

SAUER RATED AS LEADING GRIDDER

Husker All-American Fullback Turns in Greatest Game in History of East-West Contest New Years Day; Hailed Thruout United States.

VERSATILE STAR SCORES BOTH TALLIES IN TILT

Lincoln Athlete Counts on Short Line Plunge and 28 Yard Run; Punts 63 Yards; Completes Passes; Intercepts Pass, Runs Back 40 Yards.

George Sauer, big blonde boy from Nebraska, as he was described by west coast enthusiasts, upheld the traditions of Nebraska and raised them to an even higher standard when he so spectacularly crashed and galloped to two touchdowns for the West's football squad to score the only counters made during the entire battle between All-American men from all over the United States.

Not only on offense was he a constant threat to eastern stars recruited from the Gulf of Mexico to New York City, but his brilliant defensive performance made sport writers from all over the country hail him as the greatest gridiron performer to have ever participated in an East-West classic.

Sauer Was Indispensable.

Several writers even went so far as to state that had Sauer been out of the lineup the East would have emerged victorious from the battle.

His line smashing performance totaled a grand total of 99 yards while the total yardage gained by the entire West only came to 140 yards. Furthermore Sauer was out of the game part of the time and this tended to reduce considerably the amount of yards which he might have added to his list.

Both Tallies Come Early.

Both the touchdowns were scored in the first quarter and the first six points were scored on a line plunge from the 3-yard line. Sauer had taken the ball on the 12-yard marker and on the fourth down went over for the touchdown.

His second touchdown was made by a spectacular 28 yard run, when Sauer broke through right tackle and continued over the goal line standing up, completely eluding the safety and halfbacks.

Punts Sixty-three Yards.

At one time when the East was threatening to put over a touchdown and finally lost the ball by an incomplete pass over the goal line, Sauer, by a beautiful 63 yard punt on a rain soaked field with a wet ball to kick, put the invaders clear back on their own 17-yard line thus ending the East's most serious threat of the day.

Again towards the end of the game when the East was again threatening and had reached the West 5-yard line by successive plunges, Sauer intercepted a pass from Joe Laws on his own 1-yard line and reversed the field 40 yards before finally being brought down. The run, one of the best of the day, stopped the other East scoring threat.

Coach Sutherland said that with Jack Minor ineligible, with mid-semester qualification for degree, Harry Kuklin will occupy his position and capture the initial position in the swimfests. With Masterson, Easterday, Fiesbach and Church, as the only remaining lettermen, the hopes of the team are concentrated in the following new members: Glyndon Lynde, utility swimmer; Ben Rimerman, sprint man; Harry Kuklin, master of backstroke and fancy diving; Robert Gibbons, breast stroke; Bernie Galitzki, breast stroke; Charles Flansburg, diver, Abe Grossman, diver.

All available swimming material is to report to Coach Sutherland at the coliseum pool at the first opportunity, to try out for team positions.

SCHERZINGER

Nebraska's All-American fullback proved beyond all doubt, in the East-West football game at San Francisco New Years day, that he has every right to those laurels. George went thru that game, in which forty-four of the best players of the country were competing, and finished the tilt as the outstanding star among a galaxy of All-Americans and near-greats. Sports critics throughout the country are now hailing him as the outstanding backfield man of the year due to the Monday performance in addition to his play throughout the season in Big Six and inter-sectional competition.

In the first quarter of the East-West mix on Jan. 1, Sauer smashed his way to two touchdowns, these two tallies representing the ten minutes left to play.

NEBRASKA DROPS FIVE CAGE GAMES DURING VACATION

Nodak State Only Quintet To Fall Before Browne Basket Outfit.

AMES FIRST BIG SIX FOE

Coach Browne's Cagers Face Kansas, Champs, Next Tuesday Night.

After suffering five losses and eking out only one victory the Nebraska basketball squad meets Iowa State at Ames this coming Friday in its first Big Six cage conflict of the year. Last season Nebraska and Iowa State finished fifth and sixth respectively in the conference race.

Having finished their preliminary work Monday night at Minneapolis when the strong University of Minnesota quintet trounced the Huskers 37 to 16, the Brownemen are now ready to enter the field of Big Six competition. Iowa State possesses one of the strongest teams in the conference according to all advance word this year and the Brownemen seem due to have a difficult time emerging with their scalps.

Kansas Here Tuesday.

The Scarlet's first home game will be played against the powerful Kansas' basketball team, coached by Coach Phog Allen, Tuesday. In meeting the conference champions of last year the Husker boosters will be considerably handicapped because of lack of height.

A summary of the results of the games played during the Christmas holidays follows:

Marquette Trims Huskers.

Invading Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for their first game of the year the Nebraska Hoopsters were defeated by the Marquette university Hilltoppers, 25 to 22. Marquette took a seven point lead at the start and held Nebraska scoreless until Hub Boswell managed to drop in a free throw.

When the second half had been but a little while under way, the Hilltoppers held a 20 to 7 lead. However, the reserves were swung into the fray and led by Loder and Mason boosted the score to 22 to 18. Loder led the Huskers' scoring with three goals and three foul shots for a total of nine points.

Northwestern Rallies.

In the Northwestern game the Cornhuskers took the lead and still held at the half time but the Wildcats came back strong in the second half to capture the affair with a 35 to 22 final checkup. The Nebraska offense was held so tightly in check that the Huskers were held scoreless for the first thirteen minutes of the second half. Boswell was high point man for Nebraska with a total of ten points.

Using a high powered offense and a defense which yielded only two field goals during the entire game, DePaul university of Chicago thoroughly routed the Nebraska basketball team, 35 to 11, for the Husker's third straight defeat of the season.

Committing seventeen personal fouls the Brownemen were only able to drop thru two field goals during the entire game.

North Dakota Wins.

The opening of the next trip north also started with a setback. A fast traveling University of North Dakota basketball team swamped Nebraska 50 to 22. The rout was so thoro that Coach Clem Letich sent in a squad of reserves to finish the game with a total of ten minutes left to play. In invading the camp of North Dakota State the Huskers, led by Hub Boswell with a total of fourteen points to his credit, won their first cage mix of the year, 32 to 29. In spite of the fact that it was the teams first victory in five starts it was a slow and ragged affair. A ragged defense which gave away points faster than a satisfactorily functioning offense could ring them up cost the Aggies a victory.

Allowing the Brownemen to sink only five field goals during the forty minutes of play Minnesota university captured a rough and erratic basketball game 37 to 16. Closing the half with a 25 to 8 lead the Gophers had little difficulty during the remainder of the contest.

In League I tonight Alpha Gamma Rho will attempt to maintain its undeclared record when it meets Delta Sigma Phi at 7:00 p. m. on Court 1, and Farm House and Sigma Phi Epsilon follow them at 7:20 on the same court.

Phi Kappa Alpha and Phi Kappa Psi battle in League II, and are followed by Delta Sigma Lambda vs Phi Delta Theta, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs Chi Phi.

Delta Tau Delta and Theta Xi, two undeclared teams, meet in League III in what will probably be the deciding game of that league. In the same league Sigma Chi plays Phi Sigma Kappa, and Alpha Sigma Phi contests Delta Upsilon.
