

NEBRASKA CAMPUS SOCIAL WHIRL

SEEN ON THE CAMPUS.

Francis Holdman making 'steen trips between Andrews and Agwan office... Bill Sawtelle surprising Proessor Arndt by asking a question in class... Adna Dobson and Bob Ramey being conspicuous among those disappointed over the non-appearance of Jan Garber this weekend... Theta's going in for extensive porch sitting again... Mary Gavin and Jeanne Rowe hanging onto Ken Kee... Mary Austin looking very young with a hat tied under her chin... Howard and two of the brothers taking their afternoon nap in back of Administration building... Lots and lots of Sigma Nu's driving vari-colored convertibles around... Charles Reilly and Bill Gish having to walk home from a picnic... Dave Bernstein and Aaron Finkelstein blossoming out in sweaters exactly alike... Henrietta York and Smith Davis going places together quite consistently... Betty Rowland looking very smart in a spring green suit... Henry Remington displaying a smooth, new, brown and orange Pontiac... Carol Williams and Margaret Johnson piling Garbo with dark goggles... And every-one really beginning to get into the spirit of IVY day.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Kathryn Neely to Wayne Schammel, both of Lincoln. Both Miss Neely and Mr. Schammel have attended the university where Miss Neely is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

MOTHERS club of Sigma Kappa will meet for luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Davies. Spring flowers will be used as table decorations. About 20 are expected to be present.

PHI Mu alumnae entertained at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Robert Mallory, honoring the senior members of the active chapter. The regular business meeting followed the social hour. Assisting hostesses were Miss Gladys Hutchinson and Miss Ruth Kier.

THETA Xi auxiliary will meet Tuesday for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. George Reitter, in Eagle. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. G. B. Golding, Mrs. O. E. Kingery, and Mrs. Floyd Rawlings. About 15 are expected to attend.

MEMBERS of the Pharmaceutical club will entertain at a banquet and spring party Friday evening at Eastridge country club. Speakers at the banquet include Chancellor Burnett, Dean Thompson, Dr. Lyman, and Mr. Swakee of Nebraska City. About 300 bids have been issued to the dance which will follow the banquet. Chaperones for the affair will be members of the faculty of pharmacy college. Leonard Fleischer is in charge of general arrangements.

PHI Mu Mothers club will meet for luncheon Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Asa E. Fletcher in Omaha. Twenty mothers from Lincoln are expected to attend. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. John E. Elmberg, Mrs. R. C. Beavers, and Mrs. Prescott.

MARGARET Kerl of West Point, member of Alpha Omicron Pi who graduated in 1935, has accepted a position in connection with the tea room of the Walker Gordon laboratory company in Princeton, New Jersey. For the past year she has served as assistant dietician at Carrie Belle Raymond hall.

MRS. J. W. Bishop was elected president of the Hostess club of the university at the last meeting of the group held recently. Mrs. Caroline Phillips will serve as vice president and Mrs. Harrison M. Angle was chosen as secretary-treasurer.

DICK Schmidt, president of the Innocents and Delta Upsilon, informally announced his engagement to Mary Jane Mitchell, Kappa Kappa Gamma, by passing the cigars Monday night. Miss Mitchell duplicated his performance with candy at the Kappa house.

GEORGE Ann Lehr passed the candy at the Kappa Delta house Monday evening announcing her marriage Saturday to Clement Theobald. The wedding took place at the home of the bride. Andrew Price and Josephine Ferguson attended the couple.

of the Black Masque who pulled the queen's jirrikisha from the Temple theater to the throne. From five to twenty outstanding junior women are masked each year and thus initiated into Mortar Board society. The new members are selected by unanimous vote of the active members of the society.

Mortar Board sponsors a service program which includes Tassels, Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman convocation, freshman buttons, the tea honoring sophomores and junior women of high scholastic standing, and the various women's organizations. Mortar Board also gives four women's scholarships each year.

The Mortar Board party, to which coeds ask their own escorts and pay all expenses, is another project of this society.

Within the last two years Mortar Board has been the chief instrument in bettering women's politics in the university. Another recent project is the establishment of an Inter-Organization council of the presidents of all organized women's groups and other women student leaders for the purpose of creating stronger co-operation between the various organizations of the university.

MOTHERS club of Delta Gamma will meet for luncheon Friday afternoon at the chapter house. Spring flowers will center the tables, with pastel colored appointments being used thruout. The committee in charge of arrangements for the affair is headed by Mrs. W. B. Constock, assisted by Mrs. C. M. Skiles and Mrs. E. E. Rider.

CHAGRINED and amused were the Alpha Chi actives Monday night, May 4, when the pledges entertained at the annual "Song Banquet." Included in the program was a dance by Alice "Sally Rand" Richmond, impersonations with Alice Bainum and Elaine Wilson as Laurel and Hardy. Rachel Diller put Betty Boop to shame and Helen Jennings was "all right, all right" as Major Bowes. They closed their skit with bits of gore.

AUXILIARY of Alpha Gamma Rho entertained their husbands and the active chapter at a lawn picnic at the chapter house, Monday night. Seventy attended the affair.

AND MORE ABOUT IVY DAY.

With of man weather taking a turn for the better, prospects look good for a balmy Ivy day, Thursday. Those "in the know," are predicting big things in the way of who will be wearing Mortar Board masks, Innocents' robes, and especially those who will receive the crown of the queen of the May. No longer is it safe to venture out on one of these delightful evenings. Campus snoopers are hiding behind hedges and such places trying to seek the secret of their competitors' success in the sing. Delta Gamma's and Kappa Delta's, by great effort and if the wind is blowing in the right direction, can hear the Pi Phi's and Theta's do their vocal best or worst, as the case may be. Fraternities, especially Sigma Nu's, are taking life easy these days, and will probably not start worrying about the big event until Wednesday evening. All in all, however, the day of days promises to be a huge success, and if nothing more, we can always be thankful that we get out of Thursday classes.

ALUMNAE of Mortar Board will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. D. Coleman. Election of officers will be held and Mrs. Coleman will tell of her visits to other chapters. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Frank Beers, Miss Alice Davis, and Miss Helen Eastman.

RECENTLY announced is the marriage of Miss Harriet Eleanor Brown of Atwood, Kas. to Orris R. Ireland which took place April 26 at Atwood. Mrs. Ireland is a graduate of the university and is a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

PI Beta Phi alumnae will meet for luncheon Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. G. Caldwell, when the seniors of the active chapter will be honored guests. Assisting hostesses will be Miss Alice Howell, Miss Anne Stuart, Mrs. Oliver Everett, Mrs. Richard Rogers, and Mrs. John E. Houston.

ACTIVES and pledges of Kappa Sigma entertained their mothers at a dinner at the chapter house Sunday afternoon. Table decorations were carried out in spring flowers. About 80 were present at the affair.

THREE BUSINESS FIRMS TO TALK TO STUDENTS

Interested Seniors Apply At Bullock's Office This Week.

Three business firms are interviewing seniors this week interested in merchandising and selling activities, according to Prof. T. T. Bullock, head of the Eizad placement bureau.

Tuesday C. T. Gibson of Gamble Skagmo will interview those interested in merchandising as a career, as will a representative of the Proctor Gamble company who is looking for students with interests in selling, accompanied by talent in the advertising line.

Wednesday Mr. Maurice Hannaford of Beatrice and a Nebraska alumnus will be here as a representative of the J. C. Penny stores. Arrangements to meet these interviewers may be made in Professor Bullock's office Tuesday morning.

ORDER FOR SORORITIES IN SING CONTEST IVY DAY ANNOUNCED

The contest. For the past two years members of Kappa Alpha Theta have won the honors in the sorority contest, while Sigma Phi Epsilon was declared the winner of the fraternity sing for the past year. Any group winning the cup for three successive years is entitled to keep the trophy permanently. The cup which will be awarded in the intrasorority sing for this celebration is on display in the window of Long's Book Store at the present time.

Judges Named.
Judges who have been named for the sing are: Professors Charles Amedon of York, Arthur Elyer of Crete, and Mrs. Olive Seemark of Lincoln.

Rules of the contest which have been set up for the sorority sing state that no group which has entered may compete with a group of less than five members. All singers in the women's division must be passing in at least twelve of their academic hours, and the leader of the group must be a student in the university. The alumna may only help in the preparation for the sing. Each sorority will be allowed to sing only one

Social Chairmen Hold Meeting at 7:30 Tonight

Members of the Social Chairmen's club will meet at the Alpha Phi house at 7:30 o'clock this evening. It is urgent that all social chairmen for the last and the present semester attend the meeting. Arrangements are to be made for another social chairmen's stag party.

For the men's groups, the only requirement is that each singer must have been pledged to the fraternity with which he is competing by February 17, 1936.

Any group wishing to withdraw from participation in the sing must file their intention to do so by Tuesday noon, May 5, according to the announcement made by Miss Yoder.
