

CAMPUSOCIETY

THE FARMERS AROUND LINCOLN are becoming slightly perturbed . . . or so it's said, because for the last couple of Sundays their lands have been dotted with picnicking parties. It looks as though today would be the same way, with everyone getting out their sport clothes, and fraternity houses being ravaged of blankets. The principal difficulty seems to be to find some place that isn't already crowded. Penn Woods and Horkey's park are ever-popular, but the more remote spots are being discovered by enterprising pioneers.

CELEBRATING the fiftieth anniversary of the Y. W. C. A. on this campus, a breakfast and pageant will be given at 9 o'clock this morning at Raymond hall. Elaine Fontein will be the toastmistress and will welcome the mothers and alums. Mrs. C. Petrus Peterson, mother and alumna, will give a short talk. Introduction of the staff and staff leaders will be made at the breakfast. In the receiving line will be the members of the advisory board, cabinet officers, Miss Bernice Miller, and Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett. Mrs. Louis C. Brown is in charge of the breakfast are Elaine Fontein, Jean Palmer, Evelyn Diamond, Beth Phillips, and Virginia Sweeney. About 200 people are expected.

LOTS OF THINGS happened on Ivy Day. For instance, Jean Alden, Alpha Chi, took Bill Eddy's Lambda Chi pin. However we hear there's to be no announcing . . . at least right away.

THE THEME of the Alpha Xi Delta annual spring banquet last night at the Lincoln was a radio program. Mrs. Clayton Sarborn of Omaha was the toastmistress, and among the speakers was a representative from every class. Carol Emery talked for the freshmen, Doris Wilson for the sophomores, Dorothy Orcutt for the juniors, and Lucille Lampert for the seniors. About sixty-five alums and actives were present, among whom were several out of town guests. Spring flowers were used on the tables. Mrs. G. T. Warren was in charge of the affair.

MEMBERS OF the Pharmaceutical club entertained at a dinner at the Cornhusker last Friday evening, when about 100 were present. Raymond Schoening was the toastmaster, and Charles W. Lesh of Omaha was the principal speaker.

THE MEETING of the Delta Zeta alumnae Thursday noon at the house, the following new officers were chosen: Mrs. Ole Buck, president; Mrs. W. L. Turner, vice president; Mrs. Perry Jennings, treasurer; and Mrs. F. E. Overholser, secretary.

ON IVY DAY the Alpha Phi alumnae and stockholders of the building exchange held a luncheon meeting at the house. Mrs. James Ellis was elected president of the Lincoln alumnae; Mrs. W. W. Carveth, vice president; Mrs. Erma Olson, secretary; and Mrs. Carl Bumstead, treasurer. New mem-

Nebraska U. WINS!

THE DRESS DESIGNED BY MISS DOROTHY PASSMORE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA WAS SELECTED AS ONE OF THE 20 NATIONAL WINNERS IN THE CONTEST BETWEEN 6,476 GIRLS FROM 254 COLLEGES FOR THE

Young American Designers'

Exclusive in Lincoln at Rudge & Guenzel Company

See Our Windows Sunday

IT'S a great honor that has come to Nebraska, in the selection of Miss Passmore's dress design as one of the 20 outstanding designs by college girls of the country! It's an honor to Lincoln, Miss Passmore's home . . . and it is an especial honor to Rudge & Guenzel Co. to present these Young American Designers' dresses to all Nebraska!

Special Showing All This Week of Young American Designers' DRESSES . . .

Rudge & Guenzel Co. invites the public to visit the new studio of Young American Designers', on our Second Floor, and see these frocks which have been sketched by Young America. The dresses are offered for sale there, priced from $16.50 to $19.50.

for Town . . . Country . . . Sport and Spectator-wear

This score of smart dresses, knock-about suits and jacket-outfits are fashioned from the twenty sketch-designs that were judged winners in the College Contest by the following imposing Fashion Jury:

- Edna Woolman Chase, Editor-in-Chief VOGUE
- Julia Coburn, Fashion Editor LADIES HOME JOURNAL
- Rhea Seeger, Fashion Editor CHICAGO TRIBUNE
- Helen Sison, Head of "FASHION CENTER" at Marshall Field's Retail Store
- Carmel Snow, Fashion Editor HARPER'S BAZAAR
- Walter Dorwin Teague Internationally-known Designer
- Mrs. Austin Young, Fashion Editor CHICAGO HERALD-EXAMINER

"Miss Wellesley College"

Right . . . Captured FIRST PRIZE! Probably because the intriguing jacket-blouse of this washable silk crepe can be worn frontwards (as sketched) or turned about and buttoned down the back . . . "just for fun." The bright bandanna effect underneath is a boon to sunshippers. Sizes 12 to 20.

"Miss Washington University"

Left . . . SECOND PRIZE goes to this for several reasons: its dark top is "high fashion" . . . the big campus-check bow scores another point and the blouse that comes off to disclose a very wearable tennis frock is the smartest argument of all in its favor. Sizes 12 to 20.

Fashioned by Young American Designers

Miss Dorothy Passmore is shown at right in prize-winning dress, which she designed.

Miss Passmore will be in our Young American Designers' Studio, 2nd Floor, each afternoon this week from 2 till 4. We invite you to come in and meet her.

"Miss University of Nebraska"

Right . . . The new silk-linen was selected as the most desirable fabric in which to develop this prize-winning suit. Contrasting blouse of dotted silk was added for youthful filigree. Ex-college girls now busy in offices will welcome this cool dark style for working hours that end with a dinner date. Sizes 12 to 20.

Eyes Wide with Dreams . . . her mind tuned to Today's fascinating rhythms . . . her fingers flexed to express her fashion-ideas. She typifies the Young American Designer creating for young (and young-minded) women everywhere.
