

Murmurs By Ray Mur

DESPITE the pastoral beauty of a herd of sheep on the range, a flock of woolies presents an unpleasant picture as it approaches the bed ground just before nightfall.

ORCHIDS are in order for Arndt, the reason being that quick thinking is appreciated from professors. Being late for a class on Friday when student enthusiasm was a bit rampant, Mr. Arndt met his class coming out as he went in.

HE looked at the class critically for an instant and then addressed himself to a nun who was taking his course and had hitherto been a silent actor in the little comedy.

WHO is this guy Cardwell? In the interest of Nebraska's excellent chance at the Big Six title and other laurels, it is here suggested that anyone seeing the above named gentleman reading a newspaper three days before or four days following Saturday will confiscate said paper.

AFTER the game Saturday there was an accident at Thirteenth and R. A motorcycle cop traveling at a terrific pace collided with an auto and was thrown completely over the car.

WHO is this guy Cardwell? In the interest of Nebraska's excellent chance at the Big Six title and other laurels, it is here suggested that anyone seeing the above named gentleman reading a newspaper three days before or four days following Saturday will confiscate said paper.

UNIVERSITY OF BERLIN USES DR. POUND BOOK

German Professor Commends 'Poetic Origins and the Ballad.'

Dr. Louise Pound's book on "Poetic Origins and the Ballad" is being used in the University of Berlin and recently received favorable comment from Dr. Schoenemann, professor in the Berlin university, according to word received from Dr. Victor Royce West, who writes from Wemer, Germany.

Prof. Schoenemann uses Miss Pound's book every other year and finds it thoroughly scholarly and useful, Dr. West writes. He also expressed his pleasure that Dean Roscoe Pound of Harvard, brother of Prof. Louise Pound was to lecture in Berlin this winter.

Thefts Transform Sorority Houses Into Guarded Vaults

Members of the fair sex have long tried to live down the reputation of being weak. They even defiantly maintain a superior air as far as being afraid is concerned, but Dame Rumor has it that sorority houses are being kept under lock and key.

However, in the case of the Chi Omega's the key couldn't be found so Mrs. Martha Halley, chaperon, called the police to stand guard. The Kappa Delta's, with the aid of their house mother, take the best of care of purses, etc. Many other sororities, although they may not care to admit it, are taking like precautions.

In short a mysterious air hangs over the campus in regard to strange happenings during the football game, Saturday. Th Alpha Omicron Pi's and the girls at Howard Hall report the loss of about $146 in cash and a $30 wrist

80 SEEK PLACES ON TWO STAFFS OF CORNHUSKER

60 Wish Editorial Posts; 20 File for Business Department.

49 JOBS ARE AVAILABLE

Yearbook Staff Pleased With Interest in Publication.

Eighty applicants have filed for the forty-nine staff positions on the 1936 Cornhusker in addition to seventy-five freshmen who have volunteered for work, Faith Arnold, editor of the yearbook announced Monday.

"We are very pleased," Faith Arnold stated, "with the large number of people interested in this year's book. With so large a number applying, all may not receive the position for which they filed. However, we invite all who filed to come to the Cornhusker for work. Oftentimes staff vacancies occur and these are filled from the list of active workers."

Senior and junior sections of the book will be directed by a staff and five assistants for each class. There will be appointed an editor and five assistants for the sorority and for the fraternity sections. Posts of five sophomore assistant managing editors will be filled. In addition there will be two organization editors, a man and a woman.

The remainder of the editorial staff will consist of a snapshot editor, men's sports editor, women's sports editor, agricultural editor, and editors for the military department, studio, and intramurals.

Eleven appointments will be made on the business staff, Eugene Bester stated. There will be three sales managers, three circulation managers and five business assistants.

PLAYERS TO SELECT SIX LATE SUCCESSES

'Frat House' by Eberhart, 'Ballard Will Open Season.'

From a list of twelve latest Broadway successes, the University Players will select their six productions for the coming season. Heading this list, which was released Monday by Armand Hunter, assistant business manager of the players, is "Frat House," a Ballard-Eberhart mystery, already chosen for the opening presentation.

Pershing Rifles to Hold Tryouts Today

All men taking basic military drill should remember the tryouts for Pershing Rifles to be held today in Nebraska hall from 4 to 6. Anyone may try out, and Captain John Brain urges anyone who has capabilities in military drill to be present.

SINGING TO FEATURE AG Y.W.C.A. SERVICE

Group singing in the form of a musical vesper, will feature the first worship service of the ag Y. W. C. A., to be held Tuesday at 12:20 in the Home Ec parlors. New girls on the Holdrege campus have been issued a special invitation to attend by Margaret Deeds, president of ag Y. W. C. A.

Miss Ann Dudack Visits Architecture Library

Miss Ann Dudack, librarian at the University of Denver School of Commerce visited the department of architecture library while she was the week end guest of Pearl Joan Cosgrave, department of architecture librarian.

THE CORNHUSKER

(It is a Nebraska custom to stand with heads bared during the singing of the Cornhusker.) Come a runnin', boys. Don't you hear that noise Like thunder in the sky. How it rolls along, in the good old song, For the sons of Ne-bras-ki. Now it's coming near with a rising cheer That will sweep all foes away. So with all our vim, we are bound to win, And we're going to win today—

CHORUS. For Nebraska and the Searlet, for Nebraska and the Cream, Tho they go thru many a battle, our colors still are seen. So in contest and in victory we will wave them for the team. And 'twill always stir a Cornhusker— The old Searlet and the Cream.

Lyman Says Health Of Students Better In Depression Years

Hard times make for better health, at least among students of the University of Nebraska, claims Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the college of pharmacy and director of student health service.

"It is my personal observation," stated Dr. Lyman, "that the general health level of the student body at this university has risen each year since the beginning of the depression. Less dissipation as a result of restricted finances is undoubtedly the cause."

While the student health service of the university has handled annually a greater number of cases in the past few years, this is not to be considered an indication of poorer student health but the result of increased enrollment and additional medical examinations required of students doing federal work.

"I am afraid that continued legal use of liquor will adversely affect student health within a very few years," warned the pharmacy dean, long a foe of alcoholism.

STUDENTS ENROLL FOR NIGHT CLASSES OCT. 7

New Courses in Business Finance, English on Schedule.

Night classes at the University of Nebraska, under the direction of the extension division, will begin Oct. 7 with registration lasting until Oct. 12. Two entirely new courses are being offered this year. Professor Clifford M. Hicks will direct a class in Business Finance, which is suitable for both those in charge of business firms and those who may be investors.

Miss Ruth Odell, instructor in English, will offer for the first time at a night class, English 25, a history of English literature.

The course in public speaking, which is being offered again this year, will be held at the Chamber of Commerce once a week during the noon hour. People attending night classes will also have the opportunity of taking a course on General Physiology, one on Criminology and another on the Curriculum of the Secondary School.

Night courses to be repeated this year are: Accounting, Advertising, Algebra, American History, American Indian, Art, Astronomy, Business English, Business Law, Business Management of Schools, Business Forecasting, Descriptive Geometry, Clay Modeling, Dramatic Interpretation, Drawing, Economics, Education, English Composition, English Literature, European History, French, Geography, German, Harmony, History, Home Nursing, and Journalism.

Juvenile Art, Juvenile Interpretation, Literature, Marketing, Mechanical Drawing, Mental Hygiene, Middle English, Music Appreciation, Novel, Nutrition, Painting, Personal Hygiene, Pottery, Practical Arts, Psychology, Public Finance, Public Speaking, Sculpture, Salesmanship, School Organization, Short Story Writing, Social Psychology, Spanish Standardized Testing, Statistical Methods, Trigonometry, Voice Methods, and Woodwork.

Group singing in the form of a musical vesper, will feature the first worship service of the ag Y. W. C. A., to be held Tuesday at 12:20 in the Home Ec parlors. New girls on the Holdrege campus have been issued a special invitation to attend by Margaret Deeds, president of ag Y. W. C. A.

Ila Fern Hallstrom, vice-chairman, will lead the service and speak on the topic, "Our Task."

Miss Mildred Green, new secretary of the university Y. W. C. A., will be introduced to the girls.

Miss Ann Dudack, librarian at the University of Denver School of Commerce visited the department of architecture library while she was the week end guest of Pearl Joan Cosgrave, department of architecture librarian.

DAILY NEBRASKAN BEGINS CAMPAIGN FOR CAMPUS PEP

One Husker Song to Appear In Each Issue for Two Weeks.

LEARN SCHOOL CHANTS

Clubs Blame Dormant Spirit On Ignorance of School Yells.

Starting today, the Daily Nebraskan initiates a campaign to raise Cornhusker spirit, pep and enthusiasm to the highest possible point. In order to accomplish this end, one Husker song or yell will appear in each successive issue of the paper for two weeks.

"Since the pep organizations have not taken advantage of the columns of the paper to develop a pep campaign to bolster up the sadly lacking spirit which is prevalent at Husker football games, the Nebraskan will attempt to make the campus Nebraska minded," declared Jack Fischer, editor.

UNIVERSITY PLAYS PART IN PROGRAM HISTORICAL GROUP

Professor and Graduates Talk at Two Day Convention.

Members of the university faculty and graduates of the university will take part in the two day program of historical meetings under the sponsorship of the Nebraska State Historical society and the Native Sons and Daughters of Nebraska on Oct. 4 and 5, A. E. Sheldon, superintendent of the state historical society announced Monday.

Prof. W. H. Brokaw of the Nebraska faculty will speak on the afternoon of Oct. 4 on the conservation of the natural resources of Nebraska. The place of the school in Nebraska building will be discussed by Charles Bowers, secretary of the Nebraska State Teachers association.

In the evening, Miss Mari Sandoz, winner of the 1935 Atlantic Monthly $5,000 prize contest, will speak on "From the Sandhills of the Niobrara to the Hills of Boston."

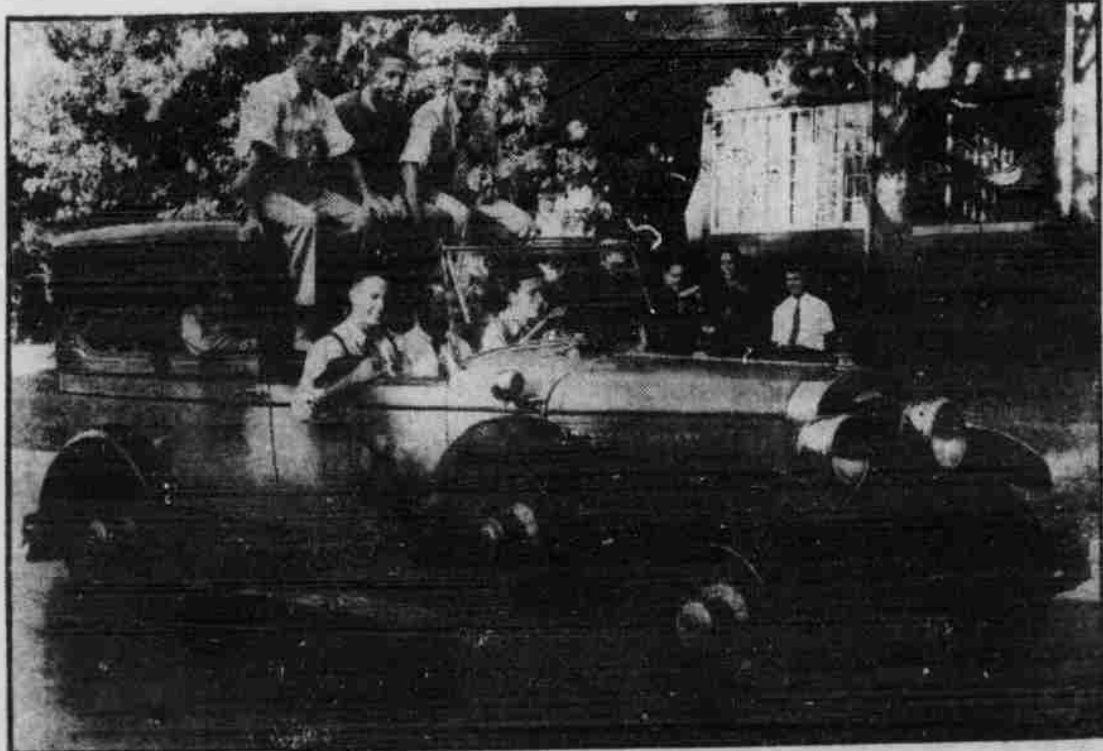

Pictures and drawings from the Nebraska FERA art exhibit will be shown by Ernest F. Witte, graduate of the university and now Federal Relief Administrator for Nebraska.

MGM Offers Jobs to Nebraska Architects

Go Hollywood, young architect! Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has openings for talented young sketch artists, architects, and draftsmen to work on sets or costumes, according to a letter received this week by Linus Burr Smith, chairman of the department of architecture.

Graduates or students interested in motion picture work may communicate with John Horkrider, art director of the MGM studios, sending a sketch or picture set drawing as an example of their work. Professor Smith will furnish further details.

Chi Phi Cadillac in Full Dress

C. P. C., Inc.—the Chi Phi Cadillac and all the boys. The elegant of the elegantest of vehicles is this sixteen cylinder, bullet punctured, street-car long vehicle. It's got all the advantage of a bus with the orderliness of a town car; seats from ten to fourteen with comparative ease and sixteen (one for every cylinder) on a pinch; and is graced with the Red and Blue of the Chi Phi emblem on one door, and three awe inspiring bullet holes on the other. Ask the boys for a ride—from the back seat you might see the road in front, if you're tall enough.

ETCHING EXHIBIT TO VISIT LINCOLN OCT. 4

T. H. Benton, Curry, Wood Represented In Display.

Etchings by artists of national fame will be brought to the Fine Arts Galleries at Morrill Hall by the Philadelphia Association of Etchers, in their traveling exhibit which will be in Lincoln from Oct. 4 to 25.

Prominent midwestern artists who will be represented are Thomas Hart Benton, John S. Curry, and Grant Wood. Other artists exhibiting include John E. Costigan, John Taylor Arms, and Luigi Lucioni, whose realistic still life "Arrangement in White" is a much admired possession of the Department of Fine Arts.

Faculty exhibition now in Gallery A in Morrill Hall will be continued until Oct. 3.

DR. LEWIS, MICHIGAN BIOLOGICAL CHEMIST, TO TALK HERE OCT. 7

Pharmacy College Director To Discuss 'Vitamins And Hormones.'

Dr. Howard B. Lewis, prominent University of Michigan biological chemist, will address the American Chemical Society in its first meeting of the year, Monday evening, Oct. 7, according to an announcement by Dr. H. A. Pagel of the chemistry department.

"Vitamins and Hormones" will be the subject discussed by Dr. Lewis, who is director of Michigan's college of pharmacy and also president of the American Biological Society.

The speaker will attempt to show in a general way how the knowledge of these two subjects has developed from opposite angles and how chemists are now beginning to integrate these two fields of knowledge, Dr. Pagel pointed out.

The meeting is open to the public and admission is free.

OPENING GAME CROWD SETS NEW HIGH MARK

About 26,000 Attend Husker Chicago Game Last Saturday.

Approximately 26,000 sport fans crowded the memorial stadium Saturday afternoon when the Cornhuskers entertained the university of Chicago, setting a new high for season opener crowds, according to John K. Sellick, director of student activities.

Capacity of the stadium is 29,500, and the top crowd of the year is expected to witness the Nebraska-Gopher battle. With Chicago's scalp in her belt, the added drawing power will insure a sell-out, predicts Mr. Sellick.

Over 5,000 reserved seat tickets remain for the Minnesota game, and will be on sale for the remainder of the week. When these are sold out, additional bleachers will be erected at the north end of the stadium to accommodate the expected overflow.

Engineering Group Elects Wayne Thurman President

Wayne Thurman was elected president of the Student Branch of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers at the first meeting of the group recently.

The organization chose Mervin Samuelson, vice president, and Vernon Keller, secretary-treasurer. The club will meet the first and fourth Tuesdays of each month for the remainder of the year.

STUDENT COUNCIL PLANS TO REVIVE BIG SIX MEETINGS

Chairman Marylu Peterson Asks Cooperation of School Leaders.

POSTPONED LAST SPRING

Committee Hopes to Solve Mutual Problems in Conference.

Revival of plans for a Big Six conference of Student Council representatives was inaugurated Monday when Marylu Peterson, chairman of the conference committee of the Student Council, sent out letters to presidents of student bodies of the conference schools requesting cooperation in planning a convention.

"The conference is being arranged so that the student governing bodies at the surrounding universities may exchange ideas which are being worked out successfully at their respective schools," Miss Peterson pointed out. "Every school has its troubles, and this proposed gathering, it is hoped, will help to iron out these difficulties."

Postponed Last Spring. Last spring the Nebraska council attempted to call a meeting of the heads of the Big Six schools, but late replies necessitated a postponement of this project until this fall. Although the conferences have been held in previous years, recently the idea has been dropped.

"Mutual problems have been troubling the schools in this vicinity for many years such as the securing of first rate dance bands for major social functions," Miss Peterson continued, "and by joining hands the institutions will most likely be able to work out a plausible scheme for solving such troubles."

To Pool Problems. It is believed that thru such cooperation many projects, which the councils have tried to put over singly and failed, would become realizations if their efforts were pooled.

Student Council officials expect replies in the near future, and action will be based upon these answers. In the letters the presidents are being asked their preference for the date of the conference. The council will try to set a date which will be acceptable to all, according to Miss Peterson.

Other members of the conference committee are Mary Yoder and Jack Fischer.

POYNTER TO ADDRESS NU-MEDS WEDNESDAY

Organization to Announce Committees After Speech.

Outlining the pre-med requirements for admission to medical college, Dean C. W. M. Poynter of the medical college at Omaha will speak at a banquet of the Nu-Meds at 6:15 o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 2, at the Grand Hotel.

All new pre-med students are especially urged to attend the year's first gathering. Dr. Wade, adviser of the organization, stated. An important business meeting will be held following Dean Poynter's talk, and new committees will be appointed.

Officers to head the Nu-Meds for the coming semester are Joe Redfield, president; Loretta Kunce, vice president; Fred Webster, secretary-treasurer, and Sam Swenson, news reporter.

CORN COBS TO MEET WITH PLEDGES OCT. 2

Neophytes Must Attend With Pledging Fee.

New pledges of Corn Cobs, men's pep organization, will attend their first meeting at 7:15 Wednesday evening, Oct. 2, in Room 8, U hall. President Ted Bradley announced that all pledges must be present and must bring their pledge fees.

A further discussion of possible means of finance will be taken up, and Bradley stated that the sale of Awgwan subscriptions will be considered in addition to the sale of pennants at football games. He will also urge full cooperation by both old and new men in the rally to be held Friday evening as a "spirit-imbiber" for the Iowa State game.

Grubb, Sturdevant Speak At District Dental Meet

Dr. A. A. Grubb, dean of the dental college, and Dr. R. E. Sturdevant left Monday morning to attend a district dental convention at Norfolk. Dr. Grubb will deliver a talk on "Thermal Tests," and Sturdevant will speak on "Gold Casting." They plan to be gone for several days.