

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL MILITARY COMPET TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

(Continued from Page 1). Frankforter and Cunningham, Captains Scott and Crissy, and Lieutenant Mickel will comprise

Maiden Form's
"FULL-FASHION"
Brassiere

it fits like a stocking

Seamless breast sections shaped to perfection by "fashion-points" similar to those in fine hosiery

"Full-Fashion" is the modern brassiere for the modern girl—without a seam to mar the "skin-smoothness" of its skillfully shaped breast sections. Yet "Full-Fashion" controls perfectly because it is permanently blocked to keep its lovely uplift contours. In styles for different figure types. If your local shops cannot supply you, write Dept. C for booklet. Maiden Form Brassiere Co., Inc. 245 Fifth Avenue, New York. AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE the judging group for individual compete.

The 135 piece R. O. T. C. band, bedecked in their new uniforms made outstanding by the added West Point white cross belts and scarlet and cream pompons atop their caps, will play during the afternoon under the direction of W. T. "Billie" Quick.

Closing the compete activities will be the regimental parade in honor of the Honorary Colonel, Miss Jane Axtell, and the twenty sponsors. The parade will take place at 4 o'clock on Memorial mall. Bleachers are being erected for spectators and the public is invited.

As evidence of outstanding performance of the R. O. T. C. unit during the past year, Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood, United States army, wrote Chancellor Burnett following the recent R. O. T. C. inspection:

"It gives me great pleasure to inform you that upon conclusion of the recent annual inspection of the Reserve Officers' Training corps at your university, the administration and training were rated excellent.

"The following remarks, extracted from the report of the training inspector, will, I believe, be gratifying to you:

"This is a very fine unit and the courtesy, discipline, and attitude of the student personnel was especially to be commended."

N CLUB.

There will be an N Club meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in the N Club room. Initiation of new members will take place as well as election of officers. Plans for the picnic will be made.
