

NEBRASKA CAMPUS SOCIAL WHIRL

SEEN ON THE CAMPUS.

Bud Cather playing Romeo to Alice Mae Livingston and Mary Fialar.... Betty Magee worrying about the dog and cat situation at home.... Warner Marsden bumping head-on into someone while running around a corner in Sosh.... Bonnie Bishop and Elaine Shooka, choosing silver patterns.... Stanley Brewster with a beautiful black eye.... Jean Letwick and Bob Shellenberg playing hop-kick-and-jump between mud puddles.... Doris Eastman wishing she could tango.... Dick Doty deciding to go to class for a change.... Kay Hendy carrying dozens of candy boxes to and from Ellen Smith hall.... Harvey Lawrence and Jane Cleary always together.... Mary Heaton still managing to get by with her startling variety of masculine admirers.... Beta's Phi Delta and Sigma Chi's making big plans for the Triad.... Bob Wadhams looking for the society editor with murder in his heart.... Hammond McNish feeling the pangs of spring romance.... Delta Gamma's finally taking down the "Room and Board for Boys" sign from in front of their house.... Freshmen by the score spending many hours at the library—it's term paper season.... Betsy Allen walking out of English class immediately after roll call.... And everyone speculating as to the outcome of Ivy day honors.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made recently of the approaching marriage of Prof. James R. Wadsworth, instructor in the foreign language department at the university, to Hazel Grace McKay. The wedding will take place the first week in June.

POCKETS DIVULGE AMUSING PLAYTHINGS

The strangest things are being carried about the campus in people's pockets and purses these days. A thorough investigation hasn't been made but what has been discovered is most interesting. Barbara Seleck has been carrying a pair of unattached taps for dancing shoes around for days probably because there isn't enough room in the pocketbook for the shoes too. Jackie Gould is never without a life size photograph of a certain Omaha boy friend—probably to aggravate Paul Wertz when she thinks he is becoming too sure of her. Martin Mallette always carries a pair of pliers and a hammer in his pockets in case a wheel of his car falls off like it has many times just recently. Art Ball has been in possession of three pairs of ladies gloves for the past three weeks and is still trying to figure out which pair belongs to which girl friend just to avoid embarrassing moments when he finally returns them. In all of the S. A. E.'s pockets can be found numerous keys. They lock everything up so Bruce Kenny can't borrow their clothes. Bruce has a yen for wearing Henry Cushing's sweaters, it seems.

ALPHA Phi announces the recent initiation of Phyllis Baker, Curtis; Gretchen Boettcher, Columbus; Betty Bowman, Lincoln; Beattie Belle Brown, Lincoln; Mary Elizabeth Dickey, Lincoln; Eleanor Brown, Lincoln; Theoda Erickson, Lincoln; June Horton, Trenton; Patricia Jensen, Deadwood; Mildred Mansel, Cambridge; Charlene Omen, Red Oak, Ia.; Joan Patterson, Central City; Barbara Reht-meyer, Omaha; Pauline Seiffert, Norfolk; Marie Vogt, Nebraska City.

ATTENTION rather subsided for a while regarding Doug Sarason's private telephone. Again, however, this D. U. flash crashes print with the astounding news that this erstwhile convenience was removed from his room because of failure to pay the bill. Shame on you, Doug!

RECENTLY initiated into Sigma Eta Chi were Leona Brandes, Avoca, Ia.; Sally Peltier and Fern Bornemeier, both of Lincoln. Following initiation ceremonies, a breakfast honoring the new members was held at Beaumont's.

MEMBERS of the Omaha chapter of Kappa Sigma alumni visited the local chapter Tuesday, at which time they presented a prize of $25 and a plaque to Dick Spangler for being judged the best freshman by the active chapter.

THETA Xi announces the pledging of Merlin Schwegman of Midway, and Norman Johansen of Friend.

for either party and therefore would have to run as an independent, if at all. Though Farley, President Roosevelt and Senator Burke have urged him to file, he has not yet signified his intention of running. He says that he doesn't wish to run, but will if he can be convinced that it is his duty. Senator Burke, along with Farley, believes that Norris can be persuaded to run.

Terry Carpenter, the democratic nominee, has said that he will run even if Senator Norris enters the race. It is commonly supposed that he is a friend of Norris' and at first it was thought that he might retire and throw his support to the veteran senator, but heated and not-too-diplomatic opposition from Senator Burke has apparently angered Carpenter and made him resolve to spill Burke, Carpenter says. "Senator Edward R. Burke has made it impossible for me to withdraw from the race even if Senator Norris does file. I'm going to make a campaign the like of which this state has never seen before."

LEARN TANGO FROM MR. VALENTINO.

Classes Open to Both Men, Women From 5 to 6 Thursday.

Mr. Valentino, Hollywood, dancer, will teach students the Spanish tango, Thursday afternoon, from 5 to 6, according to Eleanor Neal, W. A. A. committee member helping with arrangements. Those desiring to learn the tango are asked to use the west door of the Armory. Both men and women are invited; the charge being 15 cents a person.

TRI-COLOR TRACKMEN VIE FOR NUMERALS AT FRIDAY CONTEST

Coaches Urge Freshmen to Report for Action in Annual Meet.

The postponed tri-color track and field meet is slated to be run off Friday afternoon as one of the best three way meets of the current season, according to track Coach Henry F. Schulte.

Harold Fetz, Ed Weir, and Charley Stout, team coaches, urged their men to report for action Friday, and with the incentive of freshman numeral sweaters and mercury foot awards, a good turnout is expected.

Bob Simmons and Wayne Yarcho, outstanding frosh runners, will run an exhibition race Friday at a Beatrice meet, but their times will count for their respective teams here.

There are about 15 outstanding freshmen who have distinguished themselves in past tri-color by placing first and who are expected to form an integral part of next year's track team.

Working out Wednesday, Dwight Whitaker, frosh jumper, sprinter, and hurdler, skinned over the 220 yard low hurdle course in 27.3 seconds. Yarcho, running alone, recorded a fast 24.1 seconds in the 220 yard dash.

JUDGES FOR SING, IVY DAY CONTEST REVEALED TODAY

twelve of their academic hours. The leader of the group must be a student in the university. The alumna may only help in the preparation for the sing. Each sorority will only be allowed to sing one song, and they must be prepared to sing when called upon.
Men's Requirements.
The only requirement for the men's group is that each singer must have been pledged to the fraternity with which he is competing by February 17, 1936. Each fraternity must submit a list of the members participating to the Kosmet Klub by five o'clock on Friday.

The fourteen sororities who have filed for competition are Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Chi Omega, Phi Omega, Phi Mu, Gamma Phi Beta, Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Delta Gamma, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Alpha Delta Theta.

All withdrawals must be made not later than Wednesday, May 6. The dollars which have been collected to pay part of the expense for inviting out of town judges, will not be refunded to sororities who withdraw.

EDUCATION SOCIETIES HOLD JOINT MEET.

C. Ray Gates to Talk On Possible Steps in School Legislation.

The mixed quartet is composed of Ilone Countryman, Lois Millhollin, Jack Finigan, and Elmer Powers, and the boys quartet is composed of Jack Finigan, Elmer Powers, William Southat, and Warren Templeton.

C. Ray Gates, superintendent of schools at Grand Island, will talk on "Next Steps in School Legislation." The dinner in charge of Lois Mullenberg, Adeline Howland, and Minnie Schlichting for Pi Lambda Theta and Dr. Warren Baller, Harold Wise and J. E. Loder for Phi Delta Kappa.

CIVIL ENGINEERS SEE COOLIDGE DAM SLIDES

Elmer L. Claussen and Lowell Newmeyer, engineering students, presented and explained Coolidge Dam slides which they collected and studied, at a meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers held last night. A short business meeting was conducted following the presentation of the slides.

BROADCAST BREVITIES

CROSBY TO SING WITH PHILADELPHIA SYMPHONIC.

The headliner of all tonight's air presentations is Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia orchestra who will take over the first half hour of the music hall program over WOW at 8 p. m. Max Merkel, screen comedienne who will sing her first song over the air, and Louis Prima's swing band will be Bob Burns' guests in the second 30 minutes with Bob Burns of Arkansas and Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra.

The two largest studios in NBC's Hollywood headquarters will be required for the broadcast. Crosby, his regular Music Hall cast and guest artist, will carry on from the regular Music Hall studio while Stokowski and his huge orchestra will "set-up" in an adjoining room. The Philadelphia orchestra will first be heard in several symphonic selections. Then Crosby will dash from his studio to Stokowski's to sing a solo with the world famous orchestra.

Another feature of the program will be the musical contrasts of three orchestras, each renowned in its own field—the symphonic, the swing of Jimmy Dorsey's Music Hall band, and the scorching "jam" rhythms of Prima and his New Orleans Five. Prima will play his newest composition, "Sing, Sing, Sing."

BEN BERNIE TO SKIPPER SHOW BOAT.

If the navigating's a bit dizzy on the Show Boat tonight it will only be because that old salt, Cap'n Ben Bernie, will be at the helm of the make-believe side-wheeler. The Old Maestro is going to be guest skipper at the broadcast over WOW at 7 p. m. and will take charge to present his own version of a show boat broadcast.

Other guest stars aboard will be Sam Hearn, the famous "Schlepperman" of Jack Benny's program, who will introduce a new rural character, and Walter Caspel, new NBC baritone sensation from Omaha, who will sing "Gypsy Trail." As for Bernie's vocal selections he has chosen, "It's a Lonesome Old Town" and "Everything Stops for Tea." Lanny Ross, tenor star of show boat, will also be heard in three numbers.

Ed Wynn will be on the air tonight over the Columbia system with his program entitled, "Gulliver The Traveler." He will have with him Lennie Hayton's orchestra, The Eight Lovely Girls, and the King's Merry Men. You can get it over KFAB at 7:30 p. m.

NEWS PARADE

Rushed Through

the house ahead of schedule with a three to one majority, the new federal tax bill is soon to come up in the senate for consideration. The senate finance committee is to start open hearings on the bill today. Members of the opposition made only one feeble attempt to halt the progress of the bill in the house by attempting to send it back to the ways and means committee, but this proposition was shouted down by supporters of the bill in a voice vote. The 250 page bill received only three minor amendments in the house. These three amendments were all passed by voice votes, with no audible opposition.

The Budget

will remain unbalanced by almost 3 billions if the bill passes the senate. There is no allowance for relief in the bill. Relief is expected to amount to over 2 billions. The proposed taxes will raise only 803 millions instead of the 1 billion 137 million originally asked by the president, so 334 million dollars more will be added to the deficit from this source.

A New System

of corporation taxation is expected to raise over three-fourths of the 803 millions. The new feature of the system of corporation taxation is a heavy tax on undivided profits, or surplus. This plan is expected to "soak the rich" who were previously able to escape taxation by leaving their earnings invested in the corporation in the form of undivided profits. It is also expected to have a favorable effect on business by making the payment of dividends necessary. This new tax along with the regular tax on corporation income is expected to raise 620 million dollars.

The New Amendments

added by the house were designed primarily to avoid the expected one hundred million dollar lag the first year due to the fact that the dividend year and the tax were not the same, and therefore many dividends paid out the first year escape taxation. The amendment made the tax year and the dividend year the same.

Democratic Ring-Leader,

Jim Farley, expects Senator Norris to be reelected to his place in the senate according to a statement made Tuesday. He declined to say whether or not he would support the democratic nominee, Terry Carpenter, in case Senator Norris refused to run on an independent ticket. Norris, a nominal republican but a supporter of the new deal, refused to file in the primaries
