to light by the Literary Digest Peace poll, is assuming proportions that can no longer be ignored.

What its ultimate effect will be is still problematical, but the peace movement is only one of hundreds of things that should hold the attention of Ameri-

home forcibly these matters to the students. There must be some supplement and incentive to a reading of the newspaper. Some schools have solved the problems by instituting special courses in current affairs, some of which use the newspaper as the only text. Other campuses have a regular proof an interpretive medium. In view of present financial conditions, it is hardly possible to add new courses to the curriculum. Therefore, some other means of placing the affairs of the world before the student must be sought. The best answer provided the Forum, or will they let it die again for lack of support? It is only through student support that

STUDENT PULSE

Brief, concise contributions pertinent to matters of student life and the university are welcomed by this department, under the usual restrictions of sound newspaper practice, which excludes all libelous matter and personal attacks. Letters must be signed but names will be withheld from publication if so desired. Contributions should be limited to a maximum of tive nundred words in length.

AT the close of your editorial yesterday you men-clause decision of the supreme court, and that youth should not degrade themselves to "dyed-in-the-wool" conservatism. It seems to me that college students should be well aware that the decision will affect decision on the broad proposition that congress has power to regulate the currency. This of course is too true, but the court has upheld a broad general authority in the face of a specific provision that there is to be no impairment of the obligation of a contract. In spite of this provision the supreme court has in effect stated that when I buy a bond that agrees to pay in gold or its equivalent, the contract is of no effect if congress chooses to ignore it.

The solemn obligation to pay is repudiated. Congress has undoubted power to regulate the currency and the law is undoubtedly constitutional as it relates to bonds issued after its passage, but when it relates back to contracts in bonds which were entered into before that clause was enacted it must be retroactive to be effective and with such a retrous owns any bonds upon which the gold agreement is stated, but the policy of the court in thus construing the contract means that Justice McReynolds was correct when he said, "The constitution is gone." Without a constitution, or with one that is subject to such elasticity as ours seems to be, we have no guaranteed protection. The constitution provides that there shall be no tax on exports. Congress, under the provision giving it power to regulate currency, could easily tax exports. Congress cannot withdraw money from the treasury except by specific appropriation. What is to prevent it from ignoring this if the regulation of currency should demand it? Congress cannot grant a title of nobility, but if the currency regulation clause continues to be elastic congress could give to the secretary of the treasury the title of a noble and be well within its powers. The right to sue in a court of law could be prevented if such a suit would tend to disturb the currency or stock market. Indeed, the supreme court, although it admitted that the government could not repudiate its obligations on its own bonds, denied the right of the court of claims to those who would seek redress, and this is the only court in which a claim against the United States can be prosecuted. They admit the right to sue but take away the only court in which suit can in a democratic form of government with stipulated powers and restrictions should realize that our protection is gone. If we prefer to have congress and tives, interested in democracy instead of autocracy.

It seems to me that we as students interested

But how does this injure us? Probably none of active clause it certainly impairs the obligation.

The supreme court majority opinion bases its

tion that there is no youth angle to the gold

It is now up to the students. Will they support

Nebraska has been sadly in need of some sort gram of convocations or forums.

so far is the World Forum.

A Conservative

TO THE EDITOR:

them in many ways.

Speaks Up.

campus institutions can continue.

There must be some way, however, to bring can college students.

Daily Nebraskan

Station A. Lincoln, Mebraska.
OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA represented for general advertising by the Nabraska Press Association.

Associated Collegiate Press

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice in Lincoln, Nebraska, under act of congress. March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, act of October 3, 1917, authorized January 20, 1922.

Arnold Levine George Pipal Fred Nicklas Sancha Kilbourne

Business Manager ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS Bob Shellenberg Robert Funk Truman Oberndorff

More on

THE Nebraskan is brought to task today by a conkan's statement that there is no youth angle in the gold cases. This is evidently a misunderstanding for there was an attempt made to indicate clearly that youth should be vitally interested in the supreme court's decision. The present college generation will be confronted all too soon with the many problems of internacional affairs, government, and

He declares that the court has upheld the constituexpense of the rights of contract.

But has there been any real impairment of the obligation of contracts? This seems to be a quibble over terms. Lawyers proably will state that according to the letter of the law these contracts have been impaired. But in reality, how has this been done? One must stop to consider the economic as according to the outmoded American idea of hard money, weights of certain metal. The value of the dollar is set by the price level, and not by the amount of gold which it contains. Therefore, although the dollar is worth only approximately sixty cents in gold at the present time, it is really worth the contracts in question have been violated? In

A little consideration should be devoted to the resulting effect if the court had ruled against the government. Adherents to the liberal views expressed in the decision would have had as much of a cry to make over constitutionality in connection with the fact that the court had refused congress dog fight between conservatism and liberalism. The sane, liberal policy dictated that the court should rule in favor of the government even while sacrificing the letter of some part of the law.

been the element of conservatism. While no one would ask for a wild eyed radicalism, it surely can be seen that reactionary conservatism is as much of

The World

The Student peace movement, as lately brought | menace to right and liberty.

EDITORIAL STAFF Editor-in-Chief Associate Editor amoine Bible MANAGING EDITORS Virginia Selleck Irwin Ryan

NEWS EDITORS

BUSINESS STAFF

Conservatism.

tributor to the Student Pulse, who seriously disagrees with the paper's view on the gold clause decision, and conservatism as opposed to liberalism.

In the first place J. C. L. questions the Nebrasindustry.

But at that point the opinions of the Nebraskan and J. C. L. begin to take widely divergent paths. tional right of congress to regulate money at the Money consists of units of buying power, not, much more in purchasing power.

With this in mind, then, how can one say that letter only have they been impaired, the power to regulate the currency.

Thus, the argument narrows down to the old

It has always been thus, down through the history of the United States. The question has been whether to consider the constitution as a dead, unchanging document, or as a living instrument that keeps abreast of the needs of the country. It seems that a little thought would reveal that the constitution makers intended it to serve the nation; not the nation to serve the constitution, as the conservatives would have it.

The rock in the road of progress always has Forum Revived.

FOUND: One World Forum. After a lapse of several months a group of interested students have revived that worthy activity, and have brought to the campus a worker for the National Council for the Prevention of War, who will speak today on the Student peace movement.

Contemporary Comment

Institutions vs.

True Education. Final examinations over, they pause for a moment to survey the field behind them, they count how many tin soldiers they have knocked down." That is what many of us are already doing; sough it were better that we were really taking stock of how much we have learned.

You who have been here for sevthat your college career has not been a failure; but you are bound to know at the same time that it has not been the success that it dents' registration cards. been. Somewhere, mething has been wrong.

Many students feel relieved after time of taking final examinations because, once they have completed a course, It forever and forthwith put what to drop out of school immediately chair, and chaise lounge. Smaller they have been taught out of mind before final exams due to illness hits such as and table. altogether. Thus they waste their but recovered shortly afterwards time in college; for college is pri- and tried to arrange to take his marily a place of the mind.

of education itself. We tice it. are shackled by too many tradi-tions, which, though once they may have served a purpose, now impede our progress. Students now tem. ogy, literature. And that is not the for intelligent advisors. fracies against rebolarship when elective a semester and generally by:

-The Daily Texan.

be brought.

Nebraska Might Think This Over.

Our faculty advisory system has failed. Each period of registra-tion gives more evidence of its in-adequacy. The purpose of the faculty advisor is ostensibly to talk with the student about his course, aid him in selecting courses in harmony with his interests, and generally guide and aid the stu-dent in his academic work. However, there are only a few memtime or interest to pursue this eral years are probably satisfied course. Rather the "advice" that most faculty members dish out consists of advocating their pet course, or blindly signing the stu-

> Several actual instances together with general observation at the registration supports this contention One instance is particularly exams. Instead of getting a satisattitude among so many univer- received a bawling out for taking sity students? It is no secret-a courses in four different schools number of unprejudiced professors of the university. His advisor had and mature students will tell you not even mentioned the fact at the that too many universities, among time of registration, and probably them our own, over emphasize did not look over the student's "the process of educating" at the program carefully enough to no-are too concerned with prerequisites, exams, degrees and not the effectiveness of the advisery enough with political science, tiology, literature, and that is not the importance of and necessity wilder: "The Spy Paramount," by retem and those who are uphold- cent curiculum revision permits Hill." by Victoria Lincoln; "Lost g it-a system defeating the students considerable leeway in the Horizon, ery purpose of our colleges, en- selection of their courses. Most Chips," by James Hilton. ng colleges to condone con- students may take at least one field of non-fiction, the list is they ought to be producing can take two or three. It is here that the student needs advice and guidance, but our faculty lacks either the time or interest. We must revise our advisory

The Daily Northwestern.

Rumor says that although only

BY CHANCE.

one set will be used in the latest University Players drama, "There's Always Juliet," that one set will be a honey. It is the interior of bers of the faculty who have the an aristicratic English family's In one alcove will be a grand piano with the conventional props, cigarette box, ash tray, lamp, music, vase of flowers. In another alcove will be placed a small desk with a small lamp, china figure and waste basket under it. A set of leather bound books will adorn the recess book shelves. An electric grate will be in the fireplace, around which will be grouped a settee, large armings, incidental chairs, and a small comode for the hall, will complete the furnishings. Net curtains and But why do we find such an factory arrangement, he merely drapes will lend more to the atmospheric background. sic which will be on the grand piano is entitled "I'm Alone Be-cause I Love You," and both Molly Carpenter and Dwight Perkins, the "Romeo" and "Juliet" characters of this play will warble the ditty to one another.

> According to Brentano's ac-count the following novels are leading the best-seller list in The re- E. Phillips Oppenheim: "February "Goodbye and "Half Mile Down," by Wil-

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

Lutheran Student.

Lutheran students will meet for Bible class with Rev. H. Erck Wednesday at 7 p. m. in room 205 of the Temple building.

Cornhusker Sale.

in the basement of U hall. Purchases can be made there within the next two weeks.

Prom Committee.

Feb. 20 at 4:45 in the Kosmet ed to Schmidt's plan. Klub rooms.

Corn Cobs.

Corn Cobs will meet Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in the basement of University hall.

PROM PRESENTATION.

Ideas for presentation of Prom Girl may be submitted to Clayton Schwenk in the Kosmet Klub offices in University hall any afternoon but Thursday between 3 and 5 o'clock. The contest closes Feb.

Sponsors Club.

Ellen Smith hall. All members are urged to attend. Teaching Applicants.

pictures of candidates for teaching positions any longer.

Tap Dancing Group. Girl's hobby group in tap dancing will be held Thursday night at o'clock in the Armory. All university women interested are invited to attend.

Barb A.W.S. Barb A.W.S. groups are holding meetings this week at the following times: Monday at 5; Wednesday at 5; Thursday at 5; Friday at 4; and ag group, Tuesday at 5. Washington Party. A George Washington party will night from 8 to 11 o'clock. All students are invited. Dancing be held in the Armory

office in Teachers college party from 7:15 to 8 o'clock. Book Exchange Committee. The Student Council book exchange committee will meet at 4 'clock this afternoon in Mr. Lantz'

Student Council.

Student Council will meet Wedesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Room 8 of University hall.

Kosmet Workers.

5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon meeting of Sigma Eta Chi. in the Klub rooms. Important. Home Development Group.

Home Development group will meet at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the southwest room in Ellen Smith hall. Carol Ridder is in Kappa Phi.

Methodist girl's club, in Ellen Smith hall, Wednesday night at 7 o'clock tion and its activities.

A George Washington party will skybe given in the Armory Friday der the direction of the Y. W. C. A.

biography." 'Phantom Crown," Harding: "Roman Spring." by Mrs.
Winthrop Chanler. 'R. E. Lee," by Douglas Southall Freeman, and "Erasmus of Rotterdam." Stefan Zweig.

politics as the only guardian of our rights then we should approve of the decision, but if we are old Sidelights from the Ballet Russe. which recently appeared here in Lincoln: When they were in Holfashioned enough or "dyed-in-the-wool" conservalywood on their west coast tour, then we should regard the decision as distinctly a many of the movie celebrities entertained in their honor. Elissa Landi told Cary Grant that he'd

Merging Counties Would Lower Costs In Less Populous Districts-Schmidt

In a bulletin recently published, Edward B. Schmidt, as istant professor in the department of economics, set forth the results of a study just completed on the possible economy which could be effected through the consolidation of certain Nebraska counties.

Lower Per Capita Costs.

to the more populous counties in solidation of two or more of the Convication Scheduled for

4 in Temple Theater

This Afternoon.

Members of music pan-hellenic convocation to

"Gretchen am

will furnish the program for the

be held at 4 o'clock Wednesday

Miss Laura Kimball, a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, will present

Spinnrad," "Die Forelle," and "Ave

Maria," all by Schubert. June

Goethe, a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, will present two numbers by

du Clair de Lune" and "General

Another member of Mu Phi Ep silon, Eunice Bingham, will play

"Prelude and Allegro" by Pugnani-

Kreisler, Charlotte Easterday Kies-

selbach, a member of Delta Omicron, will present the following selections: "At the Cry of the First

Bird," by Guion; "Snow," by Lie;

"O Think of Me," by Dzerwonky and "At the Well," by Hageman.

with two numbers by a string quartet composed of members of Delta Omicron. Those in the quartet are Bernice Rundin, first violin: Katherine Hershner, second violin; Sally Peltier, viola, and Lily

H. E. FEY TO LEAD FIRST

Continued from Page 1.

dation and the national c mittee on student work for the Christian church, thru its director

Lura E. Aspinwall, national director of student work for the Des ciples of Christ. It will begin with registration from 4 to 6 Friday evening, and will follow with a banquet at 6:30. On Saturday, there will be three sessions, a tour of the city, a conference tea, and fireside singing. The meeting will

Edna Eddy is in charge of ar rangements; Harry Lotton, regis tration; Ray Young, housing; Merman Boggott, publicity; and Lois

last until Sunday afternoon.

Nelson, social arrangements.

The program will be concluded

Balloons in the Snow," by Boyd;

"Terrasses des Audience

afternoon in the Temple theater.

sixteenth musical

"Faith in Spring,"

Lavine Eccentric.

Debussy.

Despite the fact that the study

"The counties low in population

Mr. Schmidt

"In about one-third of the coun-costs of administering justice are ties, that is, those whose population is less than 8,000, it is clearly tion of population, which is really The Cornhusker is now on sale shown that governmental costs the dominant factor in determining could be reduced by county mer- practically all costs of county govgers," the professor states. Arthur, ernment. Banner, Blaine, Chase, Deuel, Garfield, Gosper, Grant, Hayes, Hook cr. Keya Paha, Logan, Loup Mchave much higher per capita ad-Junior-Senior Prom committee Pherson Rock, Sioux, Thomas, and ministrative costs," will meet. Wednesday afternoon, Wheeler are found to be best suitpoints out. "In fact, the tendency toward a lower per capita cost as one passes from the less populous

Would Affect County Costs. Although the consolidation would not necessarily result in any this group is very striking. huge savings in expenditures, some of the more important county does not include Douglas and Lancosts would be affected, it was caster counties, the author believes found. As a matter of fact, in some administrative costs of any county ways, the merrer of counties merging with either of them would whose population is very small be reduced because of redistributed would necessitate creating counties costs. He also finds that the conof considerable area and would result in an increase in cost. On the very sparsely settled counties with other hand, the study indicates each other or with more populous that expenses such as those of neighbors would bring county superintendent, sheriff, and economy

R.O.T.C. Sponsors club will meet better show up at .her .cocktail MUSICAL SORORITES with pictures of himself, Cary, coyly, did just that. The dancers responded nobly by demanding all of them autographed. When Cary The campus studio is not taking got to the bottom of the stack and found nothing but the cardboard left, they made him autograph that, too. Among the other movic guests present at the party were Claudette Colbert, Brown, Anita Louise, and Phillip Another tidbit from Hollywood comes from the premiere showing "Lives of a Bengal Lancer" at the famous Chinese Theater in the film captal. As Gary Cooper's party emerged from their car at the opening of "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," Gary pointed to a lank loorman dressed in a lancer's uniform. "That fellow's wearing the costume I wore in the picture. Mr. Cooper informed his guests. I know, because there's the hole in his pants which got there when struction will be given before the I fell off the horse when we were on location at Saugus.'

Emanuel Tuesday afternoon Wishnow of the violin department of the conservatory, broadcasted suggested selections for the Nebraska state music contest at the regular Tuesday KFAB broadcast. Vera Upton sang at the meeting of the University Women's club at Ellen Smith hall recently. Edith Ross accompanied her at the piano. Peggy Heald, a student with Herbert Schmidt, played a Kosmet Klub workers will meet group of piano solos for the last

The sixteenth musical convoca-Pan-Hellenic sorority at 4 p. m. Wednesday in the Temple Theater. The program follows: Schubert-"Faith "Gretchen am Spinnrad." Forelle," "Ave Maria" by Laura Kimball (Sigma Alpha Iota); Debussey ence du Blair de Lune." "Generale lavine eccentric," played by June All university girls Goethe (Mu Phi Epsilon); Jugnanis are invited to attend and especial. Kreisler-"Prelude and Allegro" ly those interested in the organiza- by Eunice Bingham (Mu Phi Epsilon): Guion-"At the Cry of the First Bird," Lie-"Snow," Boyd-"Balloons in the Snow," Czerwon-"O Think of Me." Hageman "At the Well" by Charlotte evening from 8 to 11 o'clock, un- Kissethuch (Delta Omicron): Albeniz "Spanish Dance." "Nevin-Song of the Brook' quartet. Bernice Rundin, 1st violiam Beebe; "Experiment in Auto- lin, Katherine Hershner, second by H. G. Weils: violin Lily Ann Kratky, 'cello, Crown,' by Bertita and Sally Peltier, viola. All are

Typewriters

Nebraska Typewriter Co. 130 No. 12 St. Lincoln, Nebr.

Say goodbye to the seam that saws

Don't let that devilish seam in the crotch of your underwear drive you to reckless action. Simply slip into the world's most comfortable garment-ARROW SHORTS, with the patented Seamless Crotch. There's no seam to chafe, saw or bind you . . . no seam to hamper free and easy movement! What's more, they're Sanforized-Shrunk. A new garment if one ever shrinks.

ARROW UNDERSHIRTS are absorbent and 500 elastic—they give you full chest coverage.

Ben Simon & Sons

NEBRASKA PRESENTS NEBRASKAN PRESENTS

Purpose to Gild Lady From Ads Appearing in Thursday's Paper.

The Daily Nebraskan, thru the o-operation of its advertisers and the Lincoln Theater, will stage a "Gilding The Lily Contest" in tomorrow's issue. Fifty Nebraska University students will see Claudette Colbert in "The Gilded Lily" at the Lincoln Theater starting on Friday as a result of the Daily Nebraskan's contest.

The idea of the contest will be to gild a lady from the advertise ments that run in Thursday's Daily Nebraskan. The fifty students who send in the best list of accessories for "Gilding the Lily" will each be awarded with a ticket to the Lincoln Theater to see Claudette Colbert in "The Gilded Lily."

Only articles taken from the ads in Thursday's Nebraskan will be considered in this contest. With each article you select you must name the ad from which it was taken. For example: silk stockings from Ben Simons, gloves from Golds, perfume from Miller & Paines, etc. Your own cleverness will determine the articles necessary to properly gild the lily.

Hats, coats, gloves, suits, all kinds of wearing apparel and accessories even to flowers may be an important item in gilding the lily, so be sure you read every ad thoroly in Thursday's Nebraskan before composing your list.

Miss Alice May Livingston, who writes the Daily Nebraskan feature "Paging the Smart Co-ed," will be the judge of the best lists. Her decisions will be final and the winners of the contest will be published in Sunday's Nebraskan. Entries should be left at the Daily Nebraskan office

'The Gilded Lily" starts Friday at the Lincoln Theater. Claudette Colbert, who scored in a light romantic role in "It Happened One Night," returns to the screen in another role even more delightful than her former hit.

KOSMET ORDERS INITIAL TRYOUTS FOR SPRING PLAY (Continued from Page 1.)

well, Douglas Harper, Dale Oder, John Jarmin and Charles Alexander were assigned. Production work and practices will begin immediately after cast members and songs are chosen, Hank Hosman, business manager, declared. The show will be presented at the Temple theater during the week of April 1-6.

CLEMONS' CONDITION SLOWLY IMPROVING

'Slowly improving," is the word tion will be presented by members Ann Kratky, 'cello. They will play received on the condition of Rex "Spanish Dance" by Albeniz and Clemons, university alumnae who "Song of the Brook," by Nevin. was knocked down by an automobile in Omaha Sunday morning Mr. Clemons, graduate in the class WEEKEND CONFERENCE of 1934, is suffering a brain concussion and a broken ankle bone

Arrow Shorts won't grow shorter

The law of diminishing returns holds no terror for Arrow Sanjorized-Shrunk Shorts. They cannot shrink no matter how often the garment is washed. Sanforizing, the only process of its kind, guarantees permanent fit forever.

Don't resign yourself to underwear that continually creeps up on you, cuts you in two, and generally ruins your disposition. Arrow Shorts give you comfort where you really need it-they are full cut with ample leg room-that bedeviling center seam has been replaced with a saddle seat -the garment is tailored throughout with your comfort in mind. See your Arrow dealer today.

Arrow Shorts 65с ир

Arrow Undershirts 50c up

SANFORIZED SERUNK

CLUETT, PEABODY & CO., INC., TROY, N. Y.