

The Daily Nebraskan

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXII—NO. 158

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1933.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

AG STUDENTS WILL GO TO POLLS FOR 'REPEAT' ELECTION

Interest in Contest Runs High on Campus Wednesday.

AG ELECTION SLATE.
Ag Club.
President	John Lowenstein
Vice President	Howard White
Secretary	Ervin Peterson
Treasurer	Bill Donahue
Ag Executive Board.
Man-at-large	Vernon Filley
Woman-at-large	Muriel Moffitt
Coll-Agri-Fun Committee.
Mark Hackman, Mildred Tiekler, Phil Henderson, Catherine Agnew	Senior Fair Board.
Gerald Mott, Art Peterson, Ray Murray, Lyle Hodgkin, Muriel Moffitt, Valentine Klotz, Lorraine Brake	Student Council.
Arlene Bors, Louis Shick, Marjann Paul, Florence Buxman

By George Round.

Election day is here on the Nebraska college of agriculture campus. Students go to the polls again to ballot for their favorites in an election which is a "repeat" of the one held last Thursday.

Interest in the election was running high on the campus Wednesday as all three factions—Barbs, Alpha Gamma Rho and Farm House—prepared to support their candidates to the fullest extent of their power. With minor exceptions, all have candidates filed for offices today.

Today's election includes ballot. (Continued on Page 2).

SARAH MUIR SPEAKS AT SORORITY DINNER

Twenty-Five Attend Annual Initiation Banquet Wednesday.

About twenty-five members and alumnae attended the annual initiation banquet given by Theta Sigma Phi, professional woman's journalistic sorority, at the University club Wednesday evening. A talk, "Legislative Highlights," by Miss Sarah T. Muir, head of the English department at Lincoln high school and member of the legislature, was the feature of the program following the dinner.

Initiates of the honorary presented short toasts, forecasting futures in journalism for other initiates. They were: Rosalie Lamme as a police reporter, given by Margaret Thiele; Ruth McNally as leg woman, by Irma Wyrens; Katherine Howard as Paris correspondent, by Mary Frances McReynolds; Jeannette Lowrey as printer's devil, by Rosalie Lamme; Miriam Huse as Dorothy Dix, by Katherine Howard; Margaret Thiele as sob sister, by Ruth McNally; Mary Frances McReynolds as fashion scribe, by Lucille Lindgren; Lucille Lindgren as children's editor, by Jeannette Lowrey, and Irma Wyrens as beauty oracle, by Miriam Huse.

TWO INITIATED BY MUSICAL HONORARY

Robert Campbell Elected Supreme Councilman of Phi Mu Alpha.

Phi Mu Alpha, professional honorary musical fraternity, announced the initiation of two new members and elected officers for next year at their meeting held Tuesday.

William Temple of Lincoln and Allan E. Ellsworth of Grand Island were initiated. The initiation was followed by a banquet at the Cornhusker Hotel.

The newly elected officers for the chapter are: Robert Campbell, supreme councilman; Charles Ledwith, president; Herbert Moore, vice president; Allen E. Ellsworth, Secretary; Keith Schroeder, treasurer; William Temple, historian and critic.

Not Much Temperature Change Is Predicted

Thursday, partly cloudy with not much change in temperature was the weather forecast for Lincoln and vicinity given by Thomas A. Blair, university meteorologist. Wednesday the temperature reached the high of 80 degrees. With the mercury sliding up to 86 degrees Tuesday, marked the warmest day this spring.

JOE HUFFER IS NEW HEAD OF DAIRY CLUB

Raymond McCarty, James Warner Are Also Chosen.

At the Varsity Dairy Club's meeting Tuesday night Joe A. Huffer was elected president of the organization for the first semester of next year. Huffer succeeds Arthur Peterson, Farm House, as president of the club.

Raymond McCarty was elected vice president, and James Warner became the new secretary-treasurer. Both Huffer and McCarty are dairy production majors, and are working at the Ag College dairy barn to make their way through school. Warner, a major in dairy manufacturing, works at the college creamery. All three are sophomores.

Gold "N" medals bearing the Varsity Dairy Club signature were voted to be given to the members of the dairy cattle and products judging teams at the meeting. Members of the 1932 teams who will receive medals, it was reported, are Albert Ebers, Arthur Peterson, Willard Waldo, and Carlyle Hodgkin on the cattle team, and Marion Mecham, Perry Meredith, and John Rhodes on the products team.

Moving pictures of dairy manufacturing and of the recent Varsity Dairy Club judging contest were shown at the meeting by L. K. Crowe, the club's faculty sponsor.

MEN TO TRY OUT FOR UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

Special Dramatics Class Will Be Organized Next Year.

The tryouts for male parts in future University Players productions will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Temple. According to announcements made earlier in the week the tryouts are being sponsored by the dramatics, of which Miss H. Alice Howell is chairman. They are open to any male student interested in taking a part in next year's plays.

Material for the tryouts will be furnished each candidate by Zolley Lerner, member of the dramatics department faculty. Lerner, who will have charge, pointed out that because a great number of male parts will be used next year it is desirable that a large number of candidates report for the tryouts.

In connection with the tryouts a special class in dramatics will be organized for next year.

Candidates who expect to take advantage of this opportunity to become a member of the University Players are asked to report at 3 o'clock this afternoon, room 153, Temple building.

AG YM TO HOLD RETREAT

Feature of Program Will Be Fireplace Discussion Saturday Night.

The ag college Y. M. C. A. will hold its annual retreat at Camp Kinnikinnik Saturday and Sunday, May 20 and 21. The group will leave the ag college Saturday at 7 p. m. and will return Sunday at noon.

A fire place discussion Saturday night will be the first feature on the program. Sunday morning the group will discuss plans for the work for freshmen next fall.

BURDETTE G. LEWIS TALKS AT COMMERCE LUNCHEON TUESDAY

University Graduate Warns Of Danger of Second World Conflict.

Burdette G. Lewis, graduate of the university, who is now field representative of the American Public Welfare association with headquarters in New York, addressed the Lincoln chamber of commerce at a noon luncheon yesterday. Dean J. E. LeRossignol, head of the college of business administration, presided.

Lewis warned of the ever present dangers of another world conflict, reminding his audience of the conditions which existed before the World war. "Need I remind you that in the first week of August in 1914 people generally said there could be no world war, or if it came, that it could not last three months," he said.

Conflict Possible.

He pointed out that at any time during the last four years a similar disastrous conflict has been possible and that conditions have been growing worse with the passing of each week.

In solution to the grave problem. (Continued on Page 2).

BIG SISTER GROUP TO HOLD INITIATION

Approximately Seventy-Five Girls Will Be Inducted Into Organization.

Approximately seventy-five girls will be initiated into the Big Sister organization Saturday, May 20, at 3 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. The identity of the new members will be revealed at that time.

The Big Sisters are chosen each year by members of the Board. Their qualifications are based on leadership rendered during the year. It is their duty to write letters during the summer to all the new women students of next year describing to them activities on the campus in which they may take part. Next fall the Big Sisters act as guides to new freshmen.

Ruth Cherney has charge of the initiation service. Virgene McBride is making plans for the lunch to be served after the program is completed. Arlene Bors, vice president of the Big Sister Board, will have charge of all these new members.

Student Approval Given Activity Tax Plan in Series of Interviews

Only Two People Out of Twenty-Five Express Disapproval.

Overwhelming undergraduate approval of the proposed activities tax was expressed recently by the students of the university in a series of interviews conducted among men and women enrolled in the various colleges and schools on the Nebraska campus.

Of the twenty-five students interviewed, who were chosen at random, nineteen expressed enthusiastic approval of the plan as it now stands; four declared themselves in favor of the plan with certain amendments and revisions; while two objected to any sort of a tax upon student activities.

The majority who favored the tax, as proposed by the student council, voiced practically the same arguments in praising the idea, declaring that the tax would "arouse student spirit," "produce better publications," "bring student activities to the attention of every student," and that it would "place the burden of supporting

Dean J. E. LeRossignol Speaks in Iowa City

Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the business administration college spoke before the faculty and students of the Iowa university college of commerce, in Iowa City, Tuesday, May 16.

Subjects on which he spoke were "Ethics in Banking" and "Service versus Profit in Business."

ORCHESIS GROUP WILL HOLD LAST REHEARSAL

Recital Will Be Presented Friday Evening in Coliseum.

Final rehearsal for the annual recital to be presented by Orchesis, honorary dancing group, Friday evening, May 19, at 7:45 in the university coliseum will be held tonight according to Miss Edyth Vail, of the physical education department, who is in charge.

The major rehearsal was held Wednesday evening and the rehearsal to be held tonight will be what is called a "light rehearsal." Only the light parts of the dances will be reviewed.

Some of the most outstanding dances to be presented are "Spectrum" and "March." Spectrum, a study in colors emphasizes complimentary and conflicting colors. Complimentary colors will be presented first, then conflicting colors, and finally light, which is to show how all the colors go to make up light.

"March," which is presented by six girls will portray a group of soldiers coming back triumphant after war. White tunics with red helmets will be the costumes worn in this number.

All of the dances and comic skits have been original with the members of Orchesis. The student chairman in charge of the recital is Miss Warralene Lee. Miss Lucile Ambrose will be the pianist for the dances.

The program is as follows:

- Part I.
Spectrum, a study in colors; Arranged.
I Love Life; Manna Zucca.
March; Rachmaninoff.
Valse; Arensky.
La Plus que Lente; Debussy.
Polyrhythmic Dance Problem; Wessel.
Slavonic Dance; Dvorak.
Reconciliation; Arranged.
Intermission.
Part II.
Greek Chorus; Dohnanyi.
Impressions; Fantasies; Beethoven.
Flames; Arranged; Water Study; Arranged.
Baldinago; Walks; Gounod; Blackbirds.
Arranged; Scherzo; Delibes; Pops or Flops? Arranged.
Today; Gershwin.

Barb Council Meeting.
An important meeting of the new Barb council will be held in Room 105 of Social Sciences building at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. All members are urged to be present.

GEPSON SELECTED NEW PRESIDENT OF STUDENT COUNCIL

Roma DeBrown Will Serve As Vice-President for Coming Year.

John Gepson, Omaha, member of the Innocents society, and junior in the arts and science college, was elected president of the student council for 1933-34 Wednesday at the last meeting of that body to be held this year. Gepson is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

Other officers chosen by the council were Roma DeBrown, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Lincoln, vice president; Helen Shelledy, Delta Delta Delta, Lincoln, secretary; William Eddy, Lambda Chi Alpha, Marysville, Kas., treasurer; and Margaret Buol, Chi Omega, Randolph, chairman of the council judiciary committee.

Gepson and Eddy are both hold-over members from the 1933 council.

Old Council Finishes Business.

The old council completed its unfinished business prior to retiring in favor of the new representatives. Glenn LeDioyt of the Ag college executive board appeared before the council and presented the known facts concerning irregularities in voting on the ag campus during the recent student council election. He requested that a new election be held and that preventative action against similar cases occurring in the future be taken.

After discussion by the council. (Continued on Page 2).

SUMMER SESSION TO COMMENCE ON JUNE 9

Most of Major Departments Plan to Present Courses.

Courses will be given in almost all the major departments in the summer session which will begin June 9 and continue until July 21. Registrations for the Summer Session will be held Friday June 9 and Saturday June 10.

The departments in which courses will be given in the long session are: Agronomy, Botany, Business Organization and Management, Chemistry, Classics, Commercial Arts, Dairy Husbandry, Denistry, Economics, Education which include Psychology and Measurements, Elementary History and principles, School Administration, Secondary, and Professionalized courses.

The long session also includes courses in student teaching, Civil Engineering, English, Elocution and Dramatic Art, Dramatic Literature, Drawing and Painting, Applied Music, Geography, Germanic Literatures and Languages, History, Journalism, Mathematics, Philosophy, Psychology, Physical Education for Women, Physics, Physiology, Political Science, Poultry Husbandry, Practical Arts, Renance Languages, Rural Economics, Sociology, Vocational Education, Zoology.

Some of the courses in the short session will be Civil Engineering, English, Drawing and Painting, Juvenile Department, History and Criticism of the Fine Arts, Elocution and Dramatic Art, Music, Geography, History, Home Economics, Clothing and Textiles, Design, Foods and Nutrition, Family Life, Mathematics, Pharmacy, Philosophy, Physical Education for Women, Physical Education for Men, Physiology, Public Health courses, Practical Arts, Vocational Education.

Professor T. Bruce Robb Will Talk on Thursday

Prof. T. Bruce Robb, chairman of business research in the business administration college, will speak before the chamber of commerce in Norfolk, Thursday, May 18, on the subject of "Inflation."

(Continued on Page 2).