

CAMPUSOCIETY

ANOTHER GREAT TREK ACROSS the country, but this time it's not in a covered wagon; it's via train or car. It's not going to take a month to cross the prairie, either, for if the special train comes through on schedule, loyal Cornhuskers should arrive in Kansas in half a day. The purpose of the wholesale migration is, however, the same—the conquering of western lands, and the thing that spurs our team on to victory more than anything else is wholehearted support from the student body. So when we go to Kansas, let's really get going! Let's make Nebraska's chant just as inspiring as Kansas State's, and when the Cornhusker rings across the field, let's make it ring, not whisper.

SEEN ON THE CAMPUS: Dr. Van Royen scurrying out of the library with a big red book labeled China hugged closely... Ditty Perkins being called upon to tell of the peanut politics on the campus by Mr. Lancaster...Booie Bishop, president of Alpha Phi, telling the pledges that they were perfectly free to take meek night, but in this rainy weather they'd better take their raincoats along (crushed faces, the gratifying result)...Ross Martin going "col-litch" on us in a floppy suede jacket and a checkered wool tie...Sarah Meyer quietly remarking that her father is a Beta after listening to a trade on inhuman qualities of that particular fraternity...John Edwards exhibiting with great pride the Agway's new Royal...Kappa Sigs in good spirits, filling two booths at the Moon...and Natalie Rehlander and Louise Magee eating lunch with Charles Reilly.

IN TOWN at the Kappa Sig house is Merche Keys, alumnae from Hyannis.

AT THE C. Y. O. hall tonight, Newman club will give a party honoring all Catholic students and friends. Chaperons for the affair are Colonel and Mrs. F. A. Kidwell, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Shinn, and Reverend Obrist. William Donahue is in charge of arrangements.

ACACIA'S going to the game in Kansas are Jack McKinney, Don Michaelson, Dick Sain, Roy Kennedy, Jean Gallant, Joe Redfield, Freddie Chambers, and Rodney Chase. Lambda Chi's making the same little journey are Ernest Chase, Wynn Tolbert, Jim Lindell, Derrell Stevensen, Frank Griffee, Kenneth Kerst, Russell Bracker, and Raymond Blossie.

Opinion on Campus Decrees University Needs New Song

"We need a new song!" This was the answer given by every person approached on the question of university songs by representatives of the Daily Nebraskan. It was a unanimous decision rendered by everyone from the greenhouse keeper to two small colored grade school boys who were caught and questioned as they crossed the campus.

"We all know the Nebraska songs; we all sing them; and we're all getting mighty tired of them," said the Lincolnites. "We need a new song. A peppy, marching song, with short words and a catchy tune" they further insist.

Will the song contest the Innocents and Mortar Boards are sponsoring with the help of the Daily Nebraskan bring forth the needed song? Perhaps. Students stopped in the streets and on the campus disagreed as to this.

"I don't see why they shouldn't," said Martha Cah, sophomore. "A contest like this ought to interest the students, and if enough write songs, there's bound to be a good one written."

"I did not know a contest was going on," said Paul Sprout, also a sophomore, pausing on his way home to dinner to consider the matter. "The songs we have sound O. K. to me anyway."

Most of the faculty and all of the men who work around the campus lawn know the music to the Nebraska songs, even if they do not know the words. Lincoln high boys and girls without exception know both. Why? They learn them in music classes in school.

The song contest continues. Entries pour in. But there is always room at the top, and the Daily Nebraskan promises that no entry will be overlooked. Who is going to write the first song? Who will win the $20.

THIRD IN MEMBERSHIP TEA SERIES ARRANGED

100 New Girls Expected to Attend Y.W. Affair Friday.

Third of a series of membership teas for all new university women will be held in Ellen Smith hall Friday, Oct. 18, from 4 to 5. About 100 girls are expected to attend, and have the opportunity to acquaint themselves with the work of the "Y," and with its various cabinet and staff members. Guests will be able to sign up for freshmen commission groups or staffs, and to take a membership in the organization.

Hostesses will be Mary Edith Hendricks, chairman of the project staff; Anne Pickett, leader of freshmen commission chairmen; Gayle Caley, in charge of the finance staff; and Eleanor Clisbe, chairman of the membership staff. These girls will be assisted by their staff members.

Anyone unable to attend the tea today, will have a chance to come to a similar function on Thursday, Oct. 24 from 4 to 5.

BAPTIST GIRLS PLAN ANNUAL NIGHT PARTY

Foreign Games to Furnish Entertainment for Affair.

Baptist girls and their friends are invited to attend the annual girl's party to be held at the Baptist Student House, at 1440 Q street, Saturday evening.

The evening will take on an international aspect, with table games of several foreign countries occupying the first part of the evening. Other high lights in the program will be a violin trio by Misses Lois and Twyla Ogle, and Miss Della Kraemer with a talk by Mrs. Ray E. Rice on The Life of the Native Girl in Italy.

WOMEN RESUME PLAY OF INTRAMURAL GAME

Tri Delt Defeat Thetas in Soccer-Baseball Tourney Thursday.

Play in the Women's intramural soccer-baseball tournament was resumed Thursday on the field east of Social Science when Raymond Hall played the Ag Boarding club and the Tri Delt met Kappa Alpha Theta. The Tri Delt defeated the Thetas 5 to 3 after a closely contested match. Raymond Hall was forced to default to the Ag club because of lack of players.

Raymond Hall won by making a 20 to their opponents 6. Bonnie Spangard's ease in knocking home runs was largely responsible for the final outcome. Albina Nemcova, a Czechoslovakian exchange student, from Raymond Hall rewarded the last-minute coaching of her teammates by bringing in a score.
