The Daily Nebraskan

VOL. XXXIII. NO. 79.

THE NEBRASKAN, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1934.

LINCOLN, NEB.

FROLIC LOOMS ON CAMPUS HORIZON AS EXAMINATIONS END

Sigma Delta Chi Mid-Year Party Plans Complete, Tickets Now on Sale.

The Mid-Year Frolic, Sigma Delta Chi's invitation to Nebraska students at the end of nine days of final examinations, to dance to his fourteen piece Casanova orchestra in the university coliseum, bids fair to be one of the social high spots of the mid-year season.

According to members of Sigma Delta Chi the advance ticket sale, which is being handled through representatives in the organized houses, indicates a large crowd. Tickets will also be sold at the gate next Friday night.

Name Chaperons. Chaperons for the affair will be: Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett, Dean and Mrs. T. J. Thompson, Dean and Mrs. T. J. Thompson, Dean Amanda Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Karl M. Arndt, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Cayle C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Bengston, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Selleck, Mr. R. P. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barton,

Myron Lowther's orchestra will come here direct from the Futuristic Ballroom in Milwaukee, where he has been under contract at that most popular of Milwaukee dance floors. He has been heard over the Columbia broadcasting system and has played at the Silver Slipper in Cleveland, O., and the Ritz-Carlton in New York City.

Members of Sigma Delta Chi are enthusiastic over prospects of suc-cess of the "breather" since much favorable comment has been voiced by the students following announcement of the frolic.

REGISTER FOR NIGHT CLASSES BY FEB. 3

List 77 Evening Courses; New Professors Will Offer Instruction.

New night class students at the University of Nebraska must register from Jan. 29 to Feb. 3, and semester clauses begin the week of Feb. 5, it was announced Saturday. Listing 77 courses open to the evening registrants, the extension department is again making available a large curriculum from which to select courses.

About twenty classes that met with such success during the first semester that they are being repeated include courses in business administration, commercial arts, education, English, fine arts, German, home economics, mathematics, psychology, physiology, French and sociology. Work that is to be continued in a second semester class can be found in American history, astronomy, business administration, commercial arts, English, fine arts, German and French

Offer New Courses.

New courses appear on the schedule, and several professors who have not before taught night classes will offer work. R. L. Cochrane has a new class in American history, Prof. S. M. Darlington will teach office management, and Prof. O. J. Pfeiffer, a beginning course in chemistry. An advanced shorthand class under Miss Goering has been added. New educational courses are limited under Professors H. C. Koch, A. A. Reed, W. H. S. Norton, and S. M. Corey. Prof. F. Dwight Kirsch will instruct in photography, and Miss Burry has two additional classes in art work, while Prof. H. T. Decker bas a course in the history of music. Other classes not offered before are business psychology under Prof. W. E. Walton; political science under Mr. Satterfield; and sociology under Prof. J. N. Rein-

CHEMISTS WRITE ARTICLES

Research Results Published In Chemical Journal For aJnuary.

The Journal of the American Chemical society for January car-ried two research articles written by University of Nebraska professors and graduates. Dr. C. S. Hamilton, professor of chemistry. and one of his former graduate students, Dr. Harold P. Brown who is now professor of chemistry at Kansas City university have contributed. Their article is named "Naphthalenearsonic Acids." The Application of the Bechamp Reaction to Alpha-Naphthylamine." In the music of Myron Lowther and the same issue appears "Heats of solutions of Sugars in Water" by Dr. B. Clifford Hendricks, associate professor of chemistry and three of his former graduate students: Dr. W. H. Steinbach, professor of chemistry at Kearney State Normal; Dr. Royce LeRoy, professor of chemistry at Doane college; and A. G. Moseley, jr.

JIMMIE JOY SIGNED TO FURNISH MUSIC FOR GREEK AFFAIR

Interfraternity Ball Will Be Held in Coliseum on February 10.

Jimmie Joy and his orchestra has been selected by the Interfraternity ball committee to play for the annual party, scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 10, at the univer-sity coliseum, Norman Prucka, chairman of the committee, announced yesterday. Jimmie Joy will come here from St. Paul, Minn., to play for the event,

Tickets for the party, which will go on sale within the next few days, will sell for $1.50, including tax. The permanent decorations will be used in the coliseum and a special ornamental orchestra pit will be constructed for the ball.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements are Norman Prucka, chairman; Leslie Rood, Lloyd Anfin, Richard Moran, Harry Salter and Clarence Patterson.

BEGIN DEBATE WORK WITH NEW SEMESTER

Engage Morningside on Jan. 29; Schedule Future Dates.

Debate activity for the second semester will begin immediately following the opening of the second term with an argument against Morningside college on Jan. 29 on the proposition, Resolved: That the powers of the president of the United States should be enlarged as a permanent policy. This engagement will be followed on the first of February with a meeting with Iowa State college on the same topic.

Other tentative dates have been scheduled for Jan. 29 with Drake university and Feb. 28 with Denver which have not been definitely arranged yet. Nebraska arguers on the affirmative against Morningside will be Irving Hill and Eugene Pester. Nebraska's negative team of Charles Steadman and Jack Pace will meet Iowa State.

Daily Nebraskan to Discontinue Digest

The last edition of the Collegiate Digest makes it appearance today. Because of an in-ability to secure advertising copy acceptable for publication, its discontinuance is necessary. Perhaps, in the future if more suitable copy can be secured, we may again be permitted to distribute this weekly feature section.

Bernard Jennings, Business Manager,

NICOLL, JENNINGS ELECTED TO DAILY NEBRASKAN POSTS

New Managing Editors Are Burton Marvin and Violet Cross.

Bruce Nicoll, Casper, Wyo., was named editor of the Daily Nebraskan and Bernard Jennings, Lincoln, was renamed to the post of business manager by the publication board Monday afternoon. These two men, both seniors, will head the business and editorial staffs of the paper during the second semester of this school year. The new editor was managing editor of the Nebraskan during the past semester, and Jennings served as business manager during the first semester.

New managing editors of the publication are Violet Cross, Fre-mont, hold-over from the first semester position of managing editor, and Burton Marvin, Lincoln, news editor during the first semester.

Appointed as news editors were Jack Fischer, Valentine, hold-over from the first half of the year; Fred Nickles, Syracuse; and La-moine Bible, Monroe. The latter was news editor during the second semester last year.

No changes were made in the business staff by the appointing board. With Jennings as the head of the staff, George Holyoke, Omana; Richard Schmidt, Lincoln; and Wilbur Erickson, Newman Grove, were renamed to the posts of assistant business managers.

The Awgwan staff also remains intact. Rosalie Lamme, Walsenburg Colo., continues in the role of editor; and Carlyle Soren-son, Omaha, continues as business manager, Managing editors are Alice Beekman, Blair, and Bob Pierce, Lincoln.

Date of Mixed Party With Barb Girls Set for Friday, Feb. 23.

The Barb Inter-Club Council will meet Monday evening at 7:30 in the Palladian Literary Society rooms on the third floor of the Temple to discuss plans for a proposed party sponsored by the men's and women's barb councils. Announcements of completed plans for the Inter-Club basketball tournament will be made.

The tentative date for the mixed party, first of its kind to be held on this campus, has been set for February 23, it was announced yesterday, by Wilbur Erickson, president of the Council. Plans for the party include dancing and table games. Announcement of the place where it is to be held will be made after Monday's meeting.

BAPTISTS TO HOLD PARTY

Miss Niell Is in Charge of Games; Musical Program Will Be Offered.

There will a post-examination party at the Baptist student house, 1440 Q st., Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Jeanie Niell has charge of the games and the Second Baptist church has charge of the refreshments. There will be a short musical program in addition to the games. An admission charge of 10 cents will be charged to those attending this party.

Sunday evening Dr. Herman Liu, president of the College of Shang-hai, Shanghai, China, will speak at the First Baptist church at 7:45 building became imminent. p. m. The church choir will sing as a part of te program. Dr. Liu the next meeting of the group on minster church of Lincoin, will was here with Stanley Jones a the subject of organization of the address Vespers at 5 o'clock Tursshort time ago.

Former University Students Named to Positions in Various Towns.

Six Nebraska high school teaching appointments of former University students were reported during the week to the department of educational service. Virginia Gleason whose home is at Randolph will teach English and mathematics at Hartington. Sylvia Kotouc of Humboldt goes to Gretna where she will be an instructor in English and home eco-Joining the Gresham nomics. faculty, Sarah Richmond of Utica will teach English and music. Esther Scott goes from Lincoln where her home is located to Gibbon as teacher of commercial arts. To instruct in home economics, Helen Wilcox of Clay Center goes to the Deuel county high school at Chappell. William Young of Lincoln has been made principal of the school at Odell.

SCHEDULE NEXT PLAY TO BEGIN ON FEB. 5

Present 'Dangerous Corner,' Involving a Mystery Plot.

The University Players will present "Dangerous Cornor," a sophisticated mystery, by J. B. Piestly, Feb. 5 to 10, in the Temple theater. Harold Sumption, of the university dramatics department, will direct the play.

All of the scenes of the production which appeared twice on Broadway with the original cast headed by Stanley Riges and Keith Johnson, are laid in the living room of the Chatfield home on the Hudson. The plot centers around the solving of a killing without the aid of the police or story-book detectives.

Veronica Villnave, and Harold Sumption appear in the lead roles of the production.

The cast is as follows: Maude Mockridge, Jane Mc-

Betty Whitehouse, Virgene Mc-Charles Stanton, Melvin Fielder.

Gordon Whitehouse, Armand Robert Chatfield, Harold Sump-

4AUP CHAPTER MEETS TO DISCUSS LIBRARY

Doane Speaks at Faculty Dinner Monday Night At Grand Hotel.

The Nebraska chapter of the American Association of University Professors met at a dinner at the Grand hotel Monday night to discuss the proposition of a new iibrary on the university campus. Gilbert H. Doane, head librarian, talked on the subject: "Organization and Aims of the University Library."

Other speakers on the program were Prof. Lancaster, Dr. and Dr. Guilford, who gave brief, informal talks on the subject of the university library and gave opinions on the subject of the eve-

Faculty Interest Aroused.

The meeting was held to arouse faculty interest and sentiment on the subject of the proposed new library on the campus so that the members of the faculty could act at once in case erection of a new

Mr. Doane was invited to address day in Ellen Smith hall. library in a new wilding.

SIX GET TEACHING POSTS DR. WOLCOTT PASSES AWAY TUESDAY NIGHT; WAS HERE SINCE 1895

Zoology Chairman Dies After Lingering Illness of Several Months.

Dr. Robert H. Wolcott, chairman of the zoology department at the university and member of the faculty since 1895, died in Lincoln shortly before 6 p. m. Tuesday following an illness of several

At the time of his death Dr. Wolcott was acting chairman of the department of bacteriology and pathology. He had guided the growth of the zoology department from a few scattered classes in Nebraska and Mechanical Arts halls to its present place in Bessey hall.

Dr. Wolcott came to this university in 1895 as an assistant in the zoology department. In 1905 he was made professor of anatomy and head professor and dean of the college of medicine in 1909. Dr. Wolcott chose Omaha for the permanent location of the medical college, but elected to remain in Lincoln with supervision of zoology. He was made head professor of zoology and dean of the junior medical college in Lincoln.

He was author of numerous books and articles the most prominent being "Birds in Nebraska." He was affiliated with Sigma Xi, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Microscopical union, and other honorary and professional socie-

Funeral services will be held at his home Thursday at 4 p. m.

CLOSE SCHOLARSHIP FILINGS ON FRIDAY

W. A. A. Offers Financial Aid to Junior and Senor Women.

Filings will close Friday for two scholarships for the second semes-Olwen Peel, Sylvia Schaefer.
Frieda Chatfield, Veronica Villter given for the second time by the Women's Athletic association to junior and senior women selected on the basis of scholarship, financial need, personality and interest in the W. A. A.

List Regulations.

The loans will not draw interest until one year after the girl has graduated from university when they will be charged 4 percent interest a year, according to the committee arranging for the scholarship. The committee is made up of Alice Geddes, president of the W. A. A., Maxine Packwood, Jean Alden, Miss Mabel Lee, Elaine Fontein and Miss Josephine Orr.

Secure Application Blanks. The application blanks can be secured at the women's intramural office after the applicants have had a conference with Miss Josephine Orr. The names of the girls receiving the loans will not be announced.

Johnson Slated for Talk At Tuesday Convocation

Ralph Johnson, student lecturer and exchange of the University of Hawaii, will address a special student convocation in the Y. M. C. A. rooms at Temple theater Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Johnson will speak at the ag college Y. W. C. A. vespers at Tuesday noon.

The speaker for the convocation has travelled extensively throughout the Orient and Mediterranean countries

Johnson Will Speak

At Vespers Next Week Rev. Paul Johnston of West-