

FINALS DRAWING NEAR FOR BARB, GREEK NETTERS

Panthers Only Finalists as Result of 24-8 Victory Over Dex No. 2.

The reign of intramural basketball is rapidly drawing towards its close and Thursday night saw the playing of several games in preparation for the finals in both barb and fraternity leagues.

The feature game of the evening saw the small but fast Chi Phi team spring a surprise on the larger Sigma Chi five and emerge victorious by the score of 13 to 6. The game started out with a basket by Galloway from the middle of the floor to send the Sig Chis to the fore. A basket by Ferguson knotted the count. From that point on the Chi Phis met the challenge of the Sig Chi team and gained possession of the ball every time that the Sig Chis took the pellet down in their territory. The Sig Chis went in the van on Scholz free toss but the Chi Phi five went in front just as the whistle blew on Ferguson's fielder. In the second half the winners definitely proved their superiority. While holding the Sig Chi team to three charity tosses by Yelkin, they stormed the basket from all sides with the result that Wilson and Schwenk scored eight points between them and put the game on ice. The speed of the victors coupled with the poor basket shooting of the losers made the Chi Phi team the champions of League IV.

The Panthers barb champions of League number IV trounced the Dex No. 2 the victors of league number II, 24 to 8. As vast as the score seems it does not represent the sloppy playing of the highly favored Panthers. For sloppy they played was Barnes their star missed more than half of his set-ups, although he did make quite a few points and his teammates did much worse. There was no close competition however and the Panthers won easily. The game started out with Feldman Dexter, center, making the first two points. The league IV champs retaliated with a double counter by Barnes. From then on the Panthers were not seriously threatened as Barnes put enough shots thru the hoop to give them a comfortable lead. The score at the half was 16 to 4.

The third game of the evening was between the Bristol and Y. M. C. A. barb teams for the right to meet the C. A. X. team for the Barb League III banner. The Bristols won a game that was packed full of thrills by a 10 to 9 count. The game started out with the "Y" team scoring 6 points before the Bristols counted. The half ended with the "Y" in the lead 9 to 2. The second half was a different story. A Fager started it with a short field goal. Then three fielders were accounted for by T. Fagers who received several good passes in the vicinity of the basket and sank the tosses. In the last thirty seconds of play Harding fouled a "Y" man who missed the chance to knot the score as the ball rolled around the hoop and out. In the remaining few seconds the Y could do nothing.

The Phi Gamma Delta team won the right to claim the League I championship before last night but they played off a game and trounced the Farm Housers 47 to 2. Lorcher was high point man with 17 tallies.

Lambda Chi Alpha won a postponed game from Theta Xi by forfeit. Box scores:

Speed's His Name.

HAROLD CAPTURED FIRST PLACE IN THE 60 YARD DASH AT THE DUAL MEET WITH IOWA STATE

IN THE BIG SIX MEET LAST YEAR, HE RAN SECOND IN BOTH THE 100 AND 220 YARD DASHES

HAROLD JACOBSEN

Above is pictured Harold Jacobsen, re-christened "Speed" because of a pair of flying feet. He's the 60-yard sprint man on Henry F. Schulte's Husker indoor track team, and has scooted down the straight-a-way in 6.2 seconds. Last year he ran second in both the 100 and 200 dashes in the Big Six outdoor meet, but this year—well, wait till May, says he.

HUSKERS DEPART FOR IOWA STATE CAGE ENCOUNTER

Brownmen Seek Second Win Over Cyclone Quint in Next to Last Game.

HOPE TO LEAVE CELLAR

With only two games remaining on the Nebraska basketball horizon to separate the 1935 cage season from the fate of its predecessors in the waste basket of discard, Coach Harold Brown's maples soldiers depart this evening to give the best possible account of themselves in the first of two final engagements on the Husker slate.

Setting sail for Ames tonight at 7:30, the Brownmen are prepared to turn loose their last degree of heat on the Iowa State basketweavers in their final drive toward victory. It will not be a march toward a first place finishing in the Big Six conference, however, for by no miracle of fate could two wins push the Scarlet scantyclads into the top position in the league, or in the first division, for that matter. But an opportunity lingers in the ranks of the Cornhusker to elevate themselves to a trifle more desirable ranking when the final gun strings down the curtain on the current Crimson cage sessions.

If Coach Brown's performers can put a happy landing on their final road journey of the season and trip up Iowa State's ball handlers, there still remains an arithmetical chance for the Huskers to put out of the mire of the cellar guarding spot and finish in fifth place. But it promises to be a none too luminous opportunity for the Nebraska hoopsters, for with Iowa State resting in second place, only a game behind the topmost Kansas Jayhawks, the first lap of the drive toward Husker emergence into more successful circles will provoke plenty of opposition. And if the Scarlet thinclads should take the Cyclones into camp, the road to fifth place will have been paved with a very rough and rockstrewn way, for victory over Kansas State cagesters the following weekend is essential for a higher standing.

Nevertheless, the Brownmen, after their first win since the beginning of the conference season, depart Friday to give the Iowans all they have the following evening on the 'Staters home court. Incidentally, the Huskers have not contacted the Iowans since their drop from first place standing in the conference, a standing attained at the expense of the Cyclones' defeat by the baskets of the Nebraskans in the first Scarlet conference tilt. Now with Nebraska bringing the close of her basketball conference slate to a close, and drawing the fins in last place with only one win since her conquest of the Cyclones, the match promises no end of conjecture.

Will the 'Staters prove kind-

Cyclone Swim Stars Land in Far Climes

AMES, Ia., Feb. 21—There is something about being a member of the swimming team at Iowa State college which seems to fill one's nostrils with a desire for far away places. At least that is the recent experience of several team members. Ivan Butler, a former swimming captain, is now located in China as a field manager for the Standard Oil company. Charles Lowder, who swam as a member of the Cyclone team for the last time in 1932, is working on Cocoa Isle in the Canal Zone.

Even Peter Peter Pumpkin Eater Could Win A Ticket in The "Gilded Lily Contest"

Here is How YOU Can Win A Ticket to "The Gilded Lily"—Featuring Claudette Colbert.

Use Thursday's Paper

THE RULES---

The idea of the contest is to gild a lady from the advertisements that ran in Thursday's Daily Nebraskan. The 50 students who send in the best and most complete lists of clothing and accessories for "Gilding the Lily" will each be awarded with a ticket to the Lincoln Theatre.

Only articles taken from the ads in Thursday's Nebraskan will be considered in this contest. With each article you select you must name the ad from which it was taken. For example: silk stockings from Ben Simons; gloves from Golds; and perfume from Miller & Paine, etc. Your cleverness will determine the articles necessary to properly gild the lady.

Hats, coats, gloves, suits and all kinds of wearing apparel and accessories even including flowers may be important in your list of articles.

Miss Alice May Livingston, who writes the Daily Nebraskan feature "Paging the Smart Co-ed" will be judge of the best lists. ALL LISTS MUST BE TURNED IN AT THE DAILY NEBRASKAN OFFICE BY FRIDAY AT 5 P. M.

Winners will be announced in the Sunday paper and may secure their tickets from the Business Manager of the Daily Nebraskan.
