to elect officers-and to initiate new members. Fraternities not getting a feilow into the Klub are already to fear and tremble as to whether there will be someone to carry on the tradition of membership to future brethren, for it's whispered that the organization is powerful in poltics and activities. One group, running true to form, has two members, but others are left without any, and we're wondering just what this will mean in the way of future B. M. O. C.'s. At any rate, it was a grand dinner (heresay evidence) and for the boys whose great expectations were fulfilled-Congratulations.

SEEN ON THE CAMPUS: Hugh Schmidt hunting for a parking place around "U" hall—Claude Flansburg nonchalantly throwing his whole heart and soul into the smoking of a Camel, and then choking-Sancha Kilbourn writing a thank you letter for a birthday present she received in April-Gifford Swensen explaining that the person he had to interview wanted to have a party which, of course, made it rather difficult for him—Louise Dickson responding to the nickname of Horace—Ross Martin meandering toward the S. A. E. house with a very morose expression on his face-Jean Walt explaining by subtle mathematical processes that the Kappas have had forty pounds of candy this year—Jean Doty waving to the Sigma Nu's as she passed in a car Bruce Nicoll elated over the fact that his ten pages of copy were printed, every word, by the World Herald—Betty Barrows being very diplomatic and sweet to group of young things—All the D. U.'s pulling Camels out of flat fifty boxes on account of a man handing them around for nothing at the house— Eva Mae Thomas buried in the pages of The Daily Nebraskan— Little groups of gnats adding their presence to the insect family of the "Rag" office—and Dorothy Chapelow taking pictures out in front of Sosh.
