y Nebraskan

EDITORIAL STAFF

Associate Editor MANAGING EDITORS Virginia Selleck

NEWS EDITORS

BUSINESS STAFF STANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

Continued from Page 1.) erstand and reeks to high heaven of d narrow prejudices, while effectively

vay to progress. Board of Regents, alumni association, gressmen, and friends of the univeronly the approval of the union plan nt body to bend every effort toward it is no less than tragic that an und apathetic minority should block the raskan does not hope to sway huge the union cause but in writing finis to

ANTS

has come," the walrus

good a beginning as last edition of this

this year, There is a

III in writing "30" on the final time, a thrill

ion for a long summer a thrill of regret that passed that has been

back of the past

much has happened

ng remain in that rose-alled memory. To wit:

the University Play-

and finally thrilling to nal few hours of pro-

th as the Un-

nents) and for

delivered up a tid

f the Winchell school

a few orchids and

too, in this, our last

of many things."

present semester and say that we have enjoyed doing this little column and it is our sincere hope that the pleasure has been mutual.

Quoting a favorite line from

LITTLE GODS GALLEY

(Continued from Page 1.)

valuable. And she also thinks she

there were few interests outside the campus and there weren't as many extra-curricular activities to a chance to go to a girls' school for at least one year," she said.

After her graduation she intends to teach physicial education and summer she is going to a Holiday Camp near Leech Lake, in northern Minnesota. While there she will serve as head swimming coun-

When camp is over she's going distract attention.

first nights with all to teach physicial education and to work in summer camps. This

t breathless moment cilor for the junior camp, and will wer of the ROTC have charge of photography in the nany abreast in the senior camp. She will be there for nd finally thrilling to "It makes a wonderful vaca-use way back in those tion," and she ought to know. She

h days; election days has been there eleven times.

When camp is over she's going home to sleep and read for a year, dially; rehearsing for for the life of a phys. ed. major is meeting the important a little exhausting.

Protect

Garments

Your Winter

from Moths

Thoroughly clean your Win-ter Garments, Moths won't bother a cleaned garment. WE CAN STORE garments for you. Many students use this service each year. Your garments will be protected FIRE—THEFT—MOTHS.

Modern

Soukup & Westover

Call F2377 For Service

of the Military Ball; about eight weeks.

dents who may yet be undecided.

1. The building would be a student union in every sense of the word. It would be for all students without discrimination and each one would enjoy equal rights to its use. No special privileges in any way would be tolerated.

2. It would give every student an opportunity to meet his fellow undergraduates, form friendships, engage in some activity if he so desires, and become a real and active part of the student body.

3. The compulsory fee which apparently is the bone of contention would in no case exceed $3. The probability is that it will be much less, especially following liberalization of PWA grant terms. A fee of $1.50 per semester may easily cover the neces-

4. The fee would not be charged until construction of the building is assured. Students would not have to pay for something they had not the opporunity to enjoy. 5. Certain savings such as could be achieved through a union bookstore would go far in reducing the actual extra amount students would be paying.

6. It would unite the student body, give it cohesion and strength, and send forth each year a strong and powerful alumni group to build for a better and stronger University of Nebraska.

It is with regret that the Nebraskan ceases its labors with the union cause still in doubt. As has previously been stated, the issue lies squarely in the hands of the student body. If they want it, most ill become a reality. If they do not its

The nepraskan chooses to believe that intelligent Nebraska students do want the union building. It is with a fervent prayer and a final appeal to this element of the student body to rally behind the efforts, submits the cold facts of the union proposal and push it over the top that the more for consideration by those stu- curtain is drawn on this year's program.

WORKINGS OF STATE

RELIEF ORGANIZATION

(Continued from Page 1.)

Scottsbluff, Fairbury, Falls City,

"With which terse remark I shuts are partly finished with families ty-five large community gardens up, bein' sorry for anythin' I may living on sections, but they are all can be found in the state," White

"We lease individual tracts for got more out of her studies, since opportunity to buy the farmstead approximately 500,000 are actually

The Douglas county acreage is

"I think every girl ought to have 100 families with approximately 8 state director explained, if the garden farming which is carried

Due to the extreme drouth in the rehabilitation division has directed the following programs in addition to the regular rural

Drouth relief for live stock. "You'll have about that."

on a long term easy plan."

on under strict supervision.

schedule:

still under construction.

Browsing Books

(In the absence of Maurice Johnson, who regularly conducts this column, it is written by Miss Eglantine Wermnest of the biology department.)

HAVE just finished reading "The Hills of Delight," by Kathleen Crock Edwards, and I am still thrilled by the warmth of its timely message. Although it is probably not so great and immortal book as Reverend Douglas' "Magnificent Obsession," Mrs. Edwards' splendid new novel has much of the moving soul inspiration we all enjoyed so much in Reverend Douglas' classic.

"The Hills of Delight" is very worthwhile and appealing, and Mrs. Edwards teaches really true Christian doctrine on every blessed page. "The Hills of Delight" rings true. There is none of that awful talk about blood and immoral love and things in Kathleen Crock Edwards' book, I can tell you. It is a moving story of faith that any woman would be proud to review before her church friends-and she wouldn't have to leave out passages, either.

We are all familiar with Kathleen Crock Edwards' fine descriptions of nature's glories, and in "The Hills of Delight" she does not disappoint us by omitting any description of the windblown summit upon which Rachel Forbes and her daughter Ethel make their little home. Mrs. Edwards has deep feeling for nature, charm of the woods, the flowers, and all growing things. She is indeed a true artist.

Oh, I feel that Mrs. Edwards' characters so beautifully portrayed in "The Hills of Delight" are | Crock Edwards' lovely "Hills of Delight."

of live stock feed

and Douglas county. All projects nished with garden seed, and thir-one year to each family with an vital concern to the federal gov-

the family proves adaptable at the of one million families on relief in end of the year, they are given rural areas in the United States, the largest project planned. It will be aitogether taken care of if will be equipped to accommodate the program works out, but, the 1934, the director pointed out, that to seven and in age, from thirty-

a PALM BEACH SUIT

almost presses itself!

five to fifty.

tinue the state

acres to each. Irrigated by wells, work fails, the loss incurred by the land is suitable to intensive government will be excessive.

individual farm and buildings. If ernment, emphasized White.

related.

4. Relief gardens

"In connection with the latter function, 29,000 families are fur-

The rehabilitation program is of residing on farms. The great cost of rehabilitating these families work fails, the loss incurred by the Selection of families to occupy the farmsteads are limited as far as possible in numbers, from four

When asked how long he expected the relief program to con-

"You'll have to ask the president

just as real as my own next-door neighbors. That's just the kind of a book "The Hills of Delight" is, you see. I can't help tellipg you again that it rings true; and it does. Rachel Forbes, the noble figure about whom the tale is woven, is a courageous woman who sacrifices her all to save an erring soul for eternity. Rachel is so strong in her faith and has such fine understanding and wisdom that you cannot help just loving her.

WHY are there so few wholesome writers like Mrs. Edwards and Bess Streeter Aldrich, Gladys Hasty Carroll, Anna Spotswook Beets, and Grace Moore Morton? Even Dorothy Canfield Fisher had to try to be shocking and unpleasant in her book called "Bonfire;" and the things that Pearl S. Buck woman writes about! No wonder the Presbyterians told her what was what.

Yes, give me a book by Reverend Douglas or our own Kathleen Crock Edwards. Mrs. Edwards shows us the eternally absorbing picture of human beings engaged in a double struggle of spirit in "The Hills of Delight"-the inner struggle with their own souls, the outer one with Life and Nature. When we get to know courageous Rachel Forbes we are held by the vividness of her portrait and we find ourselves caring really intensely what becomes of her, and we watch the delicate and truthful unfolding of her heart.

"The Hills of Delight" is like a fresh wind weeping across the sunlit prairie. They can talk about their Ernest Heminghaus, their John Dos Faulkner, their James Joyce, and their Thomas Caldwell, with all their immoral talk. I know what those men write about; I hear what's going on. But if you want a cheery, healthy, sensible story, a novel of true spiritual power, then don't miss Kathleen make a quiet exit along with this L. A. WHITE EXPLAINS purchased under the cattle pur-UNION RECEIVES chasing program of the A. A. A. 3. Purchasing and distributing ADDED FEDERAL FUNDS IMPETUS

(Continued from Page 1.) set-up in the PWA figures, we expect the personal solicitation drive to yield sufficient signers to cinch the much needed student union,'

Fischer concluded. Women students circulating the hams and ob Steifler.

thy Cathers, Joyce Leibendorfer, Hazel Bradstreet, Mary Yoder, Marie Kotouc, Jane Walcott, Jean Walt, Pat Weaverling, and Sancha Kilbourn.

sonal solicitation are: Harold Civin, Arnold Levin, George Pipal, Truman Oberdorff, Ray Madi-son, Willard Burney, Bob Wadson, Willard Burney.

The men helping with the per-

Minquest, Margaret Moran, Row- one woman, and one person of ene Miller, Patricia Vetter, Doro- good moral character.'

petitions during the coming week will be: Theora Nye, Winefred Nelson, Marjorie Bannister, Lucile Berger, Marylu Peterson, Barbara Ind.) reveal that the Purdue charde Putron, Regina Hunkilns, Betty ter states there must be on the Chernoy, Eleanor Clizbe, Catherine board of regents, "One farmer,

STUNNING NEW STYLES For Decoration Day

Ben Simon & Sons

BIOLOGY

AND WHEN THE LECTURE'S OVER

LIGHT UP A PEFUL OF! MILD, MELLOW -

OFFICIAL BULLETIN

Sigma Delta Chi.

This year's last meeting of Sig-ma Delta Chi will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Topics of importance in next year's program for the organization will be taken up. Place of meeting is University hall, room 106.

Pershing Rifles. Members of Pershing Rifles may have their "Pershing Rifleman," national publication of the organization, by calling any time at the military department office, it has been announced.

Wesleyan Glee Club. The Wesleyan glee club will hold a reunion Thursday, March 30 at 5 p. m. at the White building on the Wesleyan campus.

Student Council. Student council will meet "ues-day at 5 o'clock in room 8 c. Uni-

Columbia university (New York City) physicists last year undertook to measure the size of the neutron during the past year. This is one of the newer sub-atomic particles, having mass but no electric charge. Its diameter was fixed at .00000000000001 inch.

YOUR DRUG STORE Est a health producing lunch at the Owl fountain for as low as 150— Grilled lunches which are just a little tastier.

The OWL PHARMACY 148 No. 14th

For You Graduates!

Preserve the memories of this happy event for the future by permitting us to make your portrait in Cap and Gown.

Make an appointment for Commencement day, Monday, June the 10th

Special Prices

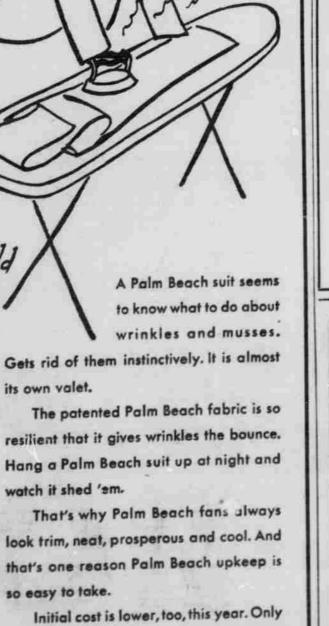

Rinehart-Marsden Photographs

Eleventh and P Streets

FELLOWS KNOW HOW TO USE A SAW ?

Capitol Hotel Building

PRINCE ALBERT

$15.75 for a suit in white or the season's newest colors. Tailored smartly by Goodall.

CINCINNATI

spreme, ringless, clear hose! hat a buy at 59c, or pairs for 1.40.

1213 O Street