

BIBLEMEN STAGE FINAL TUSSLE OF SPRING SATURDAY

If Weather Permits, Gridmen Close Drills With Game In Stadium.

Cornhusker football critics will get their last preview of Nebraska's 1935 gridiron machine this Saturday, unless Old Man Weather falls into another of his tempestuous moods and throws a monkey wrench into the mechanism.

According to the Husker coaching staff, the Memorial stadium front yard is in shape to stage the final contest of the spring training season unless another rain makes the field too soggy for play.

Except for an outstanding drill Monday afternoon, the week's football tactics have been limited to the dirt oval under the east stadium, which is a pretty narrow boundary for a football player anxious to go someplace.

Saturday afternoon's grand finale promises to furnish an outlet for the touchdown enthusiasm manifest in Coach Dana X. Bible's football camp. "The team is in fine shape," stated the overlord of Husker football after the indoor workout Thursday afternoon, "and Saturday should bring a bang-up scrap."

HUSKERS CLASH TODAY WITH MINNESOTA NINE

Knightmen Open Season on Munny Diamond at 4 O'clock.

Husker and Gopher nines will clash today in their first game of the season at Munny diamond, 22 and J, at four o'clock. Activity tickets will entitle bearer to admission to the game.

Coach Frank McCormick left last night with a squad of seventeen Gophers for Lincoln.

Coach Knight will send a team of five veterans, two '34 reserves, and two recruits on the field this afternoon. They are: Trimble, 2b; Orcutt, 1b; Baker, ss; Stenberg, lf; Joyce, of; M. Graham, rf; Carstenson, 2b; Pohlman, c; and Spurlock, pitcher.

A Trinity college (Hartford, Conn.) professor recently missed his first class in nearly thirty years because he thought Washington's birthday was March 22, and took a holiday.

University of New Hampshire (Durham) students studied by candle light in the main library recently when the building was thrown into darkness by a short-circuit.

WHERE OH WHERE IS THE SUN, WAIL 'PA'S' CINDERMEN

Husker Mentor Frets Over Continuation of Bad Track Weather.

FOUR CONTESTS AHEAD

Scarlet Aces Can't Prepare For Coming Outdoor Engagements.

By ARNOLD LEVIN.

The "Indian" looked up and said: "What d'yuh know?"

"Not much, coach," I responded. "That's what I came here to find out. What's new?"

Henry F. Schulte glanced over his sub-stadium track domain, gazed out the paneled upper windows at R. O. T. C. cadets in cramped parade, and spat out: "The weather is—(censored)—"

"I agree. 'My men can't get out,' he boomed. 'I just have to sit here an' hope an' pray that somethin' happens before next week so they can get ready for the Kansas relays. Our hands are tied until it lets up and we can get outdoors again.'"

"So you're goin' to Kansas?"

"Yes, full squad if we can."

If his cindermen can get in shape, the Husker mentor hopes to take a team of 24 or 25 men to Lawrence April 20 for the Kansas relays. But this necessitates the return of Old Sol and his warming influences to Cornhuskerland, and from all appearances the sunny gentleman has decided to take a long vacation.

"Anythin' outstanding in preparation for the meet?"

Coach Schulte looked up and grunted: "Only the weather."

Then he relented somewhat. "But you might say something about Glenn Funk. He ran three-fourths of a mile in 3:11 yesterday."

Versatile Funk.

Funk is "Pa" Schulte's distance man, and, as such, is counted on for a place in the mile or two mile in the Jayhawk meet. While the shorter run is his specialty, he doubles for both when the occasion demands.

"How d'yuh feel, Cardy?"

Schulte asked a well built, good looking athlete.

Lloyd Cardwell, prancing up and down a short stretch on the 60 yard straightaway, stopped and trotted over to his coach's chair.

"Okay."

"Feel like goin'?"

"Yeah."

"Take a few starts and then run a 60."

Cardy trotted to the other end of the stadium, dug starting holes in the soft ground and looked expectantly at Harold Petz, assistant coach. Petz called for Dawson, lined them up at the starting line, and sent the pair chasing down the runway over and over again.

Not any of the Husker squad were out. A few huskies swung around the oval, preparing for time trials.

Tryouts for the team which will carry the Scarlet and Cream colors at Lawrence will take place Saturday, probably indoors. If the cinder outdoor track dries, the trials will take place on it.

Coach Schulte moved his chair to the white line marking the end of the 60-yard measured straightaway. Harold Petz lined up his sprinters at the other end, and inserted cartridges in his blank starting pistol. The racers broke on their first trial, again on the second. Third time is charm, and their spiked feet beat a flying tattoo as Cardy breezed home winner by a yard in 6.5 seconds.

Track activities in the Husker camp are hampered right now by lack of facilities for outdoor training. The cinder track is smeared with puddles of water and the ground of Memorial stadium is too soft for field men to practice.

Fred Chambers, javelin thrower who took second in the Texas relays, has been unable to get out since his return. He slipped while making his placing throw of 189 feet, and has been nursing a bruised shoulder since.

Speed injured.

Coach Schulte is still undecided about using the speedy "Speed" Jacobson at Lawrence for the 100 yard dash. The Trenton, Mo., flash pulled a muscle in his leg and has taken things easy.

Huskers will enter the 880 yard relay and 440 yard medley race for sure at Kansas, with the possibility of adding other relay events. The teams for these two races will be chosen from Kenneth Chapman, Lloyd Cardwell, Jack McGarrugh, Harold Jacobsen, and Lester Pankonin.

Starting with the Kansas relays, the Nebraska scantlys have a full schedule every weekend. The Drake relays are slated for April 26-27; a triangular with Kansas States and Kansas at Manhattan, Kas., for May 4; an outdoor dual with Oklahoma May 11; and the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic association track and field championships May 17-18.

BARBER PRIZE WINNER TO BE NAMED TUESDAY

Classic Student Receives $90 Award for Latin Examination.

Announcement of the winner of the Grover E. Barber Classical prize will be made at the meeting of the Classics club to be held Tuesday, April 16, at 7:30 o'clock in room 204 Morrill hall.

The ward of $90 is being given this year for the first time from a fund left by the donor, a former prominent instructor in the classics department. The examination for the prize was held early in the semester when eight students took tests in Latin sight reading.

Students who had not less than four years of classics study and not more than five years in this study were eligible to take the tests. The decision of the faculty judges headed by Prof. Clarence Forbes of the classics department will be based upon the quality of the papers.

SOONERS SPECULATE CONCERNING ARRIVAL OF NEW GRID COACH

Capt. 'Biff' Jones Will Find 20 Letter Men Waiting Him.

NORMAN, April 11.—What's he like? Does he give seniors a fair shake? Does he carry lots of men on his trips? What system does he use?"

These are a few of the questions Oklahoma football players propound as they eagerly await the arrival of Capt. Lawrence "Biff" Jones, new Sooner football coach, who will come to Norman about April 20 to get acquainted with his players and conduct a short signal clinic.

Several of the Oklahoma players fought hard for the retention of Lewie Hardage and John "Bo" Rowland, their old coaches, whom they thought weren't being fairly treated. But they aren't the type to hold grudges and now that a new mentor is in the saddle, they say they'll give him the same loyalty and support they showed the outgoing coaches.

Jones' appointment has caused a sharp renewal of interest in football at Oklahoma. Several players daily haunt the practice field, Pat Page, 200 pound back, suits up daily and spends an hour punishing the blocking dummy. Babe Wood, freshman back, dons a uniform and kicks and passes to whomever he can get to snag the football.

Announcement that Captain Jones is a devotee of the double wingback formation was good news to all the players, since this formation is easily the most popular used among Oklahoma high schools today and Sooner players, most of whom grew up with it in high school, are glad to see its return.

Captain Jones will find twenty lettermen and a well schooled freshman crop awaiting him, all of whom are anxious to meet him. He'll find Sooner players just like any other players. They like to be led. They like discipline if it's administered by a coach who is fair and whom they are confident knows his stuff. And if they like and respect a coach for his personal qualities, they'll fight their heads off for him.

IOWA STATE GIRDS FOR FIVE DIAMOND GAMES IN SIX DAYS

AMES, Ia., April 11.—The Iowa State college baseball team turned out to practice today in preparation for the toughest schedule assignment in recent years. The immediate schedule calls for five games in six days with the University of Nebraska, State Teachers college and Upper Iowa.

The Cyclone nine presented Coach Joe Truskowski, in his first season as a major college baseball coach, with a 10-2 victory over Simpson college.

The squad leaves soon for Cedar Falls, where it will face the Pedagogues in the afternoon. The team will journey on to Fayette, playing Upper Iowa Friday afternoon, and return to Cedar Falls for a return game Saturday afternoon. With a short rest on Sunday, the State aggregation will face the Cornhuskers in a two-game series Monday and Tuesday.

The new Iowa State master expressed himself as being satisfied with the early season showing made by the boys in the Methodist game. Specially gratifying, was the work of the sponhomers who fill key positions on the team. Maurice Johnson, Le Grand, third-baseman, was one of the leading hitters, while Maurice London, Voville, sophomore right fielder, scored two of the Cyclone tallies. August Krause, Fenton, a catcher on the freshmen team, and transferred of second base this spring, turned in a good all-around game as did Clarence Gustine, another sophomore outfielder from Moline, Snider Alt, rangy newcomer from Des Moines, turned in a good performance on the mound, when he relieved Torvald Holmes, Gilbert veteran.

Bert Aldrich, Ruthven, shortstop, and Waldo Wegner, Everly, outfielder, joined with Johnson to turn in the outstanding hitting performances in the Simpson game. The team as a whole turned in an average of .340 at bat, and was credited with only four errors, despite the fact that it was the first game, and played in chilly weather.

Practices this week will be largely devoted to finding two other pitchers who can be used in some of the five games over the week end. Holmes and Alt will be the first two men used on the road, and it is probable that Glen Smaha, Le Grand sophomore, and Bob Scott, Maxwell reserve from last year, will rank third and fourth. There is also a slight possibility that Smaha might see service in London's right field post.

ALLEN AIMS FOR NEW HIGH HURDLE RECORD

Oklahoma Trackster Points For Low Mark in Annual Kansas Relays.

LAWRENCE, Kas.—The hurdler who changes his form by going over the hurdles with both hands forward instead of one, will come to the Kansas relays April 20 with the hope of bettering his mark of last year when he topped the 120-yard high sticks in 14.4 to equal the records of Sentman of Illinois and the late George Saling of Iowa. This hurdler is Sam Allen of Oklahoma Baptists, who has already this season done the distance in 14.5. A week ago Saturday, at the Texas relays, Allen cut a half-second from the Texas record, bringing it to 14.3, both in the preliminaries and in the finals.

Track critics had called Allen's form perfect, but Coach Victor Hurt was not satisfied, and continued his investigations. He noted that most hurriers bent over the bars with one hand extended forward and the other back, and then reversed the hands for the next hurdle. He felt that the time and effort required to bring the trailing hand forward took time from the race-fractions of a second, but multiplied by the number of hurdles. Accordingly, Coach Hurt persuaded Allen to change his form, and apparently the change is bringing results.

Kansas State is going to be represented in practically every event of the Kansas Relays except the short dashes, and among notable athletes will have Capt. Joe Knappenberger, outstanding hurdler, Justus O'Reilly, of Girard, miler and half miler, who holds the college indoor mile record at 4:20.6, and expects to do around 4:17 outdoors; and Paul Fanning of Melvern, who put the discus 142 feet 7 inches to take fourth at the Texas relays.

The University of Iowa is sending to the Kansas Relays Jimmy Owen, sprinter who has done the 100 in 9.7, and the 220 in 21.6. March 2 he ran sixty yards in 6.1 against Missouri bettering the accepted American record. He is also the Iowa intercollegiate indoor champion at seventy yards.
