four prices, the student being asked to check his preference.
Confusion About Yearbook. Members of the committee of the opinion that the confusion resulting from the optional arrangement of the Cornhusker on the ballot was responsible for the voting down of the yearbook. Another possibility cited is that the freshman and sophomore vote was in opposition to inclusion of the annual.
The committee on the tax was authorized by the council Wednesday to prepare a report for the board of regents, which is to meet in March. The proposed report to the regents will probably include the Cornhusker with details of the plan to be worked out later by the council. An idea, whereby the annual was to be made optional for the underclassmen and compulsory for juniors and seniors was received favorably by the committee.

CAST IN FINAL REHEARSAL FOR NEW PRODUCTION

was produced there last season. George Jean Nathan, "The Stage," and Robert Benchley, critic for "The New Yorker," were especially well pleased with the play and gave it "a great hand" in their reviews.
All the action of the play takes part in one room in the fashionable summer home of a New York publisher and writer. The action of the play is very fast and thrilling.
Stage settings for the play have been designed and constructed under the supervision of Robert Reade, Players' stage managers. Play at Veterans Hospital.
World war veterans in the Veterans' hospital will be given an opportunity to witness the play when

HARDWICK TALKS TO ALPHA GAMMA RHO

Groups Wishing to Hear Y.M. Speaker Should See Committee.

"A Man's Religion" was the theme of "Jim Hardwick's" lecture to the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity yesterday noon which opened a series of lectures to be given by Hardwick to fraternities and other student groups upon the same subject.
Those fraternities who want Hardwick to address them should see a member of the committee in charge of the speeches before fraternities. The following men are on the committee: Gerald Tool, Vincent Broady, Charles Ledwith, Frank Crabill, Charles Hulac, and Morton Spence.

The Phi Alpha Delta house entertained Hardwick at dinner last night. Immediately after dinner he spoke on the subject of "A College Man's Problems." After this meeting he spoke to members of Lambda Chi Alpha at 9 o'clock.

Until Thursday night there were no scheduled plans for today except the informal discussion at the joint meeting of the Y.M.'s at 22nd and J st.
Saturday is still open. He will speak to Delta Upsilon Sunday noon. The Interclub council will hear him Monday at 7:30 in the Delian Union hall in the Temple in order to arrange for talks for non-fraternity groups.

He will speak to the Chi Phi fraternity Tuesday and to Acacia Wednesday.

Vocational Institute Hears Talk by Caster

Mr. M. T. Caster, General Plant Superintendent of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company, showed two films and gave a talk on the preservative treatment of timber at a special meeting of the Smith Hughes vocational institute of bituminous materials Wednesday, January 31. A number of engineering students attended the meeting which was held in room 102 of Mechanical Arts building.
