

Schultemen to Face Big Six Champions Saturday

K-AGS POINT FOR VICTORY AS STEP TO SECOND TITLE

Wildcat Coach Haylett Has Strong Team; Huskers In Good Shape.

It's Kansas Day Friday and Saturday! The Huskers swim it out with the Jayhawk mermen Friday afternoon in the coliseum pool, and the topnotching K. U. quint defends its Big Six conference laurels from Nebraska's maple men in the same evening. Saturday afternoon the second indoor track meet will be held with Kansas State furnishing the opposition.

K-AGG Coach Ward Haylett has indicated to Husker Coach Henry F. Schulte that his 1936 track group is stronger than ever, and the Kansas State mentor is entertaining high hopes of retaining the Big Six indoor track championship which it won in last year's competition.

Thursday was a tapering-off day for the Husker varsity crew, who confined their workouts to short sprints and easy runs. Coach Schulte is easing up on his tracksters to allow them to get plenty of rest before the Kansas State engagement. Frosh track and field men dominated the indoor track scene, but no exceptionally good times or distances were made.

NO LINEUP CHANGES.

No changes in the varsity lineup will be made before the Wildcat contest. "Jake" Jacobsen, Lloyd Cardwell and Dick Fische will do the 60 yard sprint. Stanley Haight, Kenneth Chapman, Lloyd Cardwell and Ashur Mousel will stretch over the 60 yard hurdles. Stanley Haight, Lloyd Cardwell, Harold Jacobsen and Kenneth Chapman will skim over the 60 yard low hurdles.

In the distance runs, Les Pankonin and Harwin Dawson will step the 440 yard dash. Bob Morris, Robert West and Wilson Andrews will wear the Scarlet and Cream in the 880 yard run. Bob Morris, Wilson Andrews and Chet Beaver in the mile run, and Chet Beaver in the two mile run. Sherman Cosgrove, Bob Gallows and Verle Atthey will perform in the pole vault. Ed Maxey and Floyd Cliesberg will attempt to pick up some points in the high jump. Lloyd Cardwell, Harwin Dawson, Bob Warneke and Ashur Mousel will broad jump. Sam Francis, Fred Shirey and Floyd Cliesberg will put the shot for Nebraska.

ALL MEN IN SHAPE.

Coach Schulte reported that all his varsity men were in fine shape for the dual meet which should aid in deciding the 1936 Big Six conference indoor track champion.

DAILY NEBRASKAN SPORTS

SPLASHERS SEEK OVERCOME THIRD SEASON BARRIER

Nebraska Swimmers Engage Kansas Mermen in Dual Meet Today.

Nebraska swimmers will attempt to overcome the third barrier to a second successive undefeated Big Six tank season when they meet the Kansas U. mermen in the third conference dual meet of the season this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the coliseum pool.

Last year the Huskers won the Big Six conference crown and their conference dual meet record was unspotted. They have preserved their perfect record to date this season, taking both Kansas and Kansas State into camp by decisive scores.

The Huskers will enter the pool heavy favorites by virtue of their 67 to 17 conquest of the Jays earlier in the season. The Huskers broke every pool record in existence at Lawrence, with the exception of the breast stroke mark. They also bettered conference records in the 50 yard dash, the 400 yard relay and the 300 yard medley relay.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCES.

Outstanding performances have been turned out so far this season by Lynde in the 50 and 100 yard dashes and by the medley and 400 yard free style relay teams. Lynde, who is Big Six champion in the 50, 100 and 200 yard dashes, has lowered his own record twice in the 50 yard dash. He plowed thru his distance in 24.4 seconds as compared to the standard time of 24.6 seconds in the Kansas meet. The Carleton meet last Tuesday. He is undefeated in the 100 yard free style. The medley team has twice lowered the Big Six conference record of 3:25.8, and has yet to be defeated. The combination of Gavlin, back stroke, Thornton, breast stroke, and Lynde, crawl, swam the 300 yards in even 15 seconds under the record in the Kansas meet. Hagelin, back, Thornton, breast, and Lynde, crawl bested the official mark by 6 seconds in the Minnesota meet. The 400 yard free style relay team, composed of Dort, Krause, Calland and Barry, were almost four seconds better than the record time in the Kansas meet, coming thru in 3:58.2 as compared to the standard mark of 4:02.3.

LINEUPS TENTATIVE.

The lineup for the Kansas meet is tentative. In case Nebraska should gain a safe early lead, Coach Minor will use his weaker men, so as to give them a chance to earn their letters. The tentative lineup consists of: 400 yard relay, Douglas Dort, John Krause, Jack Berry and Warren Calland; 200 yard breast stroke, Bob Thornton and Bob Gibbons; 150 yard back stroke, Jack Gavlin, Ralph Ludwick; 50 yard free style, Warren Calland, Pete Hagelin; 440 yard free style, John Krause, Jack Berry; 100 yard free style, Douglas Dort, Ralph Ludwick; diving, Don Rimmerman, Melvin Domin; 220 yard free style, Jack Berry, Jack Barry, John Krause; 300 yard medley relay team, Jack Gavlin, back; Bob Thornton, breast, Glyndon Lynde, crawl.

Four Jays Whom Huskers Face Tonight

HUSKER WRESTLERS INVADE IOWA FOR MAT MEET TONIGHT

Nebraska Squad to Tussle With Cyclones in Ames Gymnasium.

Nebraska wrestlers will attempt to spoil Iowa State's perfect conference record when they meet the Cyclones in the Ames gymnasium at 7:30 tonight.

According to comparative scores Nebraska has little chance. By way of comparing the two teams, the Huskers lost to Iowa State Teachers 21-1-2 to 9-1-2, and to Kansas State 52-1-2 to 11-2, while the Cyclones downed the Tutors 17 to 11 and 15 to 11, and twice, 17 to 11 and 15 to 11, and tied the Kansas Aggies, 11 all. Both of Friday's opponents bested Missouri, the Cyclones, 21-1-2 to 12-1-2, and the Huskers, 17 to 11. However Iowa State will enter the match without the services of John Catron, veteran heavyweight who suffered a pulled muscle in the Kansas State match.

Nebraska's hopes for points are Wittman, 135 pounder who held Larson, Iowa university's Big Ten champion, to a draw last week; Yost, 175 pounder, and Smiley and Funks, veterans in the 126 pound and heavyweight classes.

CONNING THE CAMPI

By Arlen Crenshaw

The ether has been full of radio waves recently, which have been the carriers of hot words of condemnation against the New Deal. Now that the depression is not quite so severe—due, probably, to the efforts of the new dealers—many people are listening to the condemnations of the new deal and turning against it. These very same people are numbered with those who, four years ago, were clamoring loudest for a change. They hailed Roosevelt and his helpers as the special messengers of Providence. We are somewhat inclined to question the sincerity and loyalty of any group of persons which follows a leader only so long as he delivers them material benefits for their selfish use. It is not the purpose of the Collegian Reporter to actively enter the political campaign in support of any candidate at this time. (It is, however, a well known fact that college students do not take as active an interest in national affairs as they should.) But there are a few things which should be said in regard to the policies of the present national administration. In the first place Roosevelt has gathered about him college trained men and women as advisers and helpers. Because he

The three are: Harvey Widman of Mead, Henry Whitaker of St. Joseph, Missouri, and George Wahlgvist of Hastings.

USUAL FIVE STARTS.

Besides this trio Coach Browne will start his usual five which Floyd Ebaugh and Bob Parsons round out.

Jayhawkers who will take up the fray from the starting whistle blows tonight will be Ebling and Allen, the mentor's son, forwards; Noble, a six feet, three inches center; and Kappelman and Pralle or Snafer, guards.

The game will start at 8 p. m.

son of the McDermottmen had a digit in the scoring pie. HIGH POINT RIVALSHIP. In the game a spectator will find an interesting rivalry between Ray Ebling and George Wahlgvist, the two high scorers of the Big Six. The former is high in percentage of points made per appearance, but Wahlgvist copped sixteen Monday night to put his name at the head of the list in actual points.

The evenings mix will mark the end of the Husker cage festivities and three seniors, who have been indispensable portions of the combination for some three years, will complete their college careers.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL SPONSORS TONIGHT'S ALL STUDENT MIXER

Storer's Band Will Furnish Music for Dance in Armory.

With music for dancing furnished by Bob Storer and his orchestra, well known Lincoln band, the first of a series of all student mixers sponsored by the Barb Inter-club council and the A. W. S. Barb council will be given this evening in Grant Memorial hall.

Inaugurating the series of better band parties which are being planned for the second semester, the party promises to be one of the best mixers held this year, according to Victor Schwarting, general chairman of the affair. Students are urged to attend the party and if planning to go to the Kansas-Nebraska game first are invited to come to the mixer following the game.

TICKETS AT DOOR.

Tickets for the mixer may be obtained at Memorial hall this evening, according to Wilbur Beezley, member of the committee in charge of the party. The admission price has been set at 20c for women and 25c for men.

Explaining that dating for the party was optional, Dorothy Beers, president of the A. W. S. Barb council invited everyone to attend by commenting, "More time and more effort has been spent in preparation than for any previous mixer and the committee in charge is hoping that a large number of the students of the campus will be present at the party."

CHAPERONS FOR PARTY.

Chaperons for the mixer will be prof. and Mrs. H. H. Marvin and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harper.

The committee in charge of advertising for the affair include: Wilbur Beezley, chairman; Paul Reider, Dorothea Winger and Bill Newcomer. In charge of arrangements are: Victor Schwarting, as chairman, Jane Holland, Bill Kuticha, Frank Dudek, James Rissness, Elizabeth Edison and Dorothy Beers. The entertainment committee is made up of Victor Schwarting, Fern Bloom, Gretchen Budd and Austin Moritz.

Minich will conduct the inspection, and will lecture on "X-ray Tubes." The society will meet at 7:30 in EE 104 before making the visit.

The American Liberty league claims a membership of 200 among Rutgers students.

PHI GAMMA DELTA TAKE ACACIA'S 22-18 TO WIN CLASS A

Delta Tau Delta Defeats A. T. O. to Get Third in Hoop Contest.

Bernie Scherer, Nebraska's all-conference football end, led the Phi Gamma Delta cagers to a 22 to 18 victory over the stubborn Acacia five Thursday night to win the Intra-fraternity class A basketball title. The winning squad had little trouble any of the time and maintained a comfortable lead throughout the game until the final seconds of play when Acacia staged a last minute scoring spree and came within four points of tying the score.

SCHERER LEADS.

Scherer led the winning quintet with five field goals while second honors were divided between Petersen, Miner, and Lortisher, with four points each. Smith lead the scoring for the losers with eight points with Plock and Shirey garnering four points apiece.

The game was a hard fought battle from the beginning to the end with neither team displaying the type of basketball they have shown previously during the tourney. The winners did show occasional bits of team play and of a good style of basketball, but it was not as consistent as might have been expected.

DELTS WIN PRELIM.

As a preliminary to the final tilt the Delta Tau Delta five edged out the Alpha Omega aggregation by a close margin of two points the final tally being 17 to 15. It was a close battle all thru with neither team being able to build up a large lead at any time during the game. Kieth Yenne and Vernon Groves shared the winners' scoring honors with four points each while the other three men got a field goal a piece. Losers' laurels went to Ramey with six points.
