According to a letter received by Ealon Standevan, captain of the local company, from the regimental headquarters, competition will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Each company of the regiment, which includes Pershing Rifle groups in nearby schools, is allowed to enter two squads in the meet to form a platoon for drill.

as the proposed Student Union building, the Student Book Store, and a Student Activities Fee.

Now a senior in the college of Business Administration, at the age of twenty-two, Maynard plans, after graduation, to go to Schenectady, New York, where he will be affiliated with the General Electric Corporation. Attending high school in Colorado Springs, Colorado, developed his interest in winter sports, such as skiing and skating. He was born in Crete, Nebraska, but now lives in Lincoln. Along with his interest in winter sports goes his interest in cards, "but," he said, "don't put that in, because if people read that card-playing is one of my hobbies, they'll expect me to be good at it." He also enjoys movies, but aloofly replied that he didn't care much for dancing. "But don't say I can't dance, now," he warned.

Concluding his list of hobbies, of which he maintains that he has none, is hiking. "I like to hike, but most of the time I'd a little rather drive."

'RASSLING', BOXING ON PROGRAM FOR AG FAIR ATHLETIC EXPOSITION

Dunn Meets Daly in Squared Ring; Flasnck Tackles Wurgler on Mat.

The Athletic Exposition, highlight of the Ag college Farmer's Fair to be held on the Ag campus, Saturday, May 4, will feature two exhibitions of wrestling and boxing ability in a series of grappling and mitslinging matches between university and ag athletes.

Although definite pairings have not yet been concluded, feature bouts in both the wrestling and scheduled and promise to make the exhibit one of the high spots of the Fair.

In the leather whirling competition, Claire Daly will oppose Wes "Dynamite" Dunn in the main pugilistic event of the evening. The two will repeat their last year's feature competition, in which they battled to a three-round draw. A supporting cast includes Lois Schirker, Harold Noolz, Lester McDonald, Mark McAllister, Harold Butler, and others to be added later.

Don "Flash" Flasnck, Husker 165 lb. ace, and Bill Wurgler will tangle in the wrestling feature, competing in an eight minute exhibition bout. Other wrestlers who will be paired later include Everett Brandt, Leonard Focht, DeLoras Manory, Leonard Robinson, Gene Clare, Milo Kottas, Les Brown and Julius Whittman. In addition, a burlesque wrestling bout is expected to furnish the comedy of the athletic presentation.

Discovering that the University of Minnesota (Minneapolis) couldn't afford to send him to the national A. A. U. wrestling meets in Oklahoma, Calson Johnson, heavyweight grappler, started a hitch-hike to the tournament.
