VARSIITY CHALKS UP 21-0 SCORE OVER FRESHMEN

Cornhuskers Impressive in 15 Minute Scrimmage With Yearlings.

AERIAL DEFENSE WEAK

O'Brien, Penney and Debus Will Be in Shape for Longhorn Game.

Displaying power in all offensive tactics the Husker varsity clicked in impressive fashion to punch across three touchdowns and tally all tries for the extra point in a short fifteen minute scrimmage against the freshmen in the memorial stadium, Wednesday afternoon, on the regular playing field.

This was their last scrimmage of the season before their meeting with the Texas Longhorns next Saturday in the Husker's initial game of the year.

The only glaring weakness of the Scarlet and Cream lay in their defensive play, particularly their defense of aerial work, which is the dangerous threat the Steers have presented in their opening games of the 1935 season.

Sauer, Miller, Boswell Shine. Sauer and Miller were the driving rods of the varsity attack with Boswell starting on the receiving end of passes and Masterson accounting for the extra tallies.

With Sauer taking the ball from the frosh kickoff he drove, plunged and punched his way for successive gains of 16 yards, 6 yards, 5 yards and 12 yards, giving a brilliant display of ball carrying.

Making end sweeps, off tackle plays and center smashes he netted long gains in spite of all the freshmen could do in trying to break up the varsity's smoothly working offense.

A pass from Masterson to Boswell, which Boswell took away from three waiting freshmen, was good for a gain of 11 yards, placing the ball on the yearling 9-yard line.

A plunge by Masterson, which accounted for 2 yards, followed by one from Sauer, which was good for the remaining 7 yards, gave the Huskers their first touchdown of the afternoon.

Masterson's kick made the score 7 to 0 with the yearlings on the short end.

end sweep, eluding both the freshman right half and safety man, in an exhibition of hard running and clever side-stepping which would be hard to beat in any game.

Sauer Heaves Long Pass. The longest aerial heave of the year, from Sauer to Kibbourne of forty-five yards, accounted for the final touchdown.

The lineups: Varsity - Kibbourne, McDonald, W. Priddy, Scott, Bishop, Peters, Meier, Hubka, Ray, Elmer, Hubka, Priddy, Thompson, Chase, Penney, O'Sullivan, Masterson, Turner, Boswell, Watkins, Miller, Carlwell, Sauer.

Teams starting second quarter: Varsity - Flannick, Uptegrove, Ellis, K. Hubka, Ugal, Jones, O'Neil, Mehrik, Stenten, Copple, Kasai, Yelkin, Hale, LaNoue, Hindky, Parsons, Hopf, Steves, Douglas, Howell.

IT SEEMS TO ME by Irvin Ryan

It was stated the other day that Gail O'Brien would be unable to participate in the coming conflict with the Longhorns.

O'Brien had a displaced nerve which was situated over the collar bone and any movement of the arm caused it to grate against the bone.

The Husker line will average a negative five pounds in relation to
