

JACOBS PREDICTS DECISIVE VICTORY FOR SCHULTEMEN

Sooner Track Mentor Says Huskers to Take Easy Win in Big Six Meet.

NORMAN, Okl., March 4.—"I think Nebraska will make as many points as the next two teams combined. Second place is a wide open battle between Kansas State, Missouri, Iowa State and Oklahoma," is the way John Jacobs, Sooner track mentor, dopes the Big Six indoor meet Friday and Saturday at Columbia, Mo.

Oklahoma will take only 13 men, leaving Norman Thursday morning. Sooner athletes who will go are Loris Moody, Floyd Lochner, Granville Barrett, Denzil Boyd, Lawson Burke, Elwood Cleveland, Herman Nelson, John Paul Remy, Elmo Hewes, Clyde McGinnis, Paul Bowen, Burton Corn and Francis Best.

Altho the Sooners, with only a seven man team, won the St. Louis indoor meet Saturday night from teams like Notre Dame, Northwestern and Pittsburg, Kas. Teachers, Jacobs asserts they lack the balance and numbers of Coach Henry "Indian" Schulte's Cornhuskers who recently made a comeback of Kansas and Kansas State in dual meets, defeating the Jayhawkers 80 2-3 to 23 1-3 and the Wildcats 70 1-4 to 33 3-4.

Lochner Wins.

At St. Louis the Sooner two mile relay team won by 50 yards from Notre Dame and Emporia Teachers. Lochner was clocked in the fastest half mile, two minutes flat, with Boyd, Barrett and Moody coasting. Moody then came back and was clocked unofficially in 49.8 seconds in his leg of the mile relay. Oklahoma lapping St. Louis university altho placing second on time comparison. McGinnis was third in the open 440. Lochner won the two mile and Whit Cox, graduate, won the open 50 yards in 3.3 seconds.

Principal Sooner strength in the Big Six meet Saturday at Columbia will come in the 440 and 880 yard dashes, mile and two mile runs. In a desperate quest for points, Coach Jacobs may use Moody and Barrett in both the quarter and half mile dashes and take Herman Nelson and John Paul Remy of the Sooner basketball squad to high jump and hurdle.

Lochner will double in the mile and two mile and apparently is physically capable of it as he did 4 minutes 18 seconds in the mile and 9 minutes 25 seconds in the two mile at San Francisco last Thursday night with an hour's rest between races. His untimely illness at Columbia last year cost Oklahoma the championship. Lochner scoring a single point and Oklahoma losing the meet to Kansas State by 1 1/2 points.

Seven sophomore men at the University of Oregon were threatened with a ducking if they didn't explain why they had grown no beards. Furthermore, if any freshmen were caught witnessing the procedure, they too would have a swim in icy waters.

They call him "Speed", and one needs not delve far into his personality to perceive why. When in high school, he thought he liked to run, so he checked out a pair of shoes and as a freshman he won first in the 100, the 220, and the low hurdles. The same process of blue ribbon snatching in three events continued for three more years until he was recognized as one of the foremost runners by Mule State track officials. His name is Harold (Francis) Jacobs and he did all these feats in Trenton, Missouri.

Well, discarding the short trousers, he found scarcely time to wear any kind of breeches other than sweat pants, for once Indian Indian Schulte got a gander at those whir of legs there was no rest for little Harold. The Speed has among his accomplishments a 6.1 timing in the 60 yard dash which, if you do not already know, is equal to the unofficial indoor record in the event.

So far this season the senior speedster has shown his heels to the pack, claiming a first in every meet thus far. Besides the cinder activities, Jacobsen played two years at a half back post, and three in baseball in the prep institution of Trenton.

Drawing a little closer to our interviewee, we see that he fits Mae West's classification of tall, dandy, and all the rest. He would rather have fun than anything and this he does most of the time. His age is 22 and in his years has made some pretty definite ideas about one woman.

For the utmost of the said fun he drags out a set of clubs which he declares are both expensive and paid for and chases the golf pellet around the pasture for an afternoon. The chasing process, he claims, can be done in about 80 strokes.

All thru the family there are athletes. The man who pays Speed's bills, his father, was once an all-around athlete, playing professional hockey and baseball. When thru with the active side of the diamond he turned to managing and managed a club in Missouri until recent years.

The cinder scorch is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and a reserve officer in the R. O. T. C. This year when given his honorable discharge from the University of Nebraska he will turn toward the University of Southern California where he has high hopes of entering law school and becoming associated with the Olympic club of the Sunny State.

Despite the near zero weather, the Kansas-Oklahoma basketball game at Norman Saturday night drew Coaches Rankin Williams of the Weatherford Teachers, Hank Iba of the Oklahoma Aggies and Floyd McBride of the Ada Teachers and also such well-known old-time Sooner athletes as Bill Cox, John Dunlap, Dick March, Frank Crider, and Ray LeCrone. Arthur "Dutch" Strauss, night editor of the Enid Morning News and in 1917 a great fullback for Phillips university, drove farthest to see the game, from Enid.

SCHULTEMEN TO HEAD SOUTH FOR BIG SIX LAURELS

Fifteen Husker Cinder Stars Compete in Annual Indoor Meet.

A contingent of 15 Cornhuskers will leave Thursday afternoon to take part in the 15th annual Big Six indoor conference track and field meet at Columbia March 6 and 7. Coach Henry F. Schulte and his assistants, Harold Petz, Ed Weir, and W. H. Brown, will accompany the squad.

Basing his predictions on the performances of the Huskers against Kansas and Kansas State, Coach Schulte has high hopes of returning to Huskerland with another conference track trophy tucked under his arm. Competitor will be unusually keen. Coach Schulte indicated, but Nebraska has the men who can place in all events with the exception of the high jump.

Only Fifteen Men. A mix-up in the Big Six conference rulings provides for only 15 men from each college, instead of the desired 18. "We sure could use three more men," said Coach Schulte.

Nebraska's squad will consist of Harold Jacobsen, Standley Haight, Lloyd Cardwell, Les Pankonin, Harwin Dawson, Bob Morris, Wilson Andrews, Fred Matteson, Dave Rice, Sam Francis, Sherman Cosgrove, George Galloway, Jack Dodd, Kenneth Chapman, and Chet Beaver.

Lloyd Cardwell, who tallied 16 points last week against Kansas State, will participate in the broad jump, sprint, low and high hurdles. Jake Jacobsen will take his last pot-shot at the indoor Big Six records, especially in the 60 yard sprint. Ken Chapman and Standley Haight are two hurdlers whom Coach Schulte expects to place near the top.

Andrews Favored. Bob Morris will perform his specialty race, the half mile run, which he should win if he can continue running as fine as he has been doing. Dave Rice is another half miler. Chet Beaver and Wilson Andrews are Husker hopes in the mile run, with Andrews favored to win.

Les Pankonin and Harwin Dawson are the quarter milers upon whom Coach Schulte is trusting to place against a strong field. Southern members of the conference boast of an abundance of distance runners who are touted to carry away all runs in the meet.

A triumvirate of crack pole vaulters will boost the Huskers' chances in the field events. Sherman Cosgrove, George Galloway, and Jack Dodd are the men. Cosgrove has cleared 13 feet 4 1/4 inches and the dope bucket spilt forth to say that "Sherm" will be in the upper stratum when the heights are measured. Galloway and Dodd both have skinned across the cross-piece at 12 feet 6 inches, and are expected to be point-winners.

Sam Francis is Nebraska's big hope, however. Sam has been tossing the shot between 47 and 48 feet consistently, when he strikes his best form, the metal ball will soar out around 50 feet.

HUSKER TANKMEN TO TACKLE IOWA STATE IN IMPORTANT MEET

Nebraska's Big Six Champs Given Edge in Friday's Dual Contest.

Given the edge in a meet the outcome of which will probably determine the winner of the Big Six crown, the Husker splashers will take on Iowa State at Ames, next Friday, Feb. 6 in the most important dual meet of the tank season.

Iowa State and Nebraska are perennial rivals for the Big Six conference crown. The winner of the Iowa State, Nebraska dual meet usually takes the Big Six conference meet. Iowa State won the conference honors in '34, Nebraska in '35.

N. U. Downs Carleton. The Huskers quelled Carleton college to the count of 57 to 17 while the best the Cyclones could do was 40 to 23. This is the only basis of comparison of the two teams. The Husker times are consistently faster than those of their rivals.

The home team has won four of its five engagements to date by decisive scores. They have lost only to Minnesota. They have downed Kansas twice, Kansas State and Carleton one each. The Huskers have bettered three Big Six records, in the 400 yard free style relay, the 300 yard medley relay, and the 50 yard dash. They have claimed one world record, in the 150 yard medley event.

Back Stroke Best Race. On the basis of times so far, the best races of the Iowa State meet should be furnished by Jack Gavin of Nebraska and Herricks in the back stroke, Bob Thornton and Fries in the breast stroke. Big Six supremacy in the free style events will be fought out among Pete Hagelin and Glydon Lynde of the home squad and Grant and Burkett of the Cyclones. Saturday night the Shuckers will travel to Grinnell to challenge the swimmers of Grinnell in the last dual meet of the season. The Big Six champion will be determined next week end, March 13 and 14, in the Big Six conference meet to be held at Kansas City.

Lineups. The tentative lineup for the Grinnell and Iowa State meets is as follows: 400 yard free style, John Krause, Douglas Dort, Jack Barry, and Warren Callant or Barry; 200 yard breast stroke, Bob Thornton and Bob Hagelin; 150 yard back stroke, Jack Gavin, Ralph Ludwick; 90 yard free style, Glyndon Lynde, Warren Callant or Ben Rimmerman; 440 yard free style, Pete Hagelin or John Krause; 100 yard free style, Glyndon Lynde, Douglas Dort; diving, Ben Rimmerman, Kelvin Deming; 220 yard free style, Jack Barry, Pete Hagelin; 300 yard medley relay team, Jack Gavin, Jack Bob Thornton, breast and Glyndon Lynde, crawl.
