TO BARB CLUBS ENTER INTRAMURAL CONTEST Two Five-Team Leagues Sign Up for Touch Football Competition.

Interest in barb interclub athletics, as well as in the Greek branch of intramural sports, is greater this fall than in previous years, according to a report from the intramural athletic office, and is evidenced by the greater number of individuals participating and the larger crowds attending the contests. Intramural Director Harold Petz stated that ten barb clubs, averaging twenty players each, are entered in the touch-football competition. The clubs are organized into two leagues of five teams each and the schedule will be on a round robin basis. Every team will play five games, the winners in each league playing for the championship and second place. Third and fourth place will be decided between the teams finishing second in each league. Announcement of the names of clubs and the schedule of games will be made in Sunday's paper.

HUSKER TRACKSTERS MEET WILDCAT TEAM

Cross-Country Squads Tangle Saturday Between Halves Of Iowa State Game.

FUNK IS NEBRASKA HOPE

Saturday afternoon between halves of the Iowa State-Nebraska football game the Nebraska cross-country team will meet the Kansas State squad in the second meet of the year. The Huskers are in excellent shape, and will undoubtedly prove to be worthy competitors for the Kansas State runners. The team which will start for Nebraska will probably be composed of the same men who defeated the Tarkio College, Mo., tracksters last weekend. The probable Nebraska entrants are: Glen Funk, Howard White, Leonard Ball, Dave Rice, and E. Chittendon. These men showed up nicely in the Tarkio race, and are counted on to give a good account of themselves tomorrow.

Nebraska's best bet is probably Funk, two-year veteran, hailing from Central City, who last week, running on a slow track, led the field at Tarkio to win in the excellent time of 10:5.8. Other members of the squad lack only experience, and otherwise are fast developing into tip-top condition, according to the coaching staff. "The boys are in fine shape," declared Coach Schulte, who has taken over the coaching of the squad during a temporary absence of Coach Francis Ayres, "and I feel confident that even though Kansas State has a strong squad, we will show them some fine running." Kansas State has a strong team this year, consisting of several veterans along with some new men who have looked good in practice. Kansas State is anxious to make up for the track defeats which they suffered at Nebraska's hands last year, and are expected to make it an interesting race for Nebraska.

Native tobacco grower telling American tourists how Turkish tobacco is cured.

Let's find out why Turkish tobacco is so important to a good cigarette

On the sunny slopes of Smyrna... in the fertile fields of Macedonia... along the shores of the Black Sea... grows a kind of tobacco that is different from any other tobacco in the world.

THESE Turkish tobaccos are the only tobaccos of foreign cultivation that are used to any great extent in making American cigarettes.

Turkish tobaccos are famous for their spicy aroma, and a blend of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco with our own home-grown tobaccos is better than any one kind used alone.

In Chesterfield we balance mild, ripe tobaccos grown in this country with just the right amounts of the right kinds of Turkish.

It is by blending and cross-blending these different tobaccos that we make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.

Turkish tobacco hung in the open air to be cured.
