DR. E. W. ROWE.

Fellow of the American College of Radiology and past president of the Radiological Society of North America, who addressed the regular meeting of Sigma Xi, national honorary science organization, held last night in Morrill hall, Dr. Rowe lectured on "The Biological Effects of Irradiation." His lecture was illustrated with a special film.

In opening his discussion, Dr. Rowe declared that medical radiology was growing more than any other division of medicine. Tracing the history of the X-ray from its discovery by scientists he explained how the X-ray functions from the viewpoint of the physicist, and outlined the most important discoveries in radiology during the past two decades.

FACULTY MEN TO HEAR DR. LOWE AT CLUB DINNER

Speaker Is Director of the Gennadeion Library in Athens.

Dr. C. G. Lowe, former chairman of the classics department at the university, will return Wednesday evening, Dec. 6, as guest speaker at the meeting of the Faculty Men's Dinner club. The meeting will be held at the University club at 6 o'clock. A special invitation is extended to the former members of the Archeological Society of Lincoln.

AWGWAN EDITION AVAILABLE TODAY AT SALES BOOTHS

Johnson Writes Horror Story For Humor Publication; Feature Fashions.

2,250 copies of the Christmas issue of the Awgwan, university humor publication, will go on sale this morning at booths in Social Science, Andrews and Mechanical Arts halls, according to Caryle Sorenson, business manager of the publication. He stated that sales this month are expected to be exceptionally good.

Dr. Lowe is the Director of the Gennadeion Library in Athens, and has travelled in several European countries in connection with his work as director. He is in the United States at the present time on a lecture tour, having as his subject "Ancient and Modern Athens." His address Wednesday evening will be illustrated with slides taken on his various travels.

The committee through which Dr. Lowe was secured for the meeting is composed of Prof. H. H. Marvin, chairman, Prof. H. C. Filley, and Prof. O. R. Martin. The club does not hold regular meetings, but thru various committees appointed during the year an effort is made to bring outstanding speakers before the group.

STUDENT FRENCH CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS THEME

Stories Will Be Told and A Vocal Solo Given by Russell Cummings.

"Christmas in France" will be the theme of the Student French club meeting tomorrow night at 7:15 in Ellen Smith hall, according to Gretchen Schrag, president of the club. Stories in French by students and a vocal solo by Mr. Russell Cummings will be featured at the meeting.

Organized this year to promote interest in speaking French and the study of the country and its customs, the club now numbers twenty-five members. "We invite all university students who are taking French courses to attend the meeting," Miss Schrag stated. Dr. J. R. Wadsworth, professor of romance languages, is the faculty sponsor of the group.

CHORAL UNION IS TO GIVE MESSIAH ON DECEMBER 17

Kirkpatrick Will Direct Presentation; Present Four Soloists.

SYMPHONY TO ASSIST

Plan Chorus of 300 Voices With Orchestra of at Least 60 Pieces.

"The Messiah" will be presented in its thirty-eighth consecutive annual performance by the University of Nebraska choral union and the Lincoln symphony orchestra on Sunday, afternoon, Dec. 17, at 3 o'clock in the university coliseum. It was announced Tuesday, Howard Kirkpatrick, director of the University School of Music, will again have charge of the presentation.

Four well known soloists will appear with the group: Velma Lyon, soprano, coming from Kansas City for a return engagement; Sylvia Cole Diers, contralto, university instructor in voice; Parvin Witte, tenor, professor of voice at the university, and Carl Nelson, bass, formerly of Chicago, who also returns after a previous performance here.

Director Kirkpatrick will have a chorus of about 300 voices, and an orchestra of at least sixty pieces that will lead in this annual Christmas musical treat. Much of the best talent of the city and university will be represented in the groups taking part, he stated. Students in the school of music at the university and singers throughout the city are chosen for the performance by written invitation.

To aid in the sound and grouping in the coliseum, H. F. Cunningham of the department of architecture at the university has designed a platform staging for the use of "The Messiah" singers.

DEBATE TEAM TO ENGAGE ARGUERS FROM CREIGHTON

Nebraska Team Will Consist of Elmer Anderson and Walter Wick.

A varsity affirmative debate team will engage the arguers from Creighton university in two discussions of the question of radio control at Omaha tomorrow. One contest will be before the Omaha Central high school at 3:30 and the other will be broadcast over station KOIL at five o'clock.

The team for Nebraska will be A. Elmer Anderson, and Walter Wick. The statement of the proposition for debate which has been used all of the semester's intercollegiate work is resolved: That the United States should adopt the British plan of radio control and operation.

These meetings complete the semester's schedule of six debates by a squad composed of A. Elmer Anderson, Walter Wick, Eugene Pester all of Lincoln, and Harvey H. Hillman, Otoe; and Edmund W. Hollstein, Hay Springs.

Other teams will be chosen for work during the second semester in tryouts about the last of January or the first of February according to Professor H. A. White, debate coach. The same question will be used during the second semester.

SCHEDULE NINTH MUSICAL

Juvenile Students Are to Present Recital at Temple Theater.

Juvenile students will present the recital at the ninth musical convocation at the Temple theater at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The singing class of Mrs. Polley will be featured. Pupils taking part in the afternoon's entertainment will be Gilbert Keeley, Dorothy Maly, Mary Margaret Maly, Patricia Cooper, Dorothy Jean Bryan, Rosemary McKelvie, Dorothy Eloise Carlson, Elaine Carlson, Phyllis Ann Thompson, Hazel Frick, Romulo Soldevilla, Helen Tamm, Thomas McManus and Janet Steckelberg.

These students are studying under university instructors including Miss Wilson, Mrs. Polley, Mr. Schmidt, Miss Owen, Miss Dreamer, Miss Callen, Mrs. Steckelberg and Mrs. Smith.

All students desiring teachers' positions for the school year 1934-35 are requested to meet with Prof. R. D. Moritz, director of the department of educational services, as follows: Candidates for grade positions at 5 o'clock Wednesday, Dec. 6, in room 200, Teachers college. ## ARTICLE REPORTS GIVEN

Members of Theta Sigma Phi Will Hear Reviews by Two Members.

Reports on articles which appear in the Matrix, national magazine published by Theta Sigma Phi, journalistic sorority for women will be given at the weekly meeting to be held today at 5 o'clock in University hall.

BIZAD FRATERNITY PLANS INITIATION OF NEW MEMBERS

Group Will Be Largest Ever Admitted to Local Organization.

KILGORE GIVES WELCOME

Gamma Epsilon Pi Affiliates To Join With Beta Gamma Sigma at Banquet.

Beta Gamma Sigma, national honorary scholarship fraternity of colleges of business administration, will hold the annual initiation banquet in honor of eleven new members at the Cornhusker hotel Wednesday, Dec. 6, at 6:30. This group is the largest ever taken into the local chapter and includes four women, the first ever admitted to the organization.

The former members of the local chapter, Gamma Epsilon Pi, national honorary scholastic sorority of Bizad colleges, will be welcomed along with the new members. Gamma Epsilon Pi was absorbed by Beta Gamma Sigma at the national convention last spring.

J. Edward Kilgore, president of the local chapter, will extend the welcome. He will be answered by Mrs. Florence Reed, former national treasurer of Gamma Epsilon Pi, representing that organization, and by a member of the initiates for his group.

"Recovery" is the topic of the main address of the evening to be delivered by Prof. J. E. Kirshman of the finance department. He will compare the financial and monetary policies of Hoover and Roosevelt.

TALKS ON ESSENTIALS OF BECOMING ADULTS

Miss Scurlock, Regional Secretary of YWCA, Is Vespers Speaker.

The difficulties and essentials of becoming adults were discussed by Miss Stella Scurlock, regional Y. W. C. A. secretary, at the Vespers held Tuesday in Ellen Smith hall.

"We have to learn to take hold and form our own beliefs and find a foundation for them," Miss Scurlock declared. She said that the feeling that we must do as everyone else does, is the result of a fear of what others will think of us if we don't, and is responsible for a fatal lack of individualism and growth. "Don't be just a reproduction," she admonished.

A second point the speaker emphasized was the responsibility each person has, not only for himself, but for the group of which he is a party. Both are frequently shirked.

Miss Scurlock reminded the girls that, "nothing can deny victory to the real self that you are. Growth comes from your inner self not from the outside."

APPROVE PLAN TO CONSOLIDATE TWO ASSEMBLY HOUSES

Professors State Agreement With Proposed Amendment Introduced by Norris.

WILL VOTE ON PROPOSAL

Suggestion Is Based On Idea of Substituting With Single House.

Substitution of a single house legislative assembly in place of the present Nebraska senate and house of representatives is provided for in an amendment to the state constitution which will be placed before Nebraska voters for adoption at the 1934 general election, through the efforts of Senator George W. Norris.

Norris' proposal, as written by him, will be submitted to voters of the state under the initiative which will first require 55,700 signatures on petitions for the amendment. If adopted, the plan would be a specific amendment to article 3 of the state constitution.

Under the proposed reorganization, the unicameral state legislative body would consist of 21 members elected from as many districts for a term of four years. All representatives or delegates would be elected on a non-partisan ticket. Members' pay would be $2,400 per year payable monthly. Actual mileage expense to and from Lincoln would also be allowed.

Election in 1936. If the amendment is adopted, first election of members would occur in 1936 with the first session beginning in January, 1937. The 1935 bicameral legislature would divide the state into the twenty-

FINISH PREPARATIONS FOR NEXT UNIVERSITY PLAYERS' PRODUCTION

'Another Language' Said to Be Great Success on Broadway.

Preparations for the opening of "Another Language," the third in the series of last year's Broadway successes being presented by the University Players this season, were in the last stages as the cast whipped order out of chaos for the dress rehearsal Thursday night.

The play opens Monday, December 11 for a five day run. Advance ticket sales point to a sell-out.

Play is Broadway Success. Acclaimed as one of the finest plays produced on Broadway last year after its extended run, "Another Language" comes to Lincoln.

Appointment of committees Tuesday night marked the second time this year that the new committee on committees has functioned as provided in the council's recent drastic reorganization.

To Dorothy Zimmer goes the leading role as Stella, the misunderstood wife in a commonplace American family. About Miss Zimmer, Director Sumption is quite enthusiastic and predicts a wonderful performance in this difficult assignment.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB HOLDS FALL INITIATION

Newly Installed Members Entertain With an Original Stunt.

Zeta chapter of Omicron Nu, national home economics honorary society, held its fall initiation on Monday in the parlors of the home ec building at Ag college.

Initiates were Lorraine Brake, Mary Frances Kingley, both of Lincoln, and Helen Smrha, of Grand Island.

Following initiation Miss Eloise Sperry played a group of piano numbers. The newly installed members entertained with an original stunt. Under the auspices of the alumni chapter of Omicron Nu Miss Beas Steele presented a talk demonstrating the making of etchings and an exhibit showing different types of etchings.

Injured in Wreck

A. A. REED.

Director of the university extension department, who was severely injured when a car in which he and Dean B. E. McProud of Wesleyan university, collided with a truck near Utica yesterday. His condition was said not to be serious.

GREEKS ADVANCE DATE OF ANNUAL SPRING BANQUET

Fraternity Council Appoints Committee on Campus Beautification.

The interfraternity banquet will be held this year on Wednesday, MARCH 8, it was decided at the regular meeting of the Interfraternity council Tuesday evening. The banquet is to be held earlier than in former years in order that fraternities may participate in the annual honors convocation held in April. Previously fraternity scholastic standings has been kept secret until the banquet.

Choose Committees.

Further steps in the council's campaign for beautifying the campus thru the erection of stone pillars on the mall were taken with the appointment of a committee on campus beautification. E. Stuart Ross, chairman, William Patterson, and Henry Larsen were named on the committee.

Definite action on revision of the constitution and rushing rules is expected soon following the appointment of a committee for that purpose Tuesday night. Harry Rudolph, chairman, Harry Salter, and Leslie Rood are members of the committee.

Discuss Conflicts.

The council also discussed the problem of intramurals conflicting with fraternity meetings. Due to the fact that Monday night is utilized by most organizations for their meetings, an attempt will be made to have Harold Fetz, intramural athletic director, eliminate fraternity sports from that night.

PRE-MED STUDENTS MEET

Schedule Dr. Marshall to Speak at Dinner; Women Make Arrangements.

Speaking before the pre-med students at a dinner Wednesday Dec. 13 will be Dr. Marshall Neely, Lincoln doctor. Women registered for the pre-med course are to be in charge of the meeting. In the past arrangements have always been completed by pre-med men students.

The meeting will be held at the Grand hotel at 6:30. Corrine Clafin and Gretchen Bender are in charge of completing plans for the banquet.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Opening Formal Affair of University Season Marked by Military Ball Friday Night

In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, but with the first days of December his fancy gayly turns to thoughts of that king of events—the military ball. Which, of course, may merely be another way of saying the same thing.

This year's ball, set for Friday, Dec. 8, at the Coliseum, will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the university's most spectacular and outstanding event. Each year for twenty-five years students have anticipated the military ball with a great deal of delight; each year they have speculated on and eagerly awaited the grand climax of the ball—the presentation of the honorary colonel; and each year the committee in charge of arrangements has tried to outdo the previous one in making the affair the most outstanding and successful to date.

DOCTOR REED IS INJURED IN A CAR WRECK TUESDAY

Dean McProud and Head of Extension Division Were Going to Central City.

CONDITION NOT SERIOUS

Accident Occurs When Auto Crashes Into Truck Near Utica.

Dr. A. A. Reed, director of the University Extension division, was severely injured in an automobile accident near Utica early Tuesday morning. Reed and Dean B. E. McProud of Nebraska Wesleyan university were enroute to Central City at the time of the crash.

Professor Reed was taken immediately to Morrow Hospital in Seward, where an X-ray examination yesterday afternoon revealed no serious injuries. Attendants stated that his condition was not serious later in the afternoon. McProud, slightly bruised and cut about the face, returned to Lincoln yesterday afternoon.

Occurs Near Utica.

The accident occurred a short distance from Utica, when Dean McProud's car crashed into a truck. The car was completely demolished. Reed was knocked unconscious.

The director of the University Extension division did not regain consciousness until noon yesterday. Hospital attendants feared that he would suffer from shock.

Dean McProud stated late last night that he had only been slightly injured in the accident.

Dr. Manter Conducts First Research Work on Fish Parasites and Marine Life in Area of South Pacific Ocean

BY DOROTHY BENZ.

Probably the first collecting and research work ever to be made of fish parasites and marine life in the south Pacific will be carried on by Dr. H. W. Manter, faculty member, when he sails Dec. 30 from Los Angeles, Calif. on a two month scientific expedition with other noted scientists under the direction of Captain G. Allen Hancock.

The expedition will last until early in March and will include a scientific survey in the countries along the coast of Mexico, Central and South America and the Galapagos Islands.

Manter, the degree of differentiation between specimens from the two oceans has never been noted.

It is believed by Dr. Manter that more distinctive and unusual forms will be found in the Galapagos Islands than any place else in the world. These volcanic islands are quite numerous and are situated 650 miles west from the coast of Ecuador in line with the equator.

"They have been visited by expeditioners for several years and consequently only a short part of the time will be spent there this year," Doctor Manter said. "Most of the two months time will be spent on the west coast of the South American mainland."

Included in the crew will be five or six noted scientists, chosen from throughout the United States. Each will specialize in collecting a certain species of crabs, algae, corals, and jelly fish. Some are the same as those found in the Atlantic ocean but for the most part they are different.
