

The Daily Nebraskan

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXII—NO. 136.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1933.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

DIRECTOR ANNOUNCES MALE CHORINES AND CHORUSES FOR SHOW

Seven Members This Year's Group Played in Klub's Last Production.

Names of the male chorines, the members of the Pony and Male choruses in "the Bar-Nothing Ranch," Kosmet Klub's spring show, was announced yesterday afternoon by Herb Yenne, co-author and co-director of the production.

Of the eight men who will compose the Pony chorus, three are students who were members of the choruses in "Jingle Belles," last year's Kosmet spring show. Four of the members of the male chorus also took part in last year's production.

The choruses are being trained by Dr. Ralph Ireland, prominent chorus director who has trained Kosmet choruses for several years. Rehearsals for the two units, entertainment features of all Kosmet shows, are held regularly five days a week.

Pony Chorus Announced.

Members of the pony chorus are Woodrow Hull as Irene Paul; George Holyoke as Betty Drake; Maynard Miller as Betty Milrose; Dick Decker as Jane Young; Howard Wheeler as Gladys Burt, Dale Taylor as Marian Wright; Robert Glover as Sue Lockwood, and Charles Flansburg as Mildred Anderson. Flansburg, Glover and Taylor were in last year's chorus.

The male chorus, also composed of eight men, is divided into two units. Five members are taking the parts of archaeological students spending the summer on the Bar-Nothing ranch, while the remaining three are dudes on the ranch.

Members of the chorus are: Ed Smith as Steve Thomas; James Begley as Jerry Barnes; Paul Aten as Al McGrew; Howard Colton as Dan Bolton; Don Easterday as Lou Tanner; Joe Shramek as Jack Logan; Lloyd Loomis as Harry Jones, and John Gepson as Ted Randolph. Shramek, Easterday, Colton and Aten were members of last year's chorus.

STAFF MAKES PLANS FOR Y.W.C.A. FEATURE

Special Speakers Will Be On Campus for Week Following Recess.

The International - Interracial staff of the Y. W. C. A. will conduct a Nebraska-in-China week immediately after spring vacation. Meetings are being planned to encourage members of the Y. W. C. A. to learn more about the sister organization in China.

On Tuesday, April 18 a Nebraska-in-China meeting will be featured at the Ag campus vespers. Mr. Wang, university student from China, will speak. A play, "The Color Line" will be presented by the International-Interracial staff at the vespers at Ellen Smith Hall at 5 o'clock.

Tea Is Planned.

A tea for Y. W. members is being planned for Thursday, April 20th, from 4 to 6 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. Persons who have spent sometime in China have been invited to be present. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Webb and Mr. Wang will be special guests. Chinese subjects of Art such as silks, embroideries, stone rubbings, and stationery will be exhibited. The stationery will later be placed on sale.

The Nebraska university Y. W. C. A. has for several years sponsored an association organizer in China. Miss Lelia Hinkley is now beginning her third term in this position. Miss Hinkley was on the campus last year and spoke at a meeting of the Nebraska-in-China staff. She also attended the Estes Park Conference at that time. At the Tuesday vespers, a gift of

(Continued on Page 2.)

GROUP ELECTS DELEGATES

Lucille Hitchcock and John Gepson Will Represent Student Council.

Lucille Hitchcock and John Gepson were elected by the student council to represent the Nebraska student governing body at a regional conference of midwestern colleges and universities to be held at Lawrence, Kas., April 19 and 20. The expenses of the delegates will be paid by the council if the money can be made available from Student Council funds now on hand.

Vernon Filley, chairman of the Junior-Senior prom committee submitted a financial report to the council showing a net profit of $38.16. Mr. Filley indicated that some money owed the prom committee is still outstanding, and when paid will bring the total profit to something above $100.

PAGEANT TO DEPICT PRAIRIE'S PROGRESS

Each Student in Ag College Will Have Some Part in Production.

The march of events from the birth of Nebraska as a state until today is the theme of the pageant "Progress of the Prairies" to be presented on Ag campus as the outstanding feature of farmer's fair, Monday, May 6, is the day set for the fair. The pageant will be presented this year on Friday evening, May 5, and both afternoon and evening on Saturday, May 6.

Every student in Ag college has some part in the pageant and many double in several episodes. In addition, a large number of Lincoln children will be used in the scenes requiring youngsters.

Depicts Train of Events.

Six episodes of the pageant this year depict the train of events in Nebraska from its founding until now. The last episode, according to the director of the pageant, Mr. W. F. Thompson, of the English department, is the most ambitious. It will deal with the happenings of the last four years beginning with the prosperity prior to 1929, then showing the market crash, and the business stagnation and loss of confidence that followed. The pageant will end on a note of confidence, of belief in a bright future for Nebraska, and the beginning of business recovery.

Miss Lorraine Brake, pageant chairman, reports excellent progress on the farmer's fair features. The committees which support her follow:

Pageant Committees.

Executive committee: Lorraine Brake, chairman; Ray Murray, Beatrice Donaldson. Episode directors: I. (1) Marguerite Thompson, (2) Philip Henderson, II. (1) Marion Lynn, (2) John Lowenstein, III. (1) Marie Vasak, (2) Louis Schick, IV. (1) Mildred Meyers, (2) Robert Voss, V. (1) Helen Hongstetter, (2) Paul Harvey, VI. (1) Loretta Borzych, (2) Wilford McVI.

(Continued on Page 2.)

High School Correspondence Work Attracting Nation Wide Attention

Experimental work in high school correspondence work now being carried on by the university in co-operation with the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching is receiving nationwide attention in scholastic circles. Visitors are coming to Lincoln to study the plan and university officials have been invited to speak on the subject.

Recently H. G. Ingham director of the extension division of the University of Kansas at Lawrence, and Dr. G. A. Gemmill, in charge of the home study service of Kansas State College at Manhattan, visited the university and studied this system. Representatives of the University of South Dakota recently entered into negotiations for the work to be given in their state.

Prof. A. A. Reed, director of the extension division, and Dr. K. O. Broady, professor of school administration, under whose direction the experimental work is being carried on, will appear before the

COLLEGE RECOGNIZES OVER FIFTY STUDENTS AT ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

Ag Groups Name Members At Honor Convocation Tuesday Morning.

More than fifty students in the Nebraska agricultural college were honored Tuesday at the annual honors convocation held in the student activities building. Honorary organizations on the campus announced their new members and judging team members were awarded medals.

Prof. H. C. Filley, chairman of the rural economics department, presided over the convocation as chairman. Prof. H. E. Bradford of the vocational education department addressed the students.

Alpha Zeta Elects.

Seven men students in the college were elected to membership in Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity. They included Ross Greenawalt, Paxton; Ralph Canada, Bertrand; Raymond Wilson, Lincoln; Carlyle Hodgkin, Lincoln; John Lowenstein, Kearney; Orin Webster, Dalton, and Elver Hodges, Lynch. Graduates admitted included Laurence Newell and L. R. Snipes.

Gamma Sigma Delta also announced the election of seven new members. They are Ross Greenawalt, Paxton; Albert Ebers, Seward; Ralph Canada, Bertrand; Floyd Hedlund, Chappell; Tom Snipes, Lincoln; Marion Mechem, Grand Island; and Jesse Livingston, Weeping Water. The organization is an honorary scholastic one on the agricultural college campus.

Women Are Honored.

High standing scholastic students in the home economics department were also named Tuesday. Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, elected Mildred Craven, Osceola; Lynette Gatten, Ainsworth; Genevieve Jeffries, Odell; Hazel Ingersoll, Raymond; Muriel Moffitt, Lincoln; Mrs. Anarica Overman, Lincoln, and Norma Peterson, Lincoln.

Five sophomores, one junior and one senior were announced as new selections to Phi Upsilon Omicron, national home economics professional sorority. They included Althea Barada, Rosalie; Arlene Bors, Wilber; Florence Buxman, Lincoln; Helen Lutz, Papillion; Ardith Von Housen, Lincoln; Hazel Ingersoll, Raymond, and Lea Lenger, Beatrice.

Greek Letter Houses To Obtain Rush Cards

Fraternities may obtain their rush cards Wednesday, April 12, after 9 a. m. in the interfraternity council office, room 112 Morrill hall. None will be released without payment. Lynn Leonard, President.

TAX PLAN WOULD LOWER COST 40%

IVY DAY POEMS MUST BE COMPLETED SOON

Mortar Boards Are in Charge of Annual Competition.

Poems for the annual Ivy day poem contest sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, should be completed soon and submitted to the society, Helen Baldwin, Mortar Board in charge of the contest, stated.

Any undergraduate man or woman in the university may enter the contest. No special requirements as to length or subject matter of poems have been made, but the general theme should center about Ivy day and its traditions.

A faculty committee, soon to be announced, will judge entries and select the winning poem. Its writer will be designated as Ivy day poet, and will deliver his composition the morning of May 4, just before the crowning of the May queen. The poet's identity will not be disclosed until that time.

BLUE PRINT FEATURES ARTICLE BY GRADUATE

Robinson Tells of Numerous Applications of Photo Electrical Devices.

With "The Photo-tube" by W. B. Robinson, 1930 graduate of the engineering college, as the feature article, the April issue of the Nebraska Blue Print was released on the campus Tuesday. Copies will be on sale in the A. M. hall booth through Wednesday.

In his article on the photo-tube, Robinson discusses the numerous new applications of photo-electrical devices in modern industry. The tube which transforms light energy into electrical energy is now utilized in such things as temperature measurement and control, burglar alarms, paper cutting, safety appliances, sorting and counting, and various automatic control devices.

J. C. Steele, M. E. '33, discusses "Air Conditioning in the Home" and Mario Smith, C. E. '34, writes on the "Outlook for the Graduating Senior."

Concluding his series of three articles on prominent Nebraska engineering alumnae, Charles Devore, E. E. '34, lists Oscar V. P. Stout, '88; David P. Weeks, jr. '15; John H. Weller, Walter J. Wohlenberg, '10, and Ivan D. Wood, '12, and Bruce C. Yates, '92, as men who have achieved prominence in engineering fields.

In The Dean's Corner, Dean O. J. Ferguson discusses present legislative attempts to force the use of alcohol in gasoline.

HELEN SMRHA HEADS HOME EC ASSOCIATION

Margaret Fedde Gives Talk at Meeting Tuesday.

Helen Smrha was installed new president of the Home Economics association at a ceremony Tuesday evening: Florence Buxman, vice president; Norma Peterson, secretary and Ardith Von Hausen treasurer are the other officers for the ensuing year.

Miss Margaret Fedde, head of the home ec department, gave a talk on "My Greatest Desire." She developed her discussion about the career of a girl majoring in home economics.

Miss Catherine Dunn of the sociology department gave a report on the milk fund and the use that was made of it. The association was instrumental in collecting money for this fund at Christmas time.

The installation was held from 7 to 8 in Ellen Smith hall.

Council Receives Figures For Publications and Athletic Tickets.

Nebraska students would get a year's subscriptions to the three major publications and a season athletic book—now costing a total of $13.50—for a lump of $8 or less, if the compulsory blanket tax plan placed before the Student Council at a special meeting Tuesday afternoon is approved by the student body and the board of regents.

The plan, announced by Howard Allaway, chairman of the council committee which has been gathering information on the project since before Christmas, would assess each student the following sums which are shown in comparison with the present individual purchase cost:

	Present Cost	Proposed Tax Plan
Daily Neb.	$2.00	$.80
Cornhusker	4.50	2.67
Awgwan	1.00	.50
Ath. ticket	6.00	4.00
For Stu. Coun.03
Total	$13.50	$8.00

The tax would be paid at the same time registration fees are paid and would be divided into two payments of $4 each, one at the beginning of each semester.

Exemptions, under the committee's recommendations, would be rigidly restricted and granted for financial reasons only and only in extreme cases. Exemptions would be granted if approved by a faculty committee appointed by the Student Council to administer exemption rules drawn up by the council judiciary committee.

Figures are Approved.

The figures quoted in the committee report for the three publications have been approved by the business managers of the three publications affected and unofficially examined by one of the faculty members of the publications board.

The athletic ticket price has not been officially accepted by the Athletic board but was decided upon by the committee after consultation with John K. Selleck, business manager of athletics and student activities. Jack Erickson, student member of the Athletic board, will introduce a resolution to accept the figure at the next meeting of that body.

Fees Not Permanent.

The athletic ticket fee, if accepted by the board, would set the (Continued on Page 3.)

COMPANY 'D' PLACES FIRST SECOND WEEK

Bulletin Issued Reveals Score of 91.25 for Winning Group.

Company "D" won the second week of intercompany inspection which was held last week with a score of 91.25 percent according to a bulletin issued Tuesday by the military department.

Company "H" placed second with a score of 88.50, while "I" took third with 87.75. Company "K" which took first in the first week's competition placed seventh last week.

Scores and ranking of other companies are "C", 87.50, fourth; "E", 87.00, fifth; "G", 86.50, sixth; "K", 85.75, seventh; "F", 85.50, eighth; Headquarters 82.75, ninth; "L", 82.50, tenth; "M", 81.00, eleventh; "A", 80.00, twelfth; and "B", 78.75, last.

The past week's inspection covered a twenty minutes' review of company movements. Conduct and bearing of officers, commands, action of pivot men, and general precision of movements were points on which companies were graded. Results of the inspection were considerably higher than those of the first week.