ing to tame the "Still Kicking" Missouri mule in the Kappa Delta decoration, while the Alpha Os showed a Bible man about to put the Tiger cat out. The P. O. P. s urged "Hold That Tiger," and pictured a way to do it. Delta Gamma dealt out punishment to all comers when a tiger was shown beside an igloo, at the foot of a large Nebraskan, with the warning "S'no Use Mizou." A message of welcome to visiting old grads was read into the ether from a miniature radio station by the Theta's, while a similar sentiment was voiced by Sigma Alpha Epsilon in an elaborate display which included both a Tiger and lion.

The Formal Fashion Edition of the Daily Nebraskan will appear Tuesday Consult this Paper for Fashions Tuesday the Daily Nebraskan will bow to fashion. With the Military Ball only two weeks away it is natural that formal fashions should break into the front row. A feature of the Formal Fashion Edition will be "vogue type" photographs of students wearing the latest clothes from various local stores. Besides interesting fashion stories about both men and women's fashions, this paper will carry advertisements of formal clothing which is being displayed by the "college catering" stores of Lincoln.
