

MEET FOR DISCUSSION OF CORN-HOG PROGRAM

State-Wide Conference Will Be Held at Ag College December 18.

County directors for the federal corn and hog program in Nebraska will meet at the Agricultural college on Dec. 18 for a state wide conference to formulate plans for the program. The conference is sponsored by the agricultural extension division of the university, and will serve to acquaint the federal agricultural emergency assistants and county agents with the educational program for campaign among the farmers.

part will guide the extension division in conducting this season, according to W. H. Brokaw, director of the agricultural extension department, and state administrator for the plan.

Urge Co-operation. Forty million dollars is the benefit that will be received by Nebraska farmers if they co-operate in signing the contracts, as estimated by Director Brokaw.

NEBRASKAN JOINS IN AIDING NEEDY

(Continued from Page 1.) professor of sociology in the university, pointed out that in the majority of cases, clothing is a more pressing need than food at the present time.

"I believe the Nebraskan's campaign for old clothing meets a definite and pressing need this winter," Dr. Williams declared. "In co-operating with the Christmas bureau of Lincoln welfare societies, the Nebraskan is assured of an effective and well placed distribution of its contributions."

REED RETURNS TO CITY

Confine Extension Director to Lincoln General Hospital.

A. A. Reed, director of the University Extension Division, was brought back to Lincoln from Seward where he has been confined to the hospital since his accident there a week ago yesterday.

While in Seward he was serenaded by the students of the Concordia State Teachers college, who had learned of his confinement.

Mr. Reed was taken to the Lincoln General hospital, where he will be forced to remain for some time.

GERMAN FOLK SONGS TO BE FEATURED AT DEPARTMENT PARTY

Committee Arranges Short Program to Present During Event.

Singing of German folk songs is the main feature of the Christmas party to be given by the faculty of the German department for all students interested in that language. The party will be held in one of the galleries in Morrill hall from 4 to 6 o'clock this Friday afternoon. Students are urged to attend any time during the two hours as a continuous program will be carried on.

Copies of the songs to be sung have been passed out in the various classes and are being practiced during the first part of the class sessions. At the party, Professor Hermann Decker, of the Fine Arts department, will lead in the singing. Miss Hochdorfer's third year German class has been practicing two songs which will be sung during the afternoon program.

Arrange Program. A short program has been planned by the faculty committee, of which Professor Bruno Klinger is the chairman. It will include a trumpet solo by Ac Wischmer. His accompanist will be Mary Lou Williams. Emma Vogel and Albert Blair are to give a accordion solo.

Refreshments consisting of German cookies and coffee will be served during the afternoon. There is no admission charge.

Evidence that the student activities tax plan is generally accepted by most of the large schools in the country was gained by the student council when it sent questionnaires to many of the leading institutions in the nation. According to data gathered in this survey, the plan proves to be quite workable and advisable, and has become quite popular.

Plan Approved Last Year.

Last year the proposition ran the gamut of formation and individual approval by persons interviewed, and then was given approval in a campus vote by a 2 to 1 margin. However the proposal was tabled by its sponsors before it was to be taken before the Regents in the summer, and all the work done previously proved to be to no avail.

Fires Score of 370 in Four Required Positions; Honor Roll.

George Eager, Freshman Rifleman, set the club record for 1933 in the University Rifle Club at the range in Andrews' hall by firing a score of 370 in the four required positions.

He is the first Freshman to attain the high mark. "With our Freshman division much better than last year's varsity and the present varsity superior to any material we ever instructed, I feel confident that our school will be well represented in the meets with other schools we have planned for the coming season," predicted Sergeant C. F. Gimsey. Fifty-eight schools have accepted the challenge sent to them by the Nebraska University Rifle Club and a schedule is being contemplated by the military department to be published as soon as it is approved by the contestants.

Will Hold Election.

Freshmen will organize with the election of a president and manager and announce their plans for the season at a later date.

The Military Department has prepared the following honor roll:

JACK CRAWFORD AND HIS ORCHESTRA

$7.00 plus tax the couple

Things are in reverse Friday night. It's the lady's night out. She will get the date, buy the ticket, furnish the car, pay for the refreshments and act as only a good escort should act.

It's a chance for her to find out just how it's done. And incidentally, too, a chance to pay back long overdue social debts. So ask that boy friend of your dreams today.

As for the fellows. Well, you'd better start dropping hints soon. Then stick close by the telephone, because the girl friend is going to call.

It's going to be lots of fun. Enter into the spirit of the party. And most of all, girls, make some boy happy. Remember—You'll be wanting to go some time.
