

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

THE WEATHER
Mostly Cloudy
Probably Showers

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXIII—NO. 142.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1934

PRICE 5 CENTS.

SENIOR SOCIETIES NAME 25

Banquets and Picnics In Limelight

COLLEGE DAYS WIND UP WEEK

Journalism Students Go to Seward; Engineers Plan Affair at Pioneer Park While Geologists Have Fossil Hunt at Louisville.

PRE-MED DAY IS SET FOR SATURDAY IN OMAHA

Bizads Schedule Annual Field Day at Antelope Park; Pharmacy and Law Colleges Center Activities Around Banquets in Evening.

Picnics and banquets hold the limelight today as various schools and colleges on the campus wind up a week's activity in the all university college days.

Students of law, journalism, engineering, geology and business administration will go picnicking, Pharmacy and Law college will hold banquets, while pre-meds will do their celebrating Saturday when they go to Omaha to be guests of the medical college there.

As soon as classes are dismissed at 11 o'clock, journalism students will meet at the Daily Nebraskan office and drive from there to the city park in Seward for a box lunch picnic.

Feature Baseball Game.
The annual Bizad day, which was started in 1920, will begin this year with a picnic lunch at noon in Antelope park. Other features include a baseball game between professors of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional commerce fraternity, and a tea dance to be held from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock with Leo Beck and his orchestra. An added attraction will be a group of numbers from the Wally Morrow dancing studio.

Following up their open house displays held last night, members of the Engineering college will hold a convocation at the Temple at 11 o'clock. Roy Green, president of the Western Laboratories, will be the principal speaker, and according to Marion Scott, general chairman of the week, will present an optimistic view of the fields open to engineers and the types of positions they may be expected to fill.

Banquet in Evening.
After the convocation, the engineers will go to Pioneer park to participate in athletic events between the various departments. Climaxing the week of festivities will be a banquet at the Lincoln

(Continued on Page 2.)

KAPPA ALPHA THETA SORORITY WINS SING
Award Greek Letter Society Mortar Board Cup by Margaret Buol.

ALPHA PHI TAKES THIRD
Kappa Alpha Theta sorority received first place in the intersorority sing yesterday afternoon. Alpha Chi Omega, winner of first place in last year's contest, took second prize, and the Alpha Phi sorority, third. Pi Beta Phi was awarded honorable mention.

Judges for the sing were Mrs. Ullian H. Polley, professor of voice of the university; Homer K. Compston, assistant instructor of voice, also of the university; and Oscar Bennett, of Wesleyan college.

Miss Dorothy Kunz led the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority in the songs "Theta Lips" and "Here's a Toast to K. A. T." The Alpha Chi Omega sorority was led by Miss Paula Davis. Their numbers were "Sweet Alpha Chi Girl" and "We Sing to You, Alpha Chi." "Alpha Phi Sweetheart" and "For-got-me-ner" were the songs of the Alpha Phi group, directed by Miss Helen Johnson. Pi Beta Phi, under the direction of Miss Callista Cooper, sang "Speed Thee My Arrow" and "My Pi Phi Girl."

Miss Margaret Buol, president of the A. W. S. board, presented the cup to Miss Marian Packwood, president of Kappa Alpha Theta, following the decision of the judges.

OVER TOO PRE-MEDS TO OMAHA SATURDAY
Inspection of Clinics and Hospitals Occupies Morning.

Over one-hundred pre-med students attending the university will be guests of the Medical College in Omaha Saturday, May 5, according to an announcement released Thursday by Dr. Manter, professor of zoology and pre-medical advisor.

"All pre-med students who have not as yet signed up and wish to do so must secure admission cards to the clinics at any time between now and Saturday morning before the departure, Dr. Manter said.

Identification cards are required and must be presented since the crowd will make it necessary for the College of Medicine in Omaha to restrict the entertainment of guests on that day to pre-med students only. Registration for the affair will take place in Omaha Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Saturday forenoon is to be given over to the inspection of the hospital, laboratories and to lectures in the various clinics. Entertainment for the group has been provided for also. In the afternoon a baseball game will be waged between the pre-meds of the visiting schools and the freshman medicals. All colleges in the state are to be represented at the affair.

DELTA UNION TO HOLD GIRL'S NIGHT
Annual Girls Night, with the girls acting as hostesses, will be observed tonight when the Delta Union holds its meeting at 9 o'clock in room 304 of the Temple building.

With Ruth Kuehn in charge the program will consist of music, skits and pantomime. Following the meeting refreshments will be served with Joan Bucknell acting as chairman of that committee.

Girls Night is observed by the group once every year.

French Club Hears Lecture on Feudal Castles in France

"Feudal Castles in France" was the subject of an address presented Thursday evening by Mr. Despecher of Omaha before members of the L'Alliance Francaise. The speaker presented his illustrated talk from an aesthetic point of view rather than from that of social.

WILLA NORRIS IS QUEEN OF MAY IN IVY DAY PROGRAM

Martha Hershey Is Maid of Honor at Traditional Ceremony.

Trumpet blasts announced Willa Norris, Inavale, as May Queen in the traditional Ivy Day ceremonies Thursday morning. Miss Norris, president of Mortar Board, was attended by Martha Hershey, Lincoln, as maid of honor.

The attendants gowned in mouseline de soie preceded the entrance of the May Queen. Freshmen attendants, dressed in pale lavender, were Irma Bauer, North Platte, and Jean Palmer, Ulysses. Alaire Barke, Lincoln, and Lorraine Hitchcock, Lincoln, wearing green frocks acted as sophomore attendants. Dorothy Catthers and Jean Brownlee, both of Omaha, were the junior attendants. Their dresses were pink. Senior attendants, wearing blue, were Carolyn Van Ande, Fremont, and Lorraine Brake, Lincoln.

Miss Norris wore a gown of white lace made on princess lines with a Queen Anne collar and long sleeves. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white gardenias.

(Continued on Page 3.)

OVER TOO PRE-MEDS TO OMAHA SATURDAY

Inspection of Clinics and Hospitals Occupies Morning.

Over one-hundred pre-med students attending the university will be guests of the Medical College in Omaha Saturday, May 5, according to an announcement released Thursday by Dr. Manter, professor of zoology and pre-medical advisor.

"All pre-med students who have not as yet signed up and wish to do so must secure admission cards to the clinics at any time between now and Saturday morning before the departure, Dr. Manter said.

Identification cards are required and must be presented since the crowd will make it necessary for the College of Medicine in Omaha to restrict the entertainment of guests on that day to pre-med students only. Registration for the affair will take place in Omaha Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Saturday forenoon is to be given over to the inspection of the hospital, laboratories and to lectures in the various clinics. Entertainment for the group has been provided for also. In the afternoon a baseball game will be waged between the pre-meds of the visiting schools and the freshman medicals. All colleges in the state are to be represented at the affair.

May Queen and Maid of Honor

MISS NORRIS.

MISS HERSHEY.

—Photos by Klinehart-Sarkson. Courtesy Lincoln Journal.

INNOCENTS.
Owen Johnson, president. Frank Crabill, vice president. George Holyoke, secretary. Henry Kosman, treasurer. Howard White, sergeant at arms. Tom Davies. Franklin Meier. Bill Fisher. Jack Fischer. Maynard Miller. Fred Nicklas. Burton Marvin.

GWEN THOMPSON WINNER OF IVY POEM CONTEST

Gwen Thompson, Arts and Science senior from Merrill, Iowa, was announced Ivy Day poet following crowning of the May Queen Thursday morning. Her winning poem paid homage to the new Queen, her court and the many traditions of Ivy Day. In her selection Miss Thompson declared that this annual event is one day in the year when all can laugh and be glad for a new regime holds sway.

—Courtesy Lincoln Journal.

Lucile Hunter, arts and science junior, was given honorable mention for the poem which she submitted. Miss Hunter's home is in St. Edwards.

Faculty members who judged all poems submitted were Miss Louise Pound, Miss Marguerite McPherson and Mr. L. C. Wimberly. All three of these judges are instructors in university English department.

Francis McReynolds was last year's winner in the annual contest sponsored by Mortar Board.

STUDENT LOBBY IS ADVOCATED BY EDDY, IVY ORATOR

States This Election Year Is Time to Start Campaign.

The best way to help the university is to create the most powerful and extensive lobby organization in the state. Now is the time to start this campaign of personal evangelism, since this is the year when all the young men will be elected to the legislature, William Eddy said Thursday morning in his Ivy Day oration.

William Eddy, who was elected speaker in the recent spring election, is a senior in the law college and is from Marysville, Kas. Mr. Eddy delivered his address at 10 o'clock following the interfraternity sing.

Watchfulness Needed.
"The salvation of the university," Eddy declared, "is the watchfulness of the university community. The university community is deemed to consist of all those who profess loyalty to the University of Nebraska and its traditions. Perhaps you are wondering just what particular salvation is needed by a school that has

(Continued on Page 2.)

DELTA UNION TO HOLD GIRL'S NIGHT

Annual Girls Night, with the girls acting as hostesses, will be observed tonight when the Delta Union holds its meeting at 9 o'clock in room 304 of the Temple building.

With Ruth Kuehn in charge the program will consist of music, skits and pantomime. Following the meeting refreshments will be served with Joan Bucknell acting as chairman of that committee.

Girls Night is observed by the group once every year.

MORTAR BOARDS.
Violet Cross, president. Bash Perkins, vice president. Florence Buxman, secretary. Maxine Packwood, treasurer. Breta Peterson, reporter. Louise Hossack. Marian Smith. Elaine Fontein. Marjorie Filley. Arlene Bors. Roma DeBrown. Callista Cooper. Marjorie Smith.

LARGE GROUPS OF PEOPLE SEE OPEN HOUSE DISPLAYS

Particular Phases of Work Are Demonstrated by Departments.

Crowds of interested visitors last night thronged thru the buildings of the engineering college, Pharmacy hall, and Merrill hall to see the exhibits and demonstrations given by engineering, pharmacy, and geology students as features of open house night.

Hundreds of displays showing particular phases of work and various exhibits of engineering phenomena filled all of the buildings of the engineering college. Likewise Pharmacy hall was filled with a number of interesting exhibits and Merrill hall contained the work of the geology students.

Engineers' Open House.
The open house at the engineering college was a feature of engineers' week. Each of the six engineering departments exhibited demonstrations showing their particular phase of engineering work.

One of the most interesting exhibits of the engineer's show was a large working model of the Sutterland irrigation project at North Platte, Neb. The model showed the diversion of water of the North Platte river, an interesting engineering feat, and the land irrigated by the dam.

Farm Machinery Show.
The agricultural engineer's display consisted of modern machinery and tools. The workings of large tractors was explained and pictures of the application of modern farm machinery were shown.

Many visitors were attracted to the electrical engineering department where the students had utilized several electrical phenomena to make a novel show. Curious on-

(Continued on Page 3.)

VIOLET CROSS, JOHNSON HEADS

Mortar Boards Masked Are Misses Perkins, Buxman, Packwood, Peterson, Hossack, Smith, Fontein, Filley, Bors, DeBrown, Cooper, Smith.

ONLY TWELVE HONORED BY MEN'S GROUP

Other New Innocents Tapped Are Crabill, Holyoke, Kosman, White, Davies, Meier, Fisher, Fischer, Miller, Nicklas and Marvin.

Working for the first time under new rules of student primary election and fluctuating membership, Innocents tapped only twelve men Ivy Day instead of the traditional thirteen. Owen Johnson was chosen president of the incoming group.

After remarks of introduction by Dr. George Condra, faculty advisor to the society since its organization in 1903, the search for new members was started by Byron Goulding, outgoing president. Other incoming officers are Frank Crabill, vice president; George Holyoke, secretary; Henry Kosman, treasurer, and Howard White, sergeant-at-arms.

The following list gives the names of the society members for next year in the order they were tapped:

Owen Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of Stromsburg. (Continued on Page 4.)

Violet Cross, junior in Arts and Science college, was chosen president of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, at the masking ceremony yesterday afternoon. She was masked by Willa Norris whom she succeeded.

Miss Cross from Fremont, Neb., is managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan, member of the Junior-Senior Prom committee, member of the A. W. S. board, vice president of the Y. W. C. A., member of Theta Sigma Phi, and Kappa Alpha Theta.

Other officers and members of Mortar Board for the coming year are: Bash Perkins, vice president, masked by Anne Bunting; Florence Buxman, secretary, masked by Ruth Cherny; Maxine Packwood, treasurer, masked by Donna Davis; Breta Peterson, reporter, masked by Jane Boos; Louise Hossack, masked by Martha Hershey; Marian Smith, masked by Alice Geddes; Elaine Fontein, masked by Lucille Reilly; Marjorie Filley, masked by Margaret Kvoul; Arlene Bors, masked by Valentine Kiota; Roma DeBrown, masked by Jean Alden; Callista Cooper, masked by Willa Norris and Anne Bunting; and Marjorie Smith, masked by Ruth Cherny and Donna Davis.

Bash Perkins is a member of Alpha Xi Delta from Arnold, Neb. She is a junior in Arts and Science college, a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, vice president (Continued on Page 3.)

AG STUDENTS TO OFFER PRE-VUE OF PAGEANT FRIDAY

Farmer's Fair to Officially Open at 10 O'clock Saturday.

Excitement was at a high pitch on Ag college campus Thursday and members of the Farmers' Fair board predicted that as the events of Friday evening and Saturday draw nearer, student enthusiasm will run higher.

Friday night at 8 p. m. comes the pre-fair presentation of the pageant "America Panorama" Saturday at 2 p. m. comes the second presentation and at 8 p. m. Saturday night comes the third and final presentation.

Farmers' Fair for 1934 is officially open when the exhibits in the home economics building, student activities building and ag engineering building open at 10 a. m. Saturday morning.

Concessions Open at Noon.
Sharply at noon the concessions and "sets stands" on the grounds open. Throughout the afternoon and evening runs a series of events and entertainments including the horse show and intersorority riding contest, the Nebraska-Ames baseball game, amorphous show in the afternoon.

(Continued on Page 4.)

SIGMA ALPHA MU WINS DEBATE TOURNAMENT

Retains Title by Defeating Beta Theta Pi Team Thursday.

Sigma Alpha Mu retained possession of the Delta Sigma Rho trophy for another year Thursday evening by defeating Beta Theta Pi in the finale of the interfraternity debate tournament. They will meet champions of the Barb debate some time in the near future to decide the intramural championship.

The trophy, a silver gavel, is awarded annually by Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating fraternity, to the group winning the interfraternity debate tournament. This year's similar contest was arranged between the Barb clubs.

Speakers for Beta Theta Pi on the affirmative were Fred Keichel and John Landis, speaking in that order. The speakers for Sigma Alpha Mu were Oscar Carp and Arnold Levine. The judge was Walter Wick, former varsity debater.

Sigma Alpha Mu passed the first round by a forfeit from Pi Kappa Alpha and defeated the Zeta Beta Tau's in the semi-final. Beta Theta Pi received the decision from Delta Upsilon in the opening arguments and the Sig Chi's forfeited to them in the second round. Zeta Beta Tau won from Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Chi from Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the first debate.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON WINS SING CONTEST

Kosmet Klub Awards Cup to Greek Letter Society As First Prize.

BETA THETA PI SECOND

Sigma Phi Epsilon won the interfraternity sing, sponsored by Kosmet Klub, in the annual Ivy Day contest. The Sigma Phi Epsilon group, directed by Wilgus Eberly of David City, sang "Long Ago" and the "Sig-Ep Drinking Song."

The cup, annually awarded to the winning fraternity in the sing, was presented by Frank Musgrave, Omaha, president of the Kosmet Klub, in behalf of the Klub members.

Beta Theta Pi fraternity was awarded second place of the eleven fraternities entered in the contest and Delta Upsilon, which last year was the winner of the cup, was third.

Beta Theta Pi, led by Wentworth Flinn, sang the "Loving Cup" and "When Stars are Hiding." Delta Upsilon, with James Harris conducting, sang as their first number "Yip in Delta U." Their second number was an original composition written by John Kosherough and entitled "We Gather as Brothers."

Judges were Mrs. Lenore Burkett Van Kirk, Mrs. Lillian Helms Polley, and Wilbur Olsenoweth. Other fraternities competing were: Alpha Tau Omega, Chi Phi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Theta Chi.

COLLEGE DAY PROGRAM

6:30—Mortar Board breakfast at Cornhusker hotel.

8:00—Registration at Omaha for Pre-meds day.

11:00—Journalism students meet at Daily Nebraskan office for picnic at Seward.

Engineers pep convocation at Temple followed by engineers picnic at Pioneer Park.

Geologists picnic and fossil hunt at Louisville.

12:00—Bizad students picnic at Antelope park.

1:00—Law college sports, followed by banquet at University club.

3:30—Bizad students tea-dance at pavilion in Antelope park.

6:00—Pharmacy banquet at Cornhusker hotel. Engineers banquet at Lincoln hotel.

Farmers' Fair Program.
Friday, May 4.
10:00 a. m.—Fair open—American Panorama.
11:00 a. m.—Exhibits open.
12:00 p. m.—Luncheon open.
1:00 p. m.—Baseball game (Cornhusker vs. Ames).
2:00 p. m.—Fair open.
3:00 p. m.—Livestock parade, horse show.
4:00 p. m.—Interfraternity singing.
5:00 p. m.—Closing exercises.
6:00 p. m.—Closing concert (Stated by the fair board).
7:00 p. m.—Pharmacy (Law) presentation.
8:00 p. m.—Closing exercises.
9:00 p. m.—Closing (Band) presentation.
10:00 p. m.—Closing and writing.