

CAMPUSOCIETY

WITH SPRING VACATION START-ing after the last class today, most students are scurrying around to try to find time and a way to go home. Some are planning to arrive at their respective domiciles with an armful of books, go into hibernation, and spend the entire time—all five days of it—studying a whole semester's work in a week, you know. Others have determined to do nothing about the lapse of school except rest—or else find excitement in the way of parties, dances, and all that goes with them. Anyway you look at it, a vacation's a vacation, and a trip's a trip—if you're fortunate enough to be leaving Lincoln and seeing old friends and families is something—so-o-o-o-o-o enjoy yourselves!

THERE ARE some few Cornhuskers who are really planning to go places. Mark Eldridge and Barney Schrept are planning to visit Bob Teeple in Denver, Val Verge and Vic Harman, of Kappa Sigma, will go to Chicago. Bill Ord and John Brown, of Sigma Nu, are making the grand trek to Oklahoma and Indianopolis, respectively. Ruth Brown is having a week end party in Hastings with Alpha Chi O's Maydee Taylor, Marjorie Lauritsen, Flora Ewart, Loretta Kuncce and Ruth Mary Jennings as her guests. Hugh Jeffries and Bill Gargher, Kappa Sigma, are going to Kansas, and Clarence Kersey, from the same house, will leave for Oklahoma. Betty Holland, Alpha Chi O, is going to Kansas City, and Ruth Cathers and Boots Geyer are going to some place in Kansas their destination, Jean Arnold, Virginia Hunt, and Mary Jane French plan to leave for St. Joseph, Missouri.

WHAT'S DOING

Wednesday.
Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae, 6:30 buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Puckett.

Thursday.
Kappa Delta mothers club, 1:30 luncheon at the chapter house.

Saturday.
Pi Beta Phi annual banquet at the Cornhusker.

NEW PLEDGES of Alpha Omicron Pi are Elspeth Leisy of Lincoln and Margaret Phillippe of Basin, Wyoming.

DELEGATES of Sigma Phi Epsilon from twelve chapters in Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Nebraska met at Columbia last week to attend a regional convention. Cornhusker representatives included Victor Roggee, Burke Durkee, Milo Jensen, Clair Watson and Gil Benson. The purpose of the convention was to discuss fraternity management, and the highlight of the whole affair, was a banquet at the Denlie Boone tavern hotel honoring Paul J. Koontz, grand president. Chosen as delegate to the National Conclave in Denver August 1, 2, and 3 was Ron Douglas.

ELECTED to head Sigma Alpha Epsilon for the coming year are Fred Graham, president; Jack Pace, vice president; Webb Mills, recorder; Clark Duncan, warden; Henry Kelp, correspondent; Bill Strong, historian; Bill Ludwick, herald, and Jim Davies, social chairman. *****

AT THE home of Mrs. Leslie Puckett yesterday afternoon, Sigma Kappa alumnae held an informal meeting. Assisting Mrs. Puckett as hostesses were Eleanor Stivy, Evelyn Heston and Mrs. Lynn Rumber, and decorations were carried out in the Easter motif. About twenty five attended the affair.

OF INTEREST to Co-eds who find the spring green Plymouth comfortable to sit in, is the fact that Irving Hill keeps candy in one of the side pockets. Chocolate or gum drops we don't know, but at any rate, they are there for local benefit, and Mr. Hill is what we call a public spirited man.

SINCE Christmas a certain little Gamma Phi pledge has had the pin of George Hoosack of Blue Print, Phi Sigma Kappa fame, the gals and men haven't had candy and cigars yet. It's too bad that the two concerned don't do their duty toward the candy and cigar business and by that one little act, practically end the depression.

NEW PLEDGES of Phi Sigma Kappa are Richard Leask of Fairbury; Kenneth McGinnis of Ord; and Willis Foster of Exeter.

RECENTLY Kappa Sigma added Floyd David of Imperial and Merle Godfredson of Lincoln to the official roster.

OFFICERS elected by Pi Beta Phi Monday night were Ruth Sears, president; Helen Hewitt, vice president; Mary Jane Munger, treasurer; Helen Carey, recording secretary; Pan Mooney, corresponding secretary; and Sancha Kilburn pledge supervisor.

VISITING at the Alpha Xi Delta house for several days is Miss Alice Porgeson, national first vice president of the sorority. Sunday afternoon at the chapter house, members of the active chapter and alumnae entertained at tea honoring Miss Porgeson. Guests invited for the affair included Miss Heppner, Miss Piper, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan, Dr. Williamson, and sorority and fraternity presidents, members of Mortar Board, and campus housemothers. Pink and white roses decorated the serving tables, and Mrs. Ella Marshall, Miss Lulu Runge, Eleanor Worthman, and Dr. Williamson were in the receiving line.

MONDAY evening, at the chapter house, Miss Porgeson was entertained at dinner by the active chapter. Honored guests for the occasion were Prof. and Mrs. A. R. Congdon, Dr. H. L. Allen, Dr. Elizabeth Williamson, and Mrs. Effie L. Scott. Last night, Alpha Xi Delta alumnae met to honor Miss Porgeson at dinner.

MORE STUDENTS going out of town for vacation include Catherine Simpson, Gamma Phi Beta, who will leave for Indianapolis; Lucile Hunter, Tri Delta, going to Denver; Maxine Rutledge and Ethel Mae Morse who will go to Columbia, Mo., and Topeka, Kas.; Leona Shalburn, A. O. Pi and Doris Hogland, Kappa Alpha Theta, both bound for Chicago; Dorothea Kropp, Alpha O, going to Kansas City; Kay McAdams, Tri Delta, who will leave for Casper, Wyo.; and more and more, so many more in fact, that we can't name them all.
