NEBRASKA WILL BACK NRA CODE, REPORTS SHOW

Local Campus Among First To Support National Consumers Drive.

BURNETT GIVES SANCTION

Other University Officials Believe Movement Worth Student Effort.

Early indications pointing to full fledged support from faculty and administrative heads, as well as from the student body, plans for a campus wide drive to secure the pledges to the NRA consumers campaign inaugurated yesterday.

The Nebraska campus, getting behind a nationwide movement all over the country to get individual support of the NRA consumers drive, will be one of the few college camps to support the national administration in its campaign to get the entire country behind the stores and businesses flying the blue eagle emblem.

The consumer's card is merely a pledge which, when signed, is intended to bind the signer to purchase only the merchants and business men who are co-operating with the government in the National Recovery Act.

Chancellor E. A. Burnett has indicated his sanction of the movement in that he offered his approval and willingness to back up the plan.

The dean of student affairs, T. J. Thompson feels that such a drive is a good idea and would doubtless be a good thing inasmuch as it would be in step with the efforts of the government in its campaign for industrial recovery.

LeRossignol Approves.

"The idea can certainly do no harm and will probably do a great deal of good," said J. E. LeRossignol, dean of the college of Business Administration, "for the business men in most cases are making

JOHNSON WILL DIRECT AWGWAN SALES DRIVE

Alpha Chi Omega Leads Honor Roll With Two Blocs; 9 Others Sign.

The Awgwan, university humor publication, opened its subscription drive Thursday under the direction of Owen Johnson. An attempt will be made to get every organized house on the campus to take a bloc subscription according to Johnson.

AWGWAN HONOR ROLL.

"There is yet one week in which organized houses may subscribe to the Awgwan," stated Carlyle Sorenson, business manager of the Awgwan. "No blocs will be sold after the first issue is released."

He said that no magazines will be delivered to houses not having subscriptions at the date of publication. "Members of the houses should decide whether to subscribe or not, in order that they will know when the time comes to subscribe," asserted Sorenson.

Some of twenty-five magazines will sell for twenty dollars.

Men's Cut Budgets Demand Altered Social System; Women Display Wide Variety of Ideas on 'Dutch Dates'

Formost in the program of the S. R. A. (Social Revival Act) is plan for "Dutch dating." Whether this system of having the young woman share the expense of the entertainment is the most effective stimulus that may be injected into social activities is still a moot question.

It is generally conceded about the campus that there is less dating this year than usual, and this condition is readily attributed to the reduced budgets of the young men. To alter the social program along more inexpensive lines meets with general disapproval, but it saves the problem as to who will not the bill, if the customary type of entertainment is to be continued.

How the young women look upon this innovation is the most pertinent factor to be considered, and present they seem to be somewhat divided in their opinions.

"I think that the idea is O. K. to a certain extent. It might help to get around," confided Ruth Allen, when questioned regarding the matter.

Another of the same opinion was Louise Perry, who said, "Girls don't seem to be going 'Dutch' dating, for when they go 'Dutch' they will be somewhat obligated

240 WOMEN REGISTER FOR TENNIS CLASSES

Individual Gym Remains Largest Section in Department.

Nearly 240 women have registered for tennis, the largest active sport class, according to Miss Mabel Lee, head of the physical education department. Swimming runs a close second as major active sport, with 170 students. Individual gym classes continue as the largest in the entire department.

Speedball, combination of soccer and handball, has appealed to fifty-five of the women students, and classes are in full swing. In the fine arts department, the dancing classes are enrolled to full capacity. Advanced technicians are offered instruction in the two hockey classes.

STUDENTS WILL DANCE IN COLISEUM SATURDAY

Schedule Jungbluth's Band For Second Party This Year.

FIVE MORE ARE BOOKED

All arrangements have been completed for the All University party which is to be held in the Coliseum Saturday night. This week's party is the second of the year, the first dance having been held two weeks ago at the same place. The time set for the affair is 8:30 o'clock.

The orchestra procured for the Varsity party is Eddie Jungbluth's twelve piece band. This orchestra will furnish all of the music and entertainment during the evening, and features special glue club numbers and drum specialties.

During the past summer Jungbluth and the same orchestra scheduled to play tomorrow evening, offered music to vacationists in the famous Riverside hall at Estes park. This Lincoln band was featured during that time over the NBC chain thru station KOA at Denver, key station in the western division of the system.

During previous vacation periods for the past few years, this orchestra played at Troutdale-In-The-Pines, another famous resort in the Colorado Rockies.

Seven All University parties have been arranged on the school social schedule for the year, the first five being held in the city campus coliseum, and the final two set for the Student Activities building at ag college. The dates are Oct. 28, Dec. 9, Feb. 17, March 10 and 31.

The feature party of the season is to be the one held the night of Saturday, Oct. 28. This is the first Varsity closed night affair to be arranged for several years, and will have as its special purpose the building of a democratic campus social spirit such as has been attained at other Big Six schools. Arrangements are now being made for this Dad's day party.

NEBRASKAN TO HAVE WEEKLY ROTO SECTION

Sunday's Pictorial Section Reviews Events of College World.

Beginning with the Sunday issue of the Nebraskan it will present weekly to its readers a complete pictorial review of events that occur in the college world.

This announcement was made today by Bernard Jennings, business manager of the publication, when he stated that Collegiate Digest will be used as regular weekly rotogravure supplement covering the entire United States each week through the medium of the camera.

Collegiate Digest is a section exclusive to the Nebraskan.

LAW SENIORS AND JUNIORS SELECT RODGERS, WILTSE

Presidents of Upper Classes Chosen at Thursday Morning Meeting.

PHI DELTA PHI ELECTS

Lawrence Ely Named Head Of Freshman Class Last Tuesday.

Ralph Rodgers and Homer Wiltse were chosen to serve as presidents of the senior and junior law classes, respectively, for the ensuing year at an election held at the law college Thursday morning.

Other officers of the senior class are Donald Starnes, vice president and John Keriakides, secretary treasurer. Donald Shirley was elected vice president and Harold Gish, secretary treasurer of the junior class. Lester Danielson and Herman Rosenblat both received the same number of votes for song leader so both were given the position.

At an election held Tuesday morning, freshman officers were elected.

Members of Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, met at the Kappa Sigma house to elect officers Thursday evening.

4 FRATERNITIES REPORT THEFTS TOTALING $100

Thieves Enter Sigma Nu, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Chi Phi, And Delta Houses.

Four fraternity houses on the university campus were entered and robbed of over one hundred dollars in cash, jewelry, and other valuables early Thursday. Houses reporting missing articles include Chi Phi, Sigma Nu and Tau Kappa Delta. Tau Delta reported an entrance but no missing articles.

According to the report received late yesterday, cash was taken at all the houses except the Chi Phi house, where three gold watches are reported to have been stolen. Victims at the Sigma Nu house suffered a loss of over thirty dollars, while those at Tau Kappa Epsilon house sustained a loss of nearly sixteen dollars in cash. Nothing else was taken, it was said.

Members of the Delta Tau Delta house reported an entrance into the house but the intruder was frightened away. A plaque was reported missing, however.

It could not be determined late yesterday whether the police had any definite clues to trace down the thieves.

Other fraternities on the campus while stating that there has been no actual losses, indicated that the traditional campus prowler was apparently in evidence. Sorority houses reported no losses, it was revealed yesterday. It was not learned whether the police expect to put an extra force on in the fraternity and sorority sections.

RIFLE TEAM TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

Freshmen - Varsity Squads Will Elect Officers at First Meeting.

Final arrangements for a series of inter-fraternity rifle meets will be made at the initial meeting of the varsity and freshmen rifle teams to be held in the basement of Andrews Hall, at five o'clock on Tuesday, October 2.

The inter-fraternity and intramural rifle shoots that are planned will serve as preliminary meets in preparation for intercollegiate and cup competition, which will begin the second semester, according to Major C. E. Speer, in charge of arrangements. No inter-fraternity rifle meets have been held since 1928, Major Speer stated, and the competitions should provide an interesting as well as invaluable practice.

Officers for the coming year will be elected in each of the varsity, R. O. T. C., and freshmen team units. Plans for the year will be discussed, and hours of team practice will be arranged.

Nebraskan Reporters May Appear For Work

All students interested in doing reportorial work for the Daily Nebraskan should report to the office of the publication any afternoon after 3 o'clock.

PATTERSON TO LECTURE

"Roots of Religion" Will Be Topic of Discussion at University Class.

"The Roots of Religion," is the title of Dr. Patterson's second lecture in the University class of the First Baptist church, 14 th and K sts., Sunday noon, Oct. 1. The class meets from 12 noon to 12:50 p. m. "The Philosophy of Religion" is the theme of Dr. Patterson's course to be given each Sunday during the first semester.

At 8 p. m. the young people's social hour will be held, with Miss Claire Rhodes, Omaha, leading the games. In the meeting following, at 6:30 p. m. the value of various university activities will be discussed. Mrs. Robert McCullum will give the current events summary for the week. Miss Ruth Cheney and Miss Marjorie Compton will sing. Miss Ruth Randall, Harold Brady, Vincent Broady and Miss Mary McCall will speak.

POLICE SUSPECT HARRY VAHLE OF CAMPUS THEFTS

King Takes Accused Into Custody as He Leaves Stuff's Office.

PAROLED MARCH 1931

Articles Valued at Two Hundred Dollars Found in Home by Officers.

With the arrest of Henry Vahle, 32, of 2400 Q street, Wednesday noon, many of the robberies about the university campus may be cleared up, according to police.

Vahle was taken into custody by Ralph King, of the university police force, as he was leaving the office of Prof. Stuff in Andrews Hall, with a desk set in his possession, according to Sergeant Regler.

Vahle has been under parole since March, 1931, when he was convicted on a charge of grand larceny.

When first questioned Vahle declared that he was a student at the university, but after a short quizzing admitted he did not belong there.

Officers King and Regler who searched Vahle stated that in addition to the pen set, several master keys to university buildings (Continued on Page 3.)

ELECTED CAPTAIN OF SCABBARD AND BLADE

Zinnecker Becomes Leader Of Honorary Military Fraternity.

Louis G. Zinnecker, bizad senior from Lincoln, was elected captain of the local company of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity for students in the advanced course, at the first meeting of the organization yesterday in Nebraska hall. Zinnecker is a cadet major in the R. O. T. C.

Other officers of the organization for the year are: Lloyd Loomis, bizad senior from Augusta, Kansas, first lieutenant and vice president; Maurice K. Brown, bizad senior, second lieutenant and treasurer; and Kenneth Fuchscher, bizad senior, first sergeant and secretary.

Regular meetings of the organization will be held every Thursday night at 5 o'clock in Nebraska hall, members of the organization decided. Lee Young, former member of Scabbard and Blade, presided at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

The active membership of the organization will consist of about twenty seniors in the military department, it was determined. The group will make plans for the election and initiation of new members at its next meeting.

YELL KINGS TRY OUT SATURDAY MORNING

Varsity Cheerleading Squad To Be Chosen by Four Faculty Men.

Final tryouts for positions on the varsity cheerleading squad will be held Saturday morning at ten o'clock on the field of the stadium, according to information received yesterday afternoon.

All those interested in trying out for one of the five positions open on the squad are urged to be there for the final selections. The names of the five new cheerleaders will be published in the Sunday morning issue of the Nebraskan after all candidates have been judged.

"Because there is only one veteran cheerleader on the squad this year, there is a special need for good men," Capt. W. T. Scott, the judge, stated. "I wish that anyone interested would come to the tryouts Saturday morning." A faculty committee of four men will make the final selections.

WOMEN'S MAJOR GROUPS SPONSOR ALL-ACTIVITY TEA

To Acquaint New Girls With Campus Organizations, Event Is Annual.

GROUP HEADS RECEIVE

Honorary Sororities Have Representatives at Thursday Event.

More than four hundred university women attend the fourth annual all activities tea given yesterday at Ellen Smith hall. Sponsored by the major women's organizations on the campus, the tea is an annual event to acquaint the new students with the activities and purposes of various societies.

Four major organizations, three publications, and four honorary groups used displays to represent their functions and work. The Tassels, women's prep organization were hostesses at the affair, and the members of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's scholastic honorary, and Mortar Board, senior honorary, served.

Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women, Miss Elsie Ford Piper, her assistant, and presidents of various organizations received. The WAA had charge of the decorations, posters were made by the Y. W. C. A., and AWS provided the refreshments.

D. G. WINS WAA SPORTS PLACQUE AT ANNUAL MEET

Intramural Trophy Goes to Chi Omega for Second Consecutive Year.

About 200 girls attended the annual W. A. A. mass meeting Thursday evening in the Armory, at which awards were presented to winning organizations in women's intramurals last year. Delta Gamma, for the second consecutive year, won the plaque for having the highest number of points, and Chi Omega won a trophy, also for the second time.

The plaque for basketball was awarded to Kappa Phi; that for ping pong to Kappa Delta; for public tennis, to KBB; for swimming to Kappa Delta; for deck tennis to Chi Omega; for bowling to Kappa Kappa Gamma; for badminton to KBB; for archery to Delta Delta Delta; for baseball to KBB and for hit pin baseball to the Huskerettes.

Alice Geddes, president of W. A. A. introduced the members of the executive council of the organization to the members of the sports board and the heads of the physical education department, urged that groups take part in all the intramural sports to be offered this year. She emphasized the importance of these sports as an activity for every girl.

Jean Brownlee, head of the swimming club, announced that tryouts for new members will be held at the Coliseum Saturday at 9 o'clock and next Wednesday at 4 o'clock. A telegraphic swimming meet has been planned for this fall and an all-university meet for next spring.

DIRECTORY LISTS ARE READY FOR CORRECTION

Revisions Will Be Started This Morning in Social Science or Ag Hall.

Students whose names begin with A, B, C, D, E, or F should check lists which are posted in Social Science and Ag Finance office according to Frank Crabill, editor of Student directory. All corrections must be made at once in order that material can be in hands of the printer at an early date, was the declaration of the editor.

Check lists of II students to be listed in the Student Directory will be posted in Social Science building and Ag Hall next Monday, according to Frank Crabill, editor of the publication. All students are urged to correct their names and addresses immediately, as the lists will remain posted for a limit of two days. The letters included in the first check-sheets to be posted will be listed in an early issue of the Daily Nebraskan.

Many registration cards were incomplete because of temporary residences, Crabill stated, and many because of illegible writing. All fraternity, sorority, dormitory and co-operative house lists are in the hands of the printer, and if proper co-operation is obtained in checking the student lists, the book will be out by the scheduled date, Oct. 15.

PALLADIANS WILL BE GAVEL GUESTS

Unveiling of Plaque To Be Main Feature Of Program.

Members of Palladian Literary Society and their guests will be entertained at an open meeting Friday evening in the Temple building, by the Palladian Gavel club. The main feature of the program will be the unveiling and formal initiation of a plaque which the Gavel Club presented to the active Palladian Society, last spring.

Paul Bancroft, acting president of the Gavel Club, and the main speaker of the evening, will talk on "In Memory of Dr. B. B. Davis." Dale Weese, secretary and treasurer of Gavel club, will give the History and Traditions of that organization.

Eva Hallstrom, president of Palladian, will unveil the plaque and introduce the contest winners, who are as follows: Oratory, Harry West; short story, Harry West; essay, Marion Jackson; and verse, Beth Stilgebauer.

DAIRY JUDGING TEAM LEAVES FOR CONTEST

Party Members to Compete At Waterloo, Iowa, October 2.

WILL RATE FIVE BREEDS

Nebraska's dairy cattle judging team will leave today for Waterloo, Iowa, to compete in the Intercollegiate contest Monday, Oct. 2. Members of the Nebraska party are F. F. Morgan, coach, and team members Willard Waldo, Raymond McCarty, Paul Swanson, and Lyman Wallin.

The contest at Waterloo, Iowa, Monday is held as a part of the Waterloo Dairy Cattle congress, one of the large dairy shows in the country. Teams from all the Agricultural colleges in the midwest will be in attendance.

Three Comprise Team.

Three students comprise the team from each college. One of the four students in Coach Morgan's party will act as alternate; which one that will be, final tryouts will determine, Morgan said. The group will stop for a practice workout at the Meredith Jersey farms at Des Moines and again at the Ag college dairy farm at Ames.

In the contest Monday the teams will make placements on a class of cows and a class of bulls of each of the five dairy breeds—Holsteins, Ayrshires, Jerseys, Guernseys and Brown Swiss. It is expected, according to Coach Morgan, that the Nebraska team will have its greatest difficulty in judging Brown Swiss because there are no animals of that breed kept at the Nebraska college.

Wednesday night the Varsity Dairy club, which pays part of the team's expenses on the trip to Waterloo, met to give the team a sendoff. McCarty and Swanson, both members of the team, are respectively, vice president and secretary-treasurer of the club.

PROF. HARKNESS TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Nebraska Instructor Will Leave for Meeting of S.P.E.E. Saturday.

Prof. D. H. Harkness will leave Saturday for Manhattan, Kas., to attend a meeting of the program committee of the Kansas-Nebraska section of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education. Professor Harkness stated that this meeting is being held to complete plans for the regular meeting, which will be sometime in the latter part of October, at Lawrence, Kansas.

This society is a national organization, of which Nebraska university, Kansas university and Kansas state college, are members. It also includes other colleges and universities throughout the country. Each year a national meeting is held in addition to sectional meetings. The national gathering was held in Chicago this year.

Class in Magazine Article Writing Moves to Social Science from Ag

Professor Crawford's Course Changes Location After Ten Years.

By an almost unanimous vote of the students registered, Prof. R. P. Crawford's class in magazine article writing, given regularly on Ag campus for more than ten years, has been transferred to the city campus. Thursday the class met in the regular meeting room, the first meeting in its new location.

"The most astounding thing about the vote of the class," according to Prof. Crawford, "was that even Ag college students voted to move the class to the city campus." Crawford pointed out that in recent years upperclassmen from Ag college have a great deal more of their elective studies on the city campus, and that some of them actually had to come out to the Ag campus for the class.

Economic Element Enters In.

"Another factor entering into the change," Crawford said, "is that a large number of students from down town take the course every year, while the number of Ag students has shown some decrease. The enrollment in the course is predominantly from down town, and times being as they are, some of the students were actually

NEBRASKAN SALES CAMPAIGN REACH NEW HIGH RECORD

Thinks Year's Subscription Drive Most Successful In History.

BOOTHS TO DISTRIBUTE

Solicitors Busy on Campus Throughout Week's Activity.

That the most successful subscription campaign in the history of the Daily Nebraskan will come to a close Saturday night is the optimistic belief of Bernard Jennings, business manager of the publication. The drive started Monday morning of this week and will end tomorrow.

Subscription sales to members of the faculty, to individual students, and block subscriptions to organized houses on the campus will far exceed the marks set in previous campaigns, Jennings believes.

While the sales yesterday were lighter than the previous day's record, the total for the week will run considerably higher than the total sales for last year, Jennings said. The present figures, which are somewhat incomplete, will give almost complete coverage of the campus, he stated.

Regular sales booths have been maintained all week in Social Science hall, in the finance office in Ag hall on the ag campus, and in the office of the Daily Nebraskan. In addition a corps of twenty-five solicitors has been assisting the editorial and business staffs of the publication in selling subscriptions.

The primary reason for the large sales is the fact that the system of distribution thru the bookstores and other agencies will be discontinued this year, Jennings declared. Copies of the paper will be available only at the regular distribution booths or thru block subscriptions.

ANNUAL STAFF LIST NEARS COMPLETION

Present Appointments Not Permanent Declares Editor Magee.

With the personnel of the year book staff nearly completed, eligibility of the applicants is being checked before release of the complete list Sunday, according to a bulletin received from Woodrow Magee, editor of the year book yesterday.

"While the appointments have been made for the entire staff," Magee declared, "they are by no means permanent."

Those whose names are not included on the list will be given an equal opportunity to be placed on the permanent list to be formulated about a month from now, according to the editor of the annual.

"Those who have been trying out for staff positions should not feel discouraged if their name does not appear on the list, as they will have as good a chance as anyone of making the staff in its permanent form," stated Magee.

Board to Receive News Editors' Applications

Applications for the position of news editor on the Daily Nebraskan will be received by the Student Publication Board until Friday noon Sept. 29.

Application blanks may be obtained in the office of the school of journalism, U 104.

GAYLE C. WALKER, Chairman.

walking out from the city campus to attend."

Crawford expressed regret that removal of the course from the Ag campus might make it difficult for some of the Ag students, perhaps interested in the course for its natural value, to attend. "I'd like to have seen the course remain on the campus," he said, "but with almost the entire class voting for the change, there was nothing else to do."

The work of the magazine article course, according to Crawford, consists first of study of the kinds of subjects that may be developed into saleable articles. The students are required to dig up a number of subjects and the possibilities of each subject are discussed in class. The remainder of the semester is given to developing full sized feature article, rewriting and refining it, and then attempting to get it accepted by a publisher. The text used is Crawford's own book on that subject, published two years ago.

"Many of my students are able to sell their articles to magazines and newspapers," Crawford said. "Of course, sale of the articles has been more difficult the last two or three years." As to the quality of the work done by Ag students and those from the city campus, Crawford said that there was no difference.
