Special arrangements are being made to entertain a large crowd of alumni coming to Lincoln Saturday for the Kansas-Nebraska game as well as more than a thousand students from the University of Kansas who are expected in town over the week end. The sale of tickets for the party, which are selling for one dollar per couple plus tax, is being handled on the campus by the Innocents society and a staff of picked junior men. Tickets will be available at the door Saturday night for those who were previously unable to purchase tickets. Special permission to continue the party one half hour past the closing time-until twelve clock-has been granted by the faculty committee on student affairs thru the office of the dean of women. Due to the fact that night of November 11 to other soaffairs, the Homecoming party is the only major event of
