Five Groups Back Big Six Meet Rally

ATTEMPT AWAKEN INTEREST IN TRACK

Pep Demonstration Is Endeavor to Show Nebraska's Appreciation for Coach Henry Schulte, at University for Past Fifteen Years.

TO PARADE THRU FRATERNITY, SORORITY ROW

Lambertus, Cunningham, Hall Are Scheduled to Speak; N Club, Aided by Corn Cobs, Innocents, and Tassels in Charge of Affair.

Throwing every resource back of their attempt to awaken student interest in track and field events, five Nebraska organizations are sponsoring a pep demonstration Friday evening. The pep demonstration is an appreciation for her famous "Indian" Schulte, who has served this university for the past fifteen years.

Headed by "N" club and aided by the entire membership of Corn Cobs, Innocents, Tassels and the university band the rally will form immediately at 7:15 o'clock in front of the Temple building and parade thru fraternity and sorority row, reaching as their final destination the Lincoln hotel where track representatives from all the Big Six schools will headquarter during their stay in Lincoln.

Lambertus, Cunningham, Hall Are Scheduled to Speak; N Club, Aided by Corn Cobs, Innocents, and Tassels in Charge of Affair.

Heye Lambertus, Nebraska's national 200 meter low hurdles champion in both junior and senior divisions, and Glenn Cunningham, Jayhawk outstanding miler, will be heard from. Talks will also be given by other outstanding athletes including Edward Hall, sensational sprinter from Kansas, it was stated by Franklin Meier, president of "N" club.

"It is imperative that there be a large turnout for this rally," Owen Johnson, president of the Innocents society declared. "Otherwise representatives from visiting schools attending the meet will carry back the impression that Husker athletics are unsupported by the student body."

House To House Rally.

Thursday evening Corn Cobs turned on a house to house campaign during the dinner hour in an attempt to impress upon the minds of the students the need of a successful rally at this time. The plan of rallying for a Big Six track and field meet has never before been tried at the university and the organizations sponsoring it are especially desirous of making it a success.

"Tassels will be present for the demonstration," Louise Hossack, president of the girls' pep group said. "The idea of a rally the night before the finals of the conference track meet seems to offer an excellent opportunity for Cornhusker supporters to again show the spirit which is evidenced earlier."

Mountains, Lakes Classrooms For Biology Course

With the mountains and lakes of Colorado as their classroom, Nebraska students and teachers will receive a broad knowledge of modern biology, taught with particular reference to flowering plants and forests, when they attend Camp Olympus at Estes park, Colorado, this summer.

The class work, which begins Monday, June 11, and lasts for a period of six weeks, will be under the direction of Prof. Raymond J. Pool, chairman of the department of botany. The regions of the Rocky Mountain National park are covered by the classes in their course of study by means of a series of field trips by auto-bus and on foot. For the past eight summers that the camp has been conducted, trips have been taken to various lakes, canyons, and summits of the more interesting mountains. Three all day trips and one or two half-day trips, are usually taken each week, and one of the most anticipated features.

Schulte Track Teams Given Little Chance for Title Often Come Thru In Upset Victory for Veteran 'Pa'

Coach Henry F. Schulte, better known in track circles as the "Indian," will send his Nebraska track squad onto the cinders of Memorial Stadium in quest of Big Six laurels for the sixth consecutive year Saturday.

For the past several years the "Indian's" teams have been treated the underdog in the Big Six place. Led Missouri to Wins. Prior to assuming his coaching duties at Nebraska university, Coach Schulte led the Missouri Tigers to four Valley titles in six years, and coached the Huskers to four Valley championships before the Big Six was organized.

Doubling from his track duties in the spring, he takes care of the line man when the grid season rolls around, and it was a Schulte-coached line which repulsed every effort of such teams as Kansas

Sparkling With Individuality Awgwan Has Several New Features.

FINAL NUMBER OF YEAR

Last Issue Goes on Sale in Social Science, Andrews, And Mechanical Arts.

Sparkling with new individuality effected by several new features including an increased number of cartoons and numerous short articles replacing the longer stories of past issues, the May Awgwan, last number of the year, will make its appearance on the campus Friday morning. The magazine will be on sale at booths in Social Science, Andrews, and Mechanical Arts halls.

"An attempt has been made to make this issue more in keeping with modern times and tendencies by using shorter material and more art work," Marvin Robinson, editor of the May number, stated.

"Campus Tempo," added. "Campus Tempo," comprising short and informal comments on campus happenings and incidents of humor, is perhaps the most interesting of the new features added to this number," Robinson said. "It does not replace the Gore column, as that is still with the Awgwan, but it does give an inside glance as to what is happening and various campus intimacies," he revealed.

Coach Schulte Predicts Eight New Track, Field Records to Be Set Up This Week End in Conference Meet

Just what are these Big Six track stars going to do in the way of record smashing in the annual classic Saturday?

This question has been puzzling the Big Six dopesters, especially in the mile, half mile and two mile, Glenn Cunningham's specialties. If Bill Hargiss plans to use his ace for as many points possible, it seems likely that the Kansas Flyer will coast to his victories, but, since this is Cunningham's last year of competition, he may try for some records, in which case the two mile will probably be eliminated from his events.

Coach Schulte predicts that eight new records will be set by the strongest field in recent years, dividing them evenly between track and field events.

Two to Cunningham. Cunningham is recorded with two new marks by Schulte's dope sheet, in the mile and half mile
