

CAMPUSOCIETY

WITH THE INTERFRATERNITY ball well over, the campus social lights are beginning to realize that the formal season is passing, slowly but surely. Greek parties are scheduled for the next three weekends, starting this Friday and Saturday with the Kappa Sig and Alpha Chi O. formals, and the Beta dinner dance. A. T. O.'s will hold their dinner dance February 22, and on the 23 comes the D. G. formal. March 1, the Alpha Sigs are planning a dinner dance at the Cornhusker, and the next night, the Kappas will hold their annual formal at the Lincoln. The culmination of the season comes with the Junior-Senior prom, Friday, March 8. With just four weekends left for the wearing of tuxes and formals, it behooves Nebraska students to make the most of the opportunities remaining, and we're willing to bet that bids to the various affairs will be at a premium from now on.

The twenty-five guests played bridge during the afternoon.

AND THE Kappa Sig mothers club will meet today at the Home Style tearoom for luncheon. Mrs. E. A. McKenna and Mrs. H. R. Williams are hostesses to the affair, and about twenty guests are expected to attend. A business meeting will be held at the chapter house in the afternoon.

TO BE MARRIED March 16 are Marie Busch and John T. Trout both of Omaha. Miss Busch became a member of Delta Gamma while attending the university, and Mr. Trout has attended Nebraska and Creighton, and is a Sigma Nu.

AND SUNDAY, Jan. 27, Louise Campbell of Palmyra, Ill., and Evan J. Moses of Trenton were married in Colby, Kas. Mr. Moses received his degree in pharmacy at the university.

HONORING Miss Valerita Callen who announced her engagement recently, and Mrs. Ralph Rawson of the Philippine islands, Mrs. C. L. Clark, and Mrs. J. C. Orcutt were hostesses to a bridge party of five tables. Guests included Alpha Xi Deities who were in school with Miss Callen and Mrs. Rawson, and red tulips composed the decorations for the affair.

THE ALPHA CHIS had two boxes of candy last night when Mildred Morton, senior, informally announced her engagement to Harry McKee, Sig Ep senior, and Rhona Smith, graduate, announced hers to Ed Nelson, S. A. E. and freshman in the law college.

JAYHAWKS RALLY IN SECOND PERIOD TO BEAT HUSKERS

spelled defeat and another loss for Nebraska.
It was up to Gray to provide his team with a winning spark. Ray Ebling, the sensational forward, was guarded so closely that he broke away for only two baskets, but the Cornhusker guarding was too close, and four fouls were called, on each of which Ebling added another point to his team's total.

A big second half shot Kansas ahead rapidly to her victory and tightened her strangle hold on the top job in the Big Six struggle. While Nebraska was collecting 9 points, the Jays were sending 21 up to the scoreboard.
Gray was the big gun in the Kansas attack, gathering 14 points for the cause, while Ebling came through with 8. Sorensen led the Nebraska scoring parade with 7, Whitaker following with 6. Summary:

Y.M.C.A. DELEGATES ATTEN DCONFERENCE

Hayes Addresses Session on 'Value of Fellowship' at Waumego, Kas.

Representatives of the university Y. M. C. A. attended a regional conference held at Waumego, Kas., last week end. of Y delegates from the three large universities in this section of the country that have active Y. M. chapters. The schools besides Nebraska to send delegates were Kansas State and Kansas U.
Main speakers on the conference program were the three general secretaries of the schools attending. Mr. Hayes, Nebraska, addressed one of the sessions on "The Value of Fellowship." Roy McCullough of K. U. spoke on "The Y as a General Influence on the Campus," and the secretary of the state group, Dr. A. A. Holtz talked on "The Meaning of the Y. M. to the Group and the Individual."
Hayes Explains Y Work.
Mr. Hayes pointed out that the three schools each represent a different approach to Y work on the college campus. On the Kansas campus the Y. M. is more of a general social activity including probably more entertainment programs than those of a spiritual nature. The Nebraska group emphasizes fellowship among small groups while the other Kansas school represents an attitude somewhere between the other two.

Hulac, Glenn Delegates.
Nebraska delegates taking part in the conference programs were Charles Hulac, Y president, who led several worship meetings and William Glenn, who sang Negro spirituals on both worship and entertainment programs.
Others attending the conference from Nebraska were Howard Peterson and Milton Monson of the ag college Y, Grant McClelland, Harold Fischer, and Thomas Tillman of the city campus, and Paul Iverson, president of the Hastings college Y.
