

CAMPUS SOCIETY

IT'S REALLY REMARKABLE HOW much agitation can appear about the two projects sponsored by the Student Council, the Student Union Building, and the Student Book Store in such a short time. Already a good many sororities and fraternities have signified that they will support the movement, and Cornhuskers as a whole are behind the idea. In the Coliseum, last night, pictures of the proposed building were exhibited and brought forth much favorable comment, and if the edifice is a good looking as the plans shown, it will be something to be proud of. We have an idea, however, that the one appealing most to Nebraskans is the thing that approaches them through their pocketbooks, the Student Cooperative Book Store. But, at any rate, more power to both of them. We hope that the aspiration will become a reality.

RECENTLY elected officers of Pi K. A. are president, Francis Hanna; vice president, Dick Fischer; secretary, Willard Burney; treasurer, Franklin Christensen; and house manager, Joseph Albert Pavelka, Jr.

SCENE ON THE CAMPUS: A car parked on the front porch of the Theta Xi house, some of the brethren must have been celebrating last night. A very blond skipping down the walk near the library. Alice Beekman instructing Chick Bursik to make her a social call in the Argway office as soon as he had finished his business with the Daily Nebraskan. Jim Marvin being warned that anything he says will be used against him. Truman Obendorf expanding the fundamental theories of all good republicans. Elizabeth Shearer trying to get people to come to the Sponsors club dinner Wednesday night. Tom Davies hunting for a typewriter that seems to have strayed from the Kosmet Klub. Woody Dierks looking right smart in a tan suit with a little brown beret. Sarah Meyer telling Professor Walker to call a roadhouse the "Fasty Nasty" and everyone would know what it meant. Weldon Kees trying to get the head "Angwers" to run a rather questionable cartoon. Kosmet Klub workers taking down the set for the great production just past.

RATHER a surprise was the informal announcement of the engagement of John Campbell, Lincoln A. E. O. and Doris Andrews, Alpha Phi. It's whispered that they have been going together since January, and that the particular Maltese Cross that was given to this particular girl was awfully good looking.

NEW OFFICERS of Alpha Phi are Dorothy Kemner, president; Betty Beck, vice president; Desta Ann Ward, secretary; Elaine Shonka, treasurer; Virginia Kenner, chaplain; Ruth Nelson, corresponding secretary; and Margaret Smith, social chairman.

AND WHEN the Betas elected officers Tuesday night, George Wahlgust was chosen president; Jimmy Harsh, vice president; Henry Whitaker, steward; Charles Ledwith, recording secretary; Bob Beghtol, corresponding secretary; John Edwards, alumni secretary; and Horace Crosby and Dallas Tassie, sergeant at arms.

HEADING Delta Omicron, musical society, for the coming year, are Vera Mae Peterson, president; Lily Ann Kratky, vice president; Katherine Hershner, secretary and Jeanne Palmer, treasurer. Convention delegates for the convolve to be held June 20 to 24 in Interlochen, Michigan, at the National Orchestra camp were Vera Mae Peterson and Bernice Rundin.

MARRIED March 31 were Rebecca Stillman of Sioux City, and Dr. H. B. Osheroff of Omaha. Mrs. Osheroff is attending Morningside College at Sioux City, and Dr. Osheroff is a graduate of Nebraska.

E. C. FORD TO DISCUSS BOOK STORE PROJECT IN TEMPLE THURSDAY

Grand Island Man Speaks on Cooperation as New Social Order.

In connection with his explanation of cooperation as a new social order, E. C. Ford of Grand Island, will discuss the cooperative used book store project which is now being promoted by the university students, when he speaks at the Y. M. rooms in the Temple, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He will also speak at the Council of Religious Welfare luncheon at the Grand hotel, Thursday noon. Rowena Swenson, chairman of the Social Action staff of the Y. W. C. A., sponsors of the program, has invited all university students and faculty members to attend the speech, which will close with an active discussion. Mr. Ford has made a study of consumer's cooperatives, and is now promoting a self-help cooperative for unemployed, and a cooperative grocery store in Grand Island.

Mr. Ford was brought to Lincoln by the Social Action staff, headed by Rowena Swenson. Committees assisting with the arrangements include: correspondence, Selma Schmetter and Lucille Klieb; meeting arrangements, Betty Cherny; poster distribution, Katherine Risser and Jean Marvin.

Y. W. STAFF GIVES 'THE COLOR LINE' TUESDAY

Short Playlet Opens Annual Nebraska-in-China Week.

With the purpose in mind of acquainting university women with the work of the Y. W. C. A. in China, members of the Nebraska-in-China staff of the Y. W. C. A. presented "The Color Line," a short playlet, at the vesper service Tuesday at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. Eleanor Neale, chairman of the staff, presided at the service.

The cast of characters appearing in the play were: Mr. Lawson, Patricia Magee; Miss King, Rosalie Motl; Chun, Marjorie Bannister; Stanley, Jane Bell, and Barbara McLean, Ethel Krutzfeld. The program was printed on small Chinese cutouts, made by students in China. Musical numbers on the program included a vocal number by Ruth Johnson, and the processional and recessional by the vesper choir.

"The purpose of the vespers was to acquaint members of the Y. W. C. A. with our work in China," Miss Carolyn Kite, chairman of the vesper staff announced. "Many university students know nothing of what the Y. W. C. A. is doing outside the local field."

AG STUDENTS TO HOLD FINAL PARTY OF YEAR

Committee Uses Spring as Decorative Theme for Dance Friday.

The final party of the year for the ag campus will be held Friday evening, April 12, at the Student Activities building. A date affair, beginning at 8:30, the annual spring affair is being sponsored by the Ag Executive board, which is composed of junior and senior agricultural students. Lyle De Moss and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Featuring novel decorations with a spring theme, including blue lighting effects and palms, the affair is open only to couples and one member of each couple must be an ag student. Punch will be served, and the cost is nominally placed at 75 cents a couple. Dean W. W. Burr, Prof. L. K. Crowe, and Prof. F. D. Keim have been selected to serve as chaperones for the dance, and Miss M. S. Fedde, Miss Louise Leaton, and Miss Eloise Sperry have been invited as honored guests. Those in charge of the party expect about 200 couples to attend.

AG FAIR TO RESUME INTERLUDE DANCING

Girls Stage Seven Dances At Farmers' Fair Intermissions.

THIRTY WILL TAKE PART

Interlude dancing will be the feature of this year's Farmers' Fair, having been reestablished after a lapse of two years, according to Miss Boss Steele, faculty adviser of the annual pageant. An interlude dance will be given before each episode in the pageant for the purpose of creating atmosphere.

Co-directors of the interlude dancing are Elsie Buxman and Bonnie Spanggaard. With the help of Miss Claudia Moore, instructor of dancing, the girls have worked out seven original dances.

Bonnie Spanggaard states that six of the seven dances to be given have been learned, and that the girls are showing unusual interest in the practice.

Those taking part in the dancing are: Betty Park, Modesta Gatten, Eleanor Green, Elsie Buxman, Bonnie Spanggaard, Elizabeth Costello, Truma McClellan, Eleanor McCadden, Alice Soukup, Virginia Bentz, Frances Schmidt, Donna Hiatt, Connie Clinchard, Catherine Agnew, Marjorie Brew, Gladys Schlichtman, Roxine Latta, Roberta Foster, Eugene Bedson, Pearl White, Ruth Schobert, Janet Yungblut, Madeline Bertrand, Elinor Biggell, Carol Wilder, Alice King, Thelma Sterkel, Marjorie Lowe, Gertrude Iller and Kay Rollins.

TIME, PLACE CHANGED FOR CORN COB MEETING

Initiation to Be Held in Phi Delt House At 7:30.

Place and time for the second Corn Cobs initiation have been changed, according to Secretary Irwin Ryan, to meet university requirements for student gatherings. Ceremonies will be held at 7 o'clock Wednesday night at the Phi Delta Theta house, instead of the later hour previously announced.

Fraternities which must present candidates for initiation at this meeting to be eligible for election of officers and active participation next year are: Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Chi, Theta Xi, Phi Alpha Delta, Delta Theta Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha and Alpha Gamma Rho.

In addition to initiatory rites, a regular meeting will be held to consider final plans for the annual dinner dance, which will be held Saturday evening at the Cornhusker hotel. One hundred and fifty bids have been mailed to heads of all campus organization, and all last year's Corn Cobs have been invited.

BARB GROUPS PLAN TO MEET THIS WEEK ON BOTH CAMPUSES

Members Arrange for May Breakfast; Choose Big Sister Nominees.

The Barb group meeting for Wednesday noon will be held in the southeast room of Ellen Smith hall under the leadership of Gretchen Budd and Maxine Grossman. Dorothy Beers and Elizabeth Edson will be in charge of Thursday's session at 5, in Social Science room 102. The Ag campus group will arrange their own meeting schedule for this week.

Recommendations made for membership to the Big Sister group, explanation of new plans for attendance, and the checking of activity points in view of the coming May breakfast, will be featured in these meetings.

Dorcas Crawford will be in charge of the sale of tickets for the All-Barb banquet, Wednesday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:30 in Ellen Smith. The deadline for reservations is Thursday at 5, tickets being also sold from 12:30 until 5 on Thursday.

Those wishing to attend are advised to secure their tickets early.

HEALTH OFFICE SHOWS TREATMENT INCREASE

Doctors Predict Less Busy Days as Measles Subside.

2,245 TREATED IN MARCH

Student health doctors and nurses at the university again spent a busy month as a recurring epidemic of measles during March sent patients to the student hospital. Although not equalling February's record for sick days in the infirmary, the report of the health department showed an increase over last month in treatments given to students. Doctors predicted less busy days ahead as patients returned to school.

Days in the infirmary for students numbered 197 in March as compared to 249 of the previous month. Treatments to men increased, however, from 765 to 968; and 488 treatments were given to women as compared to 375 in February.

With the university administration demanding that all employees take physical examinations, the health department found time to make 297 such health inspections. Swimming examinations were given to forty-five students, and civil service examinations to eight. Some 325 prescriptions were filled at the dispensary. At the college of agriculture doctors gave 112 student treatments, and 312 inspections were made at the nursing school. Total numbers cared for by the student health department came to 2,245.

1930 GRADUATE HERE.

A. cabinet also met with the staff to hear Miss Oesterlin.

SECOND PART FRENCH FILM SHOWN APRIL 13

Initial Reception Warrants Next Installment of 'Les Miserables.'

TICKETS SOLD TODAY

With a release date for this country set at April 11, the all-French film, Les Miserables, which comes to Lincoln on April 13, will probably make its United States premiere before local audiences in the Stuart theater at 10 o'clock this Saturday.

Sent out by the International House of the University of Chicago, the movie is part two of the cinema version of Victor Hugo's famous classic, the life-story of Jean Valjean. When the first chapter of the three-section serial was presented here on March 16, six hundred persons viewed the film. The enthusiasm of the audience was sufficient to result in immediate negotiations for the remaining parts.

If reception of the chapter shown Saturday warrants it, the rest of the movie will be brought to Lincoln some time in May, according to Dr. Harry Kury, chairman of the French department, who personally guaranteed the initial presentation. The department also hopes to arrange for a complete series of outstanding French films for next year.

Tickets for Les Miserables will be distributed to salesmen in French classes today, and were also given out yesterday. Selma Goldstein is in charge of ticket sales, and will be assisted by a committee including Joy Hale, Evelyn Diamond, Marjorie Smith and Mary Yoder. Dr. James R. Wadsworth, professor of Romance languages, is in charge of general arrangements.

A ticket-selling campaign will be made on the campus of Nebraska Wesleyan university, in addition to contacting other colleges and high schools in the city and vicinity, several of whom were represented in the audience of the first part of the film.
