BIBLE PINS HOPES
 ON 34 MAN SQUAD
 AS SEASON NEARS

Husker First String Lacking
 Experience, But Has Plenty of Beef.

On the sturdy shoulders of thirty-four stellar Husker football men chosen by Coach Bible Tuesday, rest the hopes of Nebraska for a successful football year. By virtue of their performances on the gridiron last Saturday, these thirty-four will form the Husker "A" team, the group who, one week from this Saturday, will inaugurate the 1934 season against Wyoming's Cowboys.

The squad is heavier this year than last but is much less experienced. But eight major lettermen are returning, and among them only one of the starters last year. Five of the thirty-four are minor award winners. The rest are either of freshman or of "B" squad experience.

Sophomores will undoubtedly have to fill in many of the gaps left open by graduation. Lucky indeed is Nebraska that last year's yearling bunch was the strongest in many moons, and lucky indeed, is Coach Bible, that he can point to a runner like Cardwell, a line plunger like Francis, and an end like McDonald, say the sports scribes. These boys, unversed in varsity play though they are, they will have to see some heavy duty when the season gets under way.

The complete varsity team is as follows: Ends — Don Flasmick, Omaha; Lester McDonald, Grand Island; Bernard Scherer, Dallas, S. Dak.; Edgar Sears, Decatur;

Ray Toman, Saint Paul; Vergil Yelkin, Lincoln.
 Tackles—Asher Brown, Lincoln; Harold Holmbeck, Beatrice; Walter Pflum, Imperial; Carrol Reese, Chappel; Vernon Scofield, Neligh; Russell Thompson, Whitney.
 Guards—Wallace DeBrown, Wyoming; Perry Franks, Lincoln; Bill Garnick, Ord; Ladas Hubka, Table Rock; Jim Heldt, Scottsbluff; Glen Justice, Grand Island; Ed Uptegrove, Lincoln; Clyde White, Tecumseh.
 Centers—Bill Horchem, Ransom, Kas.; Frank Meier, Lincoln; Neal Mehring, Grand Island.
 Quarterbacks — Henry Bauer, Lincoln; Allen Turner, Western Springs, Illinois.
 Half backs—Bob Benson, Pender; Ralph Eldridge, Norfolk; Jerry LeNoue, Wisner; Lloyd Cardwell, Seward; Bud Parsons, Lincoln; Ron Douglas, Crete.
 Full backs—Sam Francis, Oberlin, Kas.; Glenn Skewes, Imperial.
 Center, quarterback, fullback or halfback—John Williams, Lincoln.

 MAGAZINE TO BE ON STANDS TODAY

 tion offer with a nationally known humor magazine is attracting many individual subscriptions, while block subscription sales for the nine issues to be published during the year far exceed those of last year, Assistant Business Manager Jack Nicholas stated.
 All sororities and fraternities and other organized houses on the campus are to be canvassed by the business staff during the coming week and all groups taking block subscriptions will be entered on the Awgwan honor roll.

 E. LeRoussignol. They will be assisted by Prof. and Mrs. Hermann Decker, Prof. and Mrs. Raymond Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Boeschult, and Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton.

Miss Luvicy Hill will be in charge of the table service. Prof. Robert P. Crawford will be in charge of general arrangements. Representatives from various student organizations will assist newer students of their own groups.
 Fall flowers will add to the attractiveness of the occasion.

SPORT STATIC

By Arnold Levine.

Football's in the air! Not only figuratively, but literally if last Saturday's scrimmage is any example of what Nebraska fans can expect of D. X. Bible's 1934 edition. Whether it's the new ball, or what, the red jerseyed passers were certainly connecting with their marks for long gains, and many are the minds which are just a little bit doubtful about the notion that Nebraska's pass offense was seriously crippled by the graduation of Sauer, Kilbourne, Masterson and Boswell. Such an exhibition as was put on by Williams, Bauer, Benson and Francis on the throwing end, and McDonald, Yelkin, Parsons and Cardwell on the receiving should raise hopes of a redoubtable pass offense in the hearts of the most cynical.

This new football has created a lot of comment, but it really doesn't seem as bad as some would have us believe. I'd heard many and various stories before I saw it in use, and was prepared to watch feeble attempts at kicking and passing a cucumber-shaped pigskin. Instead, the passing and kicking seemed just as good, or a little bit better than with the old ball. There's really not so much difference in size, just three-fourths of an inch less around the short circumference, and three-fourths of an inch more around the long. And, after watching Sam Francis boom out a 65 yard spiral punt, I'm for it! For straight line plunging, with plenty of drive and knee action, Sam is undoubtedly one of the best prospects seen in the Husker camp for years. Those knees driving up and down like pistons, he hurls his bulky 195 pounds into the line like a shell. Something has to give, and it's seldom that Sam is found on the bottom without having advanced the leather a few yards. Bible is more than pleased with his big sophomore fullback. A Blue Howell, Clair Sloan and George Sauer rolled into one. . . . Francis, by the way, is the boy who was so ill with pneumonia last spring. Didn't have a chance in spring practice, so you didn't hear much about him. Watch him from now on, tho. . . . Sport writers are going to burn up the papers with adjectives if Lloyd Cardwell continues his bobbing, weaving runs thru the coming football season. He got away to a flying, or should I say running, start last fall, and now he's making ends dizzy with wide end sweeps. That boy's got about everything. Weighs well over 190, joint holder of the state high school low hurdle record. Runs holding the ball in one huge mitt. Can snag it out of the air with the best of 'em. Speed, weight, ability, I ask you, what more can you—what more could you want?

Dear Mother:
 Been trying to write you several days but I've been studying pretty hard. I miss you an awful lot—get so lonesome I don't know what to do.
 Awful glad to get your letters—but say—that long distance visit last week was great—just to hear your voice! Can't we talk again—every week?
 Lots of love,
 Jimmy
