

PROGRESSIVES SCORE VICTORY

SONG 'NEBRASKA VICTORY' CHOSEN IN POPULAR VOTE

600 Participants in Selecting University Fight Anthem.

35 COMPETE IN CONTEST

Miss Hornberger Receives Winning Prize of $20.

Out of the 600 votes which were cast in the Cornhusker song contest, "Nebraska Victory," written by Marjorie Hornberger, 13, was the choice of the student body. Mrs. Hornberger will receive a prize of $20, it was announced Tuesday.

The contest was sponsored by members of Innocents and Mortar Board, senior honoraries, with the cooperation of The Daily Nebraskan. Thirty-five entries were submitted, and Eddie Jungbluth and Wilbur Chenoweth acted as judges. They chose three tunes, "Rally Nebraska," "Forward Nebraska," and "Nebraska Victory." These songs were played by the band at the Oklahoma-Nebraska game Saturday and sung by Innocents, Mortar Board, Tassels and Corncobs. Students voted on ballots distributed at the game and printed in The Daily Nebraskan.

TASSELS ELECT TWO MEMBERS AT MEETING

Jane Pennington and Aline Mullikan Join Pep Organization.

Jane Pennington and Aline Mullikan were elected to membership in Tassels at the regular meeting Tuesday evening in Social Science 105.

The two new members are from Carrie Bell Raymond Hall and were chosen to fill the two additional places in the organization given to Raymond Hall at an earlier meeting. Formerly the dormitory representation has been three girls.

Eugene Pester, business manager of the Cornhusker, was present at the meeting and recorded sales of the yearbook by the Tassels for the first two days of the annual campaign. He announced that the Cornhusker was awarded first class honor rating last year and that the book this year will be about the same size and will contain more pictures.

Margaret Phillippe will be chairman of the balloon sale for the Homecoming game, and Jane Walcott was appointed to take charge of the publicity for the sale.

A letter from Dean Thompson referring to the class disturbances on Friday Oct. 11, was read, recommending that the cooperation of the various organizations contributing to student government, be given the faculty, to prevent more disturbances in the future. A reply to the Dean's communication will be sent, from the Tassels, eliciting their support.

Elizabeth Shearer, president, presided. The next meeting will be held at 7:30 Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, in Social Science, room 105.

700 N MEN INVITED HOMECOMING DINNER

Classes of 1901-1910 Will Be Specially Honored At Reunion.

Over 700 letters are being sent to former N men this week, inviting them to the homecoming banquet of all Nebraska letter men, to be held at the coliseum Saturday noon, Nov. 9. The dinner is to be informal, with a get-together afterwards.

N men of 1901 to 1910 are to be especially honored at this reunion. Lester Pankonin, who is in charge of sending out the invitations, said the letters are being sent to men of classes as far back as 1890.

An informal meeting, with perhaps a few short talks, is to start at 11:30, followed by the banquet. Leon and Linus Carroll will give a piano duet at that time. Another informal gathering will be held until 2 o'clock, at which time most of the members will attend the Kansas game.

MISS HASTINGS TO SPEAK AT FIRESIDE

Student Representative of Missionary Group Here Friday.

Jean Hastings, a representative of the twelfth quadrennial convention of the Student Volunteer movement, will be in Lincoln this Friday. Miss Hastings is a graduate of Mount Holyoke, receiving her A. B. degree magna cum laude, in 1935.

Her chief interest has been centered in the Christian task of the present student generation. She is a descendant of three generations of missionaries to India, including among these the names of Ballantine, Fairbanks, Beale, and Home. As a result of this background, she is fully prepared to address student and church groups in Lincoln. A supper and fireside discussion will be held at the Hi-Y building at 6 p. m. Friday, so that students may have an opportunity to meet Miss Hastings. Arrangements for the supper are in charge of Gladys Klapp, conference chairman.

THOMPSON KILLS CAMPUS RUMORS NYA COMPLAINTS

Dean Says Received Only Few Calls Regarding Administration.

Rumors regarding blatant criticism of the university NYA by students and associates were spiked by Dean T. J. Thompson Tuesday. In an interview the dean stated that calls from only two students and two housemothers were received regarding supposed inefficient administration.

NYA headquarters reports that student payments were delayed by a complex checking process were unauthorizedly seconded by the dean's office.

According to headquarters officials, the NYA Lincoln administration has received quotations from the university regarding the amount due each student, but that these elongated reports are not yet out of the auditing department. After thorough examination here, they will be sent to the treasury branch for further examination and payment.

Dean Thompson stated as perhaps "somewhat exaggerated" reports that students were forced to drop courses because of lack of funds, but contended that that element has always been present in the university.

"Generally speaking," he said, "the condition of our students is much improved over that of previous years, 1932 for instance."

NYA funds have been sent to several out-state colleges and high schools.

DR. EBAUGH TALKS AT SOCIAL CONFERENCE

Faculty, Students Invited To Attend Lectures at Convention.

Dr. Franklin Ebaugh, director of the Colorado psychopathic hospital, will speak before the State Conference of Social Work at the Lincoln hotel, Thursday, Oct. 21, at 8 o'clock on the subject, "Proposed Mental Hygiene Program for the State of Nebraska."

Dr. Ebaugh is nationally known for his work in the field of mental hygiene and psychiatry and his talk should be of interest to faculty members and students who are invited to attend.

On Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Howard Hunter, regional director of the FERA of Chicago will discuss "Present Trends in the Public Welfare Program." The talk will be given in the Venetian room of the Lincoln hotel.

Epp Answers Criticism on Student Housing Situation

Criticism of student housing facilities near the university by "A. C." in a student pulse in Tuesday's Nebraskan was answered today by J. D. Epp, director of the student employment bureau, who charged that good rooms may be found if the roomers will go outside a small radius of a few blocks from the campus.

In his editorial contribution, "A. C.," attacked the condition of dingy rooming houses and proposed a dormitory system. "Such a system would indeed be an improvement," Mr. Epp declared, "but it takes legislative action and appropriations to conduct a building program."

"The difficulty of Nebraska's situation is that people owning the rooming houses near the campus don't want to put money into

OCTOBER NUMBER AWGWAN HAS GRID THEME FEATURED

Humor Magazine Ready for Campus Distribution This Morning.

THREE FEATURES ADDED

Four Artists Contribute to New Issue; Brink Writes Short, Short Story.

Awgwan's October issue, in featuring a football theme, goes on sale at campus newsstands this morning at 11 o'clock. Stands for university students will be placed in Social Science and Andrews Hall.

Features in the gore section in this edition is a special column entitled, "Campus Research," disclosing popular haunts where students may park in their spare time. This column was conducted by Bill Hollister.

A review of motion pictures and a book review have been added as attractions in the department "On and Off the Campus." In addition to these features a page of caricatures of campus types drawn by Lewis Cass will be found in the magazine.

The modernistic cover carrying out the theme with the picture of a halfback running down the field, was designed by Marjorie Hatten. Other cartoons appearing in the publication were submitted by Lewis Cass, Lee Young, Gilbert Golding, and Helen McMonies.

Candid Camera.

Among the contributions for the short, short story section in this issue "The Love Letter" by Melvin Brink will be published along with other special writings of Marjorie Souder, Margaret Anderson, and Herbert Palmer. Regular departments including the works of the candid cameraman, fashions, and the editorial page will complete the Awgwan for October.

Block subscriptions will be delivered Wednesday morning, at the same time news stand sales start, according to John Jarming, business manager of the humor publication.

SPEER PLEASED WITH PRESENTATION PLANS

Contest for $15 Skit Prize Will Be Continued Until Nov. 9.

Urging students to submit ideas for a presentation of the honorary colors, Major C. E. Speer, faculty member in charge of the presentation committee, announced Tuesday that the plans which had already been submitted in the competitions are excellent.

"We are very pleased with the ideas which we have received," he stated. "They're original and nothing like them has ever been used on the campus before. However, we are anxious to receive a greater number and variety of skits, because we want this to be one of the finest presentations that has ever been given."

All ideas must be submitted to Miss Eva Littrell in the military department by Saturday, Nov. 9. The author of the winning idea will receive a prize of fifteen dollars.

In case of ties, the idea which is most completely developed, will be selected, members of the committee indicated. Judges also reserve the right to split the prize.

Members of the presentation committee are James Harris, Gene Pester, Richard Rider, Dwight Perkins, Jack Nicholas, John Chalmers and Richard Fischer.

Husker-Tiger Bell Follows Scarlet on Trip Into Mizzou

BY MORRIS LIPP.

The traditional trophy of Nebraska-Missouri football classes will be taken to Columbia, Mo., for the game Saturday by the Innocents Society. Winner of the gridiron battle this week will become possessor of the famous Husker-Tiger Bell and will retain the coveted and prized trophy until its opponent registers a victory in a future game. During each Nebraska-Missouri game, the bell will be on display on the sidelines of the field. Like the famed Brown Jug of the annual Michigan-Minnesota football games, the Husker-Tiger Bell carries with it the aged tradition of these two football teams which have battled on the gridiron since 1892.

Before the bell was secured as an emblem of genuine good will and respect the Innocents Society of Nebraska and the Student Federation of Missouri held for each other, it belonged to a colored church in Seward, Neb.

Phi Delta Theta and Delta Tau Delta fraternities of the Nebraska campus took the bell from the rural church in 1898 when the two fraternities were living together. Since then the two Greek letter organizations have built separate houses and the bell became the inspiration of an ancient and friendly feud between the two fraternities.

Each year the bell is the cause of a slight commotion on the campus when one fraternity usually makes away with it and keeps it in hiding until the next spring. This good-natured rivalry ceased when it was agreed to present it as a prize to the winner of the annual clash between Nebraska and Missouri on the gridiron. Use of the bell as an annual trophy was inaugurated in 1927 when it was first presented to Missouri for their 7 to 6 victory over the Huskers. A bronze plaque "Missouri 7-6 1927" was in-laid in the frame of the table which supported the famed bell. Each succeeding year such a plaque has preserved the record of that year's outcome. Nebraska has retained the bell since 1927.

Here is what Henry F. Schulte wrote concerning the bell: "Because of the fine games from 1922 to 1927, Nebraska folk liked the Missouri folk. I could sense an undercurrent of strong appreciation and an apparent willingness to do something about it. I cast around for some means of crystallizing this feeling which I thought was reciprocated by the good Missourians."

"It happened that two fraternities on the campus here had been scrapping for a dozen years or more over some old cracked bell. We got hold of the old bell, cast a

W. secretary, addressed the group on "Y Contact Every Coed."

Special guests at the banquet were Mrs. E. A. Burnett, Miss Amanda Heppner, members of the Y. W. advisory board and student cabinet.

Announcement of the meeting of all executives, captains, and workers, Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 5 o'clock, in Ellen Smith hall, was made by Gayle Caley, and its importance stressed.

DENTAL PROFESSORS TO ATTEND CONCLAVE

Five Faculty Members Plan Trip to New Orleans for Convention.

Faculty members of dental college planning to attend the American Dental Association at New Orleans, are Dr. B. L. Hooper, Dr. H. Schmidt, Dr. J. C. Brauer, Dr. R. C. Spencer, and Dr. F. A. Pierson. Dr. Hooper and Dr. Schmidt are leaving for New Orleans today to attend a prosthodontic meeting prior to the American Dental Association. Dr. Hooper will show a colored motion picture film relating to "Immediate Denture Construction."

Dr. Spencer is going as a delegate to the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity and will be in the house of delegates at the national meeting. Dr. Brauer chairman of the college committee of the American Society for the Promotion of Dentistry for Children, will give a college committee report. He has completed a survey of the United States and Canadian schools pertaining to child dentistry. Dr. Brauer is to give a clinic at the dental meeting and will deliver a talk before the Jesuit High School assembly, in New Orleans. Those attending the dental meeting expect to be gone about ten days.

Miss Sanderson Sings For Modern Woodmen

Henrietta Sanderson, who studies with Maude Fender Gutzmer, contributed a group of songs for the program of the Modern Woodmen Tuesday. Kermit Hansen, also a student of Mrs. Gutzmer, sang for the professional men's club Saturday night at the Lincoln hotel. Marguerite Klunk accompanied him on the piano.

PIPAL, MARVIN WIN AT POLLS TUESDAY

Students Cast More Than 2,000 Votes at Election Of Honorary Colonel, Nebraska Sweetheart, Junior, Senior Class Presidents.

300 STUDENTS GO TO POLLS ON AG CAMPUS

Amendment to Strike Out Delinquency Clause for Council Membership Passed by Large Majority, Says Hill.

By a decisive margin, Progressives walked off with the two offices of junior and senior class presidents in a record-smashing vote at the polls Tuesday. The vote was probably the largest that has ever been cast on the campus, according to Prof. E. W. Lantz, student council faculty sponsor. More than 2,000 students voted.

James Marvin was chosen senior class president by a vote of 220 over James Heldt's 209. George Pipal scored 303 votes to Bob Shellenberg's 183 to win the position of junior class president.

KLUB COMMITTEE REVIEWS STUNTS IN FIRST JUDGING

Eight Skits Submitted for Kosmet Inspection Tuesday.

Eight of thirty-four skits which have been submitted by fraternities and sororities for a place in the 1935 fall Kosmet Klub show were subjected to a preliminary judging Tuesday evening by members of the judging committee. Twelve more will be reviewed this evening and eleven on Thursday.

The judges, including Clayton Schwenk, Richard Schmidt, Bill Garlow, Carl Wiggernhorn, Bob Pierce, and Bill Marsh, have set the following schedule for this evening's judging period: 7:00—Phi Mu; 7:15, Alpha Xi Delta; 7:30, Kappa Kappa Gamma; 7:45, Chi Omega; 8:00, Sigma Alpha Iota, 8:15, Orchesis; 8:30, Phi Kappa Psi at 8:00; Phi Delta Theta; 9:00, Delta Upsilon; 9:15, Acacia; 9:30, Kappa Sigma, and 9:45, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Among the organizations whose skits were judged last evening are: Alpha Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi, Pershing Rifles, Zeta Beta Tau, and Phi Sigma Kappa. Those to be reviewed on Thursday evening are: Alpha Chi Omega at 7:00, Delta Gamma at 7:15, Sigma Alpha Epsilon at 7:30, Phi Kappa Psi at 8:00, Delta Sigma Lambda, 8:15, Alpha Tau Omega, 8:30; Beta Theta Pi, 8:45; Alpha Sigma Phi, 9:00; Lambda Chi Alpha, 9:15; and Chi Phi, 9:30.

Clayton Schwenk, president of the Kosmet Klub, after last night's judging, stated: "We must urge all groups to be reviewed to be ready for the judges at the exact time of their appointment. Punctuality must be observed. Also, before we will so much as consider anyone's skit, those taking part must know the Nebraska Sweetheart song, for we are determined to make the ceremony in which this year's sweetheart is presented the impressive one it should be."

It was also announced by Schwenk that it will be necessary for all the skits to be very close to the finished product. Although this preliminary judging is made in a constructive manner, that is, to give helpful criticism on the acts, the final judging is only a week off. As Schwenk declared, "There seems to be a superior quality of workmanship in the skits we have looked at up to date, and with such high standards to be met, coupled with the fact that only a few more than half of the skits entered will be accepted, the clubs will have to work hard on their acts if they are to stand the slightest chance."

A list of those organizations to be judged Thursday will be published in tomorrow's Nebraskan, and above all, members of the Klub want to emphasize the need for punctuality. Final judging is scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week.

JOURNALISTS PLAN FOR NATIONAL MEET

Train Concession Report Given at Meeting Tuesday.

Plans for sending a delegate of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, to the national convention which is to be held at Champagne-Urbain, Ill. this year on Nov. 15, 16, and 17 were discussed at the regular meeting of the organization on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in University hall.

It was announced that a noon luncheon and meeting for all members of the organization would take place in the near future. Jack Fischer, president of the group presided during the business session.

UNIVERSITY 4-H CLUB MEETS ON AG CAMPUS

Group Discusses Plans to Bring Work Before Lincoln People.

Plans to get 4-H club work before the people of Lincoln were discussed at a meeting of the university 4-H club Tuesday evening in Ag hall.

In a short business meeting, in which it was decided to present weekly programs in Lincoln churches, a program of music and drama was given.

The program started with group singing, progressed to a one-act play, a dramatic reading and a talk by LaVerne Peterson entitled "Conservation of Wild Life." This dealt with one of the latest 4-H projects. Evelyn Dittman gave the dramatic reading.

Jeane Mason, Ward Henderson, Okaley Larsen, Fae Traulsen, Dorothee French and Ruth Carsten took parts in a one-act play, "In-audibility." Howard Peterson delivered an extemporaneous speech.
