

Daily Nebraskan

Station A, Lincoln, Nebraska. OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

This paper is represented for general advertising by the Nebraska Press Association.

Associated Collegiate Press 1924-1935

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice in Lincoln, Nebraska, under act of congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, act of October 3, 1917, authorized January 30, 1922.

EDITORIAL STAFF

- Editor-in-Chief: Lamoine Bible; Associate Editor: Jack Fischer; Managing Editors: Irwin Ryan, Virginia Seltick; News Editors: Fred Nicklas, Arnold Levine, Sancho Kilbourne, George Pipal, Marylu Petersen, Woman's Editor, Dortha Fulton, Society Editor; Business Manager: Richard Schmidt; Assistant Business Managers: Truman Oberdorff, Bob Shellenberg, Robert Funk

Is a Student Strike Worthwhile?

THE offices of college publications have been the recipients lately of news releases from the League for Industrial Democracy telling of the nation wide student strike to be held April 12 as a protest against fascism and armed warfare.

That question may be answered by asking another question. Is the whole idea worthwhile? Can it accomplish anything, or will it tend to defeat its purpose?

The purpose of the league is sincere and laudable, but it seems that a method more in keeping with the aims of the strike could be found to register a protest.

Strikes are well known in the United States. The news columns of the nation's press have been crowded with stories of strikes in various industries.

In addition, such a move would leave the college wide open to the charge of radicalism, which many are all too ready to hurl at the educational institutions.

It is hoped that Nebraska students do not allow themselves to be dragged into this farce with tragic implications.

HUEY LONG, BAD BOY OF AMERICAN POLITICS, NEXT PRESIDENT?

(Continued from Page 1.)

Kansas for congress further illustrates his argumentative magic. Mrs. Caraway doomed to trial the pack in a five candidate race according to politicians in the know.

Basis of Long's Powers.

Huey's power over the emotions of masses is based on a number of his personal qualities as well as his ability to appeal to the bread and butter worries of the commoner according to commentators on his actions.

His influential power in Louisiana has been built up by his oratory, his superb system of circulars, and his ability to squelch active opposition and thrive on incisive criticism.

His "Share Our Wealth" clubs with upwards of three and a half million members are scattered thruout the nation, and they possess one of the biggest mailing lists in the country.

Last week Huey accomplished a master stroke in personal publicity by initiating the inquest of the administration into the affairs of their own big shot, none other than James A. Farley, national and state party chairman and postmaster general.

$5,000 for Every Family.

Economists believe that Long's menace to the American social system rests in the fact that his knowledge of their subject is as faulty as that of the public. In Louisiana he tells the people that they need not worry about paying mortgages or the grocer and installment man's duns.

Colliers says that the people who rave about the great things the Kingfish has done for his own state, forget that Louisiana's bonded indebtedness has risen from 25 million dollars in 1925 to 50 million in 1935.

Raymond Swing closes a Huey Long article in Nation thus: "Huey

Browsing Among The Books

By Maurice Johnson

MONDAY.

SPENT fifteen minutes listening to a radio review of "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh," and the shrill voiced reviewer said conclusively that "it is a very, very nice book."

TUESDAY.

Wonder what the girl with the lemon colored hair was doing with Marcel Proust's "Within a Budding Grove." And last week she had "Blake's Complete Poems" under her arm.

WEDNESDAY.

Looked into Edna Ferber's latest, "Come and Get It," and decided I would let "Come and Get It" go unread. It's regional again: The Great Lakes wilderness this time.

THURSDAY.

Saw the Morrill hall exhibit for the first time. Agreed with P... who says Thomas Benton should illustrate William Faulkner's distorted and morbid "Sound and the Fury."

FRIDAY.

Bought a Modern Library edition of Swift's misanthropic "Gulliver's Travels," and there are maps in it. Was surprised to find that Brodningnag is located in North America; it's in Brodningnag that the King's Kitchen is about 600 feet high.

SATURDAY.

How could I have forgotten about Thomas Wolfe's "Of Time and the River"? It'll be out next week. And what about Henry Roth's proletarian "Call It Sleep"?

CHANTS BY CHANCE.

An illustrated talk by Miss Ingeborg Osterlin, the second in a series given before the members of the German Club, will be held Tuesday evening, March 5 at 7:30 in the auditorium of Morrill Hall.

After the schedule of somewhat serious plays such as Wednesday's Child, Yellow Jack, and the Return of Peter Grimm, which the University Players have produced the last few months, the audiences realized the comedy and flippancies which Mr. John Vandrunten provided in his "There's Always Juliet," the recent vehicle of the Players.

The Chicago theatrical season has been fairly bright since the Christmas rush, and reports from the windy city are that prosperity is just around the corner, theatrically speaking.

Basil Rathbone, who aroused such pure hatred in his audiences as "Mr. Murdstone," in "David Copperfield," has left the Katharine Cornell company in which he played "Romeo" to her "Juliet," and has gone to Hollywood.

Occasionally it is most easy to mix names. Such was the unfortunate circumstance when Don Buell of the dramatics department was given credit in this column recently for the mural painting on the set of the last play.

A. W. S. ELECTION SCHEDULED TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY (Continued from Page 1.) Gretchen Budd. To be eligible to the board, a woman must have an 80 average and meet the regular eligibility requirements of the university.

Six seniors, four juniors and four sophomores will be elected to serve on the board for the coming year. Both candidates for president automatically become members of the board, one as president, and the other as a senior member.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO MISS RUTH BOTTORFF (Continued from Page 1.) taken to the Omaha hospital where pneumonia developed.

Iselin Cafe Where Particular People Dine. Food Properly Prepared Dine at Ease 136 No. 12th St. B7977

GASOLINE U. S. Motors Regular 12.9 15.9 HOLM'S 14th at W

DR. LUGN APPOINTED TO FLOOD BOARD CONTROL

Nebraska Professor Is on Committee to Foster U. S. Waterways.

Dr. A. L. Lugn, associate professor of geology at the university, has been appointed a member of the advisory committee of the National Rivers and Harbors congress at Washington, D. C.

Recently completed by the university geologist is a study of "Geology and Ground Water Resources of South Central Nebraska with Special Reference to the Platte River Valley between Chapman and Gothenburg."

GERMAN ORGANIZATION HEARS MISS OESTERLIN

Exchange Scholar to Speak About 'Heidelberg and Student Life.'

An illustrated talk by Miss Ingeborg Osterlin, the second in a series given before the members of the German club, will be held Tuesday evening, March 5 at 7:30 in the auditorium of Morrill Hall.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

Pershing Rifles. Pershing Rifles will hold its regular meeting Tuesday at 5 o'clock in Nebraska hall.

Lutheran Students. Lutheran students will meet for Bible class with Rev. H. Erck Wednesday at 7 p. m. in 205 Temple theater.

Corn Cobs. All Corn Cob pledges are required to wear their sweaters during the remainder of the week.

Tap Group. Tap dancing group will meet on Thursday night at 7 o'clock in the women's gym.

Book Review Group. Book review group will meet Thursday at 1 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

Corn Cobs. All Corn Cob Pledges who expect to be initiated this spring must wear their sweaters to classes all this week.

Barb Council. Barb Council will hold a meeting Tuesday at 5 o'clock in Room 8 of U. Hall.

Outing Group. The first outing for the second semester of the W. A. A.'s Outing club will begin at 5 p. m. Wednesday at the east door of the Armory.

Approximately 45 percent of the freshmen at Washington university (St. Louis) are related to former students at that institution.

GRAND HOTEL Good Coffee Shop—Quick Service European Corner 12th and Q Streets STUDENT LUNCHEONS 15c to 25c Also Short Orders Mrs. C. Rocks

'LES MISERABLES' TO APPEAR AT THEATER

Screen Version of Famous Story to Be Given March 16.

French students and others interested in French will have the opportunity of seeing a film production of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables" Saturday morning, March 16, at the Stuart theater.

Prof. J. R. Wadsworth, also of the French department, explained that this is the first time that a production of this kind has been shown in Lincoln and that students are fortunate to be able to see and hear real French people.

COLORADO STUDENTS AWARDED CCC POSTS

University Training Helps Get Reformation Positions. (By Associated Collegiate Press) FORT COLLINS, Colo.—The federal government's reforestation program has created such a demand for college trained foresters that students at the Colorado Agricultural college here are leaving their classes to accept government positions, it was revealed here recently.

Many of those entering the CCC work, which offers high pay, do so with plans laid for the future to enter school again when their personal bank balances are raised high enough to finance the remainder of their education.

LEATHER AND SUEDE JACKETS Cleaned and Redyed Have that jacket renewed at the Modern. You will be surprised how nice it will look. Modern Cleaners Soukup & Westover Call M2377 for service

Plopped by a Playful Pooch?

...light an Old Gold When the Girl Friend insists that you romp with Rollo before you have your tête-à-tête with her... don't let the Bow Wow bash your spirits. Brighten up by lightin' up an Old Gold. Its sunny-smoothness makes even dog-walking endurable. Darn clever... these O. Gs! AT TRYING TIMES... TRY A Smooth OLD GOLD

25 TAX Included MARCH 8th — THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM