From 10 until 12 this morning no one need go to classes, which are to be dismissed so that everyone may attend the honors convocation in the coliseum. Dr. Norman Foerster from the University of Iowa will be the speaker, and Chancellor Burnett will preside. It's probably safe to say, however, that there will be a number of bridge games and what-not going on here and there during the two hours of freedom, and some people even plan to sleep.

College World

After collecting statistics on the month of birth and intelligence quotient of 22,427 school children over a period of years, Prof. Rudolf Pinter, Columbia university psychologist, has discovered that people born during January, February and March are not as intelligent as those born at any other time of the year.

Although the proposal to merge Northwestern university and the University of Chicago has been rejected, a committee of prominent educators is continuing its investigations of the educational implications of consolidation of the two institutions.

Five hundred Temple university students recently signed a petition in which they agreed to "decapitate himself with extreme joy."

Many of the 1,161 Harvard university students listed in the university employment office stand ready to serve as nursemaids and cooks.

These humble quatrains are composed
To tell a sprightly tale
Of how a witty junior nosed
A senior with a frail.

The tale, ye hearties, goes like this:
It seems two lads were nuts
About a certain little miss
Whose name, we'll say, was Lutz.

The junior's Christian name was Tom;
The senior's name was Bert.
They both considered for the prom
The same blond, blue-eyed skirt.

Now Bert had honors, letters; he
Was quite the well-known lad,
While two-bucks-ten and faith-in-me
Were all that Tommy had.

When blond Miss Lutz declined to go
With Bert, he wondered why,
That Tommy should get all the show
Was quite a blackened eye.

He learned the night the prom was thrown
Why he had lost the date,
For Tom had made the timely loan
Of someone's Ford V-8!
