

HUSKER CAGERS TACKLE KAGGIES SATURDAY NIGHT

Nebraska Seeks Vengeance For One Point Loss At Manhattan.

TEAMS TIE FOR FOURTH

Browne Places Sorenson at Center, Widman at Guard for Tilt.

In their sixth Big Six contest of the year the Husker cagers will meet the Kansas State five Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Coliseum. At present the two teams are tied for fourth and fifth places in the conference basketball standings, each having two wins and three defeats to its credit. In a previous tie between the two fives the Wildcats won by a 25 to 24 score in an overtime period.

Two first year varsity men probably will figure in the Browne lineup Saturday evening. Harry Sorenson being slated to enter the melee at the center post, while Harvey Widman will again be seen performing in the guard role. Widman has played a stellar and flashy defensive game as well as contributing to the point column ever since the Kansas game, which was the first tilt in which he was in the starting five. Sorenson, who is six feet four inches tall, is replacing Leland Copple as center on the Husker five, and is rapidly improving both in ball handling and floor work.

Widman May Take Center.

There is a possibility, according to Coach Browne, that Widman might be shifted to the center post, in which case Paul Mason would be inserted at guard. At present plans stand, the starting Nebraska forwards will be Hub Boswell and Ken Lunney. Sorenson will play center, and guards will be Widman and Bud Parsons.

Paul Mason has been troubled since Tuesday with a bad ankle, but is expected to be in condition to play Saturday evening.

Two weeks ago this last Monday the Huskers met the Manhattan quintet on the Kansas Aggie court and fell before the southerners by a 25 to 24 count in an overtime game. The Huskers led all the way, but Ralph Graham came thru in the final minute of regular play to tie the count at 23 all, and in the extra time tallied a field goal after dribbling in to the goal.

As a result of the previous victory of the Kaggies, the Scarlet team will be out to revenge this defeat, and the two teams will also be battling for fourth place in conference standings.

GATES SAYS COLLEGE ATHLETICS IMPROVING

Nationwide Survey Reveals Sports Undergoing a House-Cleaning.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 1.—College sports have undergone a house-cleaning, and while they still may not be entirely pure, their improvement is very commendable. Such was the tenor of a report read before the annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges in St. Louis. The report, prepared by President Thomas S. Gates of the University of Pennsylvania, who is head of the association's committee on athletics, was based on a recent survey of the college sports situation.

"An increasing number of institutions have taken the financing of college sports out of the hands of committees and have turned it over to the treasurer, bursar or other equivalent officer," the report stated. This, according to Dr. Gates, is a step in the right direction and has done much to reduce the tendency toward the commercialization of college athletics.

He also said that a decrease in athletic scholarships had been found and that a general effort to de-emphasize competitive athletics, particularly football, was being made.

The general house cleaning, including the reorganization of many athletic departments in colleges and universities, can be dated from the publication of the famous Carnegie Foundation report on athletics in 1928, Dr. Gates said. Dr. Gates' report was read before the association's meeting by President Daniel Marsh of Boston university.

INDOOR TRACKMEN MEET JAYHAWKS ON FEBRUARY 17

Good Squad Is Predicted Despite Loss of Veterans.

Nebraska track fans will have an opportunity to view the 1934 team for the first time when the Cornhuskers entertain the Kansas Jayhawks in the initial indoor meet of the season Feb. 17, in Lincoln.

Track men are working out daily on the stadium track in an effort to shape a team that will be able to defeat the powerful Jayhawks when they make their appearance here. Coach Schulte has a squad of one hundred fifty men going through the callisthenics daily, and predicts that "within two weeks we will have a good team in shape for Kansas."

Hampered by the loss of several veterans of the past two seasons, Coach Schulte is working hard to shape a new squad that will make a good showing against Kansas. Lambertus, Dorman, and Funk have been showing up best in practice the past few weeks. Reist was making a good showing in the shot before he became ill. The entire team needs more practice, and hard work will be the key note for the next two weeks.

Schulte is neither pessimistic nor optimistic as to the future possibilities of his team. "We're going to have a good team," he says, "but we're going to have trouble with Kansas. The Jayhawks have one of the best teams seen in this part of the country for the past several years. The outcome depends upon how much our boys improve in the next two weeks."

His approach to these subjects will be made personal and directly applicable to the student's own problems and needs. According to the Baptist student secretary, "The attendance at the class during the first semester clearly proved the interest of the students in such a discussion of religious problems, and every interested student is invited to participate in these pertinent discussions."

"The Use of Leisure Time," is the subject of a series of talks to be given by Miss Bernice Miller, secretary of the university Y. W. C. A., starting next Sunday evening at the church. The worship service preceding the talk will start at 8:30 p. m. and will be led by Miss Helen McGaughey.

IT SEEMS TO ME

by IRWIN RYAN.

Sweet revenge may come the way of the Husker basketball team tomorrow night when they play Kansas State for the second time this season. Two weeks ago the Wildcats took the Browne team into camp by a 25 to 24 score in an extra period game. More than a mere possibility of revenge is at stake. The two teams are tied for fourth and fifth places in the conference cage race with two wins and three losses in each of their columns.

Ralph Graham is the man who was responsible for the Kaggie win at Manhattan. He tied the count in the last minute of play at 23 to 23, and then in the overtime tussle which resulted Graham tallied a field goal after Lunney scored on a free shot, and provided the margin for a 25 to 24 win. This Graham is one and the same man who stars in the backfield for the Kansas Aggies during the football season. He went to the west coast to compete in the East-West fracas New Year's day, and according to George Sauer, played a bang-up game.

Phog Allen, veteran Kansas coach, claims that Nebraska and Kansas are the two toughest teams in the Big Six circuit. In backing his claim he stated that many of the players on both squads played football during the grid season, and consequently were a bit rough in cage competition. At the same time the venerable Mr. Allen bungled when he came thru with that now famous statement that Copple, "the Husker's 236 pound, six foot six center," was apt to cause his Jayhawks a bit of trouble. That was the day before the Nebraska-Kansas game, which Nebraska surprisingly won by a 24 to 21 count. Copple did cause the Kansas considerable trouble, but it didn't take 236 pounds to do it, since the Rosalie basketball weighs mere 185 pounds, and is six feet four inches tall instead of six feet six.

No doubt Mr. Allen and his vincible Jays are anxiously awaiting their meeting with the Huskers on the Lawrence court. The tilt is scheduled for Feb. 19.

There is one condition at the coliseum which should be remedied as soon as possible. The athletic department officials should come to the realization that there are more students on the campus than those competing on the varsity teams. When one goes over to the field house to get that very advisable exercise he finds that the "cage" is rarely open. He is told by the janitor that the "cage" will not be open until the varsity team is ready to practice. The coliseum was built to be of service to all the students on the campus, not merely for those few privileged characters who compete on varsity squads.

Track season is rolling around. Coach Schulte again is on the trail of a Big Six title. Whether or not he can garner another one is a question, especially since he lost several of his best men from last year's squad. Heye Lambertus is slated to be the mainstay of this year's team as he was of last year's according to all indications. Last summer he won the national championships in both the junior and senior divisions of the A. A. U. low hurdle competition. He has also built up somewhat of a reputation as a sprinter, coming second only to Hall of Kansas in the Big Six sprints last spring.

BIG BILL TILDEN WINS FROM VINES IN STRAIGHT SETS

Barnstormers Are Scheduled To Play in Coliseum February 5.

Big Bill Tilden is staging a comeback if his exhibition against the California youth means anything. Vines was not only defeated but was completely out of the race from the start of the match the other day when he was trounced by Big Bill in straight sets at Long Beach, Calif.

As a result of the other night's play the games are likely to be even up by the time the troupe reaches Lincoln this coming Monday, Feb. 5. Thruout the entire match Vines only managed to capture two games, playing eight successive games before he finally broke thru Tilden's stout defense to emerge victorious in his first game. The score of the matches were 6-0, 6-2.

This was the first match out of the five played thus far in California that Big Bill managed to take from Vines and made the
