SHORT SHOTS ON THIS'N THAT.

Who Counted On Upsets? Not This Guy Anyway.

Lad Hubka is supporting a nice big juicy shiner where some Mis-sourian's bony knee got in the way of his eye. . . There may be some injury to his cheekbone, and there is question about his starting against Kansas. . James Heldt says he spent all the time between plays scraping three inch deep mud out of his eyes. . . So he could see what was coming next. . . A few of the more gambadonically minded Cornhuskers were hugging and mushing over each other after their second touchdown. . While the Tigers, mad as only a wet Tiger can be mad, fumed and raved on their side of the fence. . . Kansas' victory over Oklahoma was a complete surprise. . . And it establishes the Jays as a very definite threat, with Hapgood shooting quick, precisioned passes.

Upsets punched Saturday's predictions full of more holes than a shotgunned pigeon. Who'da thought that Notre Dame would ramble through the air to an 18-13 victory over Ohio State? Least of all this poor timid soul who thought he was playing 'em safe and missed 14 out of 25. That's an average of .440, which is good enough if you're playing right field, but isn't so hot on the win-ner-choosing end of things. Anyway, there were upsets, and then there were more upsets, which is enough to throw even a veteran off the true path. But after Saturday, maybe I'd better take up penny-flipping.

field at that. . The same style of play enabled the Huskers to win last year, 13-6. . Which might mean that Missouri is still weak on lateral deference of the sorrowing Jayhawk coach grew aged with grief.

Nobody paid any attention, therefore, when the Kansans weak on lateral defense or else the Scarlet attack in this direction is powerfully bad medicine. . ference to whom he fires 'em, they get there just the same. . . And Huskers . Ad Lindsey was still crying wasn't be? for good gains. . Nebraska will have to brush up plenty for this one. . Bumped into Bob Benson.

"Here settle" are same. . And crying, wasn't he?

But things began to happen. Kansas managed to trip up Kan-"Here, catch," he bawled, and tossed a wad of unchewed chewing gum. . Seems he's working for the company as a dispenser. . Bob has a notinger brother who's Bob has a younger brother who's tearing things up on northeastern Nebraska gridirons. . . Some day he's going to be a Cornhusker.

Hayes Leaves on Trip for Shelterbelt Survey Work

Frank A. Hayes, of the soil survey, left Monday for a ten day trip in connection with the sheltrip in connection with the shelter belt work of North and South Dakota. Mr. Hayes has been a member of the Nebraska state soil survey for twenty years. He is a recognized authority thruout the

Final Soccer-Baseball

Games Will Be Played With the finals to be played off this week, the soccer-baseball tourney is drawing to a close. One of the teams in the last round will be the Kappa Delt's who won their semifinal match with the A. B. C.'s on a close margin, the score being 9-8. The other team which will compete for the championship will be determined Tuesday when the Chi Omega's play the Tri Delts.

Simply Write a Last Line to This Verse

A young man who's considered quite \right Wrote a note to his sweetheart one night; Since he used Garvey Ink

In his pen, I should think

Simply write a last line which rhymes with the first two lines. Here's a sample to show you how easy it is: "She'll be doubly pleased at the sight."

1st Prize $50; 2nd Prize $25 3rd Prize $15; 4th Prize $10 20 Prizes, each $5

Write your last line, and your name and uddress, (preferably with Garvey Fountain Pen Ink), on a single sheet of paper, and send it in by midnight of December 2, 1935. Each entry must be accompanied by a label from a Garvey Ink bottle, or a facsimile thereof. With hot water you can quickly and easily soak off the bottle label; and it doesn't matter how much you soil or tear it, so long as we can tell it's a label. Contest is open to anybody in U. S., except our employees. Duplicate prizes given in case of ties.

Garvey Ink is the amnsing new instant action ink that makes all pens write better. Made by secret formula—nothing else like it. Flows instantly, perfectly—can't clog the pen. Brilliant, intense color. A tonic for your fountain peni Get a bottle—and enter this easy $200,00 contest! Send your entries to Garvey Ink Co., St. Louis, U. S. A.

At College Supply Store 1135 R St.

Kansas, Huskers Clash For Title Saturday

TWO CONFERENCE UNDEFEATEDS MIX

Crying' Ad Lindsey's Men Come Thru for Pessimistic Grid Instructor; Pre-Season Gloom That Jays Bound for Cellar Dispelled.

HUSKERS MUST WIN TO REGAIN BIG 6 CROWN

K.U. Faces Missouri, Iowa State After Scarlet Tilt, But Victory Almost Guarantees Championship; Critics Favor Biblemen to Win.

The story of the Big Six conference has turned into a melodramatic affair again, offering opportunity in plenty for a gripping climax which may leave Midwestern football followers exhausted from the exertion of following its breath-taking in-

Coach Adrian Lindsey, follow-Oing the lachrymose example of the coaches who profess to have a world beating eleven as regards general inability, literally wept his way thru the first phases of the logs seems The coaches are loss saturday.

Looks Like Huskers.

It looks very definitely, from 1935 season. The conference was already clinched—in a three way race, it was true, but clinched, nevertheless, for the Jayhawks were on the outside without the ghost of a chance.

Lindsey Weeps-A Tubful.

What chance did Kansas university have against Kansas State? Laterals worked beautifully or Nebraska? or Oklahoma? It against Missouri, and on a wet was just too much to bear, and

Nobody paid any attention, therefore, when the Kansans started out to fulfill that prophecy as a matter of course. When the Jayhawks were overwhelmed by Kansas will present a hard to stop aerial bombardment, with Hap-State ran wild, no one took down aerial bombardment, with Hap-good on the throwing end. . . It his hair and mourned a great up-doesn't seem to make much dif-when Minnesota subdued the Sooners Go Under.

Oklahoma, however, failed to do any heading, except into the de-feat column. Altho Biff Jones' Sooners completely outplayed Kansas university last Saturday, ful thrusts at the line came as a yards from rushing to 3 first downs and 58 yards for Oklahoma, Fullback George Hapgood threw a 35 yard pass to End Rutherford Hayes to bring in a touchdown and a victory. It was the sort of a play that brought victory to Nebraska over the same Kansas team two years ago, when George Sauer ran very deliberately and intentionally around his right end, and then stopped, drew back and fired a 45 yard pass to Bruce Kilbourne who had faded unnoticed deep into the left side of the field K. U. Out in Front.

That cross field flip of Hapgood's and Rutherford's spectacu-lar catch meant a victory for Kansas. It meant an undefeated record in the conference and first place in the percentage standings. It meant that if Ad Lindsey's eleven is to finish anywhere near the cellar booth which Pessimist Lindsey had reserved, it must fall before Nebraska this Saturday in Memorial stadium.

And it also meant that if Nebraska is to finish in first place this fall, there is no other alternative than a victory over these same Javhawks this same Saturday in the same Memorial stadium.

Dana Bible's lads will be fighting for their sixth top position in eight years Saturday, in their last conference game. Kansas has two more engagements, Iowa State and Missouri, and even if she wins them both, if Nebraska conquers Saturday, it is in the bag for the Biblemen. Kansas is virtually assured of those victories. Victory

RECOMMERDED BY MILLIONS The ONLY litter in the World that Really Filters

> Medico Pipes SOLD AT Boyden's Pharmacy

> > 13th & P

It looks very definitely, from the manner in which Missouri picked herself out of the mud last Saturday, as the the Nebraskans will fulfill their part of the bargain and tear the Kansas squad to shreds.

There was no stopping the men of Bible when they got down to business—and also, down in the mud-in Columbia. Despite almost a score of fumbles that were caused when a greasy field and a greasier ball prohibited anything resembling average gridiron conditions, Nebraska rode rampant on the wings of some excellent playing in showing the Tigers and Don Faurot out the back door.

Sam Francis, whose two touchdowns moved him away up in the conference scoring records, was the lad who probably did more than anyone else on the Husker squad to bring in that highly essential Missouri victory. On the educated toe of Big Sam'l rode the fate of the Husker conference hopes, for with the Tigers booting the ball deep into Nebraska terri-tory where the slippery field brought forth excusable bobbling and fumbling, Sam's punts kept Nebraska consistently out of dan-

Sam'l to the Rescue.

Lloyd Cardwell unable to find his assuring that the potentiality which had been credited to him the lads who came in for all the bouquets he could carry, altho he wasn't the standout figure which Francis assumed. His defensive play and efficient generalship were all that could have been desired, and his choice of the laterals and reverses which kept the Tigers at arm's length all afternoon bodes ill for the Jays. Line Shows Power.

Working ahead of a salwart line which offered pienty of protection, the Husker backfield had a big afternoon all around. Jerry La-Noue sparkled and skipped in his usual torso twisting manner, in spite of the soggy field. Johnny Williams, the main spring of that line, came thru with the lifelong ambition of every forward—to score a touchdown. Taking a lateral from Cardwell half a minute before the half, Johnny sped 20 yards to the second Nebraska tally without being touched.

Ladas Hubka came out of the mud battle with the only Scarlet injury. Hub, game captain against the Tigers, was sporting a wicked bruise on his right cheek Monday, the result of a kick. Hubka's face was swelled entirely out of proportion, and his eye was closed and blood red.

Hubka didn't miss out on much in the way of intensive practice with his injury, however, for there intensive practice. wasn't any Donning sweat suits, the squad remained in the lecture room until a few minutes of six.

BARB TOUCH FOOTBALL FINAL TOURNEY FRIDAY

Twenty Teams Register for pression. Intramural Soccer Season.

With the finals of the barb touch football schedule for Friday, and the fraternities tussle already sewed up by Acacia, preparations are made for the opening of the interfraternity soccer competition Thursday. Twenty teams, divided into four leagues with five teams in a league, have filed at the in-tramural office. A general letter stating the rules of the game has been sent to each fraternity. The schedule will be announced Wednesday Each soccer team will play three times a week in order to finish the ompetition about Thanksgiving. Water polo and other indoor sports will then hold the center of intramural interest. Filings for internow open at the intramural office, it was announced Monday.

"Your Drug Store" Special This Week "GILLEN S" PEANUT PRITTLE. Pound

The OWL PHARMACY 148 No. 14th & P St. Phone Block WE DELIVER Francis Dazzles in Cornhusker Triumph

Sam Francis personally conducted the Cornhuskers to a 19 to 6 victory over the Missouri Tigers at Columbia. His contributions were touchdowns in the first and third periods and a kick from placement on a try for point. In addition the big Husker fullback outputted his Bengal rivals and played a bangup defensive game.

Swayzee Urges Labor Unions To Prevent Costly Disputes

With strikes, riots and industrial disputes increasing in number each year, Dr. C. O. Swayzee's recent book dealing with rest with one man. That wasn't all, however. With contempt proceedings in labor injunction cases is hailed by critics as one of the most timely and analytical books just published by the Columbia University Press. Dr. Swayzee, who is tions on

er part of the cases.

labor before the law.

Reclassification Needed.

the great confusion which seems mystical emanation inhering in the gestion for reclassification of con-

grounds

associate professor of personnel omanagement at the university less than half of the cases were wrote his monograph after a detailed study of more than 100 labor tempt charges. This indicates to contempt actions which resulted from alleged violations of labor injunctions issuing out of New York thetic with labor groups or emcourts.

The present period of turmoil has been marked by a vast number of labor-contempt actions and thru it all, whether due to pressure from labor leaders or otherwise, the trend has been to modify state and federal laws dealing with these

"Experience in most of our industries where labor is highly or-ganized seems definitely to point to the desirability of greatly extending workers organized labor unions," he says.

Collective Bargaining.

"In the first place, thru collective bargaining, labor organizations furnish our most satisfactory means of preventing industrial disputes, the costs of which are tremendous. It is only where there is ably led and recognized organization on both sides of a dispute that effective machinery for prevention and peaceful settlement can be set up. In the absence of collective bargaining machinery, issues be-come clouded and distorted from the growing fears and mutual distrusts which inevitably develop between contending parties who are either unable or unwilling to meet for joint conference.

"In the second place a high degree of labor organization assures greater quality of bargaining power between employers and ployees, without which wages, hours and conditions of work will become burdensome not only to the wage earning population but to society as a whole. That low wage levels are detrimental to the social structure is well recognized today. While it is difficult, if not impos-sible, to say what minimum wages should be, it does seem clear that there is a minimum below which wages should not be allowed to go. In our present economic system, extensive trade-unionism would stand as a desirable form of insurance against unhealthy wage de-

Injunction Essential.

Dr. Swayzee points out that the use of the injunction in labor disputes and the power of the courts to punish for violation of a restraining order do vitally affect labor organizations. Trade unions are wholly ineffective in their attempt to improve living and working standards if the courts are allowed to deprive them of the only instrument of industrial warfare at their disposal or render them in-nocuous by limiting their use, he says. "In other words, laborers may attain a high degree of organiza-tion but if they are restrained from or punished for striking, picketing or the other means of prosecuting a dispute their organization is of no advantage either to themselves or to society. And," the writer states, "the importance of detailed contempt analysis is attested by the attention which the federal government and state groups have given it recently. In the short period of three years, the federal government and no less than eight states have written laws into their statute books modi-fying contempt procedure in labor injunction cases."

Courts Sympathetic.

In his analysis of such contempt cases issuing out of New York courts, Dr. Swayzee finds that in der. The present classification is unsatisfactory because the basis for the classification, i.e., the classes. The present procedure is unsatisfactory because it all allows the determination of guilt to

"All contempts might better be treated as misdemeanors." professor lists the salient features f his suggested revision:

Any contempt committed in the resence of the court. 1. To be tried by the court contemned. a-If the contempt is clearly willful and malicious the punishployers are so eager for success- ment may be summary.

ful termination of labor disputes b-If contempt is not a result of that they make contempt allegamalice, an order to show cause to issue, returnable to the court conflimsy that the courts of necessity temned. dismiss the complaint in the great

2. Punishment to be fixed by statutory limitation. "In view of our second finding, Any contempt committed outnamely, that in many cases injuncside the presence of the court.

tion orders are stretched consider-1. To be tried by any court havably in order to cover alleged acts ing competent criminal jurisdicof contempt, the second alternative tion, but only after indictment. indication probably more nearly reflects the truth," he writes. "A 2. Jury to determine, whether a contempt has in fact third revelation of interest is to be been committed; (b) punishment found in the failure of the lower for disregard of the court's aucourts in many instances to follow thority, (c) damages, if any, to be "ruling law," that is, precedent as paid to the party injured by the established in cases decided by the contempt. court of appeals. It reveals a very common fallacy in labor law treatment. In most instances of "By such an arrangement," Dr.

Swayzee says, "each court contemned would retain its power to labor law discussion the important punish for any disobedience caused cases, cases decided by courts of during its sitting and in its preshighest appellate jurisdiction, are cited as determining the status of ence. On the other hand, the alleged contemnors, would stand their fair and speedy trial without fear that justice might be upset "Another revelation is found in by the personal equation. This proposal is one for regulation rather to cloud the orthodox classificathan for restriction of the powers tion of contempts as criminal and of the courts to punish for concivil. If we assume that the power | tempt. to punish for contempt is not "a

"The only important difference between present contempt law and unique nature of the court," a sug- that proposed would be found in extending the use of a very satistempts and revision of contempt factory and traditional fact-findprocedure may not be out of or- ing institution, the jury."

PAIR NEEDED FOR GYMNASTIC TEAM AS SEASON OPENS

Wanted: Tumbler, Horizontal Bar Man; Applicants See Coach Miller.

Two men are needed to complete Coach Charlie Miller's gymnastics team, which is pointing toward the opening of the season on Dec. 14, with the University of Illinois at Urbana. A tumbler and a horizontal bar man are being sought to fill the only vacancies on what promises to be one of the strongest teams in Nebraska history.

Tryouts will be held Nov. 22 and Dec. 6, to choose men to go on the first trip, which, if tentative, plans go through, will be a four day jaunt with meets at Urbana, University of Iowa, at Iowa City, and George Williams College at Chicago.

Reynolds, who works on all the apparatus and tumbles; Bignell, a flying ring, horizontal bar, and parallel bar man; Green, working on the rings, the horse, and the parallel and horizontal bars, and Harris, who works on the horse and tumbles, are cinches for the squad. Men who are ineligible this year together with the freshmen will form one of the strongest teams in the west next year, if the present prospects materialize.

Coach Miller is planning to have a team of freshmen and ineligible men give exhibitions of tumbling and work on the apparatus between the halves of the university basketball games this winter,

Gatekeepers at Ohio State University have a novel method for deciding whether you're sober enough to enter the stadium. If party to whom the injury is done, allows no sharp lines of distinction to be drawn between the two watch the game from a telegraph

Frosh Team Practices

K.U. Plays for Varsity Freshman Coaches Weir and etz are preparing Kansas university plays for the frosh to demonstrate against the varsity gridsters, K. U. defeated Oklahoma last Saturday and conquered Kansas State, the team that tied Nebraska, This sets the Jayhawkers ahead of

Are you wearing one of the Evans' 9c Shirts?

333 No. 12

ONLY 4 Days

LEFT to purchase your 1936

See a Tassel

and they'll fix you up