Cinder Squad Runs Off Five Events Beneath Stadium Saturday Afternoon.

LAMBERTUS AT RECORD

Dean, Nichols, Funk, Roberts, England and Rist Turn in Good Marks.

As Coach Schulte's proteges were unable to hold the track meet outdoors Saturday aftermeet outdoors saturday arter noon as planned, five events were run off beneath the stadium before the varsity mem-bers of the Husker cinder squad checked in and called it a day. Weather conditions kept them in-

Heye Lambertus again captured the spotlight by skimming over three low sticks in a distance of sixty yards in the remarkable time of 6.6 seconds. This was just a trial or warm-up run but the time is very close to a record perform-ance. The distance is the same as he ran at the Butler relays but there he had two more hurdles facing him.

In the pole vault Orlin Dean cleared the bar at 12 feet 11 inches, soaring over it with plenty to spare. Both Dean and Carl Nichols, who skimmed over the height of 12 feet 6 inches, were over the bar when placed at 13 feet but they hit it on the way The 11/2 mile run, won by Glen Funk in the time of 7 minutes and 14 seconds was the first event of the afternoon. Jim Story and Rall were not far behind however Funk took the lead after the first few laps and maintained it from there on in.

Howard Roberts and Merle England tied for honors in the 440 yard dash with Williard Humpal trailing them closely all the way to the tape. The time for the run was given at 53.8 seconds.

Owen Rist was the only Nebraska man putting the shot. Rist competed against several youngsters from Lincoln high school, Mills and Phieff according him the stiffest competition. The event was a handicap affair as Rist, using the 16 lb. shot, gave Mills a three yard handicap and Phieff a five yard lead. Rist chalked up a heave of 45 feet 9 inches.

Mills, with a heave of 49 feet 10 inches won the contest.

BACKFIELD PROSPECTS

Seven Lettermen Report For Spring Practice in Cyclone Camp.

AMES AMES, la., March 31. swifter, smarter backfield seems in prospect for the Cvclones in 1934, if numbers and experience count.

When Head Coach George F. Veenker looked over his squad at the opening of spring practice this week he counted seven backfield lettermen. In addition there was a string of likely freshmen who will be eligible next fall. The backfield lettermen are

Veenker also has his eyes on Tom Neal, Sioux City, speedy freshman quarterback who gave the varsity team plenty of trouble last fall; Daniel Humphrey, Youngstown, O., halfback and a possible substitute for Allender; and Harold Birney, De Witt, a prep halfback, Kenneth Ames, Peavier III. a minner letterman a Peoria, Ill., a minor letterman a

SCHEDULED GAME FOR INSIDE DRILL Play Formations, Chalk

Bible Sends Huskers Through Talk Saturday.

With bad weather forcing the Husker football squad indoors and prohibiting the scrimmage, which was scheduled for 2 o'clock Saturday, from taking place, Coach Bi-ble merely gave the men their reg-ular warm-up exercises and put them thru several play formations. Then following a chalk he sent them to the showers with the information that if the weather per-mitted there would be two scrimmages this week, one Monday and another Wednesday, the latter date being set as the final drill of the spring football season.

Pitting the frosh against last year's reserves Coach Bible gave each a turn on the offensive and
