta Upsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Nu, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Sigma Phi Sigma.

The houses to honor Mr. Hardwick's presence on Thursday and Friday have not been definitely announced as yet.

AG STUDENTS AND FACULTY TO JOIN IN RALLY TONIGHT

W. W. Burr and Margaret Fedde Will Speak at Pep Meet.

With Farmer's Fair day, Saturday, May 6, creeping closer, Ag college faculty and students will rub shoulders at a rally at Ag hall Thursday night. The fair board has extended a special invitation to all members of the Ag faculty to attend the rally Thursday night, an announcement today said.

In charge of the program will be Victor Rediger, chairman of exhibits and member of the senior board. Speakers on the program are to be Dean W. W. Burr and Miss Margaret Fedde of Home Economics department. There will be stunts and singing on the program, Rediger said.

This will be the last rally before spring vacation, and the board expects a large attendance and plenty of pep. All major committees will meet after the rally for pre-spring vacation business.
