

CAMPUSOCIETY

THE NEXT BIG EVENT ON THE campus will be the presentation of the honorary colonel which will take place the Friday after Thanksgiving vacation.

Roma DeBrown, or Marian Smith with a pair of boots under their arm or hurrying some place or other to have a fitting you can probably draw your own conclusions.

MISS FAITH CUTTER, the national Kappa Delta inspector, has been a guest of the local chapter this week end.

GUEST AT the Delta Gamma house this week end have been Elizabeth Reimers of Grand Island, Margaret Mordant of St. Joe, and Thelma Paulson of Omaha.

KAPPA alums back for homeing were Gertrude Perry and Imogene Souders of Nebraska City.

CHI PHI celebrated the second anniversary of its installation as a national fraternity at a banquet which was held at the Lincoln hotel at 5 o'clock yesterday evening.

AT THE TRI DELT Mardi Gras party which was held at the chapter house Friday evening, Sidie Smith, Milla Baul and Helen Elizabeth Lawrence were in charge of the decorations.

ONE OF the parties Friday evening was the one given by the Y. W. C. A. social staff in the armory. A Thanksgiving theme was used in the decorations.

HELEN MASKEK recently became pledged to Kappa Delta.

TRI DELT entertained at its annual founders day banquet Saturday at the Lincoln hotel at six o'clock. About 115 guests were present.

MRS. DEE GRIFFITH, who was Miss Bobby May before her marriage two weeks ago, left last night for Midwest, Wyo., where she will join her husband.

COACH D. X. BIBLE, who is president of the Football Coaches association this year, will attend an executive meeting of the association to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., next weekend.

ALUMNAE of Phi Chi Theta, women's honorary Business Administration organization, were entertained at the home of Janet McLellan recently.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA mothers club was entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Grace Miller Friday noon.

SIG EPS held their annual breakfast dance before the Kosmet

GEORGE EAGER WINS GARDNER TROPHY FOR HIGHEST RIFLE SCORE

Sam Levitch Awarded Silver Medal for Second Place Honors.

Cracking out the highest score in the University Rifle Club match the past week, George Eager, Lincoln, became the intramural shooting champion and winner of the silver cup, the "Gardner Trophy," and a gold medal.

Following with a close score of 185, Sam Levitch took second place honors and was awarded a silver medal.

In the contest shooting from the prone position, Charles Gibbs shot a perfect score, 50 out of 50, to annex first place and a bronze medal.

From the kneeling position, Bob Moubrey took first and a medal with a 48, and Wayne Therman, with a 48, placed second.

From the prone position, Noble Ayres was first with a perfect 50. In the sitting match J. Campbell took first award shooting a 48, while Norman Lewis was second with a 48.

Sergeant McGinsey, in charge of the rifle club, stated many men in the matches shot the same scores but places were awarded under the rules of the National Rifle Association which gave the decision.

"Outlook for the rifle team this year is very good," Sergeant McGinsey said. "With eight lettermen returning to the team and also a wealth of other good men on last year's squad, the chances for a winning team appear unusually bright."

SCARLET SCORES IN LAST QUARTER

Nebraska's greatest foe on the field, however, wasn't the Black and Gold team that Frank Carideo sent out to attempt to stem the onrushing tide of Huskers.

Nebraska's greatest foe on the field, however, wasn't the Black and Gold team that Frank Carideo sent out to attempt to stem the onrushing tide of Huskers.

Moran Writes Report on Recent Soil Survey Work

W. J. Moran of the conservation and survey division has finished his soil survey work in Casper county and is now in his office here preparing a written report on the county.

Movie Directory

LINCOLN THEATRE CORP. STUART—(Mat. 25c; Nite 40c) "THE WHITE PARADE" with John Boles, Loreta Young, The University Men's Glee Club on the stage twice daily.

WESTLAW THEATRE CORP. VARSITY (No. 40) "THE CHIN CHOW" the tuneful Arabian Nights fantasy of Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves.

WESTLAW THEATRE CORP. VARSITY (No. 40) "THE CHIN CHOW" the tuneful Arabian Nights fantasy of Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves.

center. Bourne was there, however, and went way up in the air for the catch, then slipped thru two of the secondary and outran Bud Parsons to the goal.

Twice the rampant Nebraskans crossed the goal for points, and twice more for the exercise in the thing. It all started with Bauer taking Lochner's punt on his own 35 and coming to midfield.

Program Salesmen of Football Games Put Proverbial Hotcakes in Shade by Each Selling at Rate of Ten a Minute.

Salesmen this year handle the programs only in the stadium, in the concourse and at the doors. None are sold outside as in other years.

For the second year, Harold Petz, former Husker athlete, is editor of the program. His cover designs have been unusual this year, being done in a formal manner in black and white.

WHAT?

You haven't had your CORNHUSKER picture taken yet? Do You Realize?

- That you should take care of this before you go home for Thanksgiving. That if you wait too long your wife or husband (Let's hope for the best) will never remember how you looked in those good old college days.

Class Picture $1.50 Fraternity or Sorority Section $1.25 Combination Class and Fraternity $2.50 first downs, 19 earned and 1 penalty, while Missouri collected 4, all earned. The Huskers gained a total of 377 yards, 185 in the last quarter, while limiting Missouri to 106.

Rinehart-Marsden Official Cornhusker Photographers 11 & P Streets B2442

Lineups and summary: Nebraska—Missouri. Linebackers: R. Miller, R. Reed, R. Miller, R. Reed, R. Miller, R. Reed.

Touchdown: Bourne, Eldridge, Bauer, Try for point: Yelkin (placekicks), Substitutions: Missouri—Bourne for Powell, Combs for Houston, Sid Johnson for Post.

Program Salesmen of Football Games Put Proverbial Hotcakes in Shade by Each Selling at Rate of Ten a Minute.

are able to estimate quite accurately, ly that one program will be sold to every four people.

None Sold Outside Stadium. Salesmen this year handle the programs only in the stadium, in the concourse and at the doors.

But the business is not all velvet, the salesmen warn. In the first place, more than half the programs are sold within a thirty-minute period before 2 o'clock.

Others Don't Like Women Customers. "I hate to sell to women," said one program merchant giving tips on his success.

Petz Again Edits Program. For the second year, Harold Petz, former Husker athlete, is editor of the program.

Little advertising goes into the program. Petz doesn't often solicit ads from the local merchants.

USE OF PAPERS AS TEXTS FINDS FAVOR IN NBSRA

Betty Walker of Columbus led the round table discussion.

Headline schedules were the subject of the discussion group before which Mrs. Anne Savidge spoke, while Vernon Waterman of Fremont high school was discussion leader for the group on finance.

Following the discussion periods instructors and sponsors were guests of the university school of journalism at a luncheon held at the Carrie Belle Raymond hall.

Starting off Saturday's program was the annual breakfast of Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists, which was held at the Hotel Cornhusker.

Max Franzen of Holdrege presided at the meeting and appearing on the program were delegates from Kearney, Superior and Jackson high of Lincoln.

High spots of Friday's program, which got under way with registration at 8 o'clock in the morning, included the annual news writing contest, bus tour of the city, meeting of sponsors and instructors, and a general session at which Dean T. J. Thompson, Gene Robb of the Hearst newspapers, Mrs. Marie Weeks, former publisher of the Norfolk Press, and J. E. Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star, were speakers.

Closing Friday's program was the annual banquet at which winners of the newswriting contest were announced.

Ruth Dehmann of Omaha North high school was named as winner of first place in the news story contest, while Howard Shaw of the same school placed second.

Third place went to Maudie Fowler of Alliance. Honorable mention was given to Grant Thomas, Kearney; Helen Strickland, Superior; and Harold Nieman, Nebraska City.

Pledge Service for Two Held by Military Group

Scabard and Blade pledged two men at its meeting Thursday evening. Jack Wickstrom, Omaha, and Dick Rider, Lincoln were selected.

FOR THE FINEST DANCE MUSIC CALL THESE UNION ORCHES TRAS

- Pat Ash, 2144 J St. B2455 Wood Beach, 1950 Jefferson B2458 Lee J. Berk, 2925 S. 25th B2508 Rose Babin, 277 S. 13th B2528 Dr. H. C. Cook, 721 E. 17th and Trust Bldg. B1277-53129 Ted Cooper, Marigold Ball Room B1288 E. 16th, 1055 So. 17 B2730 Gaylord Emerson, 310 So. 28th B2861 Dave Henn, 833 Charleston St. B2900 Everett Hall, 724 S. 26th B2944 Ed. Jungbluth, 130 So. 28 B2914 Julius G. Ludlum, 1815 G. B2977 Max Foster, 3300 Grand B3539 Homer Kowland, Care M. B2981 Ed Sheffer, 2722 F Street B2985 Ted Tompkins, 1072 S. 21 B4474 Earl Hill, 2125 S. 10th B5473

LINCOLN MUSICIANS ASSN

222 NATL BK. (CORNER) B-1866

Total Registration Of Colleges Shows Gain 4.42 Percent

(By Associated Collegiate Press.) MADISON, Wis.—With coeducational institutions reporting an increase in enrollment of 10.2 over their registration figures of last year, the total gain in registrations of 142 colleges and universities in the United States included in an Associated Collegiate Press poll for the 1934-35 school year is 4.42 percent, it was revealed here today.

In the tabulation made by the Associated Collegiate Press and Collegiate Digest staffs it was revealed that the women's colleges led the men's institutions with a total increase of 2.7 percent, 4 percent greater than the gain in men's colleges.

Despite the fact that the total enrollment of the institutions included in the survey has increased some 4.42 percent, the faculties at these institutions have been increased by only 1.01 percent.

The men led the women in the tabulation of increased enrollments throughout the United States by 1.97 percent—the men increasing by 6.24 percent. In the co-educational colleges the number of men enrolled has increased 7.3 percent, while the number of women registered has increased 4.6 percent.

ected as new members of the honorary military organization of enlisted cadet officers. Initiation, members of the organization indicated, will be held soon.

Dr. G. E. Condra Finishes Report on Water Supply

Dr. G. E. Condra, head of the conservation and survey division, has finished a report on the relation of drought to water supply which he will give to the state irrigation association December 11 at North Platte.

Dr. Condra's report deals with a general consideration of the problems of water supply in the irrigation districts.

"fancy" yourself in this cunning Evening Sandal comes in • White faille with white satin trim. • Black satin with silver kid trim. Tinted Free Any Shade Desired

Evening Sandal

comes in • White faille with white satin trim. • Black satin with silver kid trim. Tinted Free Any Shade Desired

The Famous

HOW MANY FEATHERS ON A 22.75 LB. TURKEY? 12 Reserved Seat Football Tickets Will Be Given Away to the Thanksgiving game for the 12 nearest estimates of the number of feathers on the turkey.

HUSKER INN CAFE 14th and Q Streets