Next Week-End With Iowa Game and Guests Promises to Be Eventful One

ALTHOUGH THIS WEEKEND HAS NOT BEEN noticeably crowded with parties and what-not for university students, the next one promises to be busy enough to gladden the heart of the most socially minded. The Iowa game brings many guests from Iowa City as well as alums of Nebraska, and announcements of several house parties have already been made. On the whole, there probably won't be a dull moment, and from all reports the crowd at the game will be one of the largest this year.

Events last night included three banquets as well as several house parties. Mu Phi Epsilon and Alpha Delta Theta entertained at dinners at the Cornhusker, and the Pi Phi held a banquet at the house. The Betas Deltas, Pi Phis, and Chi Omegas sponsored dances at the houses.

ONE OF THE LOVELIEST marriages of the year was that of Miss Jean Wilhelmy, Theta from Lincoln, to Jeff Weston, Phi Psi from Beatrice, which took place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. Leading the procession down the candle-lit aisle were Nancy Howey and Helen Simmons, flower girls, and were followed by the ushers, Robert Young, Larsh Kellog, Richard Harper, Collins Weston, Flavel Wright and Dr. John Moritz.

Then came the bridesmaids dressed in deepening shades of blue. They were Leah Carlson, Mary Elizabeth Froudfit, Roma DeBrown, Frances Ireland, Barbara Harrison and Betty Baker. Helen Lawrence, the maid of honor, wore a gown of old gold and preceded the bride, who entered with her father. Her gown was of ivory velvet with long sleeves and a four yard train.

A reception in the parlors of the church immediately followed the wedding. Assisting in the dining room were Betty Ladd, Billy Sherman, Marian Brown, Joan Ridnour, Doneta Gillaspie, Sidney Ann Gardner and Mrs. Arthur Weaver, jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston left for a trip to California late Thursday evening and upon their return will make their home in Beatrice.

THE THANKSGIVING MOTIF was featured in the decorations at the annual dinner of Alpha Delta Theta last night, which was given by the pledges at the Cornhusker hotel. Prof. and Mrs. Oscar Bennett sponsored the party, and among the guests were Mrs. C. W. Ray, housemother, and Mrs. Katherine Smith, Phi Kappa Tau housemother. A musical program, consisting of a vocal number by Professor Bennett, a violin number by Mrs. Bennett, and songs by the sorority trio, followed the dinner. A skit "Ain't It the Truth" was presented by Velma Hetzel, Clair Forney, Ruth Fellows, Nadine Talbot, Vivian Cumming and Lois Mather.

AND THE THETA CHI mother's club used Thanksgiving appointments at their luncheon at the chapter house, when plans were made for a Christmas party at which the dads will be entertained. Sixteen guests were present, including several from out of town. Bridge provided the entertainment for the afternoon.

RUST COLORED CHRYSANTHEMUMS were the decorations at the Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae luncheon yesterday noon at the home of Miss Maude Rousseau, when twenty guests were present. Assisting Miss Rousseau as hostesses were Miss Merle Beattie, Miss Anna Zeman and Mrs. R. Black. A guest from Omaha was Miss Flora Woods.

BRIDGE FOLLOWED THE meeting of the Theta Phi Alpha Mother's club luncheon at the chapter house at 1 o'clock on Friday. The hostesses were Mrs. Henry Hudson and Mrs. O. A. Hackreiser, and twelve members were seated at the tables which were decorated with autumn flowers.

EVENING SUPPERS AT the houses have become a popular form of entertainment for students on Sunday nights when social events are practically nil. The Sigma Nu mothers have planned a picnic supper for the Sigma Nus and their guests this evening, and the mother's club of Phi Delta is holding a buffet supper at the house.

RED PAPER DEVILS, bouquets of red roses, and black and red place cards were used to carry out the general theme of "hades" at a formal dinner given at the Pi Phi house Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Helen Lewis, province president of the sorority. The dinner was at 6:30 and preceded a party given for the actives by the pledges. During dinner the pledge class sang an original freshman song. The house dance featured decorations of blue and white, carrying out the "paradise" motif, which was used in contrast with that of the dinner.

THE RED MAN IN ALL his glory came to life for a short time last night at the Mu Phi Epsilon annual pow-wow and Founder's day banquet at the Cornhusker hotel. Indian life and legend supplied the theme of the event and was carried out with appropriate music and table decorations. Marian Stamp, Ruth Burkholder and Marian Miller were in charge.

"THE EVE IN EVELYN," a one act skit, featured the annual joint meeting of the Palladian and Delian-Union literary societies Friday night in the Temple. Florence Stevenson entertained with piano selections. Graham Howe was in charge of the program, and Evelyn Hallstrom was in charge of refreshments.

ATTENDING A MEETING of the Nebraska Writer's Guild in Omaha Saturday were Miss Louise Pound, Miss Margaret Hochdoerfer, Miss Ruth Odell and Miss Mamie Meredith of the English department. The group drove to Omaha and returned the same day.

THE NRA PROGRAM will be the theme of the annual journalism dinner at the University club Thursday night. Theta Sigma Phi, journalism sorority, is making arrangements for the event which will feature talks by Violet Cross, Sarah Louise Meyer, Dick Moran, Bruce Nicoll, Burton Marvin and Bernard Jennings. Gayle C. Walker, chairman of the journalism department, will present the annual journalism awards, and Rosalie Lamme, social chairman of the organization, is in charge of arrangements.

REVIEWS OF FOUR recent books were presented by Prof.

Harry F. Cunningham of the architecture department at a benefit book review tea in Grand Island yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Elery Davis accompanied Prof. and Mrs. Cunningham on the trip.

A VARIETY OF SUBJECTS furnished topics for speeches by members of the faculty at various meetings during the weekend. Prof. F. M. Fling of the history department spoke on Germany and America at a meeting of the Lincoln A. A. U. W. Saturday. Prof. O. K. Bowsma read a story as a part of the Father and Son day observance at Elliott school Friday evening. And Dr. W. K. Pfeiler related incidents of his trip to Europe last summer at a public program sponsored by the Frances Willard W. C. T. U. Thursday evening.

Zeta Tau Alpha mothers met at the chapter house Friday noon for a luncheon and spent the afternoon sewing.

Delta Zeta alumnae met at the home of Mrs. L. D. Shreve Saturday for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Elmer Young, Mrs. Keith Turner and Miss Irma Cahoun were assistant hostesses.

The Phi Deltas initiated Willard Horchem of Ransom, Kas., and James Paxson of Omaha this weekend.
