DANCE IN HONOR OF ROOSEVELT SET FOR COLISEUM TUESDAY

Proceeds of Birthday Party To Go to Warm Springs Foundation Fund.

As part of a nationwide celebration of President Roosevelt's birthday Lincoln business men are sponsoring a dance to be held on Tuesday, Jan. 30, in the university coliseum. Proceeds from this and similar other affairs over the United States will go to the Warm Springs foundation established in Georgia for the care and treatment of infantile paralysis.

Two Orchestras Play. According to Stanley Maly, the chairman of the committee in charge of general arrangements, dancing will begin at eight o'clock with a grand march led by Governor Bryan scheduled for nine. Between 10:15 and 11:15 President Roosevelt's speech will be heard over the radio. Two orchestras, Jungbluth-Ayres and Leo Bec with the possibility of a third, will play for the event, according to Dr. H. C. Zellers who is in charge of the music.

Late Hours Permitted.

Permission has been granted by Dean Amanda Heppner to girls living in organized houses if they wish to go to the dance. Ticket sales on the campus will be in charge of the presidents of the various houses.

The personnel of the committee in charge of general arrangements includes Stanley Maly, chairman; Bitt Tiyor, C. I. Clark and John K. Selleck. Chairmen of the various committees are Walter Jurgensen, distinguished guests; Gen. H. J. Paul, house and decorations; Charles F. Shire, entertainment; Joe W. Seacrest, publicity; Dietrich Dierks, radio; John E. Curtiss, ticket sales; Dr. J. D. Case, speakers; Byron Goulding, student organizations; Verne Hedge, fraternal organizations; Carrie W. Watson civic organizations; Harry B. Swanson, arrangements; Mayor Fenton B. Fleming, reception; and W. C. Condit, traffic and police.
