

CAMPUSOCIETY

TO ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES

Lincoln will be more or less deserted today, for everyone seems to be planning to go to Omaha to hear Ben Bernie, who is playing at the Orpheum there. Although we hear that some went last night and others are planning to go sometime during the coming week, the biggest migration to Nebraska's metropolis will take place today. Tentative plans had been made for "the old maestro" to play for dancing sometime during his stay, but it seems that his contract will not permit him to accept other engagements.

WE APOLOGIZE for the mistake in the announcement of the Kappa Delta formal. There was no dancing at the dinner which preceded the party at the Cornhusker, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Stoke were included in the list of chaperons.

SINCE THE Delta Chis and the Sig Eps are now living in the same house, the mothers' clubs and auxiliaries meet together. Yesterday the Sig Ep auxiliary and the Delta Chi mother's club met at the houses for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Hostesses to the twenty-three who were present were Mrs. Jennie Hermanson, Mrs. E. E. Anderson and Mary Benjamin. Following the luncheon a business meeting was held.

AND LAST NIGHT The Alpha Delta Psi held a "jail dance" at the house, which was decorated like a prison. The pledges gave the affair in honor of the actives.

MRS. HERBERT BROWNELL will speak before the Delta Upsilon Mother's club at 6 o'clock supper Sunday. A program has been planned by the active members.

A DELTA OMICRON tea was given at the home of Mrs. Rolla Van Kirk Saturday from 3 to 5. Mrs. Slendere Diers and Mrs. Heath Griffith poured. The color scheme was rose and grey, the sorority colors. A musical program was presented by Kathryn Dean, contralto, Callorita Callen, violinist, and Marjorie Heiney, pianist. Thirty people attended.

SIGMA NU has announced the pledging of Melvin Turner of Lincoln.

ENGINEERING STUDENTS will be interested in learning that the annual engineers' ball, sponsored by the engineers' executive board, will be held March 17 at the Lincoln hotel. Those heading committees for the ball are Hugh Gray, Richard Babcock, John D. Brewer, Kenneth A. Davison, Orin Romigh, Verne Shoemaker, Wayne Thurman, Henry Winter and William F. Johnston.

DELTA ZETA pledges will entertain the actives and their guests at a buffet supper Sunday night at the chapter house. A color motif of green and rose will be carried out.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made at this time by the Kappa Sig of the pledging of Robert Timm and Victor Herrmann, both of Osceola.

GWENDOLYN HAGER, who is to be married to Roscoe Kroger on the tenth of March, is being honored at many affairs. Last Thursday Bernice Hoffman and Helen McNulty entertained and Friday Mrs. David C. Hilton, Mrs. Robert Gray and Mrs. O. J. Allison gave a one o'clock luncheon in her honor. Last night she was complimented at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton B. Fleming. Tomorrow evening Dorothy Ziegenbusch is planning a party. Others who will entertain for Miss Hager during the week are Vivian Fleetwood, Martha Hershey, Bernice Lieberman, Corine McCary and Mrs. Eva Burns.

THE MARRIAGE of Miss Audrey Perkins of Palmyra to Ross Luff will take place on the 8th of March. Mr. Luff is a former student of the university.

SATURDAY Mrs. E. M. Loomis was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon for the Tri Delta alumnae. St. Patrick decorations were used. After the meeting bridge was played.

MRS. D. CALHOUN entertained the Delta Zeta Mother's Club at

A Flunk Dammit Flunk fraternity has been organized at the University of Alabama for those students who can't make grades high enough to permit them to enter the regular fraternities.

Students at Colorado university have passed a law requiring every student crossing the bridge over the campus lake to shake hands with every other student who happens to be on the bridge at that time, and at one of the prominent eastern women's colleges they passed a rule not to speak on the campus.

Amherst professors who delay more than ten days in giving students marks are fined a dollar for each additional day.

At the University of Nevada only the seniors are allowed to sport mustaches and sombreros.

Abilities of high school graduates, rather than sex, should determine which of the children in a family should be sent to college when all cannot be sent, is the opinion of Dean Virginia Gildersleeve of Barnard college for women.

Male students at the University of Minnesota have formed the "Affiliated Order of Jilted Joes" whose aim and purpose is to bring into close relationship those Joes who have been squelched by the female sex.

Records show that tUniversity of Chicago students, now that they don't have to attend classes, are working harder and more effectively, and going to class more faithfully.

Professors at the University of Washington are having a lot of fun selecting coeds for the "beauty queen" contest, which isn't really a beauty contest at all, but a personality contest. While the girls sit and squirm, they ask them such questions, as, "Do you smoke? Do you drink? What do you do at the fraternity informals?"

At Mills college the professors defend slang. They call it the "technical language of the under-graduates."
