

SPECIAL LECTURERS SCHEDULED TO SPEAK IN SUMMER SESSION
(Continued from Page 1).

the N. E. A., has been superintendent of schools in Lincoln and of Oakland, Calif., and for a number of years has been a member of the summer faculty at Columbia and the University of California. He will give seven lectures here in three days to the following classes:

Hunter Lectures.

MONDAY, JUNE 19: At 9 o'clock in Teachers college, room 320, to classes in school administration 351 and 354. At 10 o'clock in Andrews hall, room 126, to classes in elementary education 313 and 314. At 11 o'clock in Teachers college, room 303, to school administration 353.

TUESDAY, JUNE 20: At 10 o'clock in Andrews hall, room 126, to classes in elementary education 313 and 314. At 11 o'clock in Teachers college room 303, to school administration 353.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21: At 8 o'clock in Andrews hall, room 127, to classes in elementary education 17, 107 and 112. At 9 o'clock in Social Sciences, room 101, to classes in school administration 254 and 256.

Reed Here Two Days.

Second special lecturer next week will be Dr. Thomas Harrison Reed, now a special lecturer at Harvard university. He was former city manager of San Jose, Calif., and has served as professor of municipal government at the University of Michigan. He is the author of "Forms and Functions of American Government," "Government and Politics in Belgium," "Municipal Government in the United States" and "Essentials of Loyal Citizenship."

Dr. Reed will give two lectures each day Thursday and Friday next week to classes in history, political science, sociology, history and principles of education, educational psychology school administration and secondary education as follows:

THURSDAY, JUNE 22: At 8 o'clock in Social Sciences auditorium to classes in history 2, 9, 260 and 281; political science 225 and 303; sociology 108; history and principles 235 and 338; and educational psychology 268 and 285. At 9 o'clock in Social Sciences auditorium to classes in history and principles 31; school administration 254, 256, 351 and 354; secondary education 142 and 346; and educational psychology 389.

FRIDAY, JUNE 23: At 10 o'clock in Social Sciences auditorium to classes in educational psychology 283; elementary education 313 and 314; history and principles 31 and 138; school administration 151 and 395; and secondary education 248. At 11 o'clock in Social Sciences auditorium to classes in economics 204 and 291; political science 1, 109 and 276; sociology 215; and history 7, 202s, 233s and 243.

Gregory Opens June 28.

Beginning Wednesday, June 28, of the following week classes in school administration, elementary education and educational psychology will hear a three-day lecture course by President L. R. Gregory of the State Teachers college, Fredonia, N. Y. Like Dr. Hunter, President Gregory is also a former Nebraska superintendent. Since leaving Nebraska he has been principal of the high school tented of schools at Louisville, at Bronxville, N. Y., and superintending in the University of Indiana and University school supervision.

Following is the schedule of his special lecture course here:

WEDNESDAY, June 28: At 8 o'clock in Social Sciences, room

Students May Take Pool Examinations

Swimming examinations, necessary for admittance to the university pool, are being made by the University health service, Pharmacy hall, second floor, according to the following schedule: 10 to 12 o'clock in the morning for men, and 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon for women.

The health office will be open from 8 until 5 o'clock daily during the summer session where students may obtain medical service without charge. All students are entitled to one house call by the university physician and, for more severe illness, may go to the university infirmary for one dollar a day.

107b, to classes in school administration 151 and 152. At 10 o'clock in Andrews hall, room 126, to classes in elementary education 313 and 314. At 11 o'clock in Teachers college, room 303, to school administration 353.

THURSDAY, June 29: At 9 o'clock in Social Sciences, room 101, to classes in school administration 254 and 256. At 11 o'clock in Teachers college, room 303, to school administration 353.

FRIDAY, June 30: At 7 o'clock in Social Sciences, room 101, to classes in educational psychology 63, 263, 286 and 364. At 9 o'clock in Teachers college, room 320, to classes in school administration 351 and 354.

Bruno Here In July.
Beginning July 6, Frank J. Bruno, chairman of the department of social work at Washington university, St. Louis, will give a four-lecture course for students in education and in social sciences. Mr. Bruno is a national authority on problems of training for social work and president of the National Conference of Social Work. He has written and lectured extensively on the subject. Schedule of his lecture is as follows:

THURSDAY, July 6: At 9 o'clock in Social Sciences auditorium to classes in secondary education 142 and 346 and classes in school administration 254, 256, 351, 354 and 389. At 10 o'clock in Social Sciences auditorium to classes in sociology 126 and 341; political science 2 and 106; and economics 12, 103 and 267.

FRIDAY, July 7: At 9 o'clock in Social Sciences, room 101, to classes in elementary education 12a, 12b, 106 and 113 and history and principles 30 and 31. At 11 o'clock in Social Sciences, room 101, to classes in sociology 215; political science 1, 109 and 276, and economics 205 and 291.

Friday afternoon, July 7, Mr. Bruno will lead discussion at a social case workers round table, the place for which will be announced later.

LeRossignol Closes Series.
Final speaker in the special lecture course will be Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the Nebraska College of Business Administration. Dean LeRossignol, in addition to being an authority on current trends in economics and business on which he will lecture July 17 and 18, has written several fiction novels on Canadian life.

His four lectures, before the largest class groups of the course, will all be given in Social Sciences auditorium as follows:

MONDAY, July 17: At 8 o'clock to classes in commercial arts 25, 126, 127 and 131; economics 11, 266 and 281; sociology 108; school administration 151 and 152, and psychology 185. At 9 o'clock to classes in commercial arts 26, 126 and 128; school administration 254, 351 and 354; secondary education 142 and 341; psychology 180; political science 101 and 303, and sociology 109.

TUESDAY, July 18: At 7 o'clock to classes in educational psychology 63, 263, 286 and 364; school administration 52 and 352; sociology 9, and political science 303. At 10 o'clock to classes in economics 12, 103 and 267; educational psychology 283; history and principles of education 31 and 138; school administration 151 and 395; secondary education 248; political science 2 and 106, and sociology 126.

All the special courses are being held during the short session. Director Moritz explained, so that all students attending Nebraska during the summer school may hear the authorities being brought to the campus for these lectures.

Former Student Here Given Research Grant

Dr. Viola Barnes, formerly of Albion, who took her bachelor's

Sports Enthusiasts to Report Tuesday

Summer students interested in baseball are asked to report to the playing field south of Teachers college Tuesday night, according to Prof. E. W. Lantz, recreation director for the session. Balls and bats will be on hand there at that time under George Dunn, member of last summer's executive committee, who will have charge of the initial organization of sports this year.

Horseshoe stakes will also be set up south of Teachers college Tuesday night, Prof. Lantz said. A schedule of nights for horseshoe practice will be arranged and announced in the Nebraskan later.

Bookmen Will Display Texts Here Next Week

Opening next Monday, June 19, and continuing two weeks until Friday, June 30, the annual summer text book exhibit of the Nebraska Bookmen's association will be on display in Grant Memorial hall for inspection by teachers attending the summer session.

Regular representatives of text book publishers will have samples of their lines on display along with other educational equipment such as maps. Complete lines of elementary, secondary and college texts will be shown.

Complete Your Education

BY LEARNING TO DANCE
Classes every Monday and Wednesday. New students admitted for 25¢ each.

Luella Williams

Private Studio
1220 D St. B4258

LEARN TO DANCE

Guarantee YOU TO DANCE IN 6 LESSONS—

ALSO 3 LESSON COURSE AIR COOLED STUDIO

LEE A. THORNBERRY

B3635 5th Year 2300 V St.

RENT-A-FORD

Drive It As Far As You Like

$5 per day

Full Tank of Gasoline and Oil Furnished

MOTOR INN

1121 M St. B1103

LEARN TO DANCE

Special Rates in Ballroom Dancing.

BORNER SISTERS

Private Studio
1536 P Street B-4819

GOLD & CO.

Lincoln's Busy Store

Dine

In Our Luncheonette

We're ready to serve you, summer students, with tasty home-cooked meals at SAVE-YOU-MONEY PRICES... we serve every hour of the day...

BREAKFASTS

7 a. m. to 10 a. m.

LUNCHEONS

11 a. m. to 2 p. m.

SUPPERS

5 p. m. to 8 p. m.

It's cool and comfortable, too, in our Luncheonette.

Use 11th St. Entrance After Store Hours

GOLD'S—Basement

You'll Want

Cool Clothes

for summer school

That's why Magee's recommend these gay linens trimmed in contrasting colors... eyelet cottons which are just as cool as they look... and seersuckers that take to the tub and like it. In sizes 12 to 20.

$2.95

Washable Fabric Gloves

Our entire stock of 50c and 75c fabric gloves... in biscuit and white... fancy cuff styles and pull-overs. In sizes 5 1/2 to 7 1/2.

39c

First Floor

Magee's

The Grey Room Third Floor

Use A TYPEWRITER

All makes rented or sold on easy payments.

NEBRASKA TYPEWRITER CO.

1222 O Street Call B-2157